24 Seventie weekes are determined upon thy people, & upon thine holy cite, to finish the wickednesse, and to seale up the sinnes, and to reconcile the iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seale up the vision and prophesie, and to anoint the most holy.

25 Know therefore & understand, that from the going forth of the commandement to bring againe the people, & to build Jerusalem, unto the prince, shall be seven weekes, and three score and two weekes, and the street shall be built againe, and the wall even in a troublous time.

26 And after threescore and two weekes, shall Jerusalem be flaine, and shall have nothing, and the people of the prince that shall come, shall despoile the cite and the Sanctuary, and the end thereof shall be with a flood: and unto the end of the battell it shall be destroyed by desolations.

27 And hee shall confirme the covenant with many for one weeke: and in the mids of the weeke he shall cause the sacrifice & the oblation to cease, & for the overflowing of the abominations, hee shall make it desolate, even untill the consummation determined shall be powred upon the desolate.

There appereth unto Daniel a man clothed in linen, 11 Which sheweth him wherefore he is sent.

12 A third pere of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed unto Daniel (whose name was called Belteshazzar) & the word was true, but the time appointed was long, & he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

13 And hee said unto me, Daniel, I have now come forth to give thee knowledge and understanding.

2 At the same time, I Daniel was in heaven, for three weekes of daies.
3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint my selfe at all, till three weekes of daies were fulfilled.

4 And in the four & twentieth day of the first moneth, as I was by the side of that great river, even Hiddekel,

5 And I lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there was a man clothed in linen, whose loines were girded with fine golde of Ephaz.

6 His body also was like the Chypsolite, and his face (to looke upon) like the lightning, and his eyes as lampes of fire, and his armes and his feet were like in colour to polished hyasse, & the voyce of his wordes was like the voyce of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone sawe the vision: for the men that were with me, sawe not the vision: but a great feare fel upon them, so that they fled away and hid them selves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and sawe this great vision, & there remained no strength in me: for my strength was turned in me into corruption, & I retained no power.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his wordes: and when I heard the voyce of his wordes, I slept on my face: and my face was toward the ground.

10 And behold, an hande & touched me: which set me up upon my knees & upon the palmes of mine handes,

11 And hee sayde unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the wordes that I speake unto thee, and stande in thy place: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had sayd this word unto me, I kneeed trembling.

12 Then sayd he unto me, Feare not, Daniel: for fro the first day that thou diddest set thine heart to understand, and to humble thy selfe before thy God, thy wordes were heard, and I am come for thy wordes.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstoode me one and twentie dayes: but lo, Michael one of the chiefe princes, came to helpe me, and I remained there by the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to shew thee what shall come to thy people in the latter daies: for yet the vision is for many dayes.

15 And when hee spake these wordes unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and helde my tongue.

16 And behold, one like the similitude of the sonnes of man touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and sayd unto him, I stood before thee, & my loide by the vision my sorowes are returned upon me, & I have retained no strength.
17 For how can I servant of this my loide talke with my loide being such one? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

2 And now will I shewe thee the trueth. Beholde, there shall stand vp per three kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be sacre richer then they all: and by his strength, and by his riches hee shall stirre vp all against the realme of Grecia.

4 And when he shall stand vp, his kingdome shall be broken, and shall be deuoted toward the foure winde of heauen: and not to his posteritie, nor according to his dominion, which he ruled: for his kingdome shall be plucked vp, even to be for others besides those.

5 And the king of the South shall be mightie, and one of his princes, and shall pynnaile against him, and beare rule: his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the ende of yeeres they shall be ioyned together: for the Kings daughters vp all the East countries to fight against the Grecians: & albeit he had in his armie nine hundred thousand me, yet in foure battels he was discomfited and fled away w shame.

He sheweth that he shall not only win the Egypte, but also the Iewes, and shall enter into their country, where he aduanceth them, that they may knowe that all these things come by Gods providence.

17 Again he shal set his face to enter with the power of his whole kingdom, and his considerations with him: thus shall he do, as he shall give him the daughter of women, to be his wife: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turne his face vnto his people, and shall take many, but a prince shall cause his shame to light vpon him, beside that he shall cause his owne shame to turne vpon himselfe.

19 For he shall turne his face towards the fortres of his owne lande: but he shall be overthrown and fall, and be no more to be founde.

20 Then shall stand up in his place in the glory of the kingdom, one that shall raise tares: but after fewe dayes he shall be destroyed, neither in warre, nor in battell.

21 And in his place shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtaine the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And the armes shall be overthrown with a flood before him, and shall be broken: and also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him, he shall worke deceitfull: for he shall come up, and overcome with a small people.

24 He shall enter into the quiet and plentifull prouince, as he shall do that which his fathers haue not done, nor his fathers fathers: he shall denide among them the play and the spoyle, as the substance, pea, and he shall forecast his denices agaynst the strong holdes, vntill he come to a time.

25 Also he shall strike by his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great armie, and the king of the South shall be stirred vp to battell with a very great and mighty armie: but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast and 26 Pea, they that seeke of the portion of his inuete, shall destroy him: and his armie shall overflow: and many shall fall, princes and the chief about him.

Hosea.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the ten tribes had fallen away from God by the wicked and subtle counsel of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, and in steade of his true service commaunded by his worde worshipping him according to their owne fantasies & traditions of men, giuing themselves to molle idolatrie and superstition, the Lord from time to time sent them Prophets to call them to repentance: but they grew ever worse and worse, and still abused Gods benefices. Therefore nowe when their prosperitie was at the highest vnder Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash, God sent Hosea and Amos to the Israelites (as hee did at the same time Isaiah and Micah to them of Iudah) to condemn them of their ingratitude: and where as they thought themselves to be greatly in the fauour of God, and to be his people, the Prophet calleth them bastards and children borne in adulterie: and therefore sheweth them that God would take away their kingdome, and giue them to the Assyrians to be led away captiues. Thus Hosea faithfully executed his office for the space of seuentie yeres, though they remained still in their vices and wickednesse, & derided the Prophets, and contemned Gods iudgements. And because they should neither be discouraged with threatenings only, nor yet flatter themselves by the sweetnesse of Gods promises, he setteth before them the two principall partes of the Lawe, which are the promise of saluation, and the doctrine of life: for the first part he directeth the faithfull to Messiah, by whome onely they should haue true deliuerance: and for the second, hee vseth threatenings and menaces to bring them from their wicked manners and vices, & this is the chiefe scope of all the Prophets, cyther by Gods promises to allure them to be godly, els by threatenings of his iudgements to feare them from vice: and albeit that the whole Lawe containe these two points, yet the Prophets moreouer note peculiarly both the time of Gods iudgements and the manner.

CHAP. I.

The time wherein Hosea prophesied. 2 The idolatrie of the people. 3 The calling of the Gentiles. 4 Christ is the head of all people.

I The worde of the Lord that came vnto Hosea the sonne of Beeri, in the dayes of Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash, king of Iudah, and Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash king of Israel.

2 At the beginning the Lord spake by Hosea, and the Lord said vnto Hosea, Goe, take vnto thee a wife: & of fornications, and children of fornications: for the land hath committed great whoredome, departing from the Lord.

3 So she went, and tooke a Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, which conceived and bare him a sonne.

4 And the Lord said vnto him, Call his name Israel: for yet a litle, and I will visite the blood of Israel vpon the house of Iehu, and will cause to cease the kingdome of the house of Israel.

5 And at that a day will I also breake the bowe of Israel in the valley of Izeel.

6 She conceived yet againe, and bare a daughter, & God said vnto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more haue pittie vpon the house of Israel: but I will utter it: take them away.

7 Yet I will haue mercie vpon the house of Iudah, and will not saue them by the sword, nor by sword, nor by battle, by hoiles, nor by hoisen.

8 Nowe when she had waigned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a sonne.

9 Then saide God, Call his name I Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people: therefore will I not be yonre.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shalbe as the sande of the sea, which cannot be measured nor tolde: and in the place where it was said vnto them, they are not my people, it shalbe said vnto them, Ye are the sonnes of the liuing God, the means of Cyrus, Ezra, &c.

11 Then shall the children of Iudah, & the children of Israel be gathered together, I that is not, and appoint themselves one heade, and my people they shall come vnto the lande: for great is the day of Izeel.

Meaning, that their idolatrie was so great, that they were not ashamed, but boasted of it, Ezek. 16. 35.

For though this people were as an harlot for their idolatries, yet he had left them with their apparell & downe and certaine signes of his fauour, but if they continued still, he would utterly destroy them.

I will haue no pittie vpon her childre: for they be the children of fornications. For their mother hath played the harlot: she that cosened them, hath done shamefully: for she sayde, I will goe after my louers: that giue me my bread and my water, my wooll and my flaxe, mine oyle and my drinke.

Therefore beholde, I will stoppe thy way with thornes, and make an hedge, that she shall not finde her pathes.

Though she followe after her louers, yet shall she not come at them: though she seeke them, yet shall she not finde them: then shall she say, I will go and retorne to my first husband: for at that time was I better then now.

And now will I discover her = telusnes in the sight of her louers, and no man shall deliuer her out of mine hand.

I will also cause all her nirth to cease: her feast dayes, her new moones, and her Sabbaths, and all her solemne feastes.

A complaint against the people, and the Priests of Irael.

whores: therefore the people that doeth not vnderstand, shall fall. 15 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Iudah sinne: come not pee vnto Bethgal, neither go ye vp to Beth-aven, nor swear, The Lord iurth. 16 For Israel is rebellious as an vniuersity: hee shall the Lord will feede them as a lambe in a large place. 17 Ephraim is torped to idoles: let him as lone. 18 Their drunkennes stinketh: they haue committed whoresome: their rulers loue to lay with shame. 19 The wine hath bound them vp in their whorings, and they shalbe ashamed of their sacrifices. 20 He calleth Beth-el, that is, house of God, because of their iniquitie, because of their abominations: let there, signifying, that no place is holy, where God is not purely worshipped. 21 God wil so disperse them that they shall not remaine in any certaine place. 22 They are so impudent in receiving bribes, that they wil command men to bring them vnto them. 23 To cary them suddenly away. 24 The Priests & rulers of Israel. 25 The Priests & rulers of Israel, and give peace, & house of the king: for Iudges ment is towards pou, because pou haue bene a snare on Ephraim, and a net spied vpon Iudah. 26 Yet they were profounde, to decline to laughter, though I haue bene a rebuker of them all. 27 I knowe Ephraim, & Israel is not hid from me: for now Ephraim, thou art become an harlot, Israel is defiled. 28 They wil not give their whorers to turne vnto their God: for the spirit of fornication is in the mids of them, and they haue not knowne the Lord. 29 And the pride of Israel doth testifie to his face: therefore shall Israel & Ephraim fall in their iniquitie: Iudah also shall fall with them. 30 They shall go with their sheepe, and with their bullocks to seek the Lord: but they shal not finde him: for he hath withdrawn himselfe from them. 31 They haue transgressed against the Lord: for they haue begotten strange children: now shall I moue denounce them with their portions. 32 Blow ye the trumpet in Gibeah, & the shawme in Ramath: cry out at Beth-aven, & after the Beniamin. 33 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel haue I caused to know the truth. 34 The princes of Iudah were like them that remove the bound: therefore will I powre out my wrath vpon the like water. 35 Ephraim is oppressed, and broken in

God coplay: Iudah is infected, and willeth them to learne by example to returne in time. 36 For albeith the Lord had honored this place in his presence, yet because it was abused by their idolatrie, he would not that his people should relore to God, Beth-aven, where Iudah had committed sinne, & Beth-gal, where Ephraim had committed sinne. 37 The Priests & princes caught the poore people in their snares as the fowles did in these two high mountaines. 38 Notwithstanding they were together to haue, & to haue, which here he calleth laughter in contempt. 39 Though I had admonished them continually by my Prophets, they boasted themselves not only to be Israelites, but also Ephraimites, because their king Ieroboam came of that tribe. 40 Meaning, their contemning of all admonitions, & their disobedience to all that is, their children are deenerate, so that there is no hope in them. 41 Their destruction is not farre off. 42 That is, all Israel comprehended vnder this part, signifying that the Lords plagues shoulde pursue them from place to place till they were destroyed. 43 By success they shall knowe that I haue surely determined this. 44 They haue turned vpside downe all politick order, & all manner of religion.

1 Israel is an empty vine, yet hath it brought forth fruit unto it selfe, and according to the multitude of the fruit thereof he hath increased the altars: as coming to the goodnesse of their lande they haue made faire images.

2 Their heart is debased: now shall they be founde faultie: he shall breake downe their altars: he shall destroy their images.

3 For nowe they shall saue, We haue no king because we feared not the Lord: and what should a king doe to vs?

4 They haue spoken words, swearing falsly in making a covenant: thus iudgement groweth as wormewood in the furrows of the fildes.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall feare, because of the calfe of Beth-el: for the people thereof shall mourne ouer it, and the Chemarims thereof, that trooped on it for the glory thereof, because it is departed from the Lord.

6 It shall be alio brought to Ashtur, for a present unto king Iared: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his owne counsell.

7 Of Samaria, king thereof is destroyed, as the founte vpon the water.

8 The tree places also of Asten shall be destroyed, euen the founte of Israel: yf thornes and the thistle shall growe vpon their altars, & they shall say to the mountaines, & Couer vs, & to the hilles, Fall vpon vs.

9 O Israel, thou shalt be shamed from the dayes of Gibeah: there thou stoodest the battell in Gibeah against the children of iniquitie did not touch them.

10 It is my desire that I should chastise them, and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall gather their felices in their two furrowes.

11 And Ephraim is as an heffer yoked to beare life: in the thing: but I will passe by her necke: I will make Ephraim to ride: Iudah shall plow, and Iacob shall brake his cloddes.

12 Sowe to your felices in righteousness: reape after p measure of mercie: breake by your fallowye ground: for it is time to secke the Lord, till he come and raine righte righteousness vpon you.

13 Because you plowed wickednesse: ye haue reaped iniquitie: you haue eaten the fruites of liues: because thou diddest trust in thine owne wapes, and in the multitude of thy strong men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy munitions shall be destroyed, as Samaria destroyed Beth-el.

The benifits of the Lords towards Israel. 5 Their ingratitude against him.

W hen Israel was a childe, then I loved him, and called my sonne out of Egypt.

2 They called him, but they went thus from them: they sacrificed vnto Baalim, and burnt incense to images.

3 I led Ephraim also, as one should beare them in his armes: but they knewe not that I healed them.

4 I led them with cordes of manim, euen with bands of loue, and I was to them, as he that taketh off the yoke from their iawes, & I laid the meate vnto them.

5 Ye shall no more retorne into the land of Egypt: but Ashtur shall be a king, because they refused to conuert.

6 And the sworde shall fall on his cities, and shall consume his battres, & deuoure them, because of their owne counsells.

7 And my people are bent to rebellion against me: though they called them to y most he, yet none at all would craie him.

8 How shall I giue thee vp, Ephraim? how shall I deliuer thee, Israel? how shall I make thee, as a Balaam? how shall I set thee, as Zeboun? mine heart is turned within me: my repentings are rouled together.

9 I will not execute the fiercenesse of my wrath: I will not retorne to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man, the holy one in the middes of thee, and I will not enter into the cite.

10 Then shall walke after the Lord: he shall roare like a lion: when he shall roare, then the children of the West shall feare.

11 They shall feare as a sparrowe out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Ashtur, and I will place them in their houles, saith the Lord.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lyes, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Iudah per ruleth with God, and is faithful with the Saints.

8 How shall I giue thee vp, Ephraim? how shall I deliuer thee, Israel? how shall I make thee, as a Balaam? how shall I set thee, as Zeboun? mine heart is turned within me: my repentings are rouled together.

9 I will not execute the fiercenesse of my wrath: I will not retorne to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man, the holy one in the middes of thee, and I will not enter into the cite.

10 Then shall walke after the Lord: he shall roare like a lion: when he shall roare, then the children of the West shall feare.

11 They shall feare as a sparrowe out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Ashtur, and I will place them in their houles, saith the Lord.

Ioel.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Prophet Ioel firſt rebuketh them of Iudah, that being now puniſhed with a great plague of famine, remaine ſtill obſtinate. Secondly he threatneth greater plagues, becauſe they grew dayly to a more hardnes of heart, and rebellion againſt God notwithstanding his puniſhments. Thirdly he exhorteth them to repentance, ſhewing that it muſt be earnest, & procede from the heart becauſe they had grievouſly offended God. And ſo doing, he promiſeth that God will be mercifull, and not forget his covenant that he made with their fathers: but will ſende his Chriſt who ſhall gather the ſcattered ſheepe, and reſtore them to life, and liberie, though they ſeemed to be dead.

CHAP. I.

1 A prophecie againſt the Iewes. 2 He exhorteth the people to prayer and faſting, for the miſerie that was at hand.

1 The word of the Lord came to Ioel the ſonne of Bethuel.

2 Heare ye this, O Elders, and hearken ye all inhabitants of the land, whether ſuch a thing hath bene in your dayes, or per in the dayes of your fathers.

3 Tell you your children of it, and let your children ſhewe to their children, and their children to another generation.

4 That which is left of the palmer womne, hath the graſhopper eaten, and the reſidue of the graſhopper hath the canker womne eaten, and the reſidue of the canker womne hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake ye drunkards, and weepe, and howle all ye drinkers of wine, becauſe of the newe wine: for it ſhalbe pulled from your mouth.

6 Pea, a nation cometh vpon my lande, mightie, and without number, whoſe teeth are like the teeth of a lyon, and he hath the lawes of a great lyon.

7 He maketh my vine waſte, and piſſeth off the barked of my figge tree: he maketh it bare, and caſteth it downe: the byanches thereof are made white.

8 Spurne like a virgine girded with ſackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meate offering, and the drinke offering is cut off from the houſe of the Lord: the prieſtes the Lords miniſters mourne.

10 The ſeldie is waſted: the lande mourneth: for the corne is deſtroyed: the newe wine is dried vp, and the oyle is decayed.

11 Be ye aſhamed, O husbandmen: howle, O ye vine dyellers for the wheate, and for the barley, becauſe the harneſt of the ſeldie is periſhed.

12 The vine is dried vp, and the figge tree is decayed: the pomegranate tree and the palme tree, and the apple tree, euen all the trees of the field are withered: ſurely

the ioy is withered away from ſommes of men.

13 Crie your felues and lament, ye prieſtes: howle ye miniſters of the altar: come, and lie all night in ſackcloth, ye miniſters of my God: for the meate offering, and the drinke offering is taken away from the houſe of your God.

14 Sanctifie you a faſt: call a ſolemne aſſembly: gather the Elders, & all the inhabitants of the lande into the houſe of the Lord your God, & crie vnto the Lord.

15 Alas: for the day, for the day of the Lord is at hand, and it cometh as a deſtruction from the Almighty.

16 Is not the meate cut off before our eyes, and ioy, and gladnes from the houſe of our God?

17 The ſeed is rotten vnder their clothes: the garners are deſtroyed: the barnes are broken downe, for the corne is withered. 18 How did the beaſts mourne: the herds of cattell pine away, becauſe they haue no paſture, and the flockes of ſheepe are deſtroyed.

19 O Lord, to thee will I crie: for the fire hath deuoured the paſtures of the wilde beaſtes, and the flame hath burnt vp all the trees of the ſeldie.

20 The beaſtes of the ſeldie crie alſo vnto thee: for the riuers of waters are dried vp, and the fire hath deuoured the paſtures of the wilde beaſtes.

- 7 They shall runne like strong men, and go up to the wall like men of warre, & every man shall goe forward in his wayes, and they shall not stay in their pathes.

- 11 And the Lord shall be vnto his voice before his host: for his host is very great: for he is strong that doeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?
- 12 Therefore also now the Lord saith, Turne you vnto me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.
- 13 And set your heart, & not your clothes: and turne vnto the Lord your God, for he is gracious, and mercifull, slow to anger, and of great kinde, and repenteth him of the euill.
- 14 Who knoweth, if he will returne and repent and leave a blessing behind him, euen a meate offering, and a drinke offering vnto the Lord your God?
- 15 Blowe the trumpet in Zion, sanctifie a fast, call a solemn assembly.
- 16 Gather the people: sanctifie the congregation, gather the elders: asseemble the children, & those that sucke the breasts: let the bide come go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her hyde chamber.
- 17 Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord wepe betwene the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and giue not thine heritage into reproche that the heathen shoulde rule ouer them. Wherefore shoulde they say among the people, Where is their God?
- 18 Then will the Lord be zealous ouer his land, and will reuenge his people.
- 19 Psea, the Lord will answer & say vnto his people, Beholde, I will send you come, and wine, and oyle, and you shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reioyce among the heathen.
- 20 But I will remove farre off from you

- 21 Feare not, O laude, but be glad, and reioyce: for the Lord will do great things, we not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness are greene: for the tree beareth her fruite: the figtree and the vine doe giue their force.
- 22 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and reioyce in the Lord your God: for he hath giuen you the raine of righteousness, and he will cause to come downe for you the raine, euen the first raine, and the latter raine in the first month.

- 26 Ye shall also knowe, that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God and none other, and my people shall never be ashamed.
- 27 And afterwarde will I reuenge our sinne Spirit upon all flesh: and your sonnes & your daughters shall prophesie: your olde men shall dreame dreames, and your young men shall see visions.

- 30 The sunne shall be turned into darkness, and the moone into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come.
- 31 But whosoever shall call on the Name of the Lord, shall be saved: for in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem shall be deliuered, as the Lord hath sayde, and in the remnant, when the Lord shall call.

C H A P. III.

Of the iudgement of God against the enemies of his Church.

Behold, in those daies and in that time, when I shall bring againe the captiuitie of Iudah and Jerusalem, of the Gentiles.

I will also gather all nations, and will bring them downe into the valley of the great victory of Iehoshaphat, when as God shall helpe destroyed the enemies.

2 Chro. 20. 26. alse he hath respect to this worde Iehoshaphat, which signifieth pleading for iudgement, because God would iudge the enemies of his Church as he did the Iehoshaphat.

c That which enemy gate for the sale of my people, he bestowed vpon harlots and drinke. d He taketh the cause of his Church in hande against the enemy, as though the iniurie were done to himself. e Haue I done you wrong, that ye will render me the like? f For afterward God sold them by Nebuchadnezzar, and Alexander the great, for the loue he bare to his people, and thereby they were comforted as though the price had bene theirs. g When I shall execute my iudgments against mine enemies, I will cause euery one to be ready, & to prepare their weapons to destroy one another, for my Church sake.

Jehoshaphat, and will pleade with them there for my people, & for mine heritage Israel, whom they haue scattered among the nations, and parted my land. 3 And they haue cast lottes for my people, and haue giuen the childe for the harlot, & sold the girle for wine, that they might drinke. 4 Pea, and what haue you to doe with me, O Tyne & Sidon and all the coastes of Palestina? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I render your recompence vpon your head: 5 For ye haue taken my silver & my golde, and haue carped into your temples my goodly and pleasant things. 6 The children also of Iudah and the children of Ierusalem haue you sold into the Grecians, that ye might sende them farre from their border. 7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place where ye haue sold them, and will render your reward vpon your owne head, 8 And I will sel your sonnes & your daughters into the hande of the children of Iudah, and they shall sell them to the Sabaeans, to a people farre off: for I loyde hath spoken it. 9 Publish this among the Gentiles: prepare warre, wake vp the mightie men: let all the men of warre drawe nexe and come vp. 10 Break your plowshares into swords, and your stiches into speares: let the weak say, I am strong. 11 Makeable your scutres, & come all ye heas then & gather your selues together round about: there shall the Lord call downe the mightie men. 12 Let the heathen bee wakened, and come up to the battell of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to iudge all the heathen rounde about.

13 Put in your stiches, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you downe, for the wine presse is full: pea, the wine presses runne ouer, for their wickednesse is great. 14 A multitude, & multitude, come into the battell of the thing: for the day of the Lord is nere in the battell of the thing. 15 The sunne and moone shall be darkened, and the starres shall withdrawe their light. 16 The Lord also shall roare out of Zion, & utter his voyce from Ierusalem, and the heauens and the earth shall shake, but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. 17 So shall ye knowe that I am the Lord dwelling in Zion, mine help is about me: then shall Ierusalem be holie, and there shall no strangers goe through her any more. 18 And in that day shall the mountaynes be drowne vnder wine, and the hills shall flowe with milke, and all the riuers of Iudah if they do, it shall runne with waters, and a fountaine shall come forth of the house of the Lord, by their fennes and shall water the battell of Shittim. 19 Egypt shall be wast, and Edom shall be for the enemy, a desolate wilderness, for the iniuries of the children of Iudah, because they haue shed innocent blood in their land. 20 But Iudah shall dwell for euer, and Ierusalem from generation to generation. 21 For I will cleanse their blood, that I should water haue not cleansed, and the Lord will dwell in Zion. 22 The malicious enemies shall haue no part of this grace. 23 He had suffered his Church hitherto to lie in their filthinesse, but now he prometh to cleanse them and to make them pure vnto him.

Amos.

THE ARGUMENT.

AMONG many other Prophetes that God rayed vp to admonishe the Israelites of his plagues for their wickednesse and idolatrie, he stirred vp Amos, who was an heardman or shepheard of a poore towne, and gaue him both knowledge and constancie to reprove all estates and degrees, and to denounce Gods horrible iudgements against them, except they did in time repent: shewing them, that if God spare not the other nations about them, who had liued as it were in ignorance of God in respect of them, but for their sinnes will punish them, that they could looke for nothing, but an horrible destruction, except they turned to the Lord by vnfeined repentance. And finally, he comforteth the godly with hope of the coming of the Messiah, by whome they should haue perfit deliuerance and saluation.

herdes shall perish, and the top of Carmel shall wither. 6 Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Damascus, and for foure, I shortly will not turne to it, because they haue shed blood 5 I will breake also the barres of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant of Bikesath: and him that holdeth the scepter out of Beth-edon, and the people of Ham shall goe into captiuitie vnto him, saith the Lord.

6 Thus saith the Lord, For thine transgressions of Hizzah, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they caried away prisoners the whole captiuitie to shut them by in Edom.

7 Therefore will I sende a fire vpon the walles of Hizzah, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Hizzah, and him that holdeth the scepter from Hizzah, and turne mine hand to Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 Thus saith the Lord, For thine transgressions of Tyrus, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they shut h whole captiuitie in Edom, and haue not remembered the brotherly covenant.

10 Therefore will I sende a fire vpon the walles of Tyrus, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

11 Thus saith the Lord, For thine transgressions of Edom, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because he did pursue his brother with the sword, & did cast off all pietie, and his anger spoiled him euermore, & his wrath watched him alway.

12 Therefore will I sende a fire vpon Teman, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Bozrah.

13 Thus saith the Lord, For thine transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they haue ript by the women with child of Silead, that they might enlarge their border.

14 Therefore will I kindle a fire in the wall of Habbah, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battell, and with a tempest in the day of the whirlewinde.

15 And their king shall goe into captiuitie, hee and his yunges together, saith the Lord.

CHAP. II.

Against Moab, Iudah, and Israel.

1 Thus saith the Lord, For thine transgressions of Moab, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because it burnt the bones of h king of Edom into lime.

2 Therefore will I send a fire vpon Moab, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Kerioth, and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sounde of a trumpet.

3 And I will cut off the iudge out of the mids thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the Lord.

4 Thus saith the Lord, For thine transgressions of Iudah, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they haue cast away the lawe of the Lord, and haue not kept his commandements, and their lies hath instructed of the Lordes will, might not thinke to escape.

5 Therefore will I sende a fire vpon Iudah, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Ierusalem.

6 Thus saith the Lord, For thine transgressions of Israel, and for foure, I will not turne to it, because they solde h righteous for siluer, and the poore for shooes.

7 They gaue ouer the head of the poore in the dust of the earth, and peruert the lawes of the meeke: and a man and his father will goe in to a maid to dishonour mine holy Name.

8 And they lye downe vpon clothes layde to pledge: by euery altar: and they drinke the wine of the condemned in the house of their God.

9 Yet destroyed I h Amozite before the, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and hee was strong as the oke: notwithstanding I destroyed his fruite from aboue, and his roote from beneath.

10 Also I brought you by from the lande of Egypt, and ledde you scourie peeres thowowe the wilderness, to possesse h land of the Amozite.

11 And I raised up of your sonnes for Prophets, and of your young men for Hazarites, Is it not euen thus, O pe children of Israel, saith the Lord?

12 But pee gaue the Hazarites wine to drinke, and commanded the Prophets, saying, Propheticie not.

13 Beholde, I am pressed vnder you as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaues.

14 Therefore the sight shall perish from the swift, & the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mightie saue his life.

15 For hee that handleth the bow, shall stande, and he that is swift of foote, shall not escape, neither shall he that rideth the horse, saue his life.

16 And hee that is of mightie courage among the strong men, shall see alway naked in that day, saith the Lord.

hath not done it?

7 Surely the Loide God will doe nothing,

but hee reuellerh his secret vnto his ser-uants the Prophets.

8 The Lyon hath roared: who will not be afraide? the Loide God hath spoken: who can but y<sup>e</sup> prophete?

9 Proclame in the palaces at <sup>1</sup> Nibod,

and in the palaces in the land of Egypt,

and say, Assemble your selues vpon the mountaines of Samaria: so beholde the great tumults in the mids thereof, and the oppressed in the mids thereof.

10 For they knowe not to doe right, sayth

the Loide: they stoye vp violence, and rob-berie in thyr palaces.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Loide God, An aduersarie shall come euen rounde about the countrey, and shall bring downe thyr strength from thence, and thyr palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus sayth the Loide, As the shepheard

taketh out of y<sup>e</sup> mouth of the lyon two legges, or a peece of an eare: so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell

in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Danabene, as in a couche.

sayth the Loide God, the God of hostes.

14 Surely in the day that I shall visite the transgressions of Israel vpon him, I will also visite the altars of Beth-el, and the hounes of the altar shall be broken off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will suite the winter house with the summer house, & the houses of puerie shall perish, and the great houses shall be consumed, sayth the Loide.

CHAP. III.

Against the gouernours of Samaria.

Hear this woide, ye kine of Basshan that are in the mountaine of Samaria, which oppresse the poore,

and despoile the needie, and they lye to their masters, saying, and let vs drinke.

The Loide God hath sworne by his ho-lines, that lo, y<sup>e</sup> daies shall come vpon you,

ye will take you away with thornes,

and your posteritie with filthe hookes.

And ye shal go out at the breaches euer

lowe forwarde: and ye shall cast your selues out of the palace, sayth the Loide.

4 Come to 2 Beth-el, and transgresse: to have authoritie over y<sup>e</sup> people, to poule them, so y<sup>e</sup> they may have profit by it.

c He alludeth to fishers which catch fish by hookes & thornes.

d He speaketh this in contempt of them which resorted to these places, thinking that their great deuotion and good invention had bene sufficient to haue bounde God vnto them.

Gilgal, and multiple transgression, and bring your sacrifices in the morning, and your cities after thre perces.

5 And offer a thanksgiving of leauen,

publish and proclaiming the free offerings:

for this is lieth you, O ye children of Israel, sayth the Loide God.

6 And therefore haue I giuen you clea-nes of teeth in all your cities, and scarce-

nes of bread in all your places, yet haue ye not returned vnto mee, sayth the Loide.

7 And also I haue withholden the raine

from you, when there were yet thre

moneths to the harvest, and I caused it to raine vpon one cite, & haue not caused it to raine vpon another cite: one

peece was rained vpon, and the peece

whereunto it rained not, withered.

8 So two or thre cities wandered vnto one cite to drinke water, but they were not satisfied: yet haue ye not returned vnto

me, sayth the Loide.

9 I haue smitten you with blasting and

midew: your great gardenes and your vineyardes, & your figge trees, and your olue trees did the palmier woyme deuoure: yet haue ye not returned vnto me,

sayth the Loide.

10 Forasmuch haue I sent among you, after the manner of Egypt: your poing men haue I slaine with the sword, and haue taken away your horses: and I

haue made the drinke of your wines to come vnto you into your nostrils: yet haue

ye not returned vnto me, sayth the Loide.

11 I haue ouerthrowen you, as God ouerthrowe Sodom and Gomorah: and ye were as a fire brand plucked out of the burning: yet haue ye not returned vnto

me, sayth the Loide.

12 Therefore, thus will I doe vnto thee, O

Israel: and because I will doe this vnto thee, prepare to meete thyr God, O

Israel.

13 For loe, hee that formeth the moun-taines, and createth the winde, and declareth vnto man what is his thought:

which maketh the morning darknesse,

and walketh vpon the hie places of the earth, y<sup>e</sup> Loide God of hostes is his Name,

CHAP. V.

Lamentation for the captiuitie of Israel.

Hear ye this woide, which I list vp vpon you, euen a lamentation of the house of Israel.

2 The virgin Israel is fallen, and shall

no more rise: she is left vpon her land,

and there is none to raise her vp.

3 For thus sayth the Loide God, The cite which went out by a thousand, shall leaue

an hundredth: and that which went forth by an hundredth, shall leaue ten to the house of Israel.

4 For thus sayth the Loide vnto the house of Israel, Seeke ye me, and ye shall liue.

5 But seeke not Beth-el, nor shall liue.

6 Gilgal, and goe not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall go into captiuitie, & Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seeke the Loide, and ye shall liue, least hee

take you, sayth the Loide.

CHAP. VI.

to wantonnesse, and deuotion.

c In these places they worshipped newe idoles,

which aforetime served for the true honour of God: therefore he sayth that these shall not take you, sayth the Loide.

CHAP. XI.

Against the priests of Beth-el.

Hee calleth the priests of breake out like fire in the house of Ioseph

and deuoure it, & there be none to quench
it in Beth-el.

7 They turne iudgement to womerewood,
and leane off righteousnes in the earth.

8 He maketh Pleiades, and Orion, and he turneth the shadowe of death into the morning, and hee maketh the day darke
as night: he calleth the waters of the sea, and pouereth them out vpon the open earth: the Lord is his name.

9 Hee strengtheneth the destroyer against the mightie: and the destroyer shal come against the fortresse.

10 They haue hated him: that rebuked
in the gate: and they abhoyred him that speakeh vpprightly.

11 Forasmuch then as your treading is vpon the poore, and as ye take from him burdens of wheat, ye haue built houses of ieuens stone, but ye shall not dwell in the: ye haue planted pleasant vineyards,
but ye shall not drinke wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mightie finnes: they afflict
the iust, they take rewards, and they op-presse the poore in the gate.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keepe silence
in that time, for it is an euill time.

14 Seeke good and not euill, that ye may live: and the Lord God of hostes shalbe
with you, as you haue spoken.

15 Hate the euill, and loue the good, and establish iudgement in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hostes will be mercifull vnto the remnant of Ioseph.

16 Therefore the Lord God of hostes, the Lord sayeth thus, Mourning shall be in all streets: and they shall lap in all the high wayes. Alas, alas: and they shall call the husbandman to lamentation, and such as can mourne, to mourning.

17 And in all the vines shall be lamentation: for I will passe through thee, sayeth
the Lord.

18 Wo vnto you, that desire a day of the Lord: what haue you to do with it: the day of the Lord is darkenesse & not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a beare met him: or went into the house and leane his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the Lord be darknes, and not light: euen darkenes and no light in it?

21 I hate and abhorre your feast dayes,
and I will not dwell in your solenne as-semblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and meate offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regarde the peace offerings of your fat beastes.

23 Take thou away from me the multitude of thy songs: for I will not heare the melodie of thy viols.

24 And let iudgement run downe as waters, & righteousness as a mighty riuer.

25 Haue ye offered vnto me sacrifices, and offerings in the wildernesses fourtie yeares,
O house of Israel?

26 But you haue boyne: Sicenly your king, and Chinn pour images, and the starre of your gods, which ye made to your selues.

God sheweth certain visions, whereby he signifieth the destruction of the people of Israel. 10 The false accusation of Amaziah. 12 His craftie counsell.

a To denoue the land: and he alludeth to the invading of the enemies.

b After the publicke commandment for mowing was given: or as some read, when the Kings sheepe were shorne.

c That is, staid this plague at my prayer.

d Meaning, that Gods indignation was inflamed against the stubbornnes of this people.

e Signifying, that this should be the last measuring of the people, and that he would defer his judgement no longer.

f That is, when Amos had prophesied that the King should be destroyed: for this wicked Priest more for hatred he bare to the Prophet then for love toward the King, thought this accusation sufficient to condemn him, whereas none other could take place.

g When this instrument of Satan was not able to compass his purpose by the King, he assayed by an other practise: that was, to seare the Prophet, that he might depart, and not reprove their idolatrie there openly, and so hinder his profite. h Thus he sheweth by his extraordinary vocation, that God had given him a charge which hee must needs execute.

Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me, and beholde, he foyned grasshoppers in a beginning of the mowing up of the latter growth: and lo, it was in the latter growth after the Kings mowing.

2 And when they had made an ende of eating the grasse of the land, then I said, O Lord God, spare, I beseech thee: who shall raise up Jaakob? for he is small. So the Lord repented for this. It shall not be, saith the Lord.

4 Thus also hath the Lord God shewed unto me, and beholde, the Lord God called to judgement by fire, and it denoued the great deepe, and did eate up a part. Then sayde I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: who shall raise up Jaakob? for he is small.

6 So the Lord repented for this. This also shall not be, sayeth the Lord God.

7 Thus againe he shewed me, and beholde, the Lord stood upon a wall made by line with a line in his hand.

8 And the Lord said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A line. Then sayde the Lord, Beholde, I will set a line in the middes of my people Israel, and will passe by them no more.

9 And the high places of Ithak shall be desolate, and the temples of Israel shall be destroyed: and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the Priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam King of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the mids of the house of Israel: the launde is not able to beare all his wordes.

11 For thus Amos sayeth, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall be led away captive out of their owne land.

12 Also Amaziah sayde unto Amos, O thou the Seer, goe, flee thou away into the land of Iudah, and there eate thy breade and prophetic there.

13 But prophetic no more at Beth-el: for it is the Kings chappell, and it is the Kings court.

14 Then answered Amos, and sayde to Amaziah, I was no Prophet, neyther was I a Prophets sonne, but I was an heardeiman, and a gatherer of wilde figs, soule for lacke of Gods worde, which is the food thereof, the

15 And the Lord tooke me as I followed the flocke, and the Lord said unto me, O prophetie unto my people Israel.

16 Nowe therefore heare thou the word of the Lord. Thou sayest, Prophetic not against Israel, and speake nothing against the house of Ithak.

17 Therefore thus sayeth the Lord, I thy wife shall be an harlot in the cite, and thy sonnes and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy launde shall be denuded by line: and thou shalt dye in a polluted land, and Israel shall surely goe into captivite for thy house.

Against the rulers of Israel. 7 The Lord sweareth. 11 The famine of the worde of God.

Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me, and beholde, a basket of sinners fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of sinners fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The ende is come upon my people of Israel, I will passe by them no more.

3 And the songs of Temple shall be holusings in that day, sayeth the Lord God: many dead bodies shall be in every place: they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 Heare this, O ye that swallowe up the poore, that ye may make the needie of the land to faile.

5 Saying, When will the new moneth come, that we may sel come: and Sabbath, that we may sel forth wheat, and make the Ephay small, and the shekel great, and falsifie the weightes by deceit: that we may buy the poore for silver, and the needie for shoors: pea, and sell the residue of the wheat.

7 The Lord hath sworne by the excellencie of Jaakob, Surely I will never forget as my of their workes.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourne that dwelleth therein: and it shall rise up by wholp as a flood, and it shall cast out, and be drownded as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And in that day, sayeth the Lord God, I will even cause the sunne to goe downe at noone: and I will darken the earth in the cleare day.

10 And I will turne your festes into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation: and I will bring sackcloth upon all lornes, and baldnesse upon every head: and I will make it as the mourning of an onely sonne, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Beholde, the dayes come, sayeth the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of breade, nor thirst for water, but of hearing the word of the Lord.

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the North euen unto the East shall they runne to and fro to seeke the word of the Lord, and shall not finde it.

13 In that day shall the faire virgins soule for lacke of Gods worde, which is the food thereof, the

1 Threatnings against the Temple, 2 And against Is-

I Saw the Loyde standing upon the altar, and he said, Smite the lintel of the doore, that the postes may shake: and cut them in pieces, even the heades of them all, and I will slap the last of them with the sworde: he that fleeth of them, shall not escape away: and he that escapeth of them, shall not be deliuered.

2 Though they digge into the hell, thence shall mine hand take them: though they clime vp to heauen, thence will I bring them downe.

3 And though they hide them selues in the toppe of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence: and though they be hid
from my sight in the bottome of the sea,
thence will I commaund the serpent,
and he shall bite them.

4 And though they go into captiuitie be-foze their enemies, thence will I commaund the sworde, and it shall slay them:
and I will set mine eyes vpon them for euil, and not for good.

5 And the Loyd God of hostes shall touch
the land, and it shall melt away, and all that dwell therein, shall mourne, and it shall rise vp wholy like a flood, and shall be diuorced as by the flood of Egypt.

vpon the sinners kingdome, and I will destroy it cleane out of the earth. Reuer-these I will not utterly destroy the house of Iacob, saith the Loyd.

house of Israel among all nations, like
as come is lifted in a sieue: yet shall not the least stone fall vpon the earth.

11 But all the sinners of my people shall dye by the sworde, which say, The euill shall not come, nor hasten for vs.

12 In that day will I raise vp the tabermowet, and the reeder of grapes him

hilles shall melte.

build the waste cities, and inhabite them,
and they shall plant vineyardes, & dyneke
the wine thereof: they shall also make gardens, and eate the fruites of them.

THE ARGVMENT.

THE Idumeans, which came of Esau, were mortall enemies alway to the Israelites, which came of Iacob, and therefore did not onely vexe them continually with sundry kindes of crueltie, but also stirred vp others to fight against them. Therefore when they were nowe in their greatest prosperitie, and did most triumph against Israel, which was in great affliction and miserie, God raised vp his Prophet to comfort the Israelites, forasmuch as God had nowe determined to destroy their aduersaries, which did so fore vexen them, and to sende them such as should deliuer them, and set vp the kingdome of Messiah, which he had promised.

1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus

Edom, We haue heard a rumor from the Loyd, and an ambassadors is sent among the heathen: arise, and let vs rise vp against her to battell.

2 Beholde, I haue made thee smal among the heathen: thou art utterly despised.

3 Thus the heathen encourage themselves to rise against Edom.

Jonah.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Jonah had long prophesied in Israel, and had little profited, God gaue him expresse charge to go, and denounce his iudgements against Nineueh the chiefe citie of the Assyrians, because he had appointed, that they which were of the heathen, should conuert by the mightie power of his worde, and that within three dayes preaching, that Israel might see how horribly they had prouoked Gods wrath, which for the space of so many yeeres had not conuerted to the Lord: for so many Prophets and so diligent preaching. He prophesied vnder Iosiah, and Ieroboam, as 2. King. 14. 25.

CHAP. I.

3 Jonah fledde when he was sent to preach. 4 A tempest arose, and he was cast into the sea for his disobedience.

a After that he had preached a long time in Israel, and so Ezechiel, after that for a time he had prophesied in Iuda, he had visions in Babylon, Ezek. 1. 1. b For seeing the great obstination of the Israelites, he sent his Prophet to the Gentiles, that they might prouoke them to repentance, or at least make them inexcusable: for Nineueh was the chiefe citie of the Assyrians.

The word of the Lord came also vnto Jonah the sonne of Amittai, saying, Arise, and goe to Nineueh, that great citie, & crye against it: for as much as their wickednes is come vnto me.

2 But Jonah rose vp to flee vnto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord, and went downe to Tapho: and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he payed the

townes, & at this time there were an hundred and twentie thousand children therein, Chap. 4. 11. d Whereby he declared his weakness, that would not promptly follow the Lords calling, but gaue place to his owne reason, which perswaded him, that he should nothing at all profite there, seeing he had done so small good among his owne people. Chap. 4. 2. e Which was the haven and port to take shipping thither, called also Ioppe.

ne, that great citie, & crye against it: for as much as their wickednes is come vnto me.

2 But Jonah rose vp to flee vnto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord, and went downe to Tapho: and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he payed the

townes, & at this time there were an hundred and twentie thousand children therein, Chap. 4. 11. d Whereby he declared his weakness, that would not promptly follow the Lords calling, but gaue place to his owne reason, which perswaded him, that he should nothing at all profite there, seeing he had done so small good among his owne people. Chap. 4. 2. e Which was the haven and port to take shipping thither, called also Ioppe.

fare thereof, and went downe into it, that he might goe with them unto Tarshish, from the presence of the Lord.

But the Lord sent out a great winde into the sea, and there was a mightie tempest in the sea, so that the shippe was like to be broken.

Then the mariners were afrayde, & cryed every man unto his god, and cast the waeces that were in the shippe, into the sea to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone downe into the sides of the shippe, and he lay downe, and was fast a sleepe.

So the Shipmaster came to him, & sayd unto him, What meanest thou, O Sleeper? Arise, call vpon thy God, if so bee that God will thinke vpon vs, that we perish not.

And they sayde euery one to his fellowe, Come, and let vs cast lottes, that wee may knowe, for whose cause this ruill is vpon vs. So they cast lottes, and the lot fell vpon Jonah.

Then sayde they vnto him, Tell vs for whose cause this ruill is vpon vs: what is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? which is thy countrey? and of what people art thou?

And he answered the, I am an Chyew, and I feare the Lord God of heauen, which hath made the sea, & the drye land.

Then were the men exceedingly afrayd, and said vnto him, Why hast thou done this? (for the me knewe, that he fled from the presence of the Lord, because he had tolde them)

Then sayd they vnto him, What shall we doe vnto thee, that the sea may bee calme vnto vs? (for the sea wroughit and was troublous)

And he sayd vnto them, Take me, & cast me into the sea: so shall the sea bee calme vnto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is vpon you.

Neithertheless, the men rowed to bring it to the land, but they could not: for the sea wroughit, and was troublous against them.

Wherefore they cryed vnto the Lord, & said, We beseech thee, O Lord, we beseech thee, let vs not perish for this mans life, and lay not vpon vs innocent blood: for thou, O Lord, hast done, as it pleased thee.

So they tooke vpon Jonah, & cast him into the sea, & the sea ceased from her raging.

Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, & offered a sacrifice vnto the Lord, and made vowes.

Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallowe vpon Jonah: and Jonah was in the belly of the fish thre dayes, and thre nightes.

And this was done for feare & not of a pure heart & affection, neither according to Gods worde. Thus the Lord would shew his Prophet with a most terrible spectacle of death, and thereby also confirmed him of his fauour and support in this his charge which was inioyned him.

CHAP. II.

1. Jonah is in the fishes belly. 2. His prayer. 30. He is deliuered.

Then Jonah prayed vnto the Lord his God: out of the fishes belly.

And he said, I cryed in mine affliction vnto the Lord, and he heard mee: out of the belly of hell cryed I, and thou hearest my voyce.

For thou haddest cast me into the boresome in the mids of the sea, and the floods compassed me about: all the thydges, and all the thydges passed ouer me.

Then I sayde, I am cast away out of thy sight: yet wilt thou looke againe toward thine holy Temple.

The waters compassed mee about vnto the soule: the depth closed mee round about, and the wordes were wyapt about mine head.

I went downe to the bottome of the mountaynes: the earth with her barres was about mee for euer, yet hast thou brought vp my life from the putre, O Lord my God.

When my soule fainted within me, I remembered the Lord: and my prayer came vnto thee, into thine holy Temple.

They that waite vpon lying vanities, forsake their owne mercie.

But I will sacrifice vnto thee with the voyce of thanksgiving, and will say that I have vowed: saluation is of the Lord.

And the Lord spake vnto the fish, and it cast out Jonah vpon the drye land.

And al these dangers, as it were raising me from death to life. They that depend vpon any thing saue on God alone. They refuse their owne felicity, and that goodnesse which they should els receiue of God.

CHAP. III.

1. Jonah is sent againe to Ninue. 5. The repentance of the king of Ninue.

And the word of the Lord came vnto Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, go vnto Ninue, that great citie, and preach vnto it the preaching, which I bid thee.

So Jonah arose and went to Ninue, according to the word of the Lord: now Ninue was a great and excellent citie of thre dayes iourney.

And Jonah began to enter into the citie a dayes iourney, and he cryed, and said, Yet fourtie dayes, and Ninue shall bee overthrowen.

So the people of Ninue beleueed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth from the greatest of them euen to the least of them.

For woide came vnto the king of Ninue, and he rose from his throne, and he layde his robe from him, & couered him with sackcloth, and late in ashes.

And he proclaimed & said through Ninue, (by the counsel of the king & his nobles) saying, Let neither man, nor beast, bullock nor sheepe taste any thing, neither feede nor drinke water.

But let man and beast put on sackcloth, dumme beastes had sinned or could repent, but that by their example man might bee astonished, considering that for his sinne the anger of God hanged ouer all creatures.

For he proclaimed & said through Ninue, (by the counsel of the king & his nobles) saying, Let neither man, nor beast, bullock nor sheepe taste any thing, neither feede nor drinke water.

But let man and beast put on sackcloth, dumme beastes had sinned or could repent, but that by their example man might bee astonished, considering that for his sinne the anger of God hanged ouer all creatures.

For he proclaimed & said through Ninue, (by the counsel of the king & his nobles) saying, Let neither man, nor beast, bullock nor sheepe taste any thing, neither feede nor drinke water.

Being nowe swallowed vp of death, & feeling no remedie to escape, his faith brast out vnto the Lord, knowing that out of the very hell he was able to deliuer him.

For he was now in the fishes belly as in a graue or place of darknesse.

This declared what his prayer was, and how he laboured betwene hope and despaire, considering the neglect of his vocation, and Gods iudgements for the same: but yet in the ende by faith gawe the victorie.

Thou hast deliuered me from death to life, from the belly of the bellie of the fish, and al these dangers, as it were raising me from death to life.

They that depend vpon any thing saue on God alone. They refuse their owne felicity, and that goodnesse which they should els receiue of God.

This is a great declaration of Gods mercie, & hee receiue him againe and sendeth him forth as his Prophet, which had before shewed so great a firmite.

He went forward one day in the citie, and preached, and so he continued til the citie was conuerted.

For he declared that he was a Prophet sent from God to denotie his iudgements against them.

Not that the dumme beastes had sinned or could repent, but that by their example man might bee astonished, considering that for his sinne the anger of God hanged ouer all creatures.

For he proclaimed & said through Ninue, (by the counsel of the king & his nobles) saying, Let neither man, nor beast, bullock nor sheepe taste any thing, neither feede nor drinke water.

But let man and beast put on sackcloth, dumme beastes had sinned or could repent, but that by their example man might bee astonished, considering that for his sinne the anger of God hanged ouer all creatures.

Jonahs infirmities

THE ARGUMENT.

Micah the Prophet of the tribe of Iudah serued in the worke of the Lorde, concerning Iudah and Israel, at the least thirtie yeeres: at what time Isaiah prophecied. Hee declared the destruction, first of the one kingdome, and then of the other, because of their manifold wickednesse, but chiefly for their idolatrie. And to this ende he noteth the wickednes of the people, the crueltie of the princes and gouernours, and the permission of the false prophets, and the delighting in them. Then he setteth forth the coming of Christ, his kingdome, and the felicitie thereof. This Prophet was not that Micah which resisted Ahab & all his false prophets, as 1. King 22.8, but another of the same name.

CHAP. I.

1 The destruction of Iudah and Israel because of their idolatrie.

a Borne in Mareshah a citie of Iudah.
b Because of the malice, and obstinacie of the people whome he had so oft exhorted to repentance, hee smothered them to gods iudgements: taking all creatures, and God him selfe to witness, that the preaching of his Prophets, which they haue abused, shalbe reuenged. c Meaning hereby that God will come to iudgement against the strong cities and holdes.

2 We word of the Lord, that came vnto Micah the Moriahite in the dayes of Iotham, Ahaz, & Hezekiah kings of Iudah, which he saw concerning Samaria & Ierusalem.
3 Heare, o all pee people: hearken thou, o earth, and all that therein is, and let the Lord God be witnesse against you, euen the Lord from his holie Temple.
4 For behold, the Lord cometh out of his place, & will come downe, & treade vpon the hye places of the earth.

4 And the mountaines shall melt vnder d Samaria, him (so shall the valleys cleaue) as waxe which shoulde befoze the fire, & as the waters that are haue ben as empowred downeward.
5 For the wickednes of Iacob is all this, el of true reliq: & for the sinnes of the house of Israel: on an iustice, what is the wickednesse of Iacob? Is was the puddle, not d Samaria: and which are the hye and steeles of a places of Iudah? Is not Ierusalem? idolatrie & cor
6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an ruption, and heape of the fildes, and for the planting boasted them of a vineparde, and I will cause the felces of their stones thereof to rumble downe into the father Iacob valley, and I will discouer the foundations e That is, the idolarie and ons thereof.
And al the grauen images thereof shalbe broken, and all the gites thereof shalbe gathered by Which they euill practises, and thought that their idoles had enticed them therewith for their seruice vnto them. burnt

The game that came by their side shall be counted as a thing of naught: for as the wages of sinners are wickedly gotten, so are they vilely and foolishly spent. <sup>1</sup> Lead the Philistines our enemies into destruction. <sup>2</sup> Which was a voice more to Jerusalem, Iddi, Iddi, where call I Gihon, and I Gihon dust: therefore he will them to name, and will the chief of the dust, for their dustie citie. <sup>3</sup> These were some whereby I meant should judge as he came to Iddi. <sup>4</sup> He shall not depart before he hath overcome you, and so you had pay for his crying. <sup>5</sup> For Rabshakeh had shut vp Jerusalem, that they could not send to succour them. <sup>6</sup> To flee away: for Sancherib laide siege first to the citie, and remained therein when he sent his captaines, and armed against Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> Thou first receyvest the idolatrie of Lebanon, and so didst infect Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> Thou shalt brybe the Philistines thy neighbours, but they shall deceiue thee, as well as they of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He prophesieth against his owne citie, and because it signified an heritage, he saith that God would sende an heire to possesse it. <sup>10</sup> For so they thought themselves for the length of their citie.

burnt with the fyre, & all the dools thereof of wull I destroy: for the gathered it of the hye of an harlot, and they shall returne to the wages of an harlot. <sup>8</sup> Therefore I will mourne and howle: I will go without clothes, & naked: I will make lamentation like the dragons, and mourning as the ostriches. <sup>9</sup> For her plagues are grievous: for it is come into Judah: the enemy is come unto the gate of my people, unto Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> Declare ye it not in Gath, neither weep ye: for the house of Ephraim rouleth selfe in the dust. <sup>11</sup> Thou that dwellest at Shaphir, go together naked with thame: the that dwelleth at Zaanai, shall not come forth in the morning of Beth-el: the enemy shall receive of you for his standing. <sup>12</sup> For the inhabitant of Sparoth waited for good, but evil came from the Loyde unto the gate of Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> And thou inhabitant of Lachish, bynde the chariot to thy beards: of price: the beginning of the sinne to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee. <sup>14</sup> Therefore shalt thou give presentes to Doretheth: Gath: the houses of Achizib shall be as a lie to the kings of Israel. <sup>15</sup> Yet will I bring an hepe unto thee, O inhabitant of Sparoth, see shall come unto Adullam, the glory of Israel. <sup>16</sup> Make thee baides: and haue thee for thy delicate children: enlarge thy baluise as the eagle, for they are gone unto captivity from thee.

CHAP. II.

uided our selves.

c Ye shall haue no more landes to deuise, as you had in times past, and as you vied to measure them in the lubile. <sup>d</sup> Thus the people warne the Prophets that they speake to them no more: for they cannot abide their threatnings. <sup>e</sup> God saith, that they shall not prophesie, nor receiue no more of their rebukes nor taunts. <sup>f</sup> Are these your workes according to his law? <sup>g</sup> Do not the godly finde my wordes comfatable? <sup>h</sup> That is, fore- <sup>i</sup> The poore can haue no commo- <sup>k</sup> ditie by them, in the middes of their fold: the cities shall be full of sheepe of the men, as though they were enemies. <sup>l</sup> That is, their substance and li- <sup>m</sup> uing, which is Gods blessing, & as it were, part of his glorye. them, promising that all shall goe
well: but if one

grosse blindness, & ignorance, so

Thus sayth the Lord, Concerning the prophetes that deceiue my people, and bite them with their teeth, & cry peace,
but if a man put not into their mouthes,
they prepare warre against him.

Therefore a night shall be vnto you for a vision, and darkenes shall be vnto you for a diuination, and the sunne shall goe downe ouer the prophetes, and the day shall be darker ouer them.

Then shall the Seers be ashamed, and the soothsayers confounded: yea, they shall all couer their lippes, for they haue
none answer of God.

Yet notwithstanding I am full of power by the Spirit of the Lord, and of iudgement, and of strength to declare vnto Iacob his transgression, and to Israel his sinne.

Hear this, I pray you, heares of the house of Iacob, and princes of the house of Israel: they abhorre iudgement,
and peruert all equitie.

They build vp Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquitie.

The heares thereof iudge for rewardes,
and the Priests thereof teache for hire,
and the Prophetes thereof prophetic for money: yet will they leave vpon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among vs? no euill can come vpon vs.

Therefore shall Zion for your sake bee plowed as a fiede, and Jerusalem shall bee an heape, and the mountaine of the House, as the hie places of the forest.

CHAP. IIII.

Of the kingdome of Christ, & felicitie of his Church.

In the last dayes it shall come to passe, that the mountaine of the House of the Lord shall bee prepared in the toppes of the mountaines, and it shall be exalted aboue the hills, and people shall floue vnto it.

Yea, many nations shall come and say,
Come, and let vs goe up to the Mount-taine of the Lord, and to the House of the God of Iacob, and he will teache vs his wayes, and we will walke in his paths: for the Lawe shall goe forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

And hee shall indge among many people, and rebuke iniquitie nations a farre off, and they shall breake their swoydes into mattoches, and their speares into scethes: nation shall not lift vp a swoyde against nation, neither shall they learne to fight any more.

But they shall sit euery man vnder his vine, and vnder his figge tree, and none shall make them afraide: for the mouth of the Lord of hostes hath spoken it.

For all people will walke & euery one in the name of his God, and we will walke in the name of the Lord our God,
for euer and euer.

At the same day, sayth the Lord, will I gather her that is halterd, and I will gas-ther her that is cast out, and her that I haue afflicted.

And I will make her that is halterd, a remnant, and her that was cast farre off, a mighty nation: and the Lord shall reigne ouer them in Mount Zion, from henceforth euen for euer.

And thou, O towne of the flocke, the strong holde of the daughter Zion, into thee shall it come, euen the first domimon, and kingdome shall come to the daughter Jerusalem.

Nowe why dost thou cry out with in-iquitie? is there no King in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for I saye hath taken thee, as a woman in traualle.

So saye and monne, O daughter Zion, like a woman in traualle: for now shalt thou goe forth of the citie, and dwell in the fiede, and shalt goe into Babel, but there shalt thou be deliuered: there the Lord shall redeeme thee from the hand of thine enemies.

Nowe also many nations are gathered against thee, saying, Zion shall bee deserted, & our eye shall looke vpon Zion.

But: they knowe not the thoughtes of the Lord: they vnderstande not his counsell, for he shall gather them as the sheepes in the barne.

Arise, and theieth, O daughter Zion:
for I will make thine house pson, and I will make thine houses habite, and thou shalt breake in piere many people: and I will consecrate their riches
vnto the Lord, and their substance vnto
the ruler of the whole world.

king nor counsell. m He sheweth that the faithfull ought not to measure Gods iudgements by the brages and threatenings of the wicked, but thereby are admonished to lift vp their hearts
God to call for deliuerance. n God giueth his Church this vic-torie so oft as he ouercometh their enemies: but the accomplishment hereof shalbe at the last coming of Christ.

Therefore will he give them up, until the time that the which shall beare, shall transpire: then the remnant of their brethren shall returne unto the children of Israel.

And he shall be our peace when Messiah shall come into our lande: when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherdes, and eight principall men.
And they shall destroy Messiah with the sword, and the lande of Amrod with their swordes: thus shall he deliver us from Messiah, when he commeth into our land, and when hee shall treade within our borders.
And the remnant of Iacob shall be among many people, as a dove from the Loyde, and as the shewes upon the grass, that waipeth not for man, nor hopeth in the sonnes of Adam.
And the remnant of Iacob shall be among the Gentiles in the mids of many people, as the upon among the beastes of the forest, and as the lions whelpes among the flockes of shepe, who when he goeth thowte, treadeth downe and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.
Thine hand shall lift up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.
And it shall come to passe in that day, sayeth the Loyde, that I will cut off thine houses out of the mids of thee, and I will destroy thy charats.
And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and overthrowe all thy strong holdes.
And I will cut off thine enchanters out of thine hand: & thou shalt have no more soothsayers.

CHAP. VI.

An exhortation to the dunnis creatures to heare the indgement against Israel being unkinde. 6 What manner of sacrifices do please God.

Hearken ye now what the Loyde sayeth, Arise thou, and contende before the mountaynes, and let the hills heare thy voyce.

1 Heare ye, O mountaynes, the Loydes quarrell, & ye mightie foundations of the earth: for the Loyde hath a quarrell against his people, and he will pleade with Israel.
2 O my people, what have I done unto thee? or wherein have I grieved thee? testify against me.
3 Sure I brought thee by out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants, and I have sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, also I spared you from Shittim, lak king of Moab had deuled, and what Balaam the sonne of Beor answered him, from Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye might know the righteousness of the Loyde.
4 Wherewith shall I come before the Loyde, and bowe my selfe before the face of God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, and with calves of a peere olde?
5 Will the Loyde bee pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousand riners of oile: shal I give my first borne for my transgression, even the fruite of my body, for the sinne of my soule?
6 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, & what the Loyde requirerth of thee: sure I doe upright, and to loue mercie, and to humble thy selfe to walke with thy God.
7 The Loydes voyce crieth unto the citie, and the man of wisdom shall see thyne: sure I doe upright, and to loue mercie, and to humble thy selfe to walke with thy God.
8 Are per the treasures of wickednes in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?
9 Shall I iustifie the wicked balances, & the bagge of deceitfull weights?
10 For the riche men thereof are full of crueltie, & the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitfull in their mouth.
11 Therefore also will I make thee sicke in smiting thee, & in making thee desolate, because of thy finnes.
12 Thou shalt eate and not be satisfied, and thy casting downe shal be in the mids of thee: and thou shalt take hold, but shalt callest them to not deliver: and that which thou delivest, wilt I give up to the sword.
13 Thou shalt sow, but not reape: thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not they will obey: anoint thee with oyle, and make sweete wine, but shalt not drinke wine.
14 For thy statutes of Shittim are kept,

1 I have not hurt thee, but bestowed infinite benefices upon thee.
2 That is, remembre my benefices from the beginning howe I delivered you from Balaams curse, & also spared you from Shittim, which was in the plaine of Moab, till I brought you into your lande promised.
3 That is, the truth of his promises & his manifold benefices towards you.
4 Thus the people by hypocrites aske how to please God, and are content to offer sacrifices, but will not change their lues.
5 There is nothing so deare to man, but the hypocrites will offer vnto God, if they thinke thereby to avoid his anger: but they will neuer be brought to mortifie their owne affections, & to giue themselves willingly to serue God as he commadeth.
6 The Prophet in fewe wordes calleth them to the obseruation of the second table, to knowe if they will obey God aright or no, saying that God hath prescribed them to any citie or nation, the godly will acknowledge his maiestie, and consider not the mortall man that bringeth the threatening, but God that sendeth it. 7 That is, of Jerusalem. 8 Thou shalt be consumed with inward griefe & cuils. 9 Meaning, that the citie should go about to saue her men, as they lay hold on which they would preferre.
10 You have receiued al the corruption & idolatrie, wherewith ten tribes were infected vnder Omri & Ahab his sonne: & to excuse your doings, you alleadge the kings authoritie by his statutes, & also wisdom & policie in so doing, but you shal not escape punishment, but as I have shewed you great fauour, & taken you for my people, so shall your plagues be accordingly, Luke. 12. 47.

CHAP. VII.

1 A complaint for the small number of the righteous.
4 The wickedness of those times, 14 The prosperity of the Church.

a The Prophet taketh vpon him the passion of the earth, which complaineth that all her fruites are gone, so that none is left that is, y there is no godly man remaining: for all are giuen to enueltie & deccie, so that none spareth his owne brother.

b He sheweth y the prince, the iudge, & the rich man are linked together, all to doe euil and to cloke the doings one of another.

c That is, the rich man that is able to giue money, abstineth from no wickednes nor iniurie.

d These men agree among themselves and conspire with one consent to doe euill.

e They that are of most estimation & are counted most honest among them, are but thornes and briers to prick.

f Meaning, of the Prophets & gouernours. g The Prophet sheweth that the only remedie for the godly in desperate euils, is to flee vnto God for succour. h This is spoken in y person of the Church, which calleth the malignant Church her enemye,

1 W is mee, for I am as the sommer gatherings, & as the grapes of the vintage: there is no cluster to eate: my soule desired the first ripe fruites.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth, & there is none righteous among men: they all lye in wait for blood: euery man hateth his brother with a net.

3 To make good for y euil of their handes, the prince asked, and the iudge iudgeth for a rewarde: therefore the great man here speaketh out the corruption of his soule: so they wrap it vp.

4 The best of them is as a byer, and the most righteous of them is sharper then a thorne hedge: the dape of y watchmen and the visitation cometh: then shalbe their confusion.

5 Trust ye not in a friende, neyther put ye confidence in a counsellor: keepe the boones of thy mouth from her that lpyeth in thy bosome.

6 For the sonne reuileth the father: the daughter vsseth vp against her mother: the daughter in lawe against her mother in lawe, and a mans enemies are the men of his owne house.

7 Therefore I will looke vnto the Lord: I will waite for God my Sauour: my God will heare me.

8 Keiope not against me, y mine enemye: though I fall, I shall arise: when I shall sit in darkenes, the Lord shalbe a light vnto me.

9 I will heare the wrath of the Lord because I haue sinned against him, vntill he plead my cause, & excuse indgement for me: then will he bring me forth to the light, and I shall see his righteousness.

10 Then shew that is myne enemye, shall looke vpon it, and shame shall come her, i To wit, when which said vnto me, Where is the Lord God that these thy God? Mine eyes shall beholde her: himselfe a delinowe shall thee be troden downe as the myne of the streets.

11 This is the dape, that thy wailes shall destroy of his be built: this day shall thyne farre away enemies, k the decree.

12 In this day also they shall come vnto thee from y North, and from the strong cities, and from the strong holdes euen vnto the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountaine to mountaine.

13 Notwithstanding, the lande shalbe desolate because of them that dwell therein, & for the fruites of y their inventions.

14 Feede thy people with thy rod, the flocks of thine heritage (which dwell so vnto the, so the litarie in the wood) as in the middes of neyther holdes, Carmel: let them feede in Bathan and rivers, as in olde time.

15 According to the dayes of thy coming out of the lande of Egypt, will I shewe vnto him maruelous things.

16 The nations shall see, and be confounded for all their power: they shall lape the shewethow their hande vpon their mouth: y their eares shalbe deafe.

17 They shall like the duste like a serpyent: they shall incoine out of their holes like women: they shalbe afraid of y Lord the earth, which can not be feared of thee.

18 Who is a God like vnto thee, that taketh away iniquitie, and y passerh by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage: y he reuoluerh not his wrath for yner, because mercy pleaseth him.

19 Hee will turne againe, and haue com passion vpon vs: he will subdue our iniis to be mercifull quitiue, and cast all y their sinnes into the bottom of the sea.

20 Thou wilt performe thy truth to Jacob, & mercie to Abraham, as thou hast sworne vnto our fathers in olde time.

be beneficiall vnto them as in time past. o God promisseth to be fauourable to his people as he had bin aforetime. p They shalbe as dumme men and dare bragge no more. q They shalbe astonished, and asfayde to heare men spake, least they should heare of their destruction. r They shall fall flat on the ground for feare. s As though hee woulde not see it, but winke at it. t Meaning, of his elect. u The Church is assured, that God will declare in effect the truth of his mercifull promise, which he had made of olde to Abraham, and to all that should apprehend the promes by faith.

THE ARGUMENT.

As they of Nineueh shewed themselves prompt and ready to receyue the words of God at Iosuahs preaching, and so turned to the Lord by repentance: so after a certaine time rather giuing themselves to worldly meanes to increase their domination, then seeking to continue in the feare of God, and trade wherein they had begonne, they cast off the care of religion, and so returned to their vomite, and prouoked Gods iust iudgement against them, in afflicting his people. Therefore their cite Nineueh was destroyed, and Meroch-bala-dan King of Babel (or as some thinke Nebuchad-nezzar) enioyed the empire of the Assyrians. But because God hath a continual care of his Church, he sheweth vnto his Prophet to comfort the godly, shewing that the destruction of their enemies should be for their consolation. And as it seemeth, he prophesied about the time of Hezekiah, and not in the time of Manassah his sonne, as the Iewes write.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Prophet complaineth vnto God, considering the great felicie of the wicked, and the miserable oppression of the godly, which endure all kind of affliction & cruelty, and yet can see none ende. Therefore he had this reuelation shewed him of God, that the Caldeans shoulde come and take them away captiues, so that they could looke for none end of their troubles as yet, because of their stubbernes & rebellion against the Lord. And lest the godly should despair, seeing this horrible confusion, he comforteth the by this that God wil punish the Caldeans their enemies, when their pride and crueltie shalbe at height: wherefore he exhorte the faithful to patience by his owne example, & sheweth them a forme of prayer, wherewith they should comfort themselves.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coales went forth before his fete.

6 Hee stood and measured the earth: hee beheld and dissolved the nations, and the everlasting mountanes were broken, and the ancient hilles did bowe: his waves are everlasting.

7 For his iniquitie I sawe the truces of Cushan, and the curtaines of the lande of Assirian did tremble.

8 Was the Lorde angrie against the risers: or was thine anger against the floods: or was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didest ride vpon thine hoies: thy charrets brought saluation.

9 Thy bow was manifestly reuered, and the orbes of the tribes were a sure woed,

12 Thou trodest down the land in anger, &amp; didest thyself the heathen in displeasure.

13 Thou wentest forth for the saluation of thy people, euen for saluation with thine arm: thou hast wounded the head of the house of the wicked, and thou discoverest the foundations vnto the necke, Selah.

14 Thou didest strike thy foes with his weapons: thou hast wounded the heades of his villages: thy people, that they came out as a whirlewinde to scate: fought in thy terne: their reuenging was as to denioure the poore secretly.

15 Thou didest walke in the sea with thine hoies vpon the heape of great water.

16 When I heard, my bellie trembled: mine hippes shooke at the voyce: rottennesse entered into my bones, and I trembled in my selfe, that I might rest in the day of trouble: for when hee cometh vnto the people, he shall destroy them.

THE ARGUMENT.

SEEING the great rebellion of the people, and that there was now no hope of amendement, hee denounceth the great iudgement of God, which was at hande, shewing that their country should be utterly destroyed, and they caried away captiues by the Babylonians. Yee for the comfort of the faithfull he prophecied of Gods vengeance against their enemies, as the Philistines, Moabites, Assyrians and others, to assure them that God had a continuall care ouer them. And as the wicked should be punished for their finnes and transgressions: so he exhorted the godly to patience, and to trust to finde mercie by reason of the free promyses of God made vnto Abraham: & therefore quietly to abide till God shewe them the effect of that grace, whereby in the ende they should be gathered vnto him, and counted as his people and children.

THE ARGUMENT.

When the time of the seventy yeres captiuitie prophecied by Ieremiah, was expired, God rayled vp Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi to comfort the Iewes and to exhort them to the building of the Temple, which was a figure of the spirituall Temple and Church of God, whose perfection and excellencie stood in Christ. And because that all were giuen to their owne pleasures and commodities, he declareth that that plague of famine, which God sent then among them, was a iust reward of their ingratitude, in that they contemned Gods honour, who had deliuered them. Yet he comforteth them, if they will returne to the Lord, with the promise of greater felicitie, forasmuch as the Lord will finish the worke that he hath begonne, and sende Christ whome he had promised, and by whome they shoulde attaine to perfit ioy and glory.

CHAP. I.

1 The time of the prophesie of Haggai. 2 An exhortation to build the Temple againe.

In the seconde peere of King Darius, in the first moneth, the first day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord (by the ministerie of the Prophet Haggai) vnto Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, a prince of Iudah, and to Iehoshua the sonne of Iehozabab the hie Priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord of hostes, saying, This people say, The time is not yet come, that the Lordes house shoulde be builded.

3 Then came the worde of the Lord by the minister of the Prophet Haggai, saying,

4 Is it time for you to dwell in your sieted houses, and this house be waste?

5 Nowe therefore thus saith the Lord of hostes, Consider your owne waies in your heartes.

6 Ye haue sown much, & bying in little: ye reare, but ye haue not plough: ye drinke, but ye are not filled: ye clothe you, but ye be not warme: and ye that earne the wages, putteth the wages into a broken bagge.

7 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Consider your owne waies in your heartes.

8 Goe up to the mountaine, and bring wood, and build this house, and I will be fauourable in it, and I will be glorified, saith the Lord.

9 Ye looked for much, and loe, it came to little: and when ye brought it home, I did blowe vpon it. And wherewith saith the Lord of hostes? Because of mine house that is waste, and ye runne euery man vnto his owne house.

10 Therefore the heauen ouer you shaled it selfe from dewe, and the earth shaled her fruite.

11 And I called for a drought vpon the land, and vpon the mountaines, and vpon the come, and vpon the wine, and vpon the oyle, vpon all that the ground bringeth forth.

And because ye seeke not him first of all. Meane that they should leaue off their owne commodities, & go forward in the building of Gods Temple, & in the setting forth of his signe. That is, I will heare your prayer according to my promise. King 8.21.29. h That is, my glory shalbe set forth by you. I And so bring it to nothing.

geth forth: both vpon men and vpon cattel, and vpon all the labour of the hands, that God was 12 When Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and Iehoshua the sonne of Iehozabab the hie Priest with all the remnant of the people, heard the word of the Lord, they feared the Lord, and they said, We will build the house of the Lord, as the Lord our God hath said. Then the people did feare before the Lord.

13 Then spake Haggai the Lords messenger in the Lords message vnto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the Lord.

14 And the Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the sonne of Shealtiel a prince of Iudah, and the spirit of Iehoshua the sonne of Iehozabab the hie Priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came, and did the worke in the house of the Lord of hostes their God.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth that the glory of the seconde Temple shall exceede the first.

In the foure and twentieth daye of the first moneth, in the seconde peere of King Darius,

2 In the seventh moneth, in the one and twentieth day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord by the ministerie of the Prophet Haggai, saying,

3 Speake now to Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel prince of Iudah, and to Iehoshua the sonne of Iehozabab the hie Priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

4 Who is left among you, that saue this house in her first glory, and how do you see it now? Is it not in your eyes, in the comparison of it as nothing?

5 Yet now be of good courage, O Zerubbabel, saith the Lord, and be of good courage, O Iehoshua, sonne of Iehozabab the hie Priest: and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and do it: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hostes.

6 According to the worde that I covenanted with you, when ye came out of Egypt: so my spirit shall remaine among you, saith the Lord.

7 For thus saith the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, a little while, and I will shake the heauens, and the earth, and the sea, & the dry land:

shoulde bee accomplished in Christ by whome all things shoulde be renewed.

8 And

k This declared the author of the doctrine, & that he was but the minister, as Exo. 14.31. Iudg. 7.20. Acts 15.28.

l Which declareth 7 men are vnapt & dull to serue the Lord, neither can they obey his worde or his messengers before God reforme their heartes and giue the new spirits, John 6.44.

a For the people, according as Isa. 32.1. and Ezek. 41.1. had prophesied, thought this Temple shoulde haue bene more excellent then Salomons Temple, which was destroyed by the Babylonians, but the Prophets ment the spirituall Temple, the church of Christ b That is, go forward in building the Temple.

c He exhorteth them to patience though they see not as yet this Temple so glorious as the Prophets had declared: for this

d Meaning, Christ whom all ought to looke for and desire: or by desire, he may signifie all precious things, as riches & such like. e Therefore when his time cometh, he can make all y treasures of y worlde to serue his purpose: but the glory of this second Temple doeth not stand in materiall things, neither can be built. f Meaning, all spirituall blessings & felicitie purchased by Christ, Phil. 4.7. g That is, the flesh of the sacrifices: whereby he signifieth that y thing, which of it self is good, can not make an other thing so: and therefore they ought not to iustifie them selves by their sacrifices and ceremonies: but contrary he that is vncleane and not pure of heart, doeth corrupt those things and make them detestable vnto God, which els are good and godly. h Consider howe God did plague you with famine afore you began to builde the Temple.

8 And I will mone all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this House with glory, saith the Lord of hostes.

9 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hostes.

10 The glorie of this last House shall be greater then the first, saith the Lord of hostes: and in this place will I giue peace, saith the Lord of hostes.

11 In the foure and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, in the seconde yeere of Darius, came the worde of the Lord vnto the Prophet Haggai, saying,

12 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, the Lord now the Houses concerning the Lawe, and say,

13 If one bears holp flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch the bread, or the portage, or the wine, or the oyle, or any meate, shall it be holp? and the Priests answered and said, No.

14 Then saide Haggai, If a polluted person touch any of these, shall it be vncleane? And the Priests answered, and said, It shall be vncleane.

15 Then answered Haggai, and saide, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the Lord: and so are all the workes of their handes, and that which they offer here, is vncleane.

16 And now, I pray you, consider in your mindes: from this day, and afore, even afore a stone was layde vpon a stone in the Temple of the Lord:

17 Before these things were, when one came to an heape of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to y wine they began to presse soj to draine out fiftie vessels out of the presse, there were but twentie.

18 I smote you with blasting, and with mildewe, & with haile, in all the labours bleste them: and of your handes: yet you turned not to mee, saith the Lord.

19 Consider, I pray you, in your mindes, from this day, & afore from the foure & in the twentieth day of y ninth moneth, even fro they should the day of the foundation of y Lords temple, ple was laid: consider it in your mindes. I He exhorted you to patience vine, and the figtree, & the pomegranate, and to abide till and the olive tree hath not brought forth: y harvest came, and then they from this day will I blisse you.

21 And againe the worde of the Lord came vnto Haggai in the foure and twentieth day of the moneth, saying,

22 Spake to Zerubbabel the prince of change & reme Judah, and say, I will shake the heavens and the earth,

23 And I will overthrow the throne of Zerubbabel kingdome, & I will destroy the strength of the of the kingdome of the heathen, and hereby hee I will overthrow the charerts, and those sheweth that that ride in them, and the horse and the there shall be no riders shall come downe, every one by the two of his brother.

24 In that day, saith the Lord of hostes, make this vow: will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my seru: derful relligion, want, the soune of Shealtiel, saith the of his Church. Lord, and will make thee as a signet: o Signifying for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord that his signet of hostes.

most excellent, which thing was accomplished in Christ.

Zechariah.

THE ARGUMENT.

Two moneths after that Haggai had begunne to propheticke, Zechariah was also sent of the Lord to helpe him in the labour, and to confirme the same doctrine. First therefore hee putteth them in remembrance, for what cause God had so sore punished their fathers: and yet comforteth them, if they will repent vnfeignedly, and not abuse this great benefite of God in their deliuerance, which was a figure of that true deliuerance, that all the faithfull shoulde haue, from death and sinne by Christ. But because they still remayned in their wickednesse, and coldnes to set forth Gods glory, and were not yet made better by their long banishment, he rebuketh them most sharply: yet for the comfort of the repentant, he euer mixeth the promise of grace, & they might by this meanes be prepared to receiue Christ, in whom all should bee sanctified to the Lord.

CHAP. III.

A prophetic of Christ and of his kingdom.

1 And he shewed me Jehohia the hie Priest, standing before the Angel of the Lord, and Satan stood at his right hand to resist him.
2 And the Lord said vnto Saran, The Lord reuolue thee, O Satan: euen the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem, reuolue thee. Is not this a bynde taken out of the fire?
3 Now Jehohia was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the Angel.
4 And he answered and spake vnto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And vnto him he said, Beholde, I haue caused thine iniquities to depart from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.
5 And I said, Let them set a faire diadem vpon his head, and clothed him with garments, & the Angel of the Lord stood by.
6 And the Angel of the Lord testified vnto Jehohia, saying,
7 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, If thou wilt walke in my wayes, and keepe my watche, thou shalt also iudge mine house, and shalt also keepe my courtes, pou, touchest the apple of his eye.
8 For beholde, I will lift up mine hand vpon them: and they shalbe a people to those that serued thee, and ye shal know, that the Lord of hostes hath sent me.
9 Keiopee, and be glad, O daughter Zion: for loe, I come, and will dwell in the middes of thee, saith the Lord.
10 And many nations shalbe ioyned to the Lord in that day, and shalbe my people: and I will dwell in the middes of thee, & thou shalt knowe that the Lord of hostes hath sent me vnto thee.
11 And the Lord shall inherite Iudah his portion in the holy land, and shall chooseth Jerusalem againe.
12 Let all flesh be still before the Lord: for he is rapied vpon out of his holy place.

and I will giue thee place among these that stand by.
8 Heare now, O Jehohia the hie Priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are notorious persons: but of the faithful behold, I will bring forth the my seruant.
9 For loe the stone that I haue layde besyde Jehohia: vpon one stone shalbe seven eyes: behold, I will cut out the graving thereof, saith the Lord of hostes, and follow my way, I will take away the iniquities of this land in one day.
10 In that day, saith the Lord of hostes, shall ye call euery man his neighbour by the name, and under the figge tree, and under the vine.

The vision of the golden candlelicke, & the exposition thereof.

1 And the Angel that talked with me, auncie againe & waked me, as a man that is rapt out of his sleepe.
2 And said vnto me, What seest thou? and I answered, I haue looked, & beholde, a candlelicke all of golde with a bowle vpon the top of it, and his seven lampes there in, a seven pipes to the lampes, which were vpon the top thereof.
3 And two olive trees ouer it, one vpon the right side of the bowle, and the other vpon the left side thereof.
4 So I answered, and spake to the Angel that talked with mee, saying, What are these, my Lord?
5 Then the Angel that talked with mee, answered and said vnto me, Knowest thou what this vision is? And I said, No, my Lord.
6 Then he answered and spake vnto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord vnto Zerubbabel, saying, Neither by an armur nor strength, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hostes.
7 Who art thou, O great mountaine, before Zerubbabel? thou shalt be a plaine, and he shall bring forth the head stone thereof.
c Who was a figure of Christ & therefore this doctrine was directed to all the Church who are his body & members. d He sheweth that Gods power only is sufficient to preserve his Church, though he use not mans help thereunto. e He compared the power of aduersaries to a great mountaine, who thought they would nothing in respect of the, & would haue hindered Zerubbabel, who represented Christ, whom his enemies daily labour to let in building of his spiritual Temple, but all in vaine. f Though the enemies should stay this building, yet Zerubbabel shall lay the highest stone thereof, & bring it to perfection, so that godly shall reioyce, & pray vnto God that he would continue his grace and fauour toward the Temple thereof.

8 Moreover, the voyde of the Loyde came vnto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel haue layd the foundation of this house: his hands shall also finish it, & thou shalt know that the Loyd of hosts hath sent me vnto you.

10 For who hath despised the dape of the small things? but they shall triumphe, and shall see the stone of time in the hande of Zerubbabel: these ten are the eys of the Loyd, which goe thorow the whole worlde.

11 Then answered I, and sayde vnto him, What are these two olme trees vpon the right and vpon the left side thereof?

12 And I spake moreover, and sayde vnto him, What be these two olme branches, which thorow the two golden pipes empye themselves into the golde?

9 Then lift I vpon mine eyes, and looked: and beholde, there came out two women, & the winde was in their wings (for they had wings like the wings of a stoike), and they lift up the Ephay betwene the earth and the heauen.

10 Then sayde I to the Angel that talked with mee, Whither do these beare the Ephay?

11 And he sayde vnto me, To burye it in a house in the land of Shinar, and it shall be established and set there vpon her owne place.

God would shew vp iniquity in a measure as in a prison. Which declared that God would execute his iudgements by the meanes of weak and infirme meanes. To remove the iniquity and afflictions that came for the same from Iudah, to place it for euer in Babylon.

By the four charites he describeth the four monar- chies.

2 In the first charite were red hoyses, and in the second charite blacke hoyses, and in the thirde charite white hoyses, and in the fourth charite, hoyses of diuers colours, and reddish.

3 Then I answered, and said vnto the Angel that talked with mee, What are these, my Loyd?

4 And the Angel answered, and sayde vnto me, These are the four spirites of the heauen, which goe forth from standing with the Loyd of all the earth.

5 That with the blacke hoise went forth into the land of the North, and the white went out after them, and they of diuers colours went forth towards the South, and the reddish went out, and requir'd to goe, and passe through the world, and he said, For passe through the world. So they went thorowout the world.

1 The vision of the flying booke, signifying the curse of them, and such as abuse the name of God. 6 By the vision of the measure is signified the bringing of Iudah afflictions into Babylon.

1 Then I turned me, & lifted vpon mine eyes, and looked, and beholde, a flying booke.

2 And he sayde vnto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying booke: the length thereof is twentie cubites, and the breadth thereof ten cubites.

3 Then saide he vnto me, This is the curse that goeth forth ouer the whole earth: for euery one that stealeth, shall be cut off auell on this side, as on that: and euery one that sweareth, shall be cut off auell on this side, as on that.

4 I will bring it forth, sayth the Loyde of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him, that falseth sweareth by my name: and it shall remaine in the muddes of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and stones thereof.

5 Then the Angel that talked with mee, went forth, and sayde vnto mee, Lift vpon now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

12 Pea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should heare the Lawe, and the wordes which the Lord of hostes sent in his spirit by the ministerie of former Prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hostes.

13 Therefore it is come to passe, that as he crept, and they would not heare, so they crept, and I would not heare, saith the Lord of hostes.

6 For I feede the sheepe of slaughter, euen the spoore of the flocke, and I tooke vnto me two stauces: the one I called Beautie, and the other I called Bandes, and I feede the sheepe.

7 Then shepherds also I cut off in one moneth, and my soule loathed them, and their soule abhorred me.

Malachi.

THE ARGUMENT.

This Prophet was one of the three, which God raised up for the comfort of his Church after the captiuitie, and after him there was no more vntill Iohn Baptill was sent, which was either a token of Gods wrath, or an admonition that they shoulde with more seruent desires looke for the coming of Messiah. Hee confirmeth the same doctrine, that the two former doe, but chiefly he reprobeth the Priestres for their couetousnesse, and for that they serued God after their owne fantasies, and not according to the prescript of his worde. He also noteth certaine peculiar finnes, which were then among them, as marrying of idolatrous and many wives, murmurings against God, impatience, and such like. Notwithstanding, for the comfort of the godly, he declareth that God would not forget his promises made vnto their fathers, but would send Christ his messenger, in whom the couenant should be accomplished, whose coming should be terrible to the wicked, and bring all consolation and ioy vnto the godly.

CHAP. I.

A complaint against Israel and chiefly the Priestres.

I have burdened the waydes of the Lord to Israel by the ministerie of Malachi.
I haue loued you, sayeth the Lord: yet ye say, <sup>1</sup> Where in hast thou loued vs? Was not Elan Iakobas brother, sayeth the Lord: yet I loued Iakob.
And I hated Elan, & made his mourn

tained waste, and his heritage a wilderness for dragons.
4 Though Edom say, We are unpouertised, but we will returne and build the desolate places, yet sayeth the Lord of hostes, They shall build, but I will destroy it, and they shall call them, The bozer of wickednesse, and the people, with whom the Lord is angry for euer.
5 And your eyes shall see it, and ye shall say, The Lord will be magnified upon the border of Israel.
6 A some honoureth his father, and a serueth his matter. If then I be a father, where is mine honour? And if I be a matter, where is my feare, sayeth the Lord of hostes vnto you, <sup>1</sup> O Priestres, that despise my name: and ye saye, <sup>1</sup> Wherein haue we despised thy name?

He thinketh it sufficient to keepe his wife still, albeit he take another, and so as it were couereth his fault. d. Ye murmured against God, because he heard not you as soon as ye called. e. In taking I God fauoured the wicked, and hath no respect to them before him. f. Thus they blasphemed God in condemning his just & iustice, because he iudged not according to their fatalities.

CHAP. III.

1. Of the messengers of the Lord John Baptist, and of Christes office.

Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his Temple: then the messenger of the covenant will come to you. Behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall endure, when he appeareth? for he is like a purging fire, and like fullers sope. And hee shall sit downe to trie and fine the silver: he shall enen fine the sonnes of Leui, and purifie them as golde and silver, that they may bring offerings unto the Lord in righteousness. Then shall the offerings of Judah & Jerusalem be acceptable unto the Lord, as in olde time and in the peeres afore. And I will come neere to you to indgement, & I will be a swift witness against the soothsayers, & against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that wrongfully keepe backe the hirelings wages, and vex the widowes & the fatherlesse, and oppresse the stranger, and feare not me, saith the Lord of hosts. For I am the Lord: I change not, and ye sonnes of Iacob are not consumed. And hee shall make them cleane. e. He beginneth at first, & they might be lights & shine vnto others. f. They murmured against God, because they saw not his helpe ever prent to defend them: & therefore he accuseth the of ingratitude, & sheweth that they are not daily consumed, it is a token, y he doeth defend them, and so his mercie toward them neuer changeth.

7 From the bapes of your fathers, ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and haue not kept them: returne vnto me, and I will returne vnto you, saith the Lord of hosts: but pe say, Wherem shall we returne? 8 Will a man spoile his gods? per haue ye spoiled me: but pe say, Wherem haue we spoiled thee? In riches, & offerings. 9 We are cursed with a curse: for ye haue spoiled me, enen this whole nation. 10 Bring ye all the riches into the store: i. Whereby the house that there may be meate in mine seruice of God. House, & proue me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windowes of heauen vnto you, & poure a blessing without measure. 11 And I will rebuke the benourer for your ued. fakes, and he shall not destroy the fruit of the field, saith the Lord of hosts. 12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a pleasant land, saith the Lord of hosts. 13 Your wordes haue bene stouthe against me, saith the Lord: per pe say, What haue we spoken against thee? 14 We haue sayde, It is in vaine to serue God: and what profit is it that we haue kept his commandment, & that we walk humbly before the Lord of hosts? 15 Therefore we count the mounds blessed: euen they that toyke twickenelle are set up, and they that tempt God, per, they are deliuered. 16 Then spake they that feared the Lord, euery one to his neighbour, and the Lord hearkened and heard it, and a booke of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought vpon his name. 17 And they shalbe to me, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day: that I shall doe this, for a stocke, and I will spare them, as a man spareth his owne sonne that serueth him. 18 Then shall you returne, and discern betweene the righteous & wicked, betwene him that serueth God, & him that serueth him not. 19 After these admonitions of the Prophet some were liuely touched, & encouraged others to feare God. 20 Both because the thing was strange, that some turned to God in that great and vniuersall corruption, and also that this might be an example of Gods mercies to all penitent sinners. 21 When I shall restore my Church according to my promise, they shall be as mine owne proper goods. 22 That is, forgive their sinnes, and gouerne them with my Spirit.

CHAP. IIII.

The day of the Lords, before the which Elisha should come.

Behold, the day cometh that I shall burne as an oven, and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble, & the day that cometh, I shall burne them up, saith the Lord of hosts, and shall leaue them, neither roote nor branch. But vnto you that feare my name, shall I send him for the restauration of his Church.

And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a pleasant land, saith the Lord of hosts. Your wordes haue bene stouthe against me, saith the Lord: per pe say, What haue we spoken against thee? It is in vaine to serue the God: and what profit is it that we haue kept his commandment, & that we walk humbly before the Lord of hosts? Therefore we count the mounds blessed: euen they that toyke twickenelle are set up, and they that tempt God, per, they are deliuered. Then spake they that feared the Lord, euery one to his neighbour, and the Lord hearkened and heard it, and a booke of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought vpon his name. And they shalbe to me, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day: that I shall doe this, for a stocke, and I will spare them, as a man spareth his owne sonne that serueth him. Then shall you returne, and discern betweene the righteous & wicked, betwene him that serueth God, & him that serueth him not. After these admonitions of the Prophet some were liuely touched, & encouraged others to feare God. Gospel, which comunneth the joy-
full message of the coming of the sonne of God promised from the beginning.
<sup>b</sup> That is, written and taught by Matthe we.

IN this historie written by Matthe we, Marke, Luke, and Iohn, the spirite of God so gouerned their hearts, that although they were foure in number, yet in effect and purpose they so consent, as though the whole had bene composed by any one of them. And albeit in stile and maner of writing they be diuers, and sometime one writeth more largely than which the other doth abridge: neuertheles in matter and argument they all tende to one ende: which is, to publish to the worlde the fauour of GOD towards mankind through Christ Iesus, whome the Father hath giuen as a pledge of his mercie and loue. And for this cause they intule their storie, Gospel, which signifieth good tidings, forasmuch as God hath performed in deede that which y fathers hoped for. So that hereby we are admonished to forsake the world, & the vanities thereof, and with most affectioned hearts embrace this incomparable treasure freely offered vnto vs: for there is no ioy nor consolation, no peace nor quietnesse, no felicitie nor saluation, but in Iesus Christ, who is the very substance of this Gospel, and in whom all the promises are Yea, and Amen. And therefore vnder this worde is contained the whole Newe Testament: but commonly we vse this name for the historie, which the foure Euangelistes write, containing Christes coming in the flesh, his death and resurrection, which is the perfect summe of our saluation. Matthe we, Marke, and Luke are more copious in describing his life & death: but Iohn more laboureth to set forth his doctrine, wherein both Christes office, and also the vertue of his death & resurrection more fully appeare: for without this, to knowe that Christ was borne, dead and risen againe, shoulde nothing profite vs. The which thing notwithstanding that the three first touch partly, as he also sometime intermedleth the historicall narration, yet Iohn chiefly is occupied herein. And therefore as a most learned interpreter writeth, they describe, as it were, the body, and Iohn setteth before our eyes the soule. Wherefore the same aptly termeth the Gospel written by Iohn, the key which openeth the doore to the vnderstanding of the others: for whosoever doeth knowe the office, vertue and power of Christ, shal read that which is written of the Sonne of God come to be the redeemer of the world, with most profite. Now as concerning the writers of this historie, it is euident that Matthe we was a Publicane, or custome gatherer, and was thence chosen of Christ to be an Apostle. Marke is thought to haue bene Peters disciple, and to haue planted the first Church at Alexandria, where he died the eight yere of the reigne of Nero. Luke was a Physician of Antiochia and became Pauls disciple, and fellowe in all his trauails: he liued fourescore and foure yeres, and was buried at Constantinople. Iohn was that Apostle whom the Lord loued, the sonne of Zebedeus, and brother of Iames: he died three score yeres after Christ, and was buried neere to the citie of Ephesus.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteene generations. And from David until they were carried away into Babilon, fourteene generations:
and after they were carried away into Babilon, untill Christ, fourteene generations.

18 I shew the birth of IESVS Christ was thus. When as his mother Marie was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with childe of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a iust man, & not willing to make her a pub-like example, was minded to put her away secretly.

20 But whiles hee thought these things, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph the sonne of David, feare not to take Marie for thy wife: for that which is concerned in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a sonne, & thou shalt call his name: IESVS: for he shall save his people from their sinnes.

22 And all this was done that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lord
by the Prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a Virgin shall be with childe,
and shall beare a sonne, & they shall call his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleepe,
did as the Angel of the Lord had inuoiced him, and took his wife.

25 But hee knewe her not, till shee had brought forth her first borne sonne, and he called his name IESVS.

there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem, saying, Where is the King of the Jewes that is borne? for we have seen his starre in the East, and are come to worship him.

3 When King Herode heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chiefe Priests & Scribes of the people, he asked of them, where Christ should be borne.

5 And they sayde unto him, At Beth-le-hem in Iudea: for so it is written by the Prophet,

6 And thou Beth-lehem in the land of Iuda, art not the least among the princes of Iuda: for out of thee shall come the governour that shall feede my people Israel.

7 Then Herode secretly called the Wise men, and diligently inquired of them the time of the starre that appeared,

8 And sent them to Beth-lehem, saying,
Behold, I have searched diligently for the babe:
and when ye have found him, bring me word againe, that I may come also, and
worship him.

9 So when they had heard the King,
they departed: and loe, the starre which they had seen in the East, went before them, till it came, and stood over the place where the babe was.

10 And when they sawe the starre, they rejoyced with an exceeding great ioye.

11 And went into the house, and found the babe with Marie his mother, & fell down, and worshipped him, and opened their treasuries, and presented unto him gifts,

12 And after they were warned of God in a dream, that they should not go againe to Herode, they returned into their country another way.

13 After their departure, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the babe
and his mother, and flee into Egypt,
and be there till I bring thee word: for Herode
will seek the babe, to destroy him.

14 So he arose and took the babe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

15 And was there unto the death of He-rode: that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying,
Out of Egypt have I called my sonne.

16 Then Herode, seeing that hee was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, & slew all the male children that were in Beth-lehem, and in all the coastes therof, from two yeere
old and under, according to the time which he had diligently searched out of the wise men.

shouldest dash thy foot against a stone.
7 Jesus said vnto him, It is written as gaine, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
8 Againe the deuill tooke him vp vnto an exceeding high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, and the glorie of them,
9 And sayd to him, All these will I giue thee, if thou wilt fall down, & worship me.
10 Then said Iesus vnto him, * Thou shalt say: for it is written, * Thou shalt wor-thou serue.

11 * Then the deuill left him: and beholde,
the Angels came, and ministered vnto
him.
12 * And when Iesus had heard that John was deliuered vp, he returned into Galilee.
13 And leauing Nazareth, went & dwelt in Capernaum, which is nere the sea, in the borders of Zabulon & Nephtalim, 14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Elias the Prophet, saying, 15 * The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephtalim by the way of the sea, beyond Iordan, * Galilee of the Gentiles:
16 The people which sat in darkness,
sawe great light: and to them which sat
in the region and shadow of death, light is risen vp.
17 * From that time Iesus began to preache, and to say, Amend your liues:
for the kingdome of heauen is at hand.
18 * And Iesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon, which was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishers.)
19 And he sayde vnto them, Follow me
now, and I will make you fishers of men.
20 And they straightway leauing their nets, followed him.
21 And when he was gone forth from thence, he sawe other two brethren, James the sonne of Zebedeus, and John his brother in a shippe with Zebedeus their father, mending their nets, and he called them.
22 And they without tarrying, leauing
the ship and their father, followed him.
23 So Iesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdome, and healing euery sicknesse and euery disease
among the people.
24 And his fame spred abroad through all Syria: & they brought vnto him all sicke people, that were taken with diuers di-scaises and gripings, and them that were possessed with deuils, and those which were lame, and those that had the palsie: and he healed them.
25 And there followed him great multitudes out of Galilee, and Decapolis, and Ierusalem, and Iudea, and from beyond Iordan.

24 Leave there thine offering before the altar, and goe thy way: first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 * Agree with thine aduersarie quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him, least thine aduersarie deliver thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliver thee to the sergeant, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Woe be it say vnto thee, thou shalt not come out thence, till thou hast payed the utmost farthing.

27 * Ye haue heard that it was sayde to them of olde tyme, * Thou shalt not commit adultery.

28 But I say vnto you, that whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 * Wherefore if thy right eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out, and cast it from thee: for better it is for thee that one of thy members perish, then that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 Also if thy right hand make thee to offend, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for better it is for thee that one of thy members perish, then that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath bene sayde also, * Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him giue her a testimoniall of diuorcement.

32 But I say vnto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife (except it be for fornication) causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marie her that is diuorced, committeth adultery.

33 Again, ye haue heard that it was sayde to them of olde tyme, * Thou shalt not forswear thy selfe, but shalt perforce thine othes to the Lord.

34 But I say vnto you, * Swear not at all, neither by heauen, for it is the throne of God:

35 Nor yet by the earth: for it is his foorsteole: neither by Ierusalem: for it is the cite of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou sweare by thine head, because thou canst not make one haire white or blacke.

37 * But let your communication be, * Yea, I am, & Nay, I am not. For whatsoever is more, then these, cometh of euill.

38 * Ye haue heard that it hath bene sayde, * An eye for an eye, & a tooth for a tooth.

39 But I say vnto you, * Resist not euill: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheeke, turne to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coate, let him haue thy cloake also.

41 And whosoever will compell thee to goe a mile, go with him twaine.

42 * Come to him that asketh, and from him that would boiow of thee, turne not away.

43 Ye haue heard that it hath bene sayde, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour, & hate thine enemy.

44 But I say vnto you, * Loue your enemies: blessed they that curse you: do good to them that hate you, & pray for them which hurt you, and persecute you,

45 * That ye may be the children of your Father that is in heauen: for he maketh his sunne to arise on the euill, and the good, and sendeth raine on the iust, and vniust.

46 * For if ye loue them, which loue you, what rewarde shall you haue? Do not they the publicanes euen the same?

47 And if ye be friendly to your brethren onely, what singular thing doe ye? doe not euen the publicanes like wise?

48 Ye shall therefore be perfect, as your Father which is in heauen, is perfect.

CHAP. VI.

Of almes, 5 Prayer, 14 Forgiving one another, 16 Fasting. 19 He forbiddeth the carefull seeking of worldly things, and willet men to put their whole trust in him.

Take heed that ye giue not your almes before men, to be seene of them, or else ye shall haue no rewarde of your Father which is in heauen.

2 Therefore when thou giuest thine almes, thou shalt not make a trumpet to be blown before thee, as the hypocrites doe in the Synagogues & in the streets, to be praised of men. Woe be it say vnto you, they haue their reward.

3 But when thou doest thine almes, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth.

4 That thine almes may be in secret, and thy Father that seeth in secret, he will rewarde thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, be not as the hypocrites: for they loue to stande, and pray in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, because they would be seene of men. Woe be it say vnto you, they haue their rewarde.

12 ¶ Therefore whatsoeuer ye woulde that men should do to you, rue so do ye to the: for this is the Lawe and the Prophets.

13 ¶ Enter in at the straight gate: for it is the wide gate, and broad: way that leadeth to destruction: and many there be which goe in thereat.

14 Because the gate is strait, and the way narrow that leadeth vnto life, and fewe there be that finde it.

15 ¶ Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are rauening wolves.

16 Ye shall knowe them by their fruites. ¶ Doe men gather grapes of thornes? or figges of thistles?

17 So euery good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and a corrupt tree bringeth forth euill fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth euill fruit: neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 ¶ Euery tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore by their fruites ye shall knowe them.

21 ¶ Not euery one that saith vnto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdome of heauen, but he that doth the will which is in heauen.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, haue we not by thy name prophesied: and by thy name cast out demones: & by thy name done many great wondrous?

23 And then will I yfesse to them, I neuer knewe you: depart from me, ye that worke iniquitie.

24 Whosoever then heareth of me these wordes, & doeth the same, I will liken him to a wise man, which hath builded his house on a rocke:

25 And the raine fell, and the floods came, and the windes blew, & beat vpon that house, and it fell not: for it was grounded on a rocke.

26 But who so euer heareth these my wordes, & doeth them not, shall be likened vnto a foolish man, which hath builded his house vpon the sand:

27 And the raine fell, & the floods came, & the windes blew, & beat vpon that house, and it fell, and the fall thereof was great.

28 ¶ And it came to passe, when Iesus had ended these wordes, the people were astonished at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one hauing authoritie, and not as the Scribes.

5 The Scribe that would follow Christ. 6 Christs pouertie. 7 He filleth the sea & the wind. 8 And demeth the demes out of the possessed, into the sea.

9 ¶ Now when he was come down from the mountaine, great multitudes followed him.

10 And loe, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, if thou wilt,

thou canst make me cleane.

11 And Iesus putting forth his hande, touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane: & immediatly his leprosie was cleansed.

12 ¶ Then Iesus said vnto him, See thou tell no man, but goe, and shew thy selfe vnto the Priest, & offer the gift that Moses commaunded, for a witnes to them.

13 ¶ When Iesus was entred into Capernaum, there came vnto him a Centurion, beseeching him,

14 And said, Master, my seruant lieth sicke at home of the palsey, and is grievously pained.

15 And Iesus sayde vnto him, I will come and heale him.

16 But the Centurion answered, saying, Master, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come vnder my roofe: but speake the word, and my seruant shall be healed.

17 For I am a man also vnder the authoritie of another, and haue souldiers vnder me: and I say to one, Come, and he cometh: and to another, Goe, and he goeth: and to my seruant, Doe this, & he doeth it.

18 ¶ When Iesus heard that, he marvelled, and said to them that followed him, Verily, I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great faith, euen in Israel.

19 But I say vnto you, that many shall come from the East & West, and shall sit downe with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdome of heauen.

20 And the children of the kingdome shall be cast out into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

21 ¶ Then Iesus sayde vnto the Centurion, Goe thy way, & as thou hast beleued, so be it vnto thee. And his seruant was healed the same houre.

22 ¶ And when Iesus came to Peters house, he sawe his wifes mother layed downe, and sicke of a feuer.

23 And he touched her hand, and the feuer left her: so she arose, & ministered vnto the.

24 ¶ When the euen was come, they brought vnto him many that were possessed with demones: & he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sicke.

25 ¶ That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Elias the Prophet, saying, I will take our iniquities, and bare our sicknesse.

26 ¶ And when Iesus sawe great multitudes of people about him, he commaunded them to goe ouer the water.

27 ¶ Then came there a certaine Scribe, & said vnto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

28 But Iesus saide vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nestes, but the Sonne of man hath not wherewith to rest his head.

29 ¶ And another of his disciples said vnto him, Master, suffer me first to go, & burie my father.

30 Iesus maketh mention of three, which were hindered by worldly respectes from coming to Christ. k To succour & help him in his old age till he die, and then I will follow thee wholly.

a It was not like that leprosy that is now, but was a kinde thereof which was incurable.

24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, so that the ship was couered with waues: but he was a sleepe.

25 Then his disciples came, & awoke him, saying, Master, haue vs: we perishe.

26 And he saide vnto them, Why are ye so fearefull, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the windes & the sea: and so there was a great calme.

27 And the men maruiled, saying, What man is this, that both the windes and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side, into the countrey of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, which came out of the graues be rie fierce, so that no man might goe by that way.

29 And behold, they cryed out, saying, Iesus the sonne of God, what haue we to doe with thee? Art thou come hither to torment vs? before the time?

30 Now there was a far off from them, a great heard of swine feeding.

31 And the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast vs out, suffer vs to go into the heard of swine.

32 And he saide vnto them, Goe. So they went out, and departed into the heard of swine: and beholde, the whole heard of swine was caried with violence from a sleepe downe place into the sea, & died in the water.

33 Then the heardmen fled: & when they were come into the citie, then tolde all things, and what was become of them that were possessed with the devils.

5 For whether is it easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walke?

6 And that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive sinnes, (then said he vnto the sicke of the palse,) Arise, take vp thy bed, and go to thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his owne house.

8 So when the multitude saue it, they maruiled, and glorified God, which had giuen such authoritie to men.

9 ¶ And as Iesus passed forth from thence, he saue a man sitting at the receiue of custome, named Matthew, and said to him, Followe me. And he arose, and folowed him.

10 And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at meate in his house, behold, many Publi- cenes and sinners, that came thither, sate downe at the table with Iesus and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saue that, they sayd to his disciples, Why eareth you master with Publicanes and sinners?

12 Now when Iesus heard it, he said vnto them, The whole neede not a phisition, but they that are sicke.

13 But go ye and learne what this is, I will haue mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came the disciples of Iohn to him, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, and thy disciples fast not?

15 And Iesus saide vnto them, Can the children of the marriage chamber mourne as long as the bridegrome is with them? But the dayes wil come when the bridegrome shalbe taken from them, and then shall they fast.

To blinde men.

comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole at that houre.)

23 Now when Jesus came into the rulers house, and sawe the minstreis and the multitude making noise,

24 He saide vnto them, Get you hence: for the maide is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to skorne.

25 And when he multitude were put forth, he went in and tooke her by the hand, and the maide arose.

26 And this byrte went throughtout all that land.

27 And as Jesus departed thence, two blinde men followed him, crying, and saying, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie vpon vs.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blinde came to him, and Jesus sayde vnto them, Wheloue ye that I am able to do this: And they said vnto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, Accoing to your faith be it vnto you.

30 And their eyes were opened, & Jesus charged them, saying, See that no man knowe it.

31 But when they were departed, they spiedde abroa his fame throughtout all that land.

32 ¶ And as they went out, beholde they brought to him a domine man possessed with a deuil.

33 And when the deuil was cast out, the domine spake: then the multitude marvelled, saying, The like was neuer seene in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees sayde, * He * casteth out deuils, through the prince of deuils.

35 ¶ And * Jesus went about all cities and townes, teaching in their Synagogues, & preaching the Gospel of the * kingdome, and healing euery sickness and euery dis-ease among the people.

36 But * when he sawe the multitude, he had compassion vpon them, because they were disperfed, and scattered abroa, as shepe hauing no shepheard.

37 Then sayd he to his disciples, * Surely the * harvest is great, but the labourers are fewe.

38 Wherefore wia the Lord of the harvest, that he would * send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAP. X.

5 Christ sendeth out his Apostles to preach in Iudea.

7 He giueth them charge, teacheth them, and comforteth them against persecution. 20 The holy Ghost speaketh by his minister. 28 Vnto home we ought to haue.

30 Our heares are counted. 32 To confesse Christ. 37 Not to loue our parents more then Christ. 38 To take up our crosse. 39 To some or lose the life. 40 To receive the preacher.

1 And * he called his twelue Disciples, vnto him, and gaue them power against vnicleane spirites, to cast them out, and to heale euery sickness, and euery dis-ease.

2 Nowe the names of the twelue Apostles are these. The first is Simon, called Peter, and Andrew his brother: * Or, shezaloue. James the sonne of Zebedeus, and John his brother:

3 Philip and Bartlemew: Thomas, and Matthew the Publicane: James the sonne of Alphens, and Lebbeus whose surname was Thaddaeus:

4 Simon * the Cananite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelue did Jesus send forth, & commanded them, saying, Go not into the house of the Gentiles, and into the cities of the Samaritanes enter ye not:

6 But go rather * to the * lost shepe of the house of Israel.

7 * And as ye goe, preach, saying, The kingdome of heauen is at hand.

8 Heale the sicke: cleanse the lepers: raise vp the dead: cast out ye deuils. Freely ye haue receiued, * freely giue.

9 * Possesse not * golde, nor siluer, nor money in your * girdles,

10 Nor a scrippe for the iourney, neyther two coats, neyther shoes, nor a staffe: * for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into * what soeuer citie or towne ye shall come, enquire who is worthy in it, & there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute the same.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come vpon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace returne to you.

14 * And whosoever shall not receiue you, nor heare your wordes, when ye depart out of that house, or that citie, * shake off the dust of your feete.

15 Truly I say vnto you, it shall be easier for them of the land of * Sodom and * Gomorha in the day of iudgement, then for that citie.

16 ¶ Behold, I sende you as shepe in the muddes of wolues: be ye therfore wise as serpents, and * innocent as doves.

17 But beware of men, for they will deliuer you by to the Councils, and will scourge you in their Synagogues.

18 And ye shall be brought to the gouernours and kings for my sake, in * witness to them, and to the Gentiles.

19 * But when they deliuer you by, take no thought how or what ye shall speake: for it shall be giuen you in that houre, what ye shall say.

20 For it is not ye that speake, but the spirit of your father which speaketh in you.

21 And the * brother shall betraye the brother to death, & the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

22 And ye shall be * hated of all men for my name: * but he that endureth to the end, he shall be saved.

23 And when they persecute you in this citie, flee * into another: for verely I say vnto you, ye shall not finish all the cities of Israel, till the * Sonne of man be come.

they haue called the master of the house * Beezebub, how much more they of his household?
26 Feare them not therefore: * for there is

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ preacheth. 2 Iohn Baptist sendeth his Disciples vnto him. 3 Christes testimonie concerning Iohn. 18 The opinion of the people concerning

Christ and Iohn. 20 Christ upbraideth the Pharisees. 21 The Gospel is revealed to the simple. 22 They that labour, and are laden. 23 Christes yoke.

- 1 And it came to passe that when Ies-
us had made an ende of commanding his twelue disciples, he depared thence to teach, and to preach in their cities.
2 * And when Iohn heard in the prison
the workes of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said vnto him, 3 Art thou he that should come, or shall we looke for another?
4 And Iesus answering, sayde vnto them,
Go, and shew Iohn what things ye haue heard and seene.
5 The blinde receiue sight, and the halte
goe: the lepers are cleansed, and the deafe heare: the dead are raised vp, * and the poore receiue the Gospel.
6 And blisfed is he that shall not be offended in me.
7 And as they departed, Iesus beganne to speake vnto a multitude of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? * * reede I haue with the wilde:
8 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that weare soft clothing, are in kings houses.
9 But what went ye out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say vnto you, and a more then a Prophet.
10 For this is he of whom it is written,
* Behold, I sende my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
11 Verily I saye vnto you, among them
which are * begotten of women, there is not a greater then Iohn Baptist:
notwithstanding, he that is the * least in the kingdom of heauen, is greater then he.
12 And from * the time of Iohn Baptist therto, the kingdom of heauen suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.
13 For all the Prophets and the Lawe prophesied vnto Iohn.
14 And if ye will receiue it, this is * Elias,
which was to come.
15 * Ye that hath eares to heare, let him
heare.
16 * But wherunto shall I liken this generation? It is like vnto litle children which sit in the markets, and call vnto
their fellows,
17 And say, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not daunced, we haue * mourned
vnto you, and ye haue not lamented.
18 For Iohn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a deuill.
19 The sonne of man came eating & drinking, and they say, Behold a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend vnto Publi-cans and sinners: but * wisdome is ius-tified of her children.
20 * Then began he to upbraid the Pharisees, and more cleare. i Meaning his testimonie concerning Iohn. Mal. 1.5. Luk. 7.31.32. * Or, sing mourning. k They that are wise in deede, acknowledge y wisdome of God in him, y the Pharisees contemne, reade Luke 7.29. Luk. 10.13.
ties,

14 So in them is fulfilled the prophete of Isaias, which prophesie saith, "As hearing, ye shall heare, and shall not understand, and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive."

15 For this peoples heart is waxed fat, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes they have winked, least they should see with their eyes, & heare with their eares, and should understand with their hearts, and should returne, that I might heale them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your eares, for they heare.

17 For verily I say unto you, that many Prophets, and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them, and to heare those things which ye heare, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Heare ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 Whensoever a man heareth the worde of the kingdome, & understandeth it not, the euill one cometh, & catcheth away that which was sown in his heart: and this is he which hath receiued the seed by the way side.

20 And he that receiued seed in the stonie grounde, is he which heareth the word, and continually with ioy receiueth it.

21 Yet hath he no roote in himselfe, & durst but a season: for as soone as tribulation or persecution cometh, because of the word, he and he is offended.

22 And he that receiueith the seed among thornes, is he that heareth the word: but the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the worde, and he is made unfruitfull.

23 But he that receiueith the seed in the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it, which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixtie fold, and some thirtie fold.

24 ¶ Another parable putt he forth unto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man which sowed good seed in his fildes.

25 But while men slept, there came his enemy, & sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 And when the blade was sprung up, & brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 Then came the seruants of the householder, and said vnto him, Master, sowest thou not good seed in thy fildes? from whence then hath it tares?

28 And hee sayde to them, The enuious man hath done this. Then the seruants sayd vnto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them vp?

29 But he sayd, Nay, lest while ye go about to gather the tares, ye plucke vp also with them the wheat.

30 Let both growe together untill the harvest, and in time of harvest I will sape to the reapers, Gather first the tares, and binde them in sheaves to burne them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable he put forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a graine of mustard seed, which a man taketh and soweth in his fildes:

32 Which in dede is the least of all seedes: but when it is growen, it is the greatest among herbes, and it is a tree, so that the birdes of heauen come and build in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he to them, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto leaven, which a woman taketh and hideth in three peckes of meale, till all be leavened.

34 ¶ All these things spake Iesus vnto the multitude in parables, and without parables spake he not to them.

35 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables, and will utter the things which have bene kept secret from the foundation of the world."

36 Then sent Iesus the multitude away, & went into the house. And his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the fildes.

37 Then answered he, & sayd to them, He that soweth the good seed, is the Sonne of man.

38 And the fildes is the worlde, and the good seed, they are the children of the kingdome, and the tares are the children of the wicked.

39 And the enemy that soweth them, is the deuill, & the harvest is the ende of the worlde, and the reapers be the Angels.

40 As then the tares are gathered & burned in the fire, so shall it be in the ende of this worlde.

41 The Sonne of man shal send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdome all things that offend, and them which do iniquitie.

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire. There shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 ¶ Then shall the iust men shine as the sunne in the kingdome of their Father. Hee that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 ¶ Again the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a treasure hid in a fildes, which when a man hath found, he hideth it, and for ioye thereof departeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that fild.

45 ¶ Again the kingdome of heauen is like to a merchant man, that seeketh good pearles.

46 Who hauing founde a pearle of great price, went, and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a drawe net cast into the sea, which gathereth of all kindes of things.

48 Which, when it is full, men drawe it, and sitte and gather the good into that come in vessels, the way.

49 So shall it be in the ende of the world. The Angels shall goe forth, and sever the bad from among the iust,

50 And shall cast them into a foyr of fire: there shall be weeping, & gnashing of teeth.

51 ¶ Jesus sayd vnto them, Vnderstande ye all these things? They sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he vnto them, Therefore enserue ye a scribe which is taught vnto the kingdom of heauē, is like vnto an householder, which buyeth forth out of his treasure things both newe and olde.

53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Jesus had ended these parables, he departed thence.

54 ¶ And came into his owne countrey, & taught them in their Synagogue, so that they were astonished, and sayde, Whence cometh this wisdomē & great wylkes vnto this man?

55 Is not this the carpenters sonne? is not his mother called Marie, and his brethren James & Ioseph, and Simon and Judas?

56 And are not his sisters all with vs? Whence then hath he all these things?

57 And they were offended with him. Then Jesus sayd to them, ¶ A Prophet is not without honoꝝ, & saue in his owne countrey, and in his owne house.

58 And hee did not many great wylkes there, for they vnbeleue in him.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Herodas opinion concerning Christ. 10 John is beheaded. 19 Christ feedeth fife thousand men with fife loaves and two fishes. 23 His prayeth in the mountaine. 25 He appeareth by night vnto his disciples vpon the Sea. 31 And Ioseph Peter. 33 They confesse him to be the Sonne of God. 36 He healeth all that touched the hemme of his garment.

¶ At that time Herode the Tetrarche heard of the fame of Jesus,

¶ And sayd vnto his seruants, This is John Baptist: hee is risen againe from the dead, & therefore great wylkes are wrought by him.

¶ For Herode had taken John, & bounde him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his wythes Philips wife.

¶ For John sayde vnto him, It is not lawful for thee to haue her.

¶ And when he would haue put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a Prophet.

¶ But when Herodes birth day was kept, the daughter of Herodias daunced before them, and pleased Herode.

¶ Wherefore he promised with an othe, that he would giue her whatsoeuer she would aske.

¶ And shee being before instructed of her mother, sayd, Giue me here John Baptistes head in a platter.

¶ And the king was sope: neuertheless because of the othe, and them that sate with him at the table, he commaunded it to be giuen her,

¶ And sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and giuen to the mayde, and she brought it vnto her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and tooke vp his bodie, and buried it, and went, and tolde Jesus.

13 ¶ And when Jesus heard it, hee departed thence by shippe into a desert place apart. And when the multitude had heard it, they followed him afoote out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth and saw a great multitude, and was incouraged with compassion toward them, & he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when euen was come, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, & the houre is already past: let the multitude depart, that they may goe into the towne, and buye them victuals.

16 But Jesus said to them, They haue no neede to goe away: giue ye them to eat.

17 Then said they vnto him, We haue here but fife loaves, and two fishes.

18 And he said, Saying them hither to me.

19 And he commaunded the multitude to sit bolwe on the grasse, & take the fife loaves and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen and blessed, and brake, & gaue the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were sufficed, and they tooke vp of the fragments that remained, twelue baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten, were about fife thousand men, besides women and little children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus compelled his disciples to enter into a ship, and to goe ouer before him, while he sent the multitude away.

23 And assoone as he had sent the multitude away, he went vp into a mountaine alone to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 And the ship was now in the mids of the sea, and was tossed with waues: for it was a contrary winde.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went vnto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when his disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, and cried out for feare.

27 But straightway Jesus spake vnto them, saying, Be of good comfort. It is I: hee is not afraid.

28 Then Peter answered him, and sayde, Master, if it be thou, bid me come vnto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the shippe, he walked on the water, to goe to Jesus.

30 But when he sawe a mighty winde, he was afraid: and as he began to sinke, he cryed, saying, Master, saue me.

31 So immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and sayde to him, O thou of little faith, wherefore diddest thou doubt?

32 And assoone as they were come into the shippe, once.

CHAP. XV.

1 Chriſt excuſeth his diſciples, & rebuketh the Scribes & Phar. ſei for tranſgreſſing Gods commandment by their owne tradition. 13 The plant that ſhalbe rooted out. 18 Vnto things deſile a man. 23 He diſcuereth the woman of Canaan: daughter. 26 The bread of the children. 30 He healeth the ſicke, 36 And ſedeth foure thouſand men, beſide women and children.

1 ¶ Then came to Ieſus the Scribes and Phariſei, which were of Ieruſalem, ſaying,

2 ¶ Why doe thy diſciples tranſgreſſe the tradition of the Elders: for they wath not their handes when they eate bread.

3 ¶ But he answered and ſayde vnto them, Why doe ye alſo tranſgreſſe the commandment of God by your tradition:

4 ¶ For God hath commaunded, ſaying, Honour thy father and mother: and he that curſeth father or mother, let him dye the death.

5 But ye ſay, Whoeuer ſhal ſay to father or mother, ¶ Woe the gift that is offered by me, thou mayeſt haue profit,

6 ¶ Though he honour not his father, or his mother, ſhall be free: thus haue ye made the commandment of God of no authoritie by your tradition.

7 ¶ Hypocrites, Elias prophesied well of you, ſaying,

8 ¶ This people brayeth nere vnto mee with their mouth, and honoureth mee with the lippes, but their heart is ſure off from mee.

9 But in name they worſhip me, teaching for doctrine, mens preceptes.

10 ¶ Then he called a multitude vnto him, and ſaid to them, Heare and vnderſtand.

11 ¶ That which goeth into the mouth, deſileth not the man, but that which cometh out of the mouth, that deſileth the man.

12 ¶ Then came his diſciples, & ſayd vnto him, Perceiueſt thou not, that the Phariſeiſes are offended in hearing this ſaying:

13 ¶ But he answered and ſayde, ¶ Every plant which minne heauenly Father hath not planted, ſhalbe rooted by.

14 ¶ Let them alone: they be the blinde leaders of the blinde: and if the blinde leade the blinde, both ſhall fall into the ditch.

15 ¶ ¶ Then answered Peter, and ſayde to him, Declare vnto vs this parable.

16 ¶ Then ſayde Ieſus, Are ye yet without vnderſtanding:

17 ¶ Perceiue ye not yet, that whatſoener

he ſay, and is caſt out into the daughte:

18 ¶ But thoſe things which procede out of the mouth, come from the heart, and they deſile the man.

19 ¶ For out of the heart come euill thoughtes, murders, adulteries, fornications, theſes, falſe teſtimones, flammes, corrupt affectiones of the heart.

20 ¶ Theſe are the thinges, which deſile the man: but to eate with vnwaſhen handes, deſileth not the man.

21 ¶ And Ieſus went thence, and departed into the coaſtes of Tyne and Sidon.

22 ¶ And behold, a woman a Cananite came out of the ſame coaſtes, and cried, ſaying vnto him, Haue mercy on me, O Ieſu, the ſonne of Dauid: my daughter is miſerably vexed with a deuill.

23 ¶ But he answered her not a word. ¶ Then came to him his diſciples, and beſought him, ſaying, Send her away, for ſhe crieth after vs.

24 ¶ But he answered, and ſayde, I am not ſent, but vnto the loſt ſheepe of the houſe of Iſrael.

25 ¶ Yet ſhe came, and worſhipped him, ſaying, Lord, helpe me.

26 ¶ And he answered, and ſayde, It is not good to take the childrens bread, and to caſt it to whelpes.

27 ¶ But ſhe ſayd, Emeth, Lord: yet in daide the whelpes eate of the crummes, which fall from their maſters table.

28 ¶ Then Ieſus answered, and ſayde vnto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it to thee, as thou deſireſt. And her daughter was made whole at that houre.

29 ¶ So Ieſus went away from thence, & came nere vnto the ſea of Galile, and went by vnto a mountaine & ſate downe there.

30 ¶ And great multitudes came vnto him, hauing with them, halt, blinde, dumme, manned, and many other, and caſt them downe at Ieſus feet, & he healed them.

31 ¶ In ſo much that the multitude wooned, to ſee the dumme ſpeake, the manned whole, the halt to goe, and the blinde to ſee: and they glorified the God of Iſrael.

32 ¶ ¶ Then Ieſus called his diſciples vnto him, and ſayde, ¶ I haue compaſſion on this multitude, becauſe they haue continued with mee already three dayes, and haue nothing to eate: and I will not let them depart ſaltung, leaſt they faint in the way.

33 ¶ And his diſciples ſayde vnto him, Whence ſhould we get ſo much bread in the wilderness, as ſhould ſuffice to great a multitude:

34 ¶ And Ieſus ſayd vnto them, How many loaves haue ye: And they ſayde, Seven, and a fewe little fiſhes.

35 ¶ Then he commaunded the multitude to ſit downe on the ground,

36 ¶ And tooke the ſeven loaves, and the fiſhes, and gaue thankes, and brake them, and gaue to his diſciples, and the diſciples to the multitude.

Mark 8.1. k Chriſt cannot forget thoſe that follow him.

1 Christ showed them his glory, that they might not think that he suffered through infirmities, but that hee offered up himself willingly to the Father.

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sunne, and his clothes were as white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias, talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and sayde to Jesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: if thou wilt, let vs make here three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, beholde, a bright cloude shadowed them: and behold, there came a voyce out of the cloude, saying, * This is my beloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased: heare him.

6 And when the disciples heard that, they fell on their faces, and were sore afraid.

7 Then Jesus came and touched them, and sayd, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus onely.

9 And as they came downe from the mountaine, Jesus charged them, saying, Shew the vision to no man, until the Sonne of man rise againe from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered, and sayde unto them, Certainly Elias must first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, that Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they would: likewise shall also the Sonne of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples perceived that hee spake unto them of John Baptist.

14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certaine man, and kneeled downe to him.

15 And sayde, Master, have pittie on my sonne: for he is lunaticke, and is sore vexed: for oft times hee fallth into the fire, and oft times into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, & they coule not heale him.

17 Then Jesus answered, and said, O generation faithles, and crooked, how long now shall I be with you? how long now shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devill, and hee went out of him: and the childe was healed at that honre.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus as part, and sayde, Why coule not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, if ye have faith as much as is a gram of mustard seede, ye shall say unto this mountaine, Removee hence to ponde place, and it shall remove: and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kinde goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

22 And as then he abode in Galilee, Jesus by their faith, that should seeme impossible, & the best remedie to strengthen the weak faith is prayer, which hath fasting added unto it, as helpe to the same. Or, were conversant, or, returned unto him sayde unto them. The sonne of man shall be delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, but the thirde day shall hee rise againe: and they were very say.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received a polle monney, came to Peter, and sayd, Woe thy not pour Master pay tribute?

25 He sayd, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? Of whome doe the Kinges of the earth take tribute, of polle monney? of their children, or of strangers?

26 Peter sayde unto him, Of strangers. Then said Jesus unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Nevertheless, lest we shoulde offende them, goe to the sea, and cast in an angle, and take the first fish that cometh up, and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde a piece of silver pence: that take, and give it unto them for mee and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 3 He teacheth his disciples to be humble and harmlesse. 6 To avoid occasions of evil. 10 Not to contemne the little ones. 11 Why Christ came. 15 Of brotherly correction. 17 Of the authority of the Church. 19 The commendation of prayer and good assemblies. 21 Of brotherly forgiveness.

1 The greatest in the kingdom of heaven? The word is (Statera) which containeth two didrachmas, & is valued about 5. groates of olde sterling.

2 And Jesus called a little childe unto him, and set him in the middes of them.

3 And sayd, Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himselfe as this little childe, the same is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whosoever shall receive such a little childe in my name, receiveth me.

6 But whosoever shall offend one of these little ones which beleue in mee, it were better for him, that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Who be unto the world because of offences: for it must needs be that offences shall come, but woe be to that man, by whom the offence cometh.

8 Wherefore, if thine hand or thy foote cause thee to offend, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, then having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

9 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, then having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

5 And sayde, * For this cause, shall a man

6 Wherfore they are no more twaine, but

7 Then sayde to him, Whyp did then * Mo-

- 18 Behold, we goe vnto Ierusalem, & the Sonne of man shalbe deliuered vnto the chiefe Priestes, and vnto the Scribes,
and they shall condemne him to death,
19 And shall deliuer him to the Gentiles,
to mocke, and to scourge, and to crucifie
him: but p third day he shall rise againe.
20 * Then came to him the mother of Je-bedeus children with her sonnes, worshipping him, and desiring a certaine thing of him.
21 And he sayd vnto her, What wouldest thou? She said to him, Graunt that these my two sonnes may sit, the one at thy right hand, & the other at thy left hand
in thy kingdome.
22 And Iesus answered, and sayde, Ye knowe not what ye aske. Are ye able to dunke of the * cup that I shall dunke of,
and to be baptizd with p baptisme that I shalbe baptizd with? They sayde to him, We are able.
23 And he said vnto them, Ye shall dunke
in dede of my cup, and shalbe baptizd
with the baptisme, that I am baptizd with, but to sit at my right hand, and at my left hand, is not mine to giue: but it shalbe giuen to them, for whom it is prepared of my Father.
24 * And when the other tenne heard this,
they disdained at the two brethren.
25 Therefore Iesus called them vnto him,
and said, Ye knowe that the lordes of the Gentiles haue domination ouer them,
and they that are great, exercise autho-ritie ouer them.
26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoener will be great among you, let him be your seruant, 27 And whosoener will be chiefe among
you, let him be your seruant, 28 * Then as the sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ranfome of many.
29 * And as they departed from Jerusalem, a great multitude followed him.
30 And beholde, two blinde men, sitting by the way side, when they heard that Iesus passed by, cried, saying, O Lord,
the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on vs.
31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should holde their peace: but they cryed the more, saying, O Lord, the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on vs.
32 Then Iesus stood stil, and called them,
and said, What wil ye that I should doe
to you?
33 They said to him, Lord, that our eyes
may be opened.
34 And Iesus moued w compassion touched their eyes, & immediatly their eyes
receiued sight, and they followed him.

- A Ad* when they drew nere to Ierusalem, & were come to Bethphage, vnto the mount of the Olives, then a sent Iesus two disciples, 2 Saying to them, Goe into p towne that is ouer against you, and anon ye shall finde an asse bounde, and a colte with her: loose them, and bring them vnto me.
3 And if any man say ought vnto you, say pe, that the Lord hath nede of them,
and straightway he will let them goe.
4 All this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet saying,
5 * Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Be-holde, thy king cometh vnto thee, mecke and sitting vpon an asse, and a colt, the foale of an asse yoked to the plow.
6 So the disciples went, and did as Iesus had commaunded them.
7 And brought the asse and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and set him thereon.
8 And a great multitude spied their garments in the way: and other cut downe branches from the trees, and strawed
them in the way.
9 Wherefore, the people that went before,
and they also that followed, cryed, saying, * Hosanna the sonne of Dauid: ble-sed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna thou which art in the highest heauens.
10 * And when he was come into Ierusalem, all the cite was moued, saying,
Who is this?
11 And the people said, This is Iesus the Prophet of Nazareth in Galilee.
12 * And Iesus went into the Temple of God, and callt out all them that sold and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew
the tables of the monie changers, and the seates of them that solde doves, 13 And said to them, It is written, * Mine house shalbe called the house of prayer:
but * ye haue made it a den of theues.
14 Then the blinde and the halte came to him in the Temple, and he healed them.
15 But when the * chiefe Priestes and Scribes saw the maruelles that he did,
and the children crying in the temple,
and saying, Hosanna the Sonne of Da-
uid, they disdained, 16 And said vnto him, Hearst thou what these say? And Iesus sayde vnto them, Yea: read ye neuer, * Wp the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast made perfite the praise?
17 * So he left them, and went out of the cite vnto Bethania, and lodged there.
18 And* in the morning as he returned into the cite, he was hungry.
19 And seeing a figge tree in the way, he came to it, and founde nothing thereon,
but leaues onely, and sayd to it, Neuer fruit grow on thee henceforward. And anon the figge tree withered.
20 And when his disciples sawe it, they maruelled, saying, How soone is p figge tree withered?
21 And Iesus answered & said vnto them, * Verily

Chap. 20.

* Wereld I say vnto you, if ye haue faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do that, which I haue done to the figge tree, but also if ye say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, it shall be done.

22 * And what soeuer ye shall aske in praye, if ye beleue, ye shall receiue it.

23 ¶ And when hee was come into the Temple, the chiefe priests, and the Elders of the people came vnto him, as hee was teaching, & sayde, Whāt authoritie dost thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie?

24 Then Iesus answered & sayd vnto the, I also will aske of you a certaine thing, which if ye tel me, I likewise will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

25 The baptisme of Iohn whence was it? from heauen, or of men? Then they reasoned among them selues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say vnto vs, Why did ye not then beleue him?

26 And if we say, Of men, we feare the people: for all hold Iohn as a prophet.

27 Then they answered Iesus, and sayde, We cannot tell. And he sayd vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

28 ¶ But what thinke ye? A certaine man had two sonnes, and came to the elder, and sayde, Sonne, goe, and worke to day in my vineyard.

29 But he answered, and sayd, I will not: yet afterward he repented himselfe, and wrot.

30 Then came he to the seconde, and sayde likewise. And he answered, and sayd, I will, for: yet he went not.

31 Whether of them twaine did the wil of the father? They sayde vnto him, The first. Iesus sayd vnto them, Wereld I say vnto you, that the publicanes and the harlotses shall goe before you into the kingdom of God.

32 For Iohn came vnto you in the way of righteousness, & ye beleued him not: but the publicanes, and the harlots beleued him, and ye, though ye sawe it, were not moued with repentance afterward, that ye might beleue him.

33 ¶ I heare another parable. There was a certaine housholder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, & made a vinepessle therein, and built a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey.

34 And when the time of the fruite bryewe nere, he sent his seruants to his husbandmen to receiue the frutes thereof.

35 And the husbandmen toke his seruants and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again he sent other seruants, more then the first: and they did the like vnto them.

37 But last of all he sent vnto them his owne sonne, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne, they sayde among them selues,

* This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and let vs take his inheritance.

39 So they toke him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When therefore the Lord of the vineyard shall come, what will hee doe to those husbandmen?

41 They sayd vnto him, He will cruelly destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard vnto other husbandmen, which shall deliuer him the frutes in their seasons.

42 Iesus sayde vnto them, Read ye neuer in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders refused, the same is made the * head of the corner? This was done by the Lordes doing, and it is maruillous in our eyes.

43 Therefore say I vnto you, the kingdom of God shall be taken from you, & shall be or for their giuen to a nation, which shall bring forth the frutes thereof.

44 * And whosoever shall fall on this stone, he shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

45 And when the chiefe priests & pharisees had heard his parables, they persecuted that he spake of them.

46 And they seeking to lay hands on him, feared the people, because they toke him as a prophet.

2 The parable of the marriage. 9 The vocation of the Gentiles. 11 The marriage garment. 17 Of paying of tribute. 25 Of the usurrellion. 36 The Scribes question. 44 Christes dummie.

1 Then Iesus answered, & spake vnto them againe in parables, saying,

The kingdom of heauen is like vnto a certaine king which married his sonne.

2 And sent forth his seruants, to cal them that were bid to the wedding, but they would not come.

3 And he sent forth other seruants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I haue prepared my dinner: mine oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come vnto the marriage.

4 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, and another about his marchandise.

5 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and intreated them sharpe, and slew them.

6 But when the king heard it, hee was wroth, and sent forth his warriors, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt vp their cite.

7 Then said he to his seruants, Truly the wedding is prepared: but they which were bidden, were not worthy.

8 Go ye therefore out into the hie wayes, and as many as ye finde, bidde them to the marriage.

9 So those seruants went out into the hie wayes and gathered together al that they found, both good and bad: so the wedding was furnished with guests.

10 Then the king came in, to see the guests, and sawe there a man which had not on a wedding garment.

11 And he sayde vnto him, Friend, how camest thou hither without a wedding garment?

Exo. 3. 6. Mar. 12. 28.

1 I cannot thou in hither, and hast not on a wedding garnet? And he was speechles. 13 Then sayde the king to the seruantes, Bind him hand & foot: take him away, and cast him into bitter darknes: there shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth. 14 For many are called, but few chosen. 15 Then went the Pharisees & tooke coun- sell howe they might tangle him in talke. 16 And they sent vnto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God truly, neither carest thou for any man: for thou considerest not the person of men. 17 Tell vs therefore, howe thinkest thou? Is it lawfull to giue tribute vnto Cesar, or not? 18 But Iesus perceived their wickednes, & said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? 19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought him a penny. 20 And he sayd vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? 21 They sayd vnto him, Cessars. Then sayd he vnto them, Give therefore to Cesar, the things which are Cessars, and giue vnto God, those things which are Gods. 22 And when they heard it, they maruiled, and left him, and went their way. 23 ¶ The same day the Sadduces came to him (which say that there is no resur- rection) and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, hauing no children, let his brother marrie his wife, and raise vp seide vnto his brother. 25 Nowe there were with vs seuen bies then, and the first married a wife, and de- ceased: and hauing no issue, left his wife vnto his brother. 26 Likewise also the second, and the third, vnto the seventh. 27 And last of all the woman died also. 28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seuen? for all had her. 29 Then Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Ye are deceived, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marrie wiuues, nor wiuues are bestowed in marriage, but are as the Angels of God in heauen. 31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, haue ye not read what is spoke vnto you of God saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the liuing. 33 And when the people heard it, they were astonied at his doctrine. 34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard, that he had put the Sadduces to silence, they assembled together. 35 And one of them, which was an expou- der of the Lawe, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great command- ment in the Lawe?

37 Iesus sayd to him, Thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, with all thy soule, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the first and the great command- ment. 39 And the second is like vnto this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. 40 In these two commandments han- geth the whole Lawe and the Prophets. 41 ¶ While the Pharisees were gathered together, Iesus asked them, 42 Saying, What thinke ye of Christ? whose sonne is he? They said vnto him, Dauid. 43 He sayde vnto them, Howe then doeth Dauid in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord saide to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? 45 If then Dauid call him Lord, howe is he his sonne? 46 And none could answer him a worde, neither durst any from that day forth aske him any more questions.

12 * For whosoever will exalt him selfe, shall be brought low: and whosoever will humble himselfe, shall be exalted.

13 * And whosoever be unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: because ye shut up the kingdom of heauen before men: for ye will not enter in, neither suffer ye them that would enter, to come in.

14 * And ye be unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye denounce widows houses, euen vnder a colour of long prayers: wherefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 * And ye be unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye compass sea and land to make one of your profession: and when he is made, ye make him two fold more the child of hell, then you your selves.

16 * And ye be unto you blinde guides, which say, Whosoever sweareth by the Temple, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the golde of the Temple, he is offender.

17 * Ye fooles & blinde, whether is greater, the golde, or the Temple that sanctifieth the golde?

18 * And whosoever sweareth by the altar, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the offering that is vpon it, offendeth.

19 * Ye fooles and blinde, whether is greater, the offering, or the altar which sanctifieth the offering?

20 * Whosoever therefore sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, & by all things thereon.

21 * And whosoever sweareth by the Temple, sweareth by it, & by him that dwelleth therein.

22 * And he that sweareth by heauen, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 * And ye be to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye tie the mout, and anple, & commun, & leave the weightier matters of the Law, as iudgement, and mercie, and fidelitie. These ought ye to haue done, and not to haue left the other.

24 * Ye blinde guides, which strain out a gnat, and swallowe a camel.

25 * And ye be to you, Scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye make cleane the vter side of the cup, and of the platter: but within they are full of hyberie, & exerce.

26 * Thou blinde Pharise, cleanse first the inside of the cup & platter, that the outside of them may be cleane also.

27 * And ye be to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are like vnto whited tombes, which appeare beautifull outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of all filthines.

28 * So are ye also: for outwardly ye appeare righteous vnto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisie and iniquitie.

29 * And ye be unto you, Scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye build the tombes of the Prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous.

30 * And say, If we had bene in the dayes of our fathers, we woulde not haue bene partners with them in the blood of the Prophets.

31 * So then ye be witnesses vnto your selves, that ye are the children of them that murdered the Prophets.

32 * And ye be also the measure of your fathers, serpents, the generation of vipers, how should ye escape the damnation of hel?

34 * Wherefore beholde, I sende vnto you Prophets, & wise men, & Scribes, and of them ye shall kill and crucifie: and of the children of them shall ye scourge in your Synagogues, and persecute from citie to citie.

35 * That vpon you may come all the righteous blood that was shedde vpon the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous, vnto the blood of Zacharias, the sonne of Barachias, whom ye slew betwene the Temple and the altar.

36 * Verily I say vnto you, all these things shall come vpon this generation.

37 * Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the Prophets, & stonest them which are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together, as a henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings, and ye would not!

38 * Behold, your habitation shall be left vnto you desolate.

39 * For I say vnto you, ye shall not see me henceforth till that ye say, Blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lord.

2. 5. 1. 30. f He will returne no more to them as a teacher, but as a Iudge, when as they shall be compelled to confesse (although too late) that he is the very Sonne of God.

1 * And Jesus went out, and departed from the Temple, and his disciples came to him, to shew him the building of the Temple.

2 * And Jesus saide vnto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say vnto you, there shall not be here left a stone vpon a stone, that shall not be cald downe.

3 * And as hee saide vnto the mount of Olives, his disciples came vnto him apart, saying, Tell vs when these things shall be, and what signe shall be of thy coming, and of the end of the world.

4 * And Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Take heede that no man deceiue you.

5 * For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shal deceiue many. And ye shall heare of warres, & rumors of warres: for all these things must come to passe, but the ende is not yet.

7 * For nation shall rise against nation, and realme against realme, and there shall be pestilence, and famine, and earthquakes in diuers places.

8 * All these are but the beginning of sorowes, of that which is necessary for them to know. warres haue ensued since, among the heathen for the contempt of the Gospel, and increase more and more.

shall betray one another, and shall hate

11 And many false prophets shall arise,

and shall deceiue many.

12 And because iniquitie shall be increa-

13 * But he that endureth to the ende, hee shall be saved.

14 And this Gospel of the kingdome shall

16 * Then let them which be in Judea, flee

20 But pray that your flight be not in the 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the world to this time, nor shall be.

22 And except those dayes should be shortened, there should no flesh be sa-

ued: but for the * elects sake those dayes

shall be shortened.

23 * Then if any shall say vnto you, Lo,

here is Christ, or there, beleeue it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, & shall shew great signes

and wonders, so that if it were possible,

they should deceiue the very elect.

25 Beholde, I haue tolde you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say vnto you,

Beholde, he is in the * desert, go not forth:

Beholde, he is in the * secret places, beleeue it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the East, and shineth into the West, so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

28 * For wherefore a dead carkeis is,

thither will the Egles resort.

29 * And immediately after the * tribulations of those dayes, shall the Sonne be darkened, and the Moone shall not giue

her light, and the starres shall fall from heauen, and the powers of heauen shall be shaken.

30 * And then shall appeare the signe of the Sonne of man in heauen: and then shall

all the kinreds of the earth mourne, & they shall see the Sonne of man come in the cloudes

of heauen with power and great glorie.

31 * And he shall send his Angels with a great sounde of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect, from the foure

windes, & from the one end of the hea-

uen vnto the other.

32 Nowe learne the parable of the figge tree: when her bough is yet tender, and it bringeth forth leaues, ye know that summer is nere.

33 So likewise ye, when ye see all these things, know that the kingdome of God

is nere, euen at the doores.

34 Verely I say vnto you, this * generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

35 * Heauen and earth shall passe away:

but my wordes shall not passe away.

36 But of that day and houre knoweth

no man, nor not the Angels of heauen,

but my Father onely.

37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so likewise shall the coming of the Sonne of

man be.

38 * For as in the dayes before the flood,

they did eate and drinke, marry, & giue

in marriage, vnto the day that Noe entered into the Arke,

39 And knew nothing, till the flood came,

and tooke them all away: so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

40 * * Then two men shall be in the felds,

the one shall be receiued, and the other

shall be refused.

41 Two women shall grind at the mill: the one shall be receiued, & the other

shall be refused.

42 * Wake therefore: for ye knowe not what houre your master will come.

43 Of * that be sure, that if the good man of the house knewe at what watche the thiefe would come, he would surely watche, and not suffer his house to be digged through.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in the

houre that ye thinke not, will the Sonne

of man come.

45 * Who then is a faithfull servant and wife, whome his master hath made ruler ouer his householde, to giue them

meate in season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his master, when hee cometh, shall finde so doing.

47 Verely I say vnto you, he shall make him ruler ouer all his goods.

48 But if that euil servant shall say in his heart, My master doth deferre his coming,

49 And begin to smite his felowes, and to eat, and to drinke with the drunken,

50 That seruants master will come in a day, when he looketh not for him, and in an houre that he is not ware of,

51 And will cut him off, and giue him his portion with hypocrites: * there shall be weeping, and gnashing of teeth.

Mat. 12.3.

John 5.19.

n We must therefore onely doe that, which God requireth of vs, and not folow mens foolish fantasies.

45 Then shall he answer them, and say, Verely I say vnto you, in as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And these shall goe into euertlasting paine, & the righteous into life eternall.

Supper. 31 The disciples weaken. 48 The trea-

Mark 14.3.

Luke 22.1.

Luke 22.47.

1 And it came to passe, when Iesus had finished all these sayings, he said vnto his disciples,

2 Ye know that within two dayes is the Passouer, and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chiefe Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people into the hall of the high Priest, called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted how they might take Iesus by subtiltie, and kill him.

5 But they sayd, Not on the feast day, lest we bypoare be among the people.

Mar. 14.3.

John 11.3. & 13.3.

a He sheweth what occasion Iudas tooke to commit his treason.
b This was through Iudas mooued, to whom they gaue credite.

6 ¶ And when Iesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came vnto him a woman, which had a boere of very costly opment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at the table.

8 And when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, What needed this waste?

9 For this opment might haue bene solde for much, and bene giuen to the poore.

Mat. 15.11.

c This fact was extraordinarie, neither was it left as an example to be followed: also Christ is not present with vs bodily or to be honoured w any outward pompe.

10 And Iesus knowing it, said vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good worke vpon me.

11 ¶ For ye haue the poore alwayes with you, but me shall ye not haue alwayes.

12 For in that she poured this opment on my body, she did it to me.

13 Verely I say vnto you, Where soeuer this Gospel shalbe preached throughout all the world, there shal also this that she hath done, be spoken of for a memoriall of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelue, called Iudas Iscariot, went vnto the chiefe priests,

15 And said, What will ye giue me, and I will deliuer him vnto you: and they appointed vnto him thirtie pieces of siluer.

16 And from that time, he sought opportunitie to betray him.

17 ¶ Now on the first day of a feast of vns leauened bread the disciples came to Iesus, saying vnto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the Passouer?

18 And he sayd, Go into the cite to such a man, & say to him, The master saith, My time is at hand: I will keepe the Passouer at thine house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Iesus had giuen them charge, and made ready the Passouer.

20 ¶ So when the euen was come, he sat downe with the twelue.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verely I say vnto you, one of you shal betray me,

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began euery one of them to say vnto him, Is it I, Master?

23 And he answered, and sayd, He that dipperth his hand with me in the dish, he shall betray me.

24 Surely the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him: but woe be to that man, by whome the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

25 Then Iudas which betrayed him, answered, and sayd, Is it I, Master? He said vnto him, Thou hast said it.

26 ¶ And as they did eat, Iesus tooke the bread: and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to the disciples, and sayd, Take, eat: this is my body.

27 Also he tooke the cup, and when he had giuen thanks, he gaue it them, saying, Drink ye all of it.

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, that is shed for many, for the remission of sinnes.

29 I say vnto you, that I will not drinke henceforth of this fruite of the vine vntill that day, when I shall drinke it newe with you in my fathers kingdom.

30 And when they had sung a Psalm, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 ¶ Then sayd Iesus vnto them, All ye shalbe offended by me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, & the sheepe of the flocke shalbe scattered.

32 But after I am risen againe, I will goe together in Ierusalem before you into Galilee.

33 But Peter answered, & said vnto him, Though that all men should be offended by thee, yet will I neuer be offended.

34 ¶ Iesus sayd vnto him, Verely I say discouraged, vnto thee, that this night, before I cocke crowe, thou shalt denie me thrise.

35 Peter said vnto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not denie thee. Likewise also sayd all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then went Iesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane, and sayd vnto his disciples, Sit ye hère, while I goe and praye ponder.

37 And he tooke Peter, & the two sonnes of Zebedeus, and began to waile & sorrow full, & grievously troubled.

38 Then said Iesus vnto them, My soules death is before me, & death: but tremble not, for I am with you, and watch with me.

39 So he went a litle further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if thou wilt, let this cup passe from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 After, he came vnto his disciples, & found them a sleepe, and said to Peter, What? couldst thou not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit is ready, but the flesh is weak.

42 Againe he went away the second time, what his father had determined, and therefore was ready to obey: but he prayeth as the faithful doin their troubles, wout respect of the eternall counsel of God.

43 And therefore we must continually fight against the flesh,

Psal. 41.9.

He that is accustomed to eat with me daily in the table, shall betray me.

h To the intent his disciples might know that all this was appointed by the providence of God.

i That is, as the signe and testimonie that my body was made of your flesh, & by me your soules are nourished.

k The wine signifieth that our soules are redeemed & sanctified with the blood of Christ, which is the fruite of the vine.

l You shall no more enemy my bodily presence, till we meet againe.

Supper.

cup can not passe away from me, but that I must drinke it, thy will be done.

43 And he came, and founde them a sleepe againe: for their eyes were heauie.

44 So he left them, and went away againe, and played the thirde time, saying the same wordes.

45 Then came he to his disciples, and sayd vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and ake your rest: beholde, the houre is at hand, and the Sonne of man is giuen into the handes of sinners.

46 Kisse, let vs goe: beholde, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swordes & staves, from the chiefe priests and Elders of the people.

48 Nowe he that betrayed him, had giuen them a token, saying, Whome soeuer I shall kisse, that is he, lay holde on him.

49 And when he came to Iesus, and said, God saue thee, Iesus, and kist him.

50 Then Iesus sayde vnto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, & layd hands on Iesus, & toke him.

51 And beholde, one of them which were with Iesus, stretched out his hande, and grieue his sworde, and strooke a seruant of the chiefe priest, and smote off his eare.

52 Then said Iesus vnto him, Put vp thy sworde into his place: for all that take the sworde, shall perishe with the sworde.

53 Either thinkest thou, I can not nowe pray to my father, and he will giue me more then twelue legions of Angells?

54 Howe then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say, that it must be so?

55 The same houre sayd Iesus to the multitude, He be come out as it were against a shepe, with swordes and staves, to take me: I late daily teaching in the Temple among you, and ye tooke me not.

56 But al this was done, that the Scriptures of the Prophets might be fulfilled.

57 And they tooke Iesus, and led him to Caiaphas the chiefe priest, where the Scribes and the Elders were assembled.

58 And Peter folowed him a far off vnto the chiefe priests hall, and went in, and sate with the seruants to keepe the end.

59 Nowe the chiefe priests and the Elders, and all the whole Councell, sought false witness against Iesus, to put him to death.

60 But they founde none, and though many false witnesses came, yet founde they none: but at the last came two false witnesses,

61 And sayde, This man sayde, I can desceyue the Temple of God, and builde it in thre daies.

62 Then the chiefe priest arose, and sayde to him, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these men witnesse against thee?

63 But Iesus held his peace. Then chiefe priest answered, & sayd to him, I charge thee by the living God, that thou tell vs, if thou be the Christ the Sonne of God.

64 Iesus sayde to him, Then hast thou sayd it: neuertheless I say vnto you, hereafter shall ye see the Sonne of man, sitting at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of the heauen.

65 Then the chiefe priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath blasphemed: what haue we any more neede of witnesses? behold, now ye haue heard his blasphemy.

66 What thinke ye? They answered, and sayd, He is worthy to die.

67 Then spake they in his face, and buffeted him: and other smote him with their roddes, 68 Saying, Prophecie to vs, O Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 Peter sate without in the hall: and a maide came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Iesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I wot not what thou sayest.

71 And when he went out into the porch, an other maide saue him, and sayde vnto them that were there, This man was also with Iesus of Nazareth.

72 And againe hee denied with an othe, saying, I knowe not the man.

73 So after a while, came vnto him they that stood by, & sayde vnto Peter, Surely thou art also one of them: for thou hast heard him saye.

74 Then began he to curse him selfe, and to sweare, saying, I knowe not the man. And immediatly the cocke crew.

75 Then Peter remembered the wordes of Iesus, which had sayd vnto him, Before we may leaue the cocke crow, thou shalt deny me thrise.

So he went out, and wept bitterly.

1 He was liuely touched with repentance by the motion of Gods Spirit, who neuer suffereth his to perish vterly, though for a time they fall, to the intent they may feele their owne weakness, and acknowledge his great mercie.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. 2 Judas hangeth himselfe. 3 Christ is pronounced innocent by the Iudge, and yet is condemned, and crucified among them.

46 He prayeth vpon the crosse. 51 The lake is rent. 52 The dead bodies arise. 57 Iosaph is buried.

64 Watchmen keepe the grave. a For they had no authoritie to condemne him, or to put any to death.

1 When the morning was come, all the chiefe priests, and the Elders of the people tooke counsell against Iesus, to put him to death,

2 And led him away bound, & deliuered him vnto Pontius Pilate the gouernour.

3 Then when Judas which betrayed him, sawe that he was condemned, he repented himselfe, and brought againe the thirtie pieces of silver to the chiefe priests, and Elders.

4 Saying, I haue sinned, betraying the innocent blood. But they sayde, What is that to vs? for thou to it.

5 And when hee had cast downe the silver pieces in the Temple, hee departed, and went, and hanged himselfe.

6 And the chiefe priests tooke the silver pieces, and sayd, It is not lawfull for vs whose fault vpō Iudas. All. 1. 18. e The hypocrits are full of conscience in a matter of nothing, but to shed innocent blood they make nothing at it.

Chap. 16. 37. rom. 14. 10. 1. thi. 4. 14. e Christ confesse that he is the Sonne of God. f This was one of their owne traditions, if e had heard any Israhelite blasphemy.

h The officers smite Christ with their rods or little staves.

i They mocked him after this sort, he might not seeme to be a Prophet, and so would turne the peoples mindes from him.

And came out of the graues after his resurrection, and went into the holy Citie, and appeared vnto many.

When the Centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Sonne of God.

And many women were there, beholding him a farre off, which had followed Jesus from Galile, ministering vnto him.

Among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Ioseph, and the mother of Zebedeus sonnes.

And when the euen was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Ioseph, who had also himselfe bene Jesus disciple.

He went to Pilate, and asked the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commaunded the body to be deliuered.

So Ioseph tooke the body, and wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth.

And put it in his new tombe, which he had hewen out in a rocke, and rolled a great stone to the doore of the sepulchre, and departed.

And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary sitting ouer against the sepulchre.

Now the next day that followed the Preparation of the Sabbath, the high priests and Pharisees assembled to Pilate,

And sayd, Sir, we remember that that deceiver sayde, while he was yet aliuie, Within three dayes I will rise.

Command therefore, that the sepulchre be made sure vntill the third day, least his disciples come by night, and steale him away, & say vnto the people, He is risen from the dead: so shall the last error be worse then the first.

Then Pilate sayd vnto them, Ye haue a watch: goe, and make it sure as ye know.

And they went, and made the sepulchre sure with the watch, and sealed the stone.

The resurrection of Christ. 10 The brethren of Christ. 12 The high Priests bribe the souldiers. 17 Christ appeareth to his disciples, and sendeth them forth to preach, and to baptize. 20 Promising to them continuall assistance.

Now in the end of the Sabbath, when the first day of the weeke began to dawning, Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary came to see the sepulchre.

And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the Angel of the Lord descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the doore, and satte vpon it.

And his countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

And for feare of him, the keepers were astonied, and became as dead men.

But the Angel answered, and said to the women, Feare ye not: for I knowe that ye seeke Jesus which was crucified:

He is not here, for he is risen, as he said: come, see the place where the Lord was laide,

And goe quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead: and behold, he goeth before you into Galile: there ye shall see him: lo, I haue told you.

So they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with feare and great ioy, and did runne to bring his disciples word.

And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus also met them, saying, God saue you. And they came, and tooke him by the feet, and worshipped him.

Then said Jesus vnto them, Be not afraid. Goe, and tel my brethren, that they goe into Galile, & there shall they see me.

Now when they were gone, behold, some of the watch came into the citie, & shewed vnto the high priests all the things that were done.

And they gathered them together with the Elders, and tooke counsell, and gaue large money vnto the souldiers, Saying, Say, His disciples came by night, & stole him away while we slept.

And if the gouernour heare of this, we will perswade him, & saue you harmless.

So they tooke the money, & did as they were taught: and thus saying is now used among the Iewes vnto this day.

Then the eleuen disciples went into Galile, into a mountaine, where Jesus had appointed them.

And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

And Jesus came, and spake vnto them, saying, All power is giuen vnto me in heauen, and in earth.

Goe therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Sonne, and the holy Ghost,

Teaching them to obserue all things, whatsoever I haue commanded you: and loe, I am with you alway, vntill the ende of the world, Amen.

i By the which Gospel he will rule and reigne
ouer all.

In the beginning of the Gospel
of Iesus Christ, the sonne of God:

As it is written in the Propheets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

The voice of him that crieth in the wildernes is, Prepare the way of the Lord:
make his paths straight.

John did baptize in the wildernes, and preach the baptisme of amendement of life, for remission of finnes.

And all the countrey of Iudea, and they
of Ierusalem went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the River Iordan, confessing their finnes.

Now John was clothed with camels
haire, and with a girdell of a skin about his loynes: and hee did eate Locusts and wilde honie.

And preached, saying, A stronger then I, cometh after me, whose shoes I am not worthy to stoupe downe,
and vnkloose.

Trueth it is, I haue baptizd you with water: but he will baptize you with the holy Ghost.

And it came to passe in those dayes,
that Iesus came from Nazaret a citie of Galile, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

And as soon as hee was come out of the water, Iohn saue the heauens clouen
in twaine, and the holy Ghost descending vpon him like a doue.

Then there was a voice from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued sonne, in whome I am well pleased.

And immediately the Spirit diueth
him into the wildernesse.

And hee was there in the wildernesse
fourtie dayes, & was tempted of Satan: he was also with the wilde beastes,
and the Angels ministered vnto him.

Now after that John was committed to prison, Iesus came into Galile, preaching the Gospel of the kingdome
of God.

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent and beleue the Gospel.

And as hee walked by the sea of Galile, he saue Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, (for they were fishers.)

Then Iesus said vnto them, Follow me,
& I will make you to be fishers of men.

And straightway they forsooke their
nettes, and followed him.

And when hee had gone a litle further, he saue James the sonne of Ze-bedeus, and John his brother, as they were in the ship, mending their nettes.

And anon hee called them: and they left their father Zebedeus in the shippe with his hired seruants, and went their way after him.

So they entred into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught.

And they were astonied at his doctrine:
for he taught them as one that had au-
thoritie, and not as the Scribes.

And there was in their Synagogue
a man which had an vncleane spirit,
and hee crieth,

Saying, What haue we to do with thee, O Iesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe thee what thou art, euen that holie one of God.

And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

And the vncleane spirit rare him, and cried with a loud voice, and came out of him.

And they were all amazed, so that they demanded one of another, saying, What thing is this? what a new doctrine is this: for he commaundeth the foule spirits with authoritie, and they obey him.

And immediately his fame spied as abroade throughout all the region bordering on Galile.

And as soon as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred vnto the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

And Simons wifes mother lay sicke
of a feuer, & anon then tolde him of her.

And he came & toke her by the hande,
and lift her vp, and the feuer forsooke her
by and by, and she ministered vnto them.

And when euening was come, & the sunne was downe, they brought to him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with deuils.

And the whole citie was gathered together at the doore.

And he healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases: and he cast out many deuils, and suffered not the deuils to say that they knew him.

And in the morning very early, before day, Iesus arose and went out into a soli-tarie place, and there prayed.

And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had founde him, they sayd vnto him, All men seeke for thee.
38 Then he sayd vnto them, Let vs go into priest townes, that I may preach there also: for I came out for that purpose.
39 And he preached in their Synagogues, throughout all Galilee, and cast the devils
out.
40 ¶ And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, & knied downe vnto him, and sayd to him, If thou wilt, thou shalt make me cleane.
41 And Iesus had compassion, and put forth his hand, & touched him, and sayd
to him, I wil: be thou cleane.
42 And as soon as hee had spoken, imme-diatly he leprosie departed from him, and he was made cleane.
43 And after he had giuen him a straight & commandement, hee sent him awap forthwith.
44 And sayd vnto him, See thou say nothing to any man, but get thee hence, and shewe thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things, which Moses commanded, for a testimony vnto
them.
45 But when he was departed, he began to tell many things, and to publish the matter: so that Iesus coulde no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from euery quarter.

CHAP. II.

3 He healeth the man of the palsey. 5 Her forgiveness finnes. 14 He calleth Levi the customner. 16 He eatech with sinners. 18 He exceceth his disciples,
as touching fasting, and keeping the Sabbath day.
1 After a few daies, he entered into Capernaum
again, and it was reported that he was in the house.
2 And anon, many gathered together, in so much that the places about the doore could not receiue any more: and he preached the word vnto them.
3 And there came vnto him, that brought one sicke of palsey, borne of foure men.
4 And because they coulde not come neere
vnto him for the multitude, they virouered the rooffe of the house where hee
was: and when they had broken it open,
they let downe the bed, wherein the sicke
of the palsey lay.
5 Nowe when Iesus sawe their faith, hee sayd to the sicke of the palsey, Sonne, thy finnes are forgiven thee.
6 And there were certaine of the Scribes,
sitting there, & reasoning in their hearts,
7 Why doeth this man speake such blas-phemies? who can forgive sinnes, but God onely?
8 And immediatly when Iesus perceined
in his spirit, p thus they thought with themselves, he said vnto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?
9 Whether is it easier to say to the sicke
of the palsey, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee: or to say, Rise, and take vp thy bed,
and walke?
10 And that ye may know, that the Sonne
of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive

sinnes, (he sayd vnto the sicke of palsey)
11 I say vnto thee, Rise & take vp thy bed, & get thee hence into thine owne house.
12 And by and by he arose, & took vp his bed, and went forth before them all, in so much p they were all amazed, & glorified
God, saying, We neuer sawe such a thing.
13 ¶ Then he went againe toward the sea,
and all the people resorted vnto him, and he taught them.
14 ¶ And as Iesus passed by, he sawe Levi
the sonne of Alphæus sit at the receite of customs, and sayd vnto him, Follow me.
And he arose and followed him.
15 ¶ And it came to passe, as Iesus late at table in his house, many Publicanes
and sinners late at table also with Iesus,
and his disciples: for there were many
that followed him.
16 And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw him eate with the Publicanes & sinners, they sayd vnto his disciples, How is it, that hee eatech & drinkech with Publicanes and sinners?
17 Now when Iesus heard it, he sayd vnto them, The whole haue no neede of the physician, but p sicke. ¶ I came not to call
p righteous, but p sinners to repentance.
18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn, and the Pharisees did fast, and came and said vnto him, Why doe the disciples of Iohn
and of the Pharisees fast, and thy disciples fast not?
19 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Can the children of the marriage chamber fast, whiles the hydegrome is with them: as long as they haue the hydegrome with them, they can not fast.
20 But the daies will come, when the hydegrome shalbe taken from them, and then shall they fast in those daies.
21 Also no man soweth a piece of new cloth in an olde garment: for els the new piece taketh awap the filling vp from the olde, and the breach is worse.
22 Likewise, no man putteth new wine into olde vessels: for els the new wine breaketh the vessels, and the wine runneth out, and the vessels are lost: but new wine must be put into new vessels.
23 ¶ And it came to passe as hee went through the coyne on the Sabbath day, that his disciples, as they went on their way, began to plucke the eares of coyne, 24 And the Pharisees sayd vnto him, Behold, why doe they on the Sabbath day,
that which is not lawfull?
25 And hee sayd to them, Haue ye neuer
read what Dauid did, whe he had neede, and was an hungred, both he, and they
that were with him?
26 How he went into the house of God, in the daies of Abiathar the Priest, and did eate the shew bread, which were not lawfull to eate, but for the Priests, and gaue also to them which were with him?
27 And hee sayd to them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.
28 Wherefore the Sonne of man is Lord,
euen of the Sabbath,

1 And he entered againe into the Synagogue, and there was a man which had a withered hand.
2 And they watched him, whether he wold heale him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.
3 Then he sayde vnto the man which had the withered hand, Arise: stand forth in the middest.
4 And he sayd to them, Is it lawfull to do a good dede on the Sabbath day, or to doe euill: to saue the life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

a They helde their tongues of malice: for they woulde neither confesse nor denie.

b Christ is in such sort angrie with man, that he pitieth him and seeketh to sinne him.
c Although they hated one another deadly, yet this hindered them not to ioyne their malice to resist Christ, reade Mat. 22. 16.

5 Then hee looked rounde about on thurty and six, mourning also for the hardness of their hearts, & said to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And hee stretched it out: and his hand was restor'd, as whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees departed, and straightway gathered a counsell with the Herodians against him, that they might destroy him.

7 But Iesus answered with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude followed him from Galilee, and from Iudea, and from Ierusalem, and from Iordan: and they that dwelled about Tyne and Sidon, when they had heard what great things he did, came vnto him in great number.

8 And he commanded his disciples, that a ship should waite for him, because of the multitude, least they should thinke long him.

9 For he had healed many, insomuch that they pressed vpon him, to touch him as many as had plagues.

19 And the multitude assembled againe, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his kindred heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they thought he had bin beside him selfe.

22 ¶ And the Scribes which came from Ierusalem, said, He hath Beelzebub, and through the prince of deuils hee casteth out deuils.

23 But he called them vnto him, and said vnto them in parables, How can Satan diuine out Satan?

24 For if a kingdome be deuided against it selfe, that kingdome can not stand.

25 Or if a house be deuided against it selfe, that house can not continue.

26 So if Satan make insurrection against himselfe, & be deuided, he can not endure, but is at an ende.

27 No man can enter into a strong mans house, and take away his goods, except he first binde that strong man, and then spoile his house.

28 ¶ Where I say vnto you, all finnes shalbe forgiven vnto the children of men, & blasphemies, wherewith they blaspheme.

29 But he that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, shall neuer haue forgiveness, but is culpable of eternall damnation.

30 Because they sayd, He had an vncleane spirit.

31 ¶ Then came his brethren and mother, & stood without, and sent vnto him, and called him.

32 And the people late about him, & then sayd vnto him, Beholde, thy mother and thy brethren seeke for thee without.

33 But he answered them, saying, Who is my mother and my brethren?

34 And he looked rounde about on them, which late in compasse about him, and sayd, Behold my mother & my brethren.

35 For whosoever doth the will of God, he is my brother, and my sister, and my mother.

CHAP. IIIL

1 By the parables of the seeds, and the mustard corne, Christ sheweth the state of the kingdome of God.

1 And he began againe to teache by the sea side, and there gathered vnto him a great multitude, so that hee entered into a ship, and sat in the sea, and all the people was by the sea side on the land.

2 And hee taught them many things in parables, and sayde vnto them in his doctrine,

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, & some fell by the wayes side, and the fowles of the heauen came and deuoured it vp.

5 And some fell on stonie ground, where it had not much earth, and by & by sprang vp, because it had not depth of earth.

6 But as soon as the sunne was vp, it caught heat, and because it had not root, it withered away.

Legion: for we are many.

10 And he played him instantly, that he would not sende them away out of the 11 Nowe there was there in the moun-

12 And al the devils besought him, saying,
Send vs into the swine, that we may en-

13 And incontinently Iesus gaue them out, and entred into the swine, and the two thousand swine) & they were drow-

14 And the swineherdes fled, and tolde it in the cite, and in the countrey, and they came out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Iesus, and saue him
that had bene possessed with the deuill,
and had the legion, sit both clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afraid.

16 And they that sawe it, tolde them, what was done to him: for he was possessed with the deuill, and concerning the swine.

17 Then they began to pray him, that he would depart from their coastes.

18 And when he was come into the ship,
he that had bene possessed with the deuill,
prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Iesus would not suffer him,
but said vnto him, Goe thy way home to thy friends, and shew them what great things the Lord hath done vnto thee, and howe he hath had compassion on thee.

20 So he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, what great things Iesus had done vnto him: and all men did mar-uile.

21 ¶ And when Iesus was come ouer againe by ship vnto the other side, a great multitude gathered to him, and he was neere vnto the sea.

22 ¶ And beholde, there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Iairus: and when he sawe him, he fell downe at his feete.

23 And besought him instantly, saying, My little daughter lieth at point of death: I pray thee that thou wouldest come and lay thine handes on her, that she may be healed, and liue.

24 Then he went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and thronged
him.

25 And there was a certaine woman, which was diseased wth an issue of blood
twelue yeeres.

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and it auailed her nothing, but she became much worse.

27 When she had heard of Iesus, she came in the peece behinde, and touched his garment.

28 For he sayde, If I may but touch his clothes, I shalbe whole.

29 And straightway the course of her blood was dried vp, and she felt in her body, that she was healed of her plague.

30 And immediately when Iesus did know in him selfe the vertue that went out of him, he turned him round about in the peece, and sayd, Who hath touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples sayd vnto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest
thou, Who did touch me?

32 And he looked round about, to see her that had done that.

33 And the woman feared and trembled:
for she knew what was done in her, and she came and fell downe before him, and tolde him the whole truely.

34 And he sayd to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the same ruler of the Synagogues house certaine which sayde, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the master any further?

36 As soone as Iesus heard that word spoken,
he sayde vnto the ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid: onely believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, saue Peter and James, and John the brother of James.

38 So he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, and saue the tumult,
and then that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And he went in, and sayde vnto them, Why make ye this trouble, and weep? the childe is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorne: but he put them al out, and tooke the father, and the mother of the childe, and them that were with him, and entred in where the childe lay.

41 And tooke the childe by the hand, and sayd vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is by interpretation, Maiden, I say vnto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the maiden arose,
and walked: for she was of the age
of twelue yeeres: and they were astonied out of measure.

43 And he charged them straightly that no man should knowe of it, and commaunded to giue her meate.

5 And hee could there doe no great

6 And hee maruelled at their vnbeliefe,

7  $\beta$  \* And he called the twelue, and began and that they should not put on two

10 And he said vnto them, Where soeuer

12  $\beta$  \* And they went out, and preached,
that men should amend their liues.

13 And they cast out many deuils: and then  $\beta$  anointed many that were sicke, with oyle and healed them.

14  $\beta$  \* Then king Herode heard of him (for his name was spread abroad) and sayde, John Baptist is risen againe from the dead, and therefore great woykes are brought by him.

15 Other said, It is Elias: as some said, It is a prophet, as one  $\beta$  of  $\beta$  Prophets.

16 So when Herode heard it, he said, It is John whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himselfe had sent forth, and had taken John, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, which was his brother Philipps wife, because yee had married her.

18 For John said vnto Herode, * It is not lawfull for thee to haue thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrell asgainst him, and would haue killed him,
but she could not:

20 For Herode feared John, knowing that he was a iust man, & an holy, and reuerenced him, & when he heard him, hee

did many things, & heard him gladly.

21 But the time being commient, when Herode on his birth day made a banquet to his princes and capitaines, and chiefe
of states of Salie:

22 And the daughter of the same Herodias
as came in and daunced, & pleased Her-ode & them that sat at table together,
the king said vnto the mayd,  $\beta$  \* If thou wilt, what thou wilt, and I will giue it thee.

23 And he sware vnto her, What soeuer
thou shalt aske of me, I will giue it thee,
euen vnto the halfe of my kingdome.

24 * So she went forth, and said to her mother, What shall I aske? And she said, John Baptistes head.

25 Then she came in straightway with haste vnto the king, and asked, saying, I would that  $\beta$  shouldst giue me euen now in a charger the head of John Baptist.

26 Then the king was very sorie: yet for his othes sake, & for their sakes which sat at table with him, he would not refuse her.

27 And immediatly the king sent the hangman, & gaue charge that his head should be brought. So he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger,
and gaue it to the  $\beta$  maide, and the maide
gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard it, they came and tooke by his body, and put it in a tombe.

30  $\beta$  \* And the Apostles gathered themselues together to Iesus, and tolde him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said vnto them, Come ye apart into the wilderness, and rest a while: for there were many comers and goers,
that they had not leasure to eate.

32 * So they went by ship out of the towne
into a desert place.

33 But the people saw them when they departed, and many knew him, and ran afoote thither out of all cities, & came thither
before them, & assembled vnto him.

34 Then Iesus went out, & saue a great multitude, & had compassion on them, because they were like sheepe which had no shephearde: and he began to teach them many things.

35 * And when the day was now farre spent, his disciples came vnto him, saying, This is a desert place, and now the day is farre passed.

36 Let them depart, that they may go into the villages & townes about, & buye them bread: for they haue nothing to eate.

37 But he answered, and said vnto them,
Giue ye them to eate. And they said vnto him, Shall we goe and buye two hundred penny worth of bread, & giue them to eate?

38 Then he said vnto them, How many loaves haue ye? go and looke. And when they knew it, they said, Five, and two filles.

39 So he commaunded them to make them

51 Then he went vp vnto them into the

5 Then asked him the Pharisees & Scribes, Why walkeſt thou thy diſciples accor-

meate with vnwaſhen hands?

6 Then he answered and ſaid vnto them,
Surely <sup>a</sup> ſai hath propheticall ſayd of 8 For ye lap the commandment of God

apart, and obſerue the tradition of men,
as the waſhing of pots and of cups, and many other ſuch like things ye doe.

9 And he ſayde vnto them, Well, ye reiect
the commandment of God, that ye may obſerue your owne tradition.

10 For Moſes ſaid, Honour thy father, &

thing for his father, or his mother,

13 Making the word of God of none antye, by your tradition which ye haue ordeined: and ye do many ſuch like things.

14 Then he called the whole multitude vnto him, and ſaide vnto them, Hearken

15 There is nothing without a man, that can deſile him, when it entereth into him:

into the borders of Egypt and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would that no man should haue known: but hee could not be hid.

25 For a certaine woman, whose little daughter had an vnleane spirit, heard of him, and came, and fell at his feet.

26 (And the woman was a Greeke, a Syrophonitian by nation) and she besought him that he would cast out the deuill out of her daughter.

27 But Iesus said vnto her, Let the child first be fed: for it is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it vnto whelpes.

28 Then she answered, and sayde vnto him, Truth, Lord: yet in dede the whelpes eate vnder the table of the childrens crumbs.

29 Then he sayde vnto her, For this saying go the way: the deuill is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when he was come home to her house, shee found the deuill departed, and her daughter lying on the bed.

31 ¶ And he departed againe from the coastes of Egypt and Sidon, and came vnto the sea of Galilee, through the middes of the coastes of Decapolis.

32 And they brought vnto him one that was deaf, & rambed in his speech, and prayd him to put his hand vpon him.

33 Then he tooke him aside from the multitude, & put his fingers in his eares, and did spit, and touched his tongue.

34 And looking vp to heauen, he sighed, and sayd vnto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his eares were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plaine.

36 And he commaunded them, that they should tell no man: but how much sooner he forbad them, the more a great deale they published it.

37 And hee beyond measure astonied, saying, * We haue done all things well: he maketh both the deafe to heare, & the dumme to speake.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The miracle of the seven loaves. 11 The Pharisee asks a signe. 15 The leauen of the Pharisee. 22 The blinde receiveth his sight. 29 He was known of his disciples. 33 He reprooveth Peter, 34 And sheweth how necessarie persecution is.

1 ¶ At those daies, when there was a very great multitude, and had nothing to eate, Iesus called his disciples to him, and sayd vnto them,

2 I haue * compassion on the multitude, because they haue now continued with me thre daies, and haue nothing to eate.

3 And if I send them away fasting to their owne houses, they would faint by the way: for some of them came from farre.

4 Then his disciples answered him, How can a man satiffie these with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves haue ye? And they sayd, Seven.

6 Then he commaunded the multitude to sit

downe on the ground: and hee took the seven loaves, and gaue thanks, brake them, and gaue to his disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people.

7 They had also a fewe small fishes: and when he had giuen thanks, he commaunded them also to be set before them.

8 So they did eate, and were sufficed, and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, seven baskets full.

9 (And they that had eaten, were about foure thousand) so he sent them away.

10 ¶ And anon hee entered into a shippe with his disciples, and came into the partes of Dalmanetha.

11 ¶ And the Pharisees came forth, and began to dispute with him, seeking of him a signe from heauen, and tempting him.

12 Then he sighed deeply in his spirit, & sayde, Why both this generation seekes a signe: verely I say vnto you, * a signe shall not be giuen vnto this generation.

13 ¶ So he left them, and went into the ship againe, and departed to the other side.

14 ¶ And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them, but one loafe.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and of the leauen of Herode.

16 And they thought among them selues, saying, It is, because we haue no bread.

17 And when Iesus knew it, he sayde vnto them, Why reason you thus because ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderstand ye: haue ye not hearts yet hardened?

18 Haue ye eyes and see not? and haue ye eares and heare not? and doe ye not yet remember?

19 ¶ When I brake the seuen loaves among foure thousand, how many baskets full of broken meate tooke ye vp? they sayd vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when I brake seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets of the leaues of broken meate tooke ye vp? and they sayd, Seven.

21 Then he sayde vnto them, * How is it that ye vnderstand not?

22 And he came to Bethsaida, and there brought a blinde man vnto him, and desired him to touche him.

23 Then hee tooke the blinde by the hand, and led him out of the towne, and spit in his eyes, and put his handes vpon him, and asked him, if he sawe ought.

24 And he looked vp, and sayd, I see men: for I see them walking like trees.

25 After that, he put his handes againe vpon his eyes, and made him looke againe. And he was restored to his sight, and saw every man a face off chere.

26 And he sent him home to his house, saying, Whether go into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

CHAP. IX.

1 The transfiguration. 7 Christ is to be heard. 26
The doctrine spirit is cast out. 29 The force of prayer and fasting. 31 Of the death and resurrection of Christ. 33 The dispute who should be the greatest. 38 Not to hinder the course of the Gospel. 42 Offences are forbidden.

1 And he sayde vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the Kingdome of God come with power.

2 And sixe daies after Iesusooke Peter,
and James, and John, and brought them vp into an high mountaine out of the wap alone, and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment did shine, and was very white, as snow, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered, & sayde to Iesus,
Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs
make also three tabernacles, one for thee,
and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he knew not what he sayde: for they were affraide.

that is contrary to his will, or that is not reuelled in his word.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, and a voyce came out of the cloude, saying, This is my beloued Sonne:
heare him.

8 And suddenly they looked round about,
and sawe no more any man saue Iesus
only with them.

9 And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them, that they should tell no man what they had seene, saue when the Sonne of man were risen
from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to the selues, and demanded one of another, what the rising fro the dead againe should meane.

11 Also they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, That Elias must first come?

12 And he answered, and sayde vnto them,
Elias verily hath first come and reioice al
things: and as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say vnto you, Elias is come,
(and they haue done vnto him whatsoe-uer they would) as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer many things,
and be set at nought.

14 And when he came to his disciples,
hee saue a great multitude about them,
and the Scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightwaye all the people, when they beheld him, were amazed, and saide
to him, and saluted him.

16 Then hee asked the Scribes, What dispute you among your selues?

17 And one of the company answered, and sayde, Master, I haue brought my sonne
vnto thee, which hath a deuill spirit:

18 And whersoever he taketh him, he teareth him, and hee foorth, and gnasheth
his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should call him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him, & said, O faith-les generation, how long now shall I be grieved as if his bowels were rent asunder,

20 So they brought him vnto him: and as
soone as the spirit saue him, he tare him,
and hee fell downe on the ground, wail-
lowing and foaming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long is it since he hath bene thus? And he sayde, O father,

22 And oft times he casteth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him:
but if thou canst doe any thing, helpe vs,
and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus sayde vnto him, If thou canst beleue it, all things are possible to him that beleueth.

24 And straightwaye the father of the childe crying with teares, sayd, Lord, I beleue:
helpe my vnbeleefe.

25 When Iesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked vnleane
spirites, saying vnto him, Thou deuill, and deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 Then the spirit cryed, and rent him foze, and came out, and he was as one dead, in so much that many said, He is dead.
27 But Jesus took his hand, and lift him vp, and he rose.
28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why could not we call him out?
29 And he said vnto them, This kinde can by no other meanes come forth, but by prayer and fasting.
30 ¶ And they departed thence, & went through Galile, and he would not that any should haue knowne it.
31 For he taught his disciples, and said vnto them, The Sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the hands of men, & they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, he shall rise againe the third day.
32 But they vnderstode not that sayings, and were afrayde to aske him.
33 ¶ After he came to Capernaum: and when he was in þe house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among you by the way?
34 And they helde their peace: for by the way they reasoned among them selues, who should be the chiefest.
35 And he sae downe, & called the twelue, and said to them, If any man desire to be first, the same shalbe last of all, and seruant vnto all.
36 And he tooke a litle childe, and set him in the muddes of them, and tooke him in his armes, and said vnto them,
37 Whosoever shall receiue one of such litle children in my Name, receiue me: and whosoener receiue me, receiue me not.
38 ¶ Then Iohn answered him, saying, Master, we sawe one casting out devils by thy Name, which followeth not vs, and we sayde him, because he followeth vs not.
39 ¶ But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man that can doe a miracle by my Name, that can lightely speake euill of me.
40 For whosoener is not against vs, is on our part.
41 And whosoener shal giue you a cup of water to drinke for my Names sake, because ye belong to Christ, verely I say vnto you, he shal not lose his reward.
42 ¶ And whosoener shall offende one of these litle ones, that beloeue in mee, it were better for him rather, that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea.
43 ¶ Wherefore if thine hande cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life, maimed, then hauing two handes, to goe into hell, into the fire that neuer shalbe quenched.
44 ¶ Where their woyme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.
45 Likewise, if thy foote cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to goe halt into life, then hauing two foete to be cast into hell, into the fire that neuer shal be quenched.

46 Where their woyme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

way, there came one running, and knee-

what shal I do, that I may possesse eter-

18 Iesus sayd to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, even God.

19 Thou knowest the commandements, Thou shalt not commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kil. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witness. Thou shalt hurt no man. Honour thy father & mo-

20 Then he answered, and sayde to him, Master, all these things I haue obserued
from my youthe.

21 And Iesus behelde him, & loued him,
and sayd vnto him, One thing is lacking
vnto thee. So and I sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, & thou shalt haue
treasure in heauen, and come, folow me,
and take vp the crosse.

22 But he was sad at that saying, & went away sorrowfull: for he had great possessions.

23 And Iesus looked round about, & said vnto his disciples, How hardly doe they that haue riches, enter into the kingdom
of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his wordes. But Iesus answered againe, and said vnto them, Children, how hard
is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, then for a rich man
to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were much moore astonied, saying with themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 But Iesus looked vpon them, and sayd, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then Peter began to say vnto him, Loe, we haue forsaken all, and haue followed thee.

29 Iesus answered, & said, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospels,

30 But he shall receiue an hundredfold
nowe at this present: houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands with persecutions, and in the world to come, eternall life.

31 ¶ But many that are first, shalbe last,
and the last first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going vp to Ierusalem, and Iesus went before them, and they were amazed, & as they followed, they were afraide, and Iesus tooke the twelue againe, and beganne to tell them what things shoulde come vnto
him,

33 Saying, Beholde, we goe vp to Ierusalem, & the Sonne of man shalbe deliue-red vnto the Priests, & to the Scribes,
and they shall condemne him to death,
and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mocke him, and scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kil him: but the third day he shall rise againe.

35 ¶ Then James and John the sonnes of Zebedee came vnto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest
doe for vs that that we desire.

36 And he said vnto them, What woulde
ye I should do for you?

37 And they said to him, Grant vnto vs,
that we may sit one at thy right hande,
& the other at thy left hand in thy glory.

38 But Iesus sayd vnto them, Ye knowe not what ye aske. Can ye drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptised with the baptisme that I shalbe baptized with?

39 And they said vnto him, We can. But Iesus said vnto them, Ye shall drinke in bode of the cup that I shall drinke of, &
be baptised with the baptisme wherewith
I shalbe baptized:

40 But to sit at my right hand, and at my left, is not mine to giue, but it shall be gi-uen to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard that, they began to disdaine at James and John.

42 But Iesus called them vnto him, and sayde to them, ¶ Ye knowe that they which delite to beare rule among the Gentiles, haue domination ouer them,
and they that be great among them, exercise authoritie ouer them.

43 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shal be your seruant.

44 And whosoever will be chiefe of you,
shalbe the seruant of all.

45 For euen the sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ranfome of many.

46 ¶ Then they came to Iericho: and as he went out of Iericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, ¶ Barti-meus the sonne of Tineus, a blind man
sat by the wayes side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Iesus
of Nazaret, he began to cry and to say, Iesus the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie
on me.

48 And many rebuked him, because he shoulde holde his peace: but he cryed much moore, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

49 Then Iesus stode stil, and commaunded him to be called: and they called the blind, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort: arise, he callith thee.

50 So he thiew away his cloke, and rose,
and came to Iesus.

51 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blind said vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Iesus said vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath saued thee. And by and by, he receiued his sight, and folowed Iesus in the way.

1 And when they came nere to Ierusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of Olives, he sent forth two of his disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Go your wayes into that towne: & is ouer against you, as aske as ye shall enter into it, ye shall finde a colt bounde, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why doe ye this? Say that the Lord hath neede of him, and straightway he will sende him hither.

4 And they went their way, and founde a colt tyed by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met, and they loosed him.

5 Then certayne of them that stood there, said vnto them, What doe ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said vnto them, as Iesus had commaunded them. So they let them goe.

7 And they brought the colte to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sate vpon him.

8 And many tyed their garments in the way: other cut downe branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, & they that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna: Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

10 Blessed be the kingdom that cometh in the name of the Lord of our father David: Hosanna, O thou which art in the highest heauens.

11 So Iesus entred into Ierusalem, and into the Temple: & when he had looked about on all things, & now it was euening, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

12 And on the morowe when they were come out from Bethania, he was hungry.

13 And seeing a figge tree a farre off, that had leaues, he went to see if he might finde any thing thereon: but when he came vnto it, he founde nothing but leaues: for the time of figs was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, and said to it, Thou neuer man eate fruit of thee hereafter while the world standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 And they came to Ierusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that solde doves.

16 Neither would he suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the Temple.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, A house full of peace shall be called the house of prayer vnto all nations? but you haue made it a den of theues.

18 And the scribes and his priests heard it, and sought howe to destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonished at his doctrine.

19 But when euen was come, Iesus went out of the cite.

20 And in the morning as they passed by, they saw the figge tree dried vp from the rootes.

21 Then Peter remembered, and said vnto him, Behold, the figge tree which thou cursedst, is withered.

22 And Iesus answered, & said vnto them, Haue I faith in God,

23 For verely I say vnto you, that whosoever shall say vnto this moitaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, and it shall not wauer in his heart, but shall beleue that those things which he saith, shall come to passe, whatsoeuer he saith, shall be done to him.

24 Therefore I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye desire when ye pray, beleue ye shall haue it, and it shall be done vnto you.

25 But when ye shall stand, & pray, forgive, if ye haue any thing against any man, & your father also which is in heauen, may forgive you your trespasses.

26 For if you will not forgive, your father which is in heauen, will not pardon you your trespasses.

27 Then they came againe to Ierusalem: as he walked in the Temple, there came to him the hie priests, and the scribes, and the Elders,

28 And said vnto him, By what authoritie dost thou these things? & who gae thee this authoritie, that thou shouldest doe these things?

29 Then Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, I will also aske of you a certaine thing, & answer me, & I will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

30 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men? & answer me.

31 And they thought with themselves, saying, If we shal say, From heauen, he wil say, Why then did ye not beleue him?

32 But if we say, Of men, we feare the people: for all men counted Iohn, that he had bene a very prophet.

33 Then they answered, and said vnto Iesus, We can not tell. And Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, Neither will I tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

- 6 Yet had he one sonne, his deare beloved: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.
- 7 But the husbandmen said among them selues, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shalbe ours.
- 8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

- 13 ¶ And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians that they might take him in his talke.
- 14 And when they came, they sayde vnto him, Master, we knowe that thou art true, & carest for no man: for thou considerest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God truly, is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?
- 15 Should we giue it, or should we not giue it? But he knew their hypocrisie, and saide vnto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a penny, that I may see it.
- 16 So they brought it, and he sayde vnto them, Whose is this image & superscription? and they said vnto him, Cessars.
- 17 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Giue to Cesar the things that are Cessars, & to God, those that are Gods: and they maruelled at him.
- 18 ¶ Then came the Sadduces vnto him, (which say, there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying,
- 19 Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.
- 20 There were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, & when he died, left no issue.
- 21 Then the second tooke her, and he died, neither did he yet leaue issue, and the third likewise.
- 22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.
- 23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall she be of them? for seuen had her to wife.
- 24 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceiued, because ye know not the Scriptures, nepether the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marry, nor women are married, but are as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, how in the buls God spake vnto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.

28 ¶ Then came one of the Scribes that had heard them disputing together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, & with all thy soule, and with all thy minde, & with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, that is, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. I haue said all the ceremonies of the Law, wherein they

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, & to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 Then, when Iesus saw that he answered discretely, he said vnto him, Thou art not farre from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 ¶ And Iesus answered and said reaching in the Temple, Now say the Scribes that Christ is the Sonne of Dauid?

36 For Dauid him selfe said by the holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ Whosoever he said vnto them in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes which loue to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets,

39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first rooms at feastes,

40 Which denounce widowes houses, & set men under a colour of long prayers. These shall receive the greater damnation.

41 ¶ And as Iesus sat ouer against the treasure, he behelde how the people cast money into the treasure, and many rich men cast in much.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The destruction of Jerusalem. 10 The Gospel that be preached to all. 9. 22 The persecutions and false prophets which shall be before the coming of Christ, whose house is uncircumcised. 33 He exhorted every one to watch.

1 And as he went out of the Temple,
he said to his disciples: I have said unto him, Waiter, for what stones and what buildings are here.

2 Then Jesus answered & said unto him,
See thou these great buildings: there shall not be left one stone by a stone, that shall not be thrown downe.

3 And as he sat on the mount of Olives,
our against the Temple, Peter, & James,
and John, & Andrew asked him secretly, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the signe wherewith these things shall be fulfilled?

4 And Jesus answered the, & began to say,
Take heed lest any man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying,
I am Christ, and shall deceive many.

7 Furthermore when ye shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres, be not troubled: for such things must needs be:
but the ende shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, & there shall be earthquakes in divers quarters, and there shall be famine and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes.

9 But take ye heed to your selves: for they shall deliver you up to the Councils, and to the Synagogues: ye shall be beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimoniall unto them.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they lead you, and deliver you up, take ye no thought aforesaid, neither premeditate what ye shall say: but what soever is given you at the same time, that speak: for it is not ye that speak, but
the holy Ghost.

12 And the brother shall deliver the brother to death, and the father the sonne,
and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake: but whosoever shall endure unto the ende, he shall be saved.

14 And whosoever, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by Daniel the Prophet) standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, consider it) then let them that be in Judea, flee into the mountains.

15 And let him that is upon the house, not come downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch and thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turne backe againe unto the things which he left behinde him, to take his clothes.

17 Then two shall be in the field, the one shall be taken, the other shall be left.
18 And likewise that pour oil shall be not in the garner.

19 For these shall be in those daies such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those daies, no flesh should be saved: but for the elects sake, which he hath chosen,
he hath shortened those daies.

21 Then if any man say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or, Lo, he is there, believe it not.

22 For false Christs shall rise, & false prophets, & shall shew signes & wonders, to deceive if it were possible, the very elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have shewed you all things before.

24 And whosoever in those daies, after that tribulation, the Sonne shall warr darke,
and the Sonne shall not give her light.

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall: and the powers which are in heaven, shall shake.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man coming in the cloudes, with great power and glory.

27 And he shall send his Angels, & they shall gather together his elect from the four windes, & from the utmost part of the earth to the utmost part of heaven.

28 And he shall send his Angels, & they
shall gather together his elect from the four
windes, & from the utmost part of the
earth to the utmost part of heaven.

29 So in like manner, when ye see these things come to passe, know that the kingdome of God is nigh, even at the doores.

30 Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall passe away, but my wordes shall not passe away.

32 But of that day and hour knoweth
no man, no, not the Angels which are in heaven, neither the Sonne him selfe, save the Father.

33 Take heed: watch, and pray: for ye knowe not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange countrey, and leaveth his house, and giveth authoritie to his servants, and to every man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 Watch therefore, (for ye knowe not when the master of the house will come, at even, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning)

36 Lest if he come suddenly, he should finde
you sleeping.

37 And those things that I say unto you,
I say unto all men, Watch.

4 Therefore some did blame among them, waste of ointment.

5 For it might have bin sold for more then three hundred pence, & bin given unto the poore, and they grudged against her.

6 But Jesus sayde, Let her alone: why trouble ye her? shee hath wrought a good worke on me.

14 And whither soeuer he goeth in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the lodging where I shall eat the Passouer with my disciples?

23 Also he tooke the cuppe, & when hee had giuen thanks, gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drinke no more of the fruit of the vine, vntill that day, that I drinke it newe in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sing a psalme, they went out to the mount of Olives.

27 ¶ Then Jesus sayde unto them, All ye shall be offended by me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherds, and the sheepe shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will goe into Galilee before you.

38 ¶ Watch ye, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit is ready to deceiue, but the flesh is weak.

39 And againe he went away, and prayed, and spake the same wordes.

them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, he it is: take him, and leade him away safely.

And all those as he was come, he went straightway to him, and sayd, Master, Master, and kissed him.

Then they layde their handes on him, and roke him.

And one of them that stoode by, drew out a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his eare.

And Jesus answered & said unto them, He be come out as unto a thiefe with swordes and with staves to take me.

I was dapper with you teaching in the Temple, and ye took me not: but this is done, that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.

Then they all forsooke him, and fled. And there followed him a certaine poyng man, clothed in linnen upon his bare body, and the poyng men caught him.

But he left his linnen cloth, & fled from them naked.

So they ledde Jesus away to the high priest, & to him came all the high priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.

And Peter followed him: a farre off, even into the hall of the high priest, and sate with the servants, and warmed himselfe at the fire.

And the high priests, and all the Counsell fought for witness against Jesus, to put him to death, but found none.

For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

Then there arose certaine, & bare false witness against him, saying,

We heard him say, I will destroy this Temple made with hands, & within three dayes I will builde another, made without hands.

But their witness yet agreed not together.

Then the high priest stoode by amongs them, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these beare witness against thee?

But he helde his peace, and answered nothing. Againe the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the Blessed?

And Jesus said, I am he, and ye shall see the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

Then the high priest rent his clothes, and said, What haue we any more neede of witnesses?

He haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death.

And some began to spit at him, and to cover his face, & to beate him with fists, and to say vnto him, Prophesie, and the sergeants smote him with their roddes.

And they cried againe, Crucifie him. Then Pilate said unto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cried the more feruently, Crucifie him.

So Pilate willing to content the people, iustice.

And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the mapdres of the high priest.

And when she sawe Peter warming himselfe, she looked on him, & sayd, Thou wast also with Jesus of Nazareth.

But he denied it, saying, I know him not, neither wor I what thou saiest. Then he went out into the porch, and the cocke crewe.

Then a mapdres sawe him againe, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

But he denied it againe: and anon after that she sawe him againe, she said, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, & thy speech is like.

And he began to curse, and sweare, saying, I know not this man of whome ye speake.

Then the second time the cocke crewe, & Peter rememberd the word that Jesus had sayd vnto him, Before the cocke crewe twice, thou shalt denie me thrise, & waping that way himselfe, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

Jesus is led to Pilate. 15 He is condemned, reuled, and put to death, 46 And is buried by Joseph.

And anon in the morning, the high priests helde a counsell with the Elders, and the Scribes, & the whole counsell, and bound Jesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered, and said vnto him, Thou saiest it.

And the high priests accused him of many things.

Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

But Jesus answered no more at all, so that Pilate marvelled.

Nowe at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whome soeuer they would desire.

Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bounde with his fellows, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

And the people cried aloude, and began to desire that he would do as he had: ever done vnto them.

Then Pilate answered them, and sayd, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the king of the Iewes?

For he knew that the high priests had deliuered him of envie.

But the high priests had mooued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What wil ye then that I doe with him, whome ye call the king of the Iewes?

And they cried againe, Crucifie him.

Then Pilate said vnto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cried the more feruently, Crucifie him.

So Pilate willing to content the people, iustice.

Repos. Apr. 241. Christ crucified. S. Marke. The Sepulchre.

Or, Petrus.

Or, Salty.

Matth. 27. 32. Luke 23. 26. e It was the custom to make him y was condemned, to carry his cross, but Jesus was not able for weakness.

Matth. 27. 33. Luke 23. 31. f Which was the death: but he would not drink it, because he would wait for the hour that his Father had appointed, that he might render unto him perfect obedience.

g The Jewes divided their day into four parts, so that by the third hour is here meant the third part of the day, which was from six a clocke to nine, at what time Mat. saith he was crucified.

John 19. 17. h Meaning, the one of them y were crucified.

i Because this darkness was onely over the land of Canaan, when the rest of the world was light, the miracle is the greater.

k Which was the third part of the day, and about three of the clocke after noone.

Matth. 27. 46. l This was spoken mockingly.

ple, looked them Sarabbas, and belied red Jesus when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified.

16 Then the soldiers led him away into the hall, which is the common hall, and called together the whole band,

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, saying, Hail, King of the Jewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spar byon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reverence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took the purple off him, & put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 And they compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the countrey, & was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens skulles.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrhe: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lottes for them, what euer man should haue.

25 And it was the thirde houre, when they crucified him.

26 And a title of his cause was written as foure, THE KING OF THE JEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theues, the one on the right hande, and the other on his left.

28 Thus a Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, * Her thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in thre dayes,

30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the hie Priestes mocking, sayde among themselves with the Scribes, * We sawe other men, himselfe he can not saue.

32 Let Christ the king of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that we may see, and beleue. * They also that were crucified with him, reviled him.

33 * Now when the first houre was come, darkness arose ouer all the lande vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre Jesus cried with a loude voyce, saying, * Eloi, Eloi, lamanna-sabachthani: which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, sayd, * Beholde, he callith Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, & put it on a reede, & gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Jesus cried with a loude voyce, and gave up the ghost,

38 And the basile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Nowe when the Centurion, which m Who had stood ouer against him, saw that he thus crying gaue up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 * There were also women, which he had followed, among whom was Marie Magdalene, and Marie (the mother of James the lesse, & of Ioseph) & Salome, 41 Which also when her was in Galile, followed him, and ministered vnto him, and many other women which came by with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 * And now when night was come (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an honorable man, a counsellour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came, & went in to Pilate, & asked him whether he might haue the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled, if he were already dead, & called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whither he had bene any while dead.

45 And when he knewe the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph.

46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him downe, & layed him in the linnen cloth, and lapd him in a tombe that was hewn out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Iosephs mother behelde where he should be laide.

1 The women come to the graue. 2 Christ being risen againe, appeareth to Magdalene. 3 Also to the eleven, and reproveth their vnbellefe. 4 He committeth the preaching of the Gospel and the ministration of baptisme vnto them.

5 And * when the Sabbath day was past, Marie Magdalene, and Marie the mother of James, and Salome,

6 bought sweet oynments that they might come, and embaulme him.

7 Therefore early in the morning, the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the sunne was yet rising.

8 And they sayde one to another, * Who shall rolle vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

9 And when they looked, they sawe that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one.)

10 * So they went into the sepulchre, & sawe a young man sitting at the right side, clothed in a long white robe: and they were afraide.

11 But he said vnto them, Be not afraide: for I am he that was crucified, which hath bene crucified: he is risen: he is not here: behold the place, where they put him.

12 But go your way, and tell his disciples, & Peter, that he will goe before you into Galile: there shall ye see him, as he said vnto you.

13 And they went out quickly, & fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled, & were amazed: neither sayde they any thing to any man: for they were afraide.

them up in their hearts, saying, What manner child shall this be! and the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 Then his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, because he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up the horn of salvation unto us, in the house of his servant David,

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which were since the world began, saying,

71 That he would send us deliverance from our enemies, and from the hands of all that hate us,

72 That he would shew mercy towards our fathers, and remember his holy covenant,

73 And the oath which he swore to our father Abraham:

74 Which was, that he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, should serve him without fear,

75 All the days of our life, in holiness and righteousness before him.

76 And thou, babe, shalt be called the prophet of the most high: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his way,

77 And to give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sinnes,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day springing from on high hath visited us,

79 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the wilderness, till the day came, that he should shew himself unto Israel.

7 The birth and circumcision of Christ. 23 He was received into the Temple. 28 Simon and Anna prophesie of him. 46 He was found among the doctors. 51 His obedience to father and mother.

1 And it came to passe in those dayes, that there came a commandment from Augustus Cæsar, that all the world should be taxed.

(This first taxing was made when Cæsar Augustus was gouernour of Syria.)

2 Therefore went all to be taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

3 And Ioseph also went by from Galilee out of a citie called Nazareth, into Iudea, vnto the citie of David, which is called Beth-lehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David.)

To be taxed with Maria that was giuen him to wife, which was with child.

4 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished, that she should be deliuered.

5 And she brought forth her first begotten son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a cratch, because there was no room for them in the inn.

6 And there were in the same countrey shepherds, abiding in the field, keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

7 And lo, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraid.

8 Then the Angel layde vnto them, Be not affraide: for behold, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shall be to all the people:

9 In that, that vnto you is borne this day in the citie of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

10 And this shall be a signe to you, Ye shall finde the childe swaddled, and layde in a cratch.

11 And straightway there was with the Angel a multitude of heauie souldiers, praising God, and saying,

12 Glorie be to God in the high heavens, and peace in earth, and towards men of good will.

13 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that the shepherds said one to another, Let vs go then vnto Beth-lehem, and see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

14 So they came with haste, and found both Maria and Ioseph, and the babe layde in the cratch.

15 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

16 And all that heard it, wondered at the things which were tolde them of the shepherds.

17 But Maria kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

18 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard and seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

19 And when the eight dayes were accomplished, that they should circumcise the childe, his name was then called IESVS, which was named of the Angel, before he was conceived in the wombe.

20 And when the dayes of her purification were accomplished, they brought him to Ierusalem, to present him to the Lord.

21 As it is writen in the lawe of the Lord, Every man childe that first openeth the wombe, shall be called holy to the Lord.

22 And to giue an oblation, as it is com-manded in the lawe of the Lord, a pair of turtle doves, or two pong pigeons.

23 And behold, there was a man in Ierusalem, whose name was Simeon: this that they were man was iust, and feared God, and was not able to offer for the consolation of Israel, and the holy Ghost was vpon him.

26 And a reuelation was giuen him of the holy Ghost, that he should not see death,
before he had seene the Lordes Christ.
27 And he came by the motion of the Spi-
rite into the Temple, & when the parents brought in the childe Iesus, to do for him
after the custome of the Lawe.
28 Then he took him in his armes, and praised God, and sayd, 29 Lord, now lettest thou thy seruant depart in peace, according to thy worde:
30 For mine eyes haue seene thy salua-
tion.
31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people:
32 A light to be reuelled to the Gentiles,
and the glory of thy people Israel.
33 And Joseph and his mother maruiled
at those things, which were spoken concerning him.
34 And Simeon blessed them, and sayde vnto Marie his mother, Beholde, this childe is appointed for the fall and rising againe of many in Israel, and for a signe which shalbe spoken against.
35 (For a sword shal pearce through thy soule) that the thoughtes of many hearts may be opened.
36 And there was a prophetesse, one Anna the daughter of Iohannet, of the tribe of Aser, which was of a great age, and had lined with an husband seuen yeeres
from her virginity.
37 And she was widowe about fourescore and foure yeeres, and went not out of the Temple, but serued God with fastings
and prayers, night and day.
38 She then comming at the same instant
vpon them, confessed likewise the Lord,
and spake of him to all that looked for redemption in Ierusalem.
39 And when they had performed all things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee to their owne cite Nazaret.
40 And the childe grew, and waxed strong in Spirit, & was filled with wisdom,
and the grace of God was with him.
41 Now his parents went to Ierusalem euery yere, at the feast of the Passouer.
42 And when hee was twelue yeres olde,
and they were come vp to Ierusalem, after
the custome of the feast, 43 And had finished the dayes thereof, as then returned, the childe Iesus remained in Ierusalem, and Joseph knew not noy

44 But they supposing, that hee had bene
in the company, went a dayes iourney,
and sought him among their kinsfolke,
and acquaintance.
45 And when they found him not, they turned back to Ierusalem, & sought him.
46 And it came to passe thre dayes after,
that then founde him in the Temple, sitting in the middes of the doctors, both hearing them, & asking them questions.
47 And all that heard him, were astonied
at his understanding, and answers.
48 So when they sawe him, they were amased, and his mother sayde vnto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs? behold, thy father and I haue sought thee with greauous hearts.

49 Then sayde he vnto them, How is it that ye sought me? knewe ye not that I must goe about my fathers business?
50 But they understood not the worde
that he spake to them.
51 Then he went downe with them, and came to Nazaret, and was subiect to them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.
52 And Iesus increased in wisdom, and stature, & in fauour with God and men.

15 As the people waited, and all men mused in their heartes of John, if he were not the Christ.

16 John answered, and sayde to them all, * In dede I baptize you with water, but one stronger then I cometh, whose shoes latcher I am not worthy to vntoote: he will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

CHAP. xiiii.

Iesus was led into the wilderness to be tempted. 13 He overcometh the deuil. 14 He goeth into Galilee, 16 Preacheth at Nazareth, and Capernaum. 22 The leues disspise him. 38 He cometh into Peters house, and healeth his mother in lawe. 43 The deuil acknowledgeth Christ. 43 He preacheth through the citie.

And Iesus full of the holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness,

2 * And was there fourtie dayes tempted of the deuil, and in those dayes he did eat nothing: but when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

3 Then the deuil said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, commaund this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, * That man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euerie word of God.

5 Then the deuil tooke him by into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, in the twinkling of an eye.

6 And the deuil saide vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glorie of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me: and to whomsoever I wil, I giue it:

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, thou shalt haue all thine.

8 But Iesus answered him, and sayde, * Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him alone thou shalt serue.

9 Then he brought him to Ierusalem, & set him on a pinnacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence,

10 For it is written, * That he wil giue his Angels charge over thee to keepe thee:

11 And with their handes they shall lift thee up, least at any time thou shouldest dash thy foote against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, It is saide, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him: for a season.

14 * And Iesus returned by the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about.

15 * And howe hard it is to resist the tentations of Satan: for he giueth not ouer for twise or thrise putting backe.

16 * It is not yough, twise or thrise to resist Satan: for he neuer ceaseth to tempt: or if he relent a litle, it is to the ende that he may renew his force and assaile vs more sharpe.

q That is, the motion of the deuil, or that was tormented with a very deuil.

15 For he taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

16 * And he came to Nazaret where he had bene brought vp, & (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood vp to read.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: & when he had opened the booke, he founde the place, where it was written,

18 * The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anointed mee, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: he hath sent me, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliverance to the captiues, and recover sight to the blinde, that I should set at libertie them that are bound,

19 And that I should preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sat downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then he began to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he said vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto me this prouerbe, Whysitron, heale thy selfe: whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And he said, Verely I say vnto you, No: Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the daies of * Elias, when heauen was shut thre piers and fire monethes, when great famine was throughout all the land.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta, a cite of Sidon, vnto a certaine widowe.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled with wrath.

29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the cite, and ledde him vnto the edge of the hill, wherupon their cite was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But he passed through the middes of them, and went his way.

31 * And came downe into Capernaum a cite of Galilee, and there taught them on the Sabbath daies.

32 * And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an uncleane deuil, which cried with a loude voyce,

34 Saying, Oh, what haue we to do with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret: art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe who thou art, even the Wylde one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, & come out of him. Then the deuil throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselves, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commaundeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the same of him spied abroade throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 * And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house. And Simons wifes mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then he stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediately she arose, and ministered vnto them.

40 Now when the sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he laide his hands on euery one of them, & healed them.

41 * And devils also came out of many, crying, & saying, Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but he rebuked them, constraining them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, & went forth into a desert place, & the people sought him, and came to him, & kept auaile them, because they should not depart from him, because it cometh.

43 But he said vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdom of God to other cities: for therfore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galilee.

3 And he entred into one of the shippes, which was Simons, and required him that he would thrust off a litle from the land: and he sat downe, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 * Nowe when he had left speaking, he said vnto Simon, Lanche out into the deepe, & let downe your nettes to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and saide vnto him, * After, we haue trauailed all night, & haue take nothing: neuerthelesse at thy word I will let downe the net.

they which were with him,

4 Now he went into the house of God, and took, and ate the twelve bread, and gave also to the which were with him, which was not lawful to eat, but for the disciples only.

5 And he said unto them, The Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ It came to passe also on another Sabbath day, that he entered into the Synagogue and taught, and there was a man, whose right hand was dried up.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hande, Arise, and stand up in the middes. And he arose, and stood up.

9 ¶ Then said Jesus unto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawful on the Sabbath daies to doe good, or to doe evil: to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And he beheld them all in compasse, and said unto the man, Stretch forth thine hande. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 ¶ Then they were filled full of inuidie, and communed one with another, what they might do to Jesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went into a mountaine to praye, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelve, which also he called Apostles.

14 ¶ Simon whome he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philippe, and Bartolomew:

15 Matthew, and Thomas: James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes:

16 Judas James brother, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 ¶ Then he came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place, with the compasse of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of Iudea, & Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes upon his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye people: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 ¶ Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be satisfied: Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 ¶ Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you, and reuile you, and put out your name as evil, for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 ¶ Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets,

24 ¶ But I say unto you that are rich: for ye have received your consolation.

25 ¶ Woe be to you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Woe be to you that now laugh: for ye shall weale and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all men speak well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say unto you which heare, Love your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.

29 ¶ And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 ¶ Give to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, aske them not againe.

31 ¶ And as ye would that men should doe to you, so doe ye to them likewise.

32 ¶ For if ye love them which love you, what thankes shall ye haue? for even the sinners love those that love them.

33 And if ye doe good for them which doe good for you, what thankes shall ye haue? for even the sinners doe the same.

34 ¶ And if ye lende to them of whome ye hope to receiue, what thanks shall ye haue? for even the sinners lende to sinners, to receiue the like.

35 ¶ Wherefore love ye your enemies, and do good, & lend, looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be children of the most High: for he is kinde unto the vnkinde, & to the euill.

36 ¶ Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 ¶ Judge not, and ye shall not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven.

38 ¶ Give, and it shall be giuen unto you: a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, and running ouer shall men giue you: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 ¶ And he spake a parable unto them, ¶ Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 ¶ The disciple is not above his master: but who denieth will be a perfitte disciple, shalbe as his master.

41 ¶ ¶ And whoe seeth thou a mote in thy brothers eye, & considereth not the beam that is in thine owne eye?

42 ¶ Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest not the beam that is in thine owne eye? Hypocrites, cast out the beam out of thine owne eye first, and then shalt thou see perfectly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

43 ¶ ¶ For it is not a good tree that bringeth forth euill fruit: neither an euill tree, that bringeth forth good fruit.

44 ¶ For euery tree is known by his owne & ye: are ye too fruitless: for neither of thornes gather ye the least fault in their brother.

1 When he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certaine Centurions seruant was sicke and readie to die, which was deare vnto him.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that he was worthy that he should do this for him.

5 For he longeth, said they, our nation, and he hath built vs a Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now neere farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say the word, and my seruant shall be whole.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authority, and haue vnder mee souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and hee cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marvelled at him, and turned him, and said to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Samaria, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when he came nere to the gate of the citie, beholde, there was a dead man caried out, who was the onely begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when she sayde saw her, he had compassion on her, and sayde vnto her, Woe not.

14 And he went & touched the coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and he said, Young man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sat vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudaea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?

21 And at that time he cured many of their sicknesses, and plagues, and of euill spirits, & vnto many blinde men he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Go your wayes and shew Iohn, what things ye haue seene and heard: that the blinde see, the halte goe, the Lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and the poore receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is he, that shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people, of Iohn. What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reede shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in softe raiment? beholde, they which are gorgeously appareled, and fine delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, He shall holde, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: neuertheless, heape some appeahe that is the least in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of Iohn.

23 And as they sailed, he fell a sleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in iopardie.

24 Then they went to him, & awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the waves of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then he saide vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondered among themselves, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the winds and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ So they sayled vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

27 And as he went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of þe citie, which had a deuill long tyme, and he ware no clothes, neither abode in howse, but in the granes.

28 And when he saw Iesus, he cryed out,

31 Then Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, <sup>a</sup> Legion, because many devils were entered into him.

32 And they besought him, that he would not command them to go out into the <sup>a</sup> deep.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swyne: and the hearde was caried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, & was choked.

34 When the heardmen sawe what was done, they fled : and when they were departed, they tolde it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man, out of whome the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Iesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afraide.

36 They also which sawe it, tolde them by

he went into the ship, and returned.

51 And when he went into the house, hee suffered no man to go in with him, save Peter, and James, and Iohn, and the father and mother of the maide.

52 And all wept, & sorrowed for her: but he said, Weepe not: for she is not dead, but sleepe.

53 And they laugh him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 So he thrust them all out, & tooke her by the hand, & cried, saying, Spake, arise.

55 And her spirit came againe, & she rose straightway: and he commaunded to give her meate.

56 Then her parents were astonied: but he commaunded them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

2 He sendeth out the twelve Apostles to preach. 7 Herode beareth tell of him. 12 He feedeth five thousand men with five loaves, and two fishes. 19 Divers opinions of Christ. 28 He transfigureth himself upon the mount. 42 He delivareth the possessed, 47 And teacheth his disciples to be lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but he reproveth them.

1 Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, & to heale diseases.

2 And he sent them to preache the kings doime of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And he said to them, Take nothing to your iourney, neyther staves, nor scrip, neither bread, nor shooes, neither haue two coats.

4 And whatsoeuer house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye goe out of that cite, shake off the very dust from your fote for a testimony against them.

6 And they went out, and went through euery towne preaching the Gospel, and healing euery where.

7 Now Herode the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: & he doubted, because that it was saide of some, that Iohn was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herode said, Iohn haue I beheaded: who then is this of whom I heare such things? and he desired to see him.

10 And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. Then he tooke them, & went aside into a solitary place, nere to the cite called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him: and he received them, and spake vnto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need to be healed.

12 And when the day began to waxe

away, the twelve came, and sayde vnto him, Sende the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said vnto them, Give ye them to eate. And they said, We haue no more but five loaves and two fishes, except we should goe, and buye meate for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. Then he said to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he tooke the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples, to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remayned to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and said, Iohn Baptist: & others say, Elias: & some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And he saide vnto them, But whome say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, & commaunded them, that they should tell that to no man.

22 Saying, The sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reijoned of the elders, and of the hie Priests & Scribes, and be slaine, & the third day rise againe.

23 And he saide to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himselfe, and take up his crosse & dapple, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what anantage it a man, if he winne the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his glory, and in the glory of the ffares ther, and of the holy Angels.

27 And I tell you of a surtie, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the kings doime of God.

28 And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter, and Iohn, and James, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the faction of his countenance was changed, and his garments were white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias.

31 Which appeared in glory, and tolde of his departing, which he should accomplish at Ierusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him, they were asleepe: and when they awoke, they saw the glory of him, and how he should die.

33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter sayde unto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: it is therfore make thre tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moyses, & one for Elias, and wilt not what he sayd.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and ouershadowed them, and they feared when they were entering into y cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of y cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and tolde no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe fro the mountaine, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the cōpany cried out, saying, After, I beseech thee, behold my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

39 And lo, a spirite taketh him, & suddenly he crieth, and he teareth him, that he fo-meth, and with much paine departeth from him, when he hath binised him.

40 Now I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and sayde, O generation faithles, and crooked, howe long now shall I be with you, and suffer you! bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet conuincing, he deuil rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vncleane spirite, and healed the childe, and deliuered him to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: and while they al wondered at all things, which Iesus did, he said vnto his disciples,

44 Marke these wordes diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they vnderstood not that woide: for it was hid from them, so y they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that woide.

46 ¶ Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should be the greatest.

47 When Iesus sawe the thoughtes of their hearts, he toke a little childe, and set him by him,

48 And sayd vnto them, Whosoener recei-ueth this little childe in my name, recei-ueth me: and whosoener shall receiue me, receiueh him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, he sha be great.

49 ¶ And Iohn answered and sayd, Master, we saue one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbade him, because hee followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Iesus sayde vnto him, Forbid he him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the dayes were accomplished, that he should be re-scued by, he setled himselfe fully to goe to

Jerusalem,

52 And sent messengers before him: & they went and entered into a towne of the Samaritans, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his reputation was, as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and Iohn sawe it, they sayd, Lorde, wilt thou that we commaund, that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as ¶ Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about, and rebuked them, and sayde, Ye knowe not of what spirit ye are.

56 For the sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to passe that as they went in the way, ¶ a certaine man sayd vnto him, I will followe thee, Lord, whitherso-uer thou goest.

58 And Iesus sayde vnto him, The fores haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nestes, but the Sonne of man hath not wherewith to lay his head.

59 But he sayd vnto another, Follow me, And the same sayd, Lord, suffer me first to go and burie my father.

60 And Iesus said vnto him, ¶ Let the dead burie their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another sayde, I will followe thee, Lord: but let me first go bid thyn serua-nt, which are at mine house.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaue, shalt be thrust downe to hel.

16 * He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 And the sentie turned againe with ioy, saying, Lord, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy Name.

18 And he said vnto them, I saw Satan, like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power, to tread on serpentes, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enimie, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Nevertheless, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 That same houre reioiced Iesus in the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and learned, and hast reueiled them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then hee turned to his disciples, and said, All things are giuen me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, but the Sonne, and he to whom the Sonne will reueile him.

23 And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, * Blessed are the eyes, which see that ye see.

Therefore wee must esteeme him as the Fathers

voyce hath taught vs, and not according to mans iudgement.

q In whome we see God as in his liuely image.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and Kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, & haue not seen them: and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

25 * Then beholde, a certaine eyerownder of the Law stood vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I doe, to inherit eternall life?

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, and said, Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy thought, * and thy neighbour as thy selfe.

28 Then he said vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt liue.

29 But he willing to iustifie himselfe, said vnto Iesus, Who is thine neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and sayde, A certaine man went downe from Ierusalem to Jericho, and fell among thornes, and they robbed him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him halfe dead.

31 And by chance there came downe a certaine Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when he was come nere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine Samaritan, as he journeyed, came nere vnto him, & when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

34 And went to him, and bound up his woundes, and poured in oyle and wine, and put him on his own beast, & brought him to an Inne, and made piousion for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gaue them to the host, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these thine thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the thornes?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then sayde Iesus vnto him, Go, and doe thou likewise.

38 * Nowe it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Iesus seate, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was cōbied about much serving, and came to him, and said, Master, dost thou not care, if my sister hath left me to serue alone? bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest, and art troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needfull, which shall not be taken away from her,

CHAP. XI.

1 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driueth out a deuil. 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Phariſeis. 28 He preferreth the ſpiritual couſage. 39 They require ſignes and tokens. 37 He eateth with the Phariſeis, & reproveth the hypocriſie of the Phariſeis, Scribes and hypocrites.

1 And ſo it was, that as he was praying in a certaine place, when he ceaſed, one of his diſciples ſayde vnto him, Maſter, teach vs to pray, as John alſo taught his diſciples.

2 And he ſaid vnto them, When ye pray, ſay, Our Father, which art in heauen, halowed be thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

3 Our daily bread giue vs: for the day: And forgive vs our ſinnes: for euen wee forgive euery man that is indebted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euil.

4 And whoeuer he ſaid vnto them, Which of you ſhall haue a friend, and ſhall goe to him at midnight, and ſay vnto him, Friend, lende me thye loanes?

6 For a friend of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to let beſore him:

7 And he within ſhould anſwere, and ſay, Trouble me not: the doore is now ſhut, and my children are with me in bed: I cannot riſe and giue thee to thee.

8 I ſay vnto you, Though he would not riſe and giue him, becauſe he is his friende, yet doubtles becauſe of his importunitie, he would riſe, and giue him as much as he needeth.

9 And I ſay vnto you, Aſke, and it ſhall be giuen you: ſeeke, and ye ſhall finde: knocke, and it ſhall be opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that knocketh, it ſhall be opened.

11 If a ſonne ſhall aſke breade of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a ſtone? or if he aſke a fiſh, will hee giue him a ſerpent?

12 Or if he aſke an egge, will he giue him a ſcorpion?

13 If ye then which are euil, can giue good giſtes vnto your children, howe much more ſhall your heauenly Father giue the holy Ghoſt to them that deſire him?

14 When he caſt out a deuil which was diuine: and when the deuil was gone out, the damne ſpake, and the people wondered.

15 But ſome of them ſaide, Ye caſteth out devils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the devils.

16 And others tempted him, ſaying of him a ſigne from heauen.

17 But he knew their thoughts, and ſaid vnto them, Every kingdome diuided againſt it ſelfe, ſhall be deſolate, and an houſe diuided againſt an houſe, ſhall ſtand.

18 So if Satan alſo be diuided againſt himſelfe, how ſhall his kingdome ſtand, becauſe he ſay that I caſt out devils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub caſt out devils, by whom doe you caſt them out? Therefore ſhall they be your iudges.

20 But if I by the finger of God caſt out devils, doubtles the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

21 When a ſtrong man armed, keepeth his palace, the things that hee poſſeſſeth, are in peace.

22 But when a ſtronger then hee cometh vpon him, and ouercometh him: hee taketh from him all his armour wherewith hee truſted, and denbereth his ſpoiles.

23 He that is not with me, is againſt me: and he that gathereth not with me, ſcattereth.

24 When the vncleane ſpirit is gone out of a man, hee walketh through dry places, ſeeking reſt: and when hee findeth none, he ſaith, I will returne vnto mine houſe whence I came out.

25 And when hee cometh, hee findeth it ſwept and garniſhed.

26 Then goeth he, & taketh to him ſeuern other ſpirites worſe then him ſelfe: and they enter in, and dwell there, ſo the laſt ſtate of that man is worſe then the firſt.

27 And it came to paſſe as he ſaid theſe things, a certaine woman of the company liſted vp her voyce, and ſaid vnto him, Bleſſed is the wombe that bare thee, & the paye which thou haſt ſucked.

28 But he ſaid, Yea, rather bleſſed are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

29 And when the people were gathered thicke together, he began to ſay, This is a wicked generation: they ſeeke a ſigne, and there ſhall no ſigne be giuen them, but the ſigne of Ionaſ the Prophet.

30 For as Ionaſ was a ſigne to the Ninuites, ſo ſhall alſo the ſonne of man be to this generation.

31 The Queene of the South ſhall riſe in iudgement, with the men of this generation, and ſhall condemne them: for the ſame came from the utmoſt parts of the earth to heare the wiſdome of Solomon, and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here, haſt before.

32 The men of Nineue ſhall riſe in iudgement with this generation, and ſhall condemne it: for they repented at the preaching of Ionaſ: and beholde, a greater then Ionaſ is here.

33 No man lighteth a candle, and putteth it in a pytule place, neyther vnder a buſhell: but on a candleſticke, that they which come in, may ſee the light.

34 The light of the bodie is the eye: if therefore when thine eye is ſingle, then ſhall thy whole body be light: but if thine eye be euil, then thy body is dark.

35 Take heede therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkened.

36 If therefore thy whole body ſhall be light, hauing no part dark, then ſhall all thy worde.

That is to ſay, your conuerſion.

The finger of God is taken for the verue and power of God.

The verue of the Father and the Sonne is the holy Ghoſt.

For ſo Matthew doth interpret this place.

The word ſignifieth an entree or porche before an houſe.

Or, ſcripture.

They that do not wholly apply themſelues to deſtroy the kingdome of Satan, cannot be counted to be on Chriſtes ſide, but are his aduerſaries: how much more hee againſt him that maketh open warre with him.

As Satan doth? Math. 12. 30.

To the intent that he might worke according to his malicious nature.

More apt to receiue him then it was afore.

If by inſideltie we turne back from God, Satan hath greater power to heare the wiſdome of Solomon, and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here, haſt before.

He meaneth in deed to whom hee communicateth himſelfe by light, hauing no part dark, then ſhall all his worde.

brought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise saw it, he mar-velled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 ¶ And the Lord said to him, In dede ye Pharises make cleane the outside of the cup, and of the platter: but the inward part is full of rancuring and wickednes.

40 ¶ Ye fooles, did not hee that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore, I giue aduise of those things which are within, & beholde, all things
shalbe cleane to you.

42 But woe be to you, Pharises: for ye tie the ympt and the rewe, and all manner herbes, and passe ouer indgement and the loue of God: these ought ye to haue done, and not to haue left the other vndo.

43 ¶ Woe be to you, Pharises: for ye loue
the hyppocritisme seates in the Synagogues,
and greetings in the marketes.

44 ¶ Woe be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which appeare not, and the men that walke
ouer them, perceiue not.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the erpouders of the Law, & said vnto him, Master, thus saying thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

46 And he said, Woe be to you also, ye interpreters of the Law: for ye lade men with burdens grieuous to be borne, and ye your selues touche not the burdens
with one of your fingers.

47 ¶ Woe be to you: for ye build the sepulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 ¶ Truly ye beare witnes, & allowe the doctres of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

will sende them Prophets and Apostles,
and of them they shal slay & persecute,

be required of this generation.

for ye haue taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in your selues, and them that came in, ye forbade.

the Scribes & Pharises began to bise

Christ commandeth to auoyde hypocrite. 4. That we should not feare man but God. 5. To cast off his Name. 10. Blasphemie against the Spirit. 14.

Not to passe our vocation. 15. Not to giue our selues to countenace of this life. 32. But to refuge iustice, almes, watching, patience, wisdom and concord.

¶ At the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another:
and he began to say vnto his disciples
first, Take heed to your selues of the learen of the Pharises, which is hypocrite.

¶ For there is nothing couered, that shal not be reueiled: neither hid, that shal not be knowen.

¶ Wherefore whatsoeuer ye haue spoken
in darkenesse, it shalbe heard in the light:
and that which ye haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shalbe preached on the houles.

¶ And I say vnto you, my friends, be not afraid of them that kill the body, &
after that are not able to doe any more.

¶ But I will forewarne you, whome ye shal feare: feare him which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea,
I say vnto you, him feare.

¶ Are not fise sparrows bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

¶ Yea, and all the heares of your head are numbered: feare not therefore: ye are more
of value then many sparrows.

¶ Also I say vnto you, whosoener shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

¶ But he that shall denie me before men,
shalbe denied before the Angels of God.

¶ And whosoener shall speake a word against the Sonne of man, it shal be forgiuen him: but vnto him, that shal blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shal not be forgiuen him.

¶ And when they shal bring you vnto the Synagogues, & vnto the rulers & princes, take not thought how, or what thing ye
shal answer, or what ye shal speake.

¶ For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same houre, what ye ought to say.

¶ And one of the company said vnto him,
Master, bid my brother denie the whereance with me.

¶ And he said vnto him, Man, who made me a iudge, or a decider ouer you?

¶ Wherefore he said vnto them, Take heed, and beware of countenances: for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

¶ And he put forth a parable vnto them,
saying, The grounde of a certaine riche
man in blynght forth fruites plenteous.

¶ Therefore hee thought with him selfe, saying, What shall I do, because I haue
no roume, where I may lay vp my fruites?

¶ And he said, This will I do, I will pull downe my barnes, and builde greater,
and therein will I gather all my frutes,
and my goods.

¶ And I will say to my soule, Soule, thou halt much goods layde vp for many yeres: lue at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

¶ But God sayeth vnto him, Thou also can take halt much goods layde vp for many

XAV. Bid. Monday
S. Seb. 379.

20 But God sayde unto him, & saide, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast gathered?

21 So is hee that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in God.

22 And he spake unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap: which neither have storehouse nor barn, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are ye better then fowles?

25 And which of you with taking thought, can add to his stature one cubite?

26 If ye see then be not able to doe the least thing, why take ye thought for the raiment?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, neither spin they: yet I say unto you, that Solomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the fild, and to morrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drinke, neither stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye have neede of these things.

31 But rather seeke ye after the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be ministered unto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your Fathers pleasure, to give you the kingdom.

33 I will tell you, hee that will give almes: make pour bagges, which will not olde, a treasure that can never faile in heauen, where no thiefe cometh, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loynes be girded about, and your lightes burning.

36 And ye pour selues like unto men that waite for their master, when hee will returne from the wedding, that when hee cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those seruantes, to whom the Lord when he cometh, shall finde waking: verily I say unto you, hee will gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serve them.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the thirde watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruantes.

39 Now understand this, that if the good man of the house had knowne at what houre the thiefe would come, hee would have watched, & would not have suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter sayde unto him, Master, tellest thou this parable unto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord sayde, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whom the master shall make ruler ouer his householde, to giue them their portion of meate in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he cometh, shall finde so doing.

44 If a trusty I say unto you, that he will make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant sleepe in his heart, his master doeth desire his coming, and shall beginne to smite the seruants, and maidens, and to eate, and drinke, and to be drunken.

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when he thinketh not, and at an houre when he is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbelievers.

47 And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knewe it not, and yet did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with fewe stripes: for unto whom more shall be required, and to whom more shall be committed, the more of him will they aske.

49 I am come to put a fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be already kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must be baptized with baptism, and how am I grieved, till it be ended?

51 I thinke pee that I am come to giue peace on earth: I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shall be in one house deuided, three against two, and two against thier.

53 The father shall be deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in lawe, and the daughter in lawe against her mother in lawe.

54 Then sayde he to the people, When ye see a cloude rise out of the West, straightway ye say, A shower cometh: and so it is.

55 And when ye see a South winde blowe, ye say, that it will be heate: and it cometh to passe.

56 Hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the earth, & of the hee: but why discern ye not this time?

57 Yea, & why iudge ye not of pour selues what is right?

1 The crueltie of Pilate. 2 VVe ought not to condemn all to be wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 15 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuersi similitudes he declareth what the kingdom of God is. 23 Also that the number of them which shall be saved is small. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldly power or force can let the works and counsel of God.

a He murdered them as they were sacrificing: & so their blood was mingled wth the blood of the beasts which were sacrificed.
b For the Iewes tooke occasion hereby to condemn them, as most wicked men.
c He warneth them rather to consider their owne estate, then to reprove other mens.
d Which towre stood by the riuer Siloe or Silphoole in Ierusalem.
e Or, detest.
f By this similitude is declared the great patience that God vseth towards sinners in looking for their amendment: but this delay availeth them nothing, when they still remaine in their corruption.
g We see our state, if we bring not forth fruit, & for both it is vnfruitfull it selfe, and doth hurt to the ground where it groweth.
h Whome Satan had stricke with a discale, as the spirit of couetousnes is that spirit, that maketh a man covetous.
i As they are, whose sinewes are shronke.
k Or, sit at libertie out of Satans bandes.

There were certaine men present at the same season, that theywed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.
2 And Iesus answered, and sayde unto them, Suppose ye, that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?
3 I tell you, nay: but except ye amende your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.
4 Or thinke you that those eightene, vpon whom the towe in Siloam fell, and flew downe, were sinners above all men that dwell in Ierusalem?
5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amende your liues, ye all shall likewise perish.
6 He spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge treee planted in his vinesyard: and he came & sought fruite thereon, and found none.
7 Then sayde he to the dresser of his vinesyard, Beholde, this three yeeres haue I come & sought fruite of this figge treee, and finde none: cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?
8 And he answered, and sayde vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yeere also, till I digge round about it, and dung it.
9 And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.
10 And hee taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.
11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmitye eightene yeeres, and was bowed together, and could not lift up her selfe in any wise.
12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and sayde to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy discale.
13 And he laide his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight againe, and glorified God.
14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayde vnto the people, There are three dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.
15 Then answered him the Lord, and said, Hypocrite, doest thou ethe one of you on the Sabbath daye tose his ore or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?
16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bounde, lo, eightene yeeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?
17 And when he sayde these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioiced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then sayde he, What is the kingdom of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?
19 It is like a grain of mustard seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.
20 And againe he sayde, Wherunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?
21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peckes of flour, till all was leauened.
22 ¶ And he went through all cities and townes, teaching, & iourneying towards Ierusalem.
23 Then sayd one vnto him, Lord, are there fewe that shall be saved? And he sayd vnto them,
24 ¶ Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say vnto you, wil seek to enter in, and shall not be able.
25 When the good man of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the doore, and ye begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, them he shall answer and say vnto you, I knowe you not whence ye are.
26 ¶ Then shall he begin to say, We haue eaten & drunke in your streets, and thou hast taught in our synagogues.
27 But he shall say, I tel you, I knowe you not whence ye are: depart from me, all ye workers of iniquitye.
28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdom of God, and you shall be thrust out as doxies.
29 Then shall come many from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdom of God.
30 ¶ And beholde, there are last, which shall be first, and there are first, which shall be last.
31 The same daye there came certaine Pharisees, and sayd vnto him, Depart, and go hence: for Herode wil kill thee.
32 Then sayd he vnto them, Go ye and tell that foxe, Beholde, I cast out devils, and wil heale this & that, to day, and to morrow, and the third daye: I shall be perfected.
33 Nevertheless I must walke to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for I cannot be, that a Prophete should perish out of Ierusalem.
34 ¶ O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the shepheard doth his lambs, and thou wouldest not!
35 Beholde, your house is left vnto you

CHAP. XIII.

1 Jesus eateth with the Pharise, 4 Healeth the drop-sic upon the Sabbath, 8 Teacheth to be lowly and so bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great supper. 28 He warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it will cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

1 And it came to passe that when he was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharisees on the Sabbath day, to eate bread, they watched him.

2 And beholde, there was a certaine man
before him, which had the drop sicke.

3 Then Jesus answering, spake unto the expounders of the Lawe, and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then he tooke him, and healed him, and let him go.

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse, or an ore fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him againe
to those things.

7 Ye speake also a parable to the gheists,
when he marked howe they chose out the chiefe rooms, and sayd unto them,

8 When thou shalt be bidden of any man to a wedding, set not thy selfe downe in the chiefe place, least a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him.

9 And he shal bidde both him and thee, come,
and say to thee, Come this man recline,
and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest reume.

10 But when thou art bidden, goe and sit downe in the lowest reume, that when he that bade thee, cometh, he may say unto thee, Friende, sit up hie: then shalt thou haue worshippe in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 For whosoever exalteth him selfe, shall be brought lowe, and he that humblyeth him selfe, shall be exalted.

12 Then I saye he also to him that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy bretheren, neither thy kinsmen, nor the rich neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blinde,

14 And thou shalt be blessed, because they can not recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 Nowe when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, he sayd unto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then said he to him, A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first sayd unto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needs
goe out and see it: I pray thee, haue mee excused.

19 And another sayd, I haue bought five pokes of oren, and I goe to plowe them: I pray thee, haue mee excused.

20 And another sayd, I haue married a wife, and therefore I can not come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the goodman of the house angrie, and sayd to his seruant, Go out quickly into the places and streets of the cite, and buying in hither the poore, and the maimed,
and the halt, and the blinde,

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done
as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is room.

23 Then the master said to the seruant, Go out into the hie wayes, and hedges, and compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes
with him, & he turned & sayd unto them,

26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters: yea,
and his owne life also, hee can not be my disciple.

27 And whosoever beareth not his crosse, and cometh after me, can not be my disciple.

28 For which of you minding to builde a towre, stretcheth not downe before, & coun-teth the cost, whether he haue sufficient to performe it.

29 Lest that after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to performe it, all that beholde it, begin to mocke him,

30 Saying, This man began to builde, and was not able to make an end.

31 Or what king going to make warre against another king, stretcheth not downe
first, and taketh counsell, whether hee be able with ten thousand, to meete him that cometh against him with twentie thousand?

32 Or els while hee is yet a great way off,
hee sendeth an ambassage, and desireth
conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoener hee be of you,
that forsaketh not all that hee hath, hee
can not be my disciple.

34 Salt is good: but if salt haue lost his sauiour, wherewith shall it be salted?

35 It is neither meete for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. Woe that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

1 Then returned vnto him all the Publi-cans and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharisees & Scribes murmured, saying, He receiueeth sinners,
and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them,
saying,

4 * What man of you hauing an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leave ninetie and nine in the wilderness, and goe after that which is lost, until he finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, hee lapeth it
on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when hee cometh home, hee calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde my sheepe, which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that cometh,
more then for ninetie and nine iust men,
which neede none amendment of life.

8 Either what woman hauing ten pieces of silver, if shee lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seeke diligently till shee finde it?

9 And when shee hath founde it, shee calleth
her friends and neighbours, saying, Re-ioyce with mee: for I haue founde the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that cometh.

11 Hee said moreover, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, giue me the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So hee deuised vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the younger sonne had gathered all together, he tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there he wasted his goods with riotous living.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose
a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then hee went and claued to a citizen of that countrey, and hee sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his bellie with the huskes, that the swine ate: A
but no man gaue them him.

17 Then hee came to him selfe, and sayde, Howe many hired seruantes at my fathers haue bread enough, and I die for hunger!

18 I will rise, and goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee.

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired seruantes.

20 So hee arose and came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, Father,
I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father sayde to his seruantes, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, & shooes
on his feete,

23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate, and be merrie.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found. And they began to be merrie.

25 Now the elder brother was in the field,
and when he came and drew nere to the house, he heard melodie, and dauncing,

26 And called one of his seruantes, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he sayde vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then he was angrie, and would be not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But hee answered and sayde to his father, I doe these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time
thy commaundment, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid, that I might make merie with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come,
which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And hee sayde vnto him, Sonne, thou art ever with me, and all that I haue is thine. It was meete that we should make merrie, & be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisdom and liberality by the example of the steward. 12 None can serue
two masters. 14 He representeth the carelessness & hypocrisie of the Pharisee. 16 Of the ends and force of the Lawe. 18 Of the holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

1 And hee sayde also vnto his disciples,
There was a certaine rich man,
which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that hee wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and sayde vnto him,
How is it that I heare this of thee? Come an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the stewardes with in him
selfe, What shall I doe: for my master will take awaye from me the steward-shippe? I can not digge, and to begge I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called hee euery one of his masters
debtors, & sayd vnto the first, Howe much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he sayde, An hundred measures of oyle. And he saide to him, Take thy wyte

12 And as he entred vnto a certain towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood a farr off.

16 And fell downe on his face at his fete, and gaue him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.

19 And he saide vnto him, Arise, goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire & brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these ensamples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man shall be re-uerled.

37 And they answered, and saide to him, Where, Lord? And he saide vnto them, ¶ Wherefore the bodie is, whether will also the eyes rest.

CHAP. XVIII.
By the example of the widowe, and the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saved, and what things let. 29 The reward promised to him, 31 And of the cruise. 35 A blinde man recueth sight.

1 ¶ And he spake also a parable vnto them, to this ende, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to waie faint.

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certain cite, which feared not God, nei-ther reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widowe in that cite, which came vnto him, saying, Doe me iustice against minie, aduersarie.

4 And he would not for a time: but afterwarde he said with him selfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widowe troubleth me, I will doe her righte, least at the last she come and make me wearie.

6 And the Lord saide, Heare what the vnrighteous iudge saith.

7 How shall not God auenge his elect, which erie day and night vnto him, pray, though he suffer long for them?

8 I tell you he will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man cometh, shall he finde faith on the earth?

9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto cer-taine which trusted in them selues that they were iust, and despised other.

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with him selfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortion-ners, vnjust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

12 I fast twice in the weeke: I giue tithes of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing a farre off, woulde not lift up so much as his eyes to heauen, but smote his breast, saying, O God, be mercifull to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man departed to his house iustified, rather than the other: For euery man that exalteth himselfe, shall be brought lowe, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

15 ¶ They brought vnto him also babes, that he should touch them. And when his disciples sawe it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called them vnto him, and sayd, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, whosoever receiuethe not the kingdome of God as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 ¶ Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to do, to inherite eternal life?

19 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Nowe when Iesus heard that, he sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Set all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, follow me.

23 But when hee heard those things, hee was very heaue: for he was manerly rich.

24 And when Iesus sawe him sorrowfull, he sayde, With what difficultie shall he that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a camell to goe through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then sayd they that heard it, And who then can be saved?

27 And hee sayde, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 ¶ Then Peter sayde, Loe, we haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he sayde vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdome of Gods sake,

30 Which shall not receiue much more in this world, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and said vnto them, Behold, We goe up to Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For he shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitefully entreated, and shall be spitred on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the thirde day he shall rise againe.

34 But they understode none of these things, & this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to passe, that as he was come nere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sat by the way side begging.

36 And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they sayd vnto him, that Iesus of Nazaret passed by.

38 Then he cryed, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace, but he cried much more, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

40 And Iesus stode still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come nere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I do vnto thee? And he sayde, Lorde, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 ¶ Then immediatly he receiued his sight, and followed him, praising God: and all the people, when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

2 Of Zaccheus. 12 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth to Ierusalem, and weepeth for it. 45 Hee chaseth out the marchants, 47 And his enemies seek to destroy him.

Now when Iesus entred and passed through Iericho,

2 Beholde, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was riche.

3 And he sought to see Iesus, who he should be, and coulde not for the people, because he was of a lowe stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wilde figge tree, that he might see him: for he should come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, hee looked vp, and sawe him, and sayde vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that hee was gone in to lodge with a sinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus stode forth, and said vnto the Lorde, Behold, Lorde, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by forged cauill, I restore him foure so.

9 Then Iesus sayde to him, This day is saluation come vnto this house, for as much as he is also become the sonne of Abraham.

10 ¶ For the Sonne of man is come to seuerall, and to saue that which was lost.

Mat. 11. 1.

11 And whiles they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because he was nere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdom of God should shortly appeare.

12 He sayde therefore, A certaine noble man went into a farre countrey, to receiue for him selfe a kingdom, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his ten seruants, and diuided them ten pieces of money, and said vnto them, Occupie till I come.

14 Nowe his citizens hated him, & sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when he was come againe, and had receiued his kingdom, that he commaunded the seruants to be called to him, to whome he gaue his money, & he might knowe what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he sayde vnto him, Well, good seruant: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very litle thing, take thou authority ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased fise pieces.

19 And to the same he sayde, Well, thou also ruler ouer fise cities.

20 So the other came and sayd, Lord, beholde thy piece, which I haue layed up in an apothecary.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strict man: thou takest by, that thou leastest not to done, & meaning that thou diddest not so louse.

22 Then he sayde vnto him, Of thine owne mouth wilt I iudge thee. O thou seruant, thou knowest that I am a strict man, taking by that I layde not to done, & meaning that I did not louse.

23 Wherefore then ganest not thou my money vnto the banke, that at my coming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he sayde to them that stood by, Take from him that piece, & giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 And they said vnto him, Lord, he hath ten pieces.

26 For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shall be giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Wherefore, those mine enemies, which would be not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when hee had thus spoken, hee went forth: he soie, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 And it came to passe, when hee was come nere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 saying, Go ye to the towne which is before you, wherein, as soone as ye are come, ye shall finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man hath: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man aske you, why ye loose him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and founde it as he had sayde vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof sayde vnto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they sayde, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spied their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praise God with a loud voyce, for all the great workes that they had seene.

38 Saying, Blessed be the king that cometh in the Name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the high places.

39 Then some of the Pharisees of the company sayde vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered, and sayd vnto them, I tell you, that if these should holde their peace, the stones would crie.

41 And when he was come nere, hee beheld the cite, and wept for it.

42 Saying, If thou haddest knowne at the least in this thy day, those things, which belong vnto thy peace: but nowe are they hid from thine eyes.

43 For the daies shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee rounde, and kepe thee in on every side.

44 And shall make thee even with the ground, & thy children which are in thee, & they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 He went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought,

46 saying vnto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but ye haue made it a den of thieues.

47 And hee taught daily in the Temple. And the high Priests and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him.

48 But they could not finde what they might do to him: for all the people haueged vpon him when they heard him.

what authoritie thou doest these things, of who is he that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The baptisme of John, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within them selues, saying, If we shal say, From heauen, he wil say, Why then beleued ye him not?

6 But if we shal say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that John was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, b Neither tell I you, by what authoritie I do these things.

9 ¶ Then began he to speake to the people this parable, a Certaine man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they shoulde giue him of the fruit of the vineyarde, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away empty.

11 Again he sent yet another servant: and they did beate him, and foule treated him, and sent him away empty.

12 Moreover, he sent the thirde, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then saide the Lord of the vineyarde, What shall I doe? I will send my beloved Sonne: it may be that they will doe reverence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen sawe him, they reasoned with themselves, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyarde, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyarde therefore doe vnto them?

16 He will come & destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyarde to others. But when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he besetted them, and said, What meaneth this then that is written, a The stone that the binders refused, that is made the head of the corner?

18 ¶ Whosoever shal fall vpon that stone, shall be broken: and on whome so euer it shall fall, it wil grinde him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priestes and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ¶ And they watched him, & sent forth spies, which shoulde faine themselves iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we knowe that thou sayest, and teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truly,

22 Is it lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftinesse, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shewe me a pemie. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar.

25 Then he said vnto them, ¶ Since then vnto Cesar the things which are Cessars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not rejoyne his saying before the people: but they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certaine of the Sadduces (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, saying, Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, & he die without children, that his brother shoulde take his wife, and raise by seed vnto his brother.

28 Nowe there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and he dyed without children.

29 And the second tooke the wife, and he dyed childlesse.

30 Then the thirde tooke her: & so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

31 And last of all, the woman died also.

32 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? for seuen had her to wife.

33 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The children of this world marrye wives, and are married.

34 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrye wives, neither are married.

35 For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angells, and are the Sonnes of God, since they are the children of the resurrection.

36 ¶ And that the dead shal rise againe, enen Moses shewed it besides the bush, when he said, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

37 For he is not the God of the dead, but of them which liue: for all liue vnto him.

38 Then certaine of the Pharisees answered & said, Master, thou hast well said.

39 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.

40 ¶ Then saide he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauides Sonne?

41 And Dauid him self saith in the booke of the Psalmes, The Lord said vnto my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 42 Till I shall make thine enemies thy footstool.

43 Seeing Dauid calleth him Lord, how is he then his Sonne?

44 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples,

45 ¶ Beware of the Scribes, which desire to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the marketes, & the highest seates in the Synagogues, & the chiefe rooms at feastes:

They thought it vnlawfull to pay to a prince being an infidel, that which they were wont to pay to God in his Temple.

1 Add * as he behelde, he sawe the rich men, which cast their gages into the treasure.
2 And he sawe also a certaine poore widowe, which cast in thither two mites,
3 And he saide, Of a truer I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast in more then they all.

4 * For they all haue of their superfluitie cast into the offerings of God: but the of her penurie hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 * Nowe as some spake of the Temple, how it was garnished wth goodly stones, and with<sup>h</sup> consecrate things, he said,

6 Here these the things that ye looke vpon: the dayes will come, wherein a stone shall not be left vpon a stone, that shall not be throwen downe.

7 Then they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be: and what signe shall there be when these things shall come to passe?

8 * And he saide, <sup>b</sup> Take heede, that ye be not deceiued: for many will come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth nere: followe ye not them therefore.

9 And when ye heare of warres and seditions, be not afrayde: for these things must first come, but the ende followeth not by and by.

10 Then said he vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome,

11 * And great earthquakes shall be in diuers places, and hunger, and pestilence, and fearefull things, and great signes shall there be from heauen.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, and into prisons, and bring you before kings and rulers for my Names sake.

13 And this shall turne to you, for a testimoniall.

14 * Lay it by therefore in your hearts, that ye premeditate not, what ye shall answer.

15 For I will giue you a mouth, and wisdom, wherewithall all your aduersaries shall not be able to speake, nor<sup>d</sup> resist.

16 Psea, ye shall be betrayed also of your parents, and of your brethren, and kinsmen, and friends, and some of you shall they put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake.

18 * Yet there shall not one heare of your heads perish.

19 Wth your patience: possesse your soules.

20 * And when ye see Ierusalem belies

ged with soldiers, then understand that the desolation thereof is nere.

21 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountaines: and let them which are in the middes thereof, depart out: and let not them that are in the country, enter therein.

22 For these be the dayes of vengeance, to fulfill all things that are written.

23 But woe be to them that be with childe, & to them that giue sucke in those dayes: for there shall be great distresse in this land, and<sup>d</sup> wrath ouer this people.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sword, and shall be led captiue into all nations, and Ierusalem shall be troden vnder soote of the Gentiles, vntill the tyme of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 * Then there shall be signes in<sup>d</sup> summer, and in the shooone, and in the starres, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations with perperitie: the sea and the waters shall roare.

26 And mens heartes shall faile them for feare, and for looking after those things which shall come on the world: for the powers of heauen shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloude, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then looke vp, and lift vp your heades: * for your<sup>b</sup> redemption draweth nere.

29 And he spake to them a parable, <sup>b</sup> Behold, the figge tree, and all trees,

30 When they now shote forth, ye seeing them, knowe of your owne selves, that summer is then nere.

31 So likewise ye when ye see these things come to passe, knowe ye that the kingdome of God is nere.

32 Verely I say vnto you, This age shall not<sup>d</sup> passe, till all these things be done.

33 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my wordes shall not<sup>d</sup> passe away.

34 Take heede to your selves, least at any tyme your hearts be oppressed with fretting and drunkennes, & cares of this life, and least that day come on you at vnwares.

35 For as a<sup>b</sup> snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch therefore, & pray continually, that ye may be counted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to<sup>d</sup> passe, and that ye may stande before the Sonne of man.

37 * Nowe in the day time he taught in the Temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came in the morning to him, to heare him in the Temple.

Priests house. 60 Peter denieth him thrise, and yet repenteth. 67 Christ is brought before the Counsell, where he maketh ample confession.

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the high Priests & Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entered Satan into Judas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the high Priests and Captaines, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were glad, and agreed to give him money.

6 And he consented, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the Passover must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Goe, and prepare vs the Passover, that we may eat it.

9 And they said to him, Where wilt thou, that we prepare it?

10 Then he saide unto them, Beholde, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house that he entereth in.

11 And say unto þe good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eat my Passover with my disciples?

12 Then he shall shewe you a great chamber furnished: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and founde as he had saide unto them, and made ready the Passover.

14 ¶ And when the hour was come, he sat downe, & the twelve Apostles with him.

15 Then he saide unto them, I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

16 For I say unto you, I henceforth will not eat of it any more, untill it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, & gave thanks, and saide, Take this, & divide it among you.

18 For I say unto you, I will not drinke of the fruit of the vine, untill the kingdom of God be come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: doe this in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper he took the cup, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ Pet beholde, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but two be to that man,

by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselves which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne over them, and they that beare rule over them, are called Gracious lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: and the chiefest as he that serveth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at the table, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at the table? And I am among you as he that serveth.

28 And ye are they which have continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed to me.

30 ¶ That ye may eat, and drinke at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, and iudge the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord saide, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired you, to winnow you, as wheate.

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 ¶ And he saide unto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, & to death.

34 But he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And he saide unto them, When I sent you without bagge, & scrip, & shoes, o ye which lacked ye any thing? And they said, Noo thing.

36 Then he said to them, But now he that hath a bagge, let him take it, & likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sell his coate, and buye a sword.

37 For I say unto you, that yet the same which is written, must be performed in me, ¶ Even with þ wicked was he none: bled: for double those things which are written of me, have an ende.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swordes. And he said unto them, It is ynough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went (as he was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when he came to the place, he said to them, Pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

41 And he gate himselfe from them, about a stoues cast, & kneeled downe, & prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was like dropes of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

1 ¶ Then the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We haue founde this man perverting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cæsar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

3 ¶ And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sapest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He mocketh the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Nowe when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whither the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herods iurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, which was also at Jerusalem in those dayes.

8 And when Herode saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, & trusted to haue seene some signe done by him.

9 Then questioned he with him of many things: but he answered him nothing.

10 The hie Priests also and Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herode with his men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people.

14 ¶ And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that perverteth the people: and beholde, I haue examined him before you, and haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

22 And he sayd vnto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I find: no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

23 But they were insatiate with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the high priestes perswaded.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was call in prison, whome they desired, & deliuered Iesus to do with him what they would.

26 ¶ And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the field, and on him they laide the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and sayde, Daughters of Ierusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the daies will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they beginne to say to the mountaines, Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.

31 ¶ For if they doe these things to a graine of wheat, what shall be done to the brye?

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they knowe not what they doe. And they parted his raiment, and cast lottes.

35 And the people stood, and behelde: and rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue him selfe, if he be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vinegar.

37 And sayde, If thou be the king of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 ¶ And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, raied on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, ¶ Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

45 And the sunne was darkened, & the vail of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cried with a loud voice, and sayde, Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he thus had sayd, he gaue up the ghoil.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things, which were done, moued their heailes, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood as farre off, & the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counsellor, a good man and a iust.

51 Hee did not consent to the counsell and doers of them, which was of Arimathea, a cite of the Iewes: who also him selfe waited for the kingdome of God.

52 Hee went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

Mar. 16. 12.

c Which is about seven miles and an halfe.
d Herby appeareth that they had faith, although it was weak.
e This declareth that we can neither see, nor vnderstand til God open our eyes.

f For the thing was so notorious, that all men might haue knownen it.

g They vnderstood not yet what was the deliuerance that Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prospectiue.

h Infidelitie is reproved.

downe their faces to the earth, they sayde to them, Why seeke ye him that liueth, among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile.

7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the hands of sinners, and be crucified, and the thirde day rise againe.

8 And they remembered his words,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto the eleven, and to all the remnant.

10 Nowe it was Marie Magdalene and Joanna, & Marie the mother of Iames, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and came vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linen clothes laide by themselves, and departed wondering in him self at what which was come to passe.

13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about thre score furlongs, called Emmaus.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they commed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe came nether, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he said vnto them, What manner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and sayde vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not knownen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

19 And he sayd vnto them, What things? And they sayde vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mighty in deede and in woordes before God, and all the people,

20 And how the hie Priests, & our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had bin he that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the thirde day, that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs assured, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodye, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which sayd that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had sayde, but him they sawe not.

25 Then he sayd vnto them, How fooles and slow of heart to beleue all that the Prophets haue spoken,

26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but he made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sat at table with them, he tooke the bread, & and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they sayde betwene themselves, Did not our heartes burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, & them that were with them,

34 Which said, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and howe he was knownen of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the mids of them, and sayd vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed, and afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he sayde vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your heartes?

39 Beholde mine hands and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not fleshy and bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his handes and feete.

41 And while they yet beleued not for ioy, and wondered, he sayd vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a boyled fish, and of an hony combe,

43 And he tooke it, & did eate before them.

44 And he sayde vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstande the Scriptures.

46 And sayd vnto them, Thus is it written, & thus it behooved Christ to suffer, & to rise againe from the dead the third day,

47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Nowe ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the promise of my Father vpon you: but tarry ye in the citie of Ierusalem, & until ye be endued with power from heauen.

Christ onely is the interpreter of the scriptures for both the beginning and end thereof direct vs to him, because he is the Saviour that is promised. Because Christ did both that their eyes and open them, he would keepe them in suspense til his time come to manifest him selfe vnto them. According to the custome: the which manner of praying before meales they vs to this day.

In So soone as he began to breake bread.

CHAP. I.

14. 17 The diuinitie, humantie, and offices of Ie-sus Christ. 15 The testimony of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.
2 The same was in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made.
4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.
5 And the light shineth in the darknesse,
and the dar kenesse comprehended it not.
6 For there was a man sent from God,
whose name was Iohn.
7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witness of that light, that all men through him might beleeue.
8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witness of the light.
9 That was the true light, which lighteth
every man that cometh into this world.
10 He was in the world, & the world was made by him: and the world knew him not.
11 He came unto his owne, & his owne received him not.
12 But as many as received him, to them
he gave power to be the sonnes of God,
even to them that beleeue in his name.
13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but
of God.
14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we saw the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne of the Father) full of grace and trueness.
15 For Iohn bare witness of him, and cried,
saying, This was he of whom I saide,
He that cometh after me, is preferred
before me: for he was before me.
16 And of his fulnesse haue all we receiued,
and grace for grace.
17 For the Law was giuen by Moyses, but grace and trueness came by Iesus Christ.
18 No man hath seene God at any time:
the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.
19 Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Jewes sent Phisces & Leuites from Jerusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?
20 And he confessed & denied not, and said
in answer, I More abundant grace then by Moyses.
21 Meaning, he is most deare, & straitly ioyned to his Father, not only in loue, but also in nature and vnion.
22 And so
God before was inuifible, was made, as it were, visible in Christ.

plainely, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No.
22 The said they vnto him, Who art thou, looked for to be that we may giue an answer to them? such one as Moses was, Deut. 18.15.
23 He said, I am the voice of him that crieth
in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Elias.
24 Those they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.
25 And they asked him, and said vnto him,
Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?
26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.
27 He it is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe laces
I am not worthy to vntie.
28 These things were done in Bethabara,
beyond Iordani, where Iohn did baptize.
29 The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and saith, Beholde the lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the world.
30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knewe him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore
I came, baptizing with water.
32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saue
the Spirit come downe from heauen,
like a dove, and it abode vpon him.
33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me
to baptize with water, he said vnto me,
The verue & efficient of the Spirit
feet to baptisme,
come downe, & tarry
still on him, that is accomplishing
he which baptizeth
with the holy Ghost.
34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Sonne of God.
35 The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:
36 And he behelde Iesus walking by, and saith, Beholde the lambe of God.
37 And two disciples heard him speake,
and followed Iesus.
38 Then Iesus turned about, & saue them
follow, and said vnto them, What seeke ye? they said vnto him, Rabbi (which is to say by interpretation, Master) where dwellest thou?
39 He said vnto them, Come, and see. They came & saue where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.
40 Andrew, Simon Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard
Iohn, and that followed him.
41 The of God.

CHAP. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driueth the biers, and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and disstrusteth man.

1 And the thirde day, was there a ma-riage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.
2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.
3 Nowe when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus saide vnto him, They haue
no wine.
4 Iesus saide vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.
5 His mother saide vnto the seruants,
Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, doe it.
6 And there were set there, six waterpots
of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three "b firkins a peece.
7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.
8 Then he said vnto them, Draw out now and beare vnto the "gouernour of the feast. So they beare it.
9 Nowe when the gouernour of the feast

had tasted the water, that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was:
but the seruantes, which drew the water, knew) the gouernour of the feast called the butlegroune,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when men haue well drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine untill now.

11 This beginning of "miracles did Jesus in Cana a towne of Galile, & shewed forth his glorie: and his disciples be-lieued on him.

12 After that he went downe into Capre-naum, he and his mother, and his "disciples, and his disciples: but they continued not many daies there.

13 For the Iewes Passouer was at hand.
Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 And he founde in the Temple those that solde oxen, and sheepe, and dones,
and changers of monney, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of sinall cordes,
and drave them all out of the Temple
with the sheepe and oxen, and purged
out the changers monney, & ouerthrew
the tables,

16 And saide vnto them that solde dones,
Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house, an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, "The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and saide
vnto him, What signe shewest thou vs
to vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and saide vnto them,
Destroy this Temple, & in three daies
I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fourtie and six perres was this Temple a building, and thou rearest it vp in three daies?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.
22 After therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he thus said vnto them: and they be-lieued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Nowe when he was at Ierusalem at the Passouer in the feast, many beloued
in his name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus "did not commit him selfe vnto them, because he knewe them all, 25 And had no neede that any should tes-tifie of man: for he knewe what was in man.

CHAP. III.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration.
15 Offspring. 16 Of the loue of God towards the worlde. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn. 28
And the witness that he beareth of Christ.

1 There was nowe a man of the Pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes.

2 He came to Iesus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art
a teacher come from God: for no man could do these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iesus

God w. mo. 1. An.
109

1 To enter ther. 3 Jesus answered, and said vnto him, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he cannot see the kingdomes of God.

4 Nicodemus sayde vnto him, Howe can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Jesus answered, Wherein, verily I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdomes of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: that which is borne of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Wherefore not that I sayde to thee, thou must be borne againe.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sounde thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, & said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Wherein, verily I say vnto thee, we speake that we know, and testifie that we haue seene: but he receiue not our witness.

12 When I tell you earthly things, ye beleue not, howe should ye beleue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth up to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And as Moses lift up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lift up.

15 That who soeuer beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 For God so loued the worlde, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that who soeuer beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue euertlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that he should be condemned: but that the worlde through him might be saued.

18 He that beleueth in him, shall not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in the name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, and men loued darkness rather than light, because their deedes were euill.

20 For euery man that euill doth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, lest his deedes should be reprobated.

21 But he that doth truth, cometh to the light, that his deedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought by God.

22 After these things, came Jesus & his disciples into the land of Iudea, & there tarried with them, and baptised.

23 And John also baptised in Enon, besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptised.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betwene Johns disciples and the Iewes, about purifying.

26 And they came vnto John, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Iordan, to baptise, thou hast come to him.

27 John answered, and sayde, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Ye pour felix are my witnesses, that I sayde, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegroome: but the friend of the bridegroome which standeth a heareth him, reioiceth greatly, because of his bridegroomes voice. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on high, is aboue all: he is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what he hath seene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiveth his testimonie.

33 He that hath receiued his testimonie, hath sealed that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the wordes of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by measure.

35 The father loveth the Sonne, and hath giuen all things into his hand.

36 He that beleueth in the Sonne, hath euertlasting life, and he that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

- 9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, Howe is it, that thou being a Jewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Jewes meddle not with the Samaritans.
- 10 Iesus answered and sayde vnto her, If thou knowest the gift of God, and who it is that sayeth to thee, Give me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he would haue giuen thee water of life.
- 11 The woman sayde vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?
- 12 Wot thou greater then our father Iacob, to whiche gathe vs the well, and he him selfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?
- 13 Iesus answered, & said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst againe:
- 14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more a thirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into everlasting life.
- 15 The woman sayde vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.
- 16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.
- 17 The woman answered, and said, I haue no husband. Iesus sayde to her, Thou hast wel said, I haue no husband.
- 18 For thou hast had five husbandes, and he to whome thou nowest, is not thine husband: that saidest thou truely.
- 19 The woman said vnto him, Sir, I see that thou art a Prophet.
- 20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
- 21 Iesus sayde vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre cometh, when pee shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem, worship the Father.
- 22 Ye worship that which ye knowe not: we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Jewes.
- 23 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, & truely: for the Father requirerth euen such to worship him.
- 24 God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit & truely.
- 25 The woman sayde vnto him, I knowe well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.
- 26 Iesus sayde vnto her, I am he, & speake vnto thee.
- 27 And vpon that came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with a woman: yet no man sayde vnto him, What askest thou: or why talkest thou to her?
- 28 The woman then left her water pottle, and went her way into the cite, and said to the men,
- 29 Come, see a man which hath tolde me

all things that ener Christ did: is not he the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the cite, & came vnto him.

31 In the meane while, the disciples praiſed him, saying, Master, rate.

32 But he sayde vnto them, I haue meate to eate, that ye knowe not of.

33 Then sayd the disciples betwene them selves, Hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayde vnto them, My meate is that I may doe the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not pee, There are yet foure moneths, and then cometh harvest? Yes holde, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white already vnto harvest.

36 And he that reaperth, receineth wages, and gathereth fruit vnto life eternal, that both he that soweth, and he that reaperth, might be reioyce together.

37 For herein is the saying true, that one soweth and another reaperth.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon pee beleeued not labour: other men laboure, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritans of that cite beleeued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath tolde me all things that ener Christ did.

40 Then when the Samaritans were come vnto him, they besought him, that hee would tary with them: and hee abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleeued, because of his owne word.

42 And then sayd vnto the woman, Nowe two beleeued, not because of the saying: for others, which we haue heard him our selves, and knowe that this is in deede the Christ the Sonne of the world.

43 So two dayes after, he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Iesus himselfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.

45 Then when hee was come into Galilee, the Galileans receiued him, which had seene all the things that hee did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into Cana a towne of Galilee, where hee had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When hee heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galilee, hee went vnto him, and besought him that hee woulde come downe, and heale his sonne: for hee was euen ready to die.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except pee see signes and wonders, pee will not beleeue.

49 The ruler sayde vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

50 Iesus saide vnto him, Go thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleeued the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

8 He healeth the man that was sick eight and thirtie yeeres. 10 The Iewes accuse him. 19 Christ an-

Of Iohannes. 39 And of the Scriptures, who he is.

1 A Feer<sup>e</sup> that, there was a feare of the Iewes, and Iesus went by to Jerusalem.

2 And there is at Jerusalem by the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Hebrew
Bethesda, having five porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halt, and withered,
waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an Angell went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe
that he now long time had bene diseased, hee sayde unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am conning, another steppeth downe
before me.

8 Iesus sayd unto him, Rise: take up thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and toke up his bed, and walked:
and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore sayde to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day:
it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said unto me, Take up thy bed,
and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which sayde vnto thee, take up thy
bed, and walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who
it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and sayd unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: a sinne no more, least a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father
worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but sayd also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and sayde vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can doe nothing of himselfe, save that he seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loveth the Sonne, and s sheweth him all things, whatsoever he him selfe doeth, and hee will shewe him greater workes then these, that ye should maruaile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whome hee will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne,

23 Because that all men should honour
the Sonne, as they honour the Father:
hee that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, hee that heareth my voyde, and beleueth in him that sent me, hath euertlasting life, & shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the sonne shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare his voice of the Sonne of God:
and they that heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in him
selfe, so likewise hath hee giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe.

27 And hath giuen him power also to iustice iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Maruaile not at this: for the houre shal
come in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life:
but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe:
as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement
is not, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I should beare witness of my selfe,
my witness were not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me, and I knowe his witness, which he beareth of me, is true.

33 He sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnes vnto the truth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man:
nevertheless, these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning, & a shining candle:
and ye would for a season haue reioyced
in his light.

36 But I haue greater witnesse then the witnesse of Iohn: for the workes which the Father hath giuen mee to finish, the same workes that I do, beare witnesse of me, that the Father sent me.

37 And the Father himselfe, which hath sent me, beareth witnesse of me. He haue not heard his voyce at any time, neither haue ye seen his shape.

38 And his worde haue ye not abiding in

39 Search the Scriptures: for in them ye thinke to haue eternall life, and they are they which testify of me.

40 But ye will not come to mee, that ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not praise of men.

42 But I know you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers name, and ye receiue me not: if another shall come in his owne name, him will ye receiue.

44 How can ye beleeue, which receiue honour one of another, and seeke not the honour that cometh of God alone?

45 Do not thinke that I will accuse you to my Father: there is one that accuseth
you, euen Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye beleued Moses, ye would haue beleued me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleeue not his writings, how shall ye beleeue my wordes?

CHAP. VI.

1 Iesus feedeth foue thousand men with foue loaves and two fishes. 15 He departeth away, that they should not make him king. 26 He reproveth the fleshly hearers of his word. 41 The carnall are offended at him. 63 The flesh profiteth not.

I After these things, Iesus went his way ouer the sea of Galilee, or of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which hee
did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went by into a mountaine,
and there he sate with his disciples.

4 Nowe the Passouer, a feast of the Iewes, was nere.

5 Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he sayde vnto Philip, Whence shall we buye bread, that these might eate?

6 (And this he sayde to proue him: for he him selfe knew what he would doe)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euerie one of them may take a little.

8 Then sayd vnto him one of his disciples,
Andreas, Simon Peters brother,

9 There is a little boy here, which hath foue barly loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus sayde, Spake the people sit downe. (Now there was much grasse in that place) Then the men sate downe in number, about foue thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and gaue
thanks, & gaue to the disciples, & the disciples to them that were set downe: & like wise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, he sayde
vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing be lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate
of the foue barly loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seen the miracle that Iesus did, sayde, This is of a truely the Prophet that should come
vnto the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceived that they would come, and take him to make him
a king, he departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 When euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea,

17 And entred vnto a shippe, and went ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde
that blew.

19 And when they had retord about fife
and twelue, or thirte furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing neere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But he sayd vnto them, It is I: be not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 The day following, the people which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other shippe there, saue that one, wherein his disciples were loft: and that Iesus loft not with his disciples in the shippe, but that his disciples were gone alone.

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they were, after the loyde had giuen
thanks.

24 Now when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said vnto him,
Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, & sayde, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye see me not, because ye sawe the miracles, but because ye are of the loaves, and were filled.

27 I labour not for the meate which peris-
sheth, but for that which endureth vnto
me: for when hee shall haue appointed him to be the Mediator, hee shall see his marke and scale in him to be the only one to re-

28 Then said they vnto him, what shal we doe, that we might worke the workes
of God?

29 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them,
This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him, whom he hath sent.

30 They sayde therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may beleeue thee? what dost thou worke?

32 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Verily, ver-not hunger from heauen, but my Father

giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which commeth downe from heauen, & giueth life
vnto the world.

34 Then they saide vnto him, Lord, giue
vs more of this bread.

35 And Iesus saide vnto them, I am the bread of life: he that commeth to me,
shall not hunger, and * he that belieueth
in me, shall * neuer thirst.

36 But I said vnto you, that ye also haue
sene me, and belieue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which hee hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me,
that euery man which seeth the Sonne,
and belieueth in him, should haue euerlasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they said, * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother we knowe? howe then saith hee, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, & said vnto them,
Whomure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, draw him:
and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Euery man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me,

46 * Not that any man hath sene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hath sene the Father.

47 Verily, verily I say vnto you, He that belieueth in me, hath euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eate Manna in the wildernes, & are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth
downe from heauen, that he which eate-
th of it, should not die.

51 I am the * living bread, which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, he shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Except ye eate
the flesh of the Sonne of man, & drinke
his blood, ye haue * no life in you,

54 Whoso eateth * eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meate in verbe, and my blood is drinke in verbe.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh
my blood, * dwelleth in me, & I in him.

57 As the lining Father hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and he that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe
from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eate-th of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) saide, This is an hard saying: who can * heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man * ascend vp * where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speake vnto you, are Spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that belieue
not: for Iesus knew from the beginning, which they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you,
that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then saide Iesus to the twelve, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whome shall we goe? Thou hast the wordes of * eternal life:

69 And we beleue & know that thou art
* the Christ the Sonne of the living God.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I * chosen you twelve, and * one of you is a deuill?

71 Nowe hee spake it of Iudas Iscariot
the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

6 Iesus reproveth the ambition of his couple. 17 He sheweth how to knowe the truth. 20 The iudicia they doe vnto him. 47 The Pharisees

rebuke the officers because they haue not taken him, 52 And chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

After these things, Iesus walked in Galilee, and would not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kill him.

Now the Iewes * feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

His brethren therefore saide vnto him,
Depart hence, and goe into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

For there is no man that doeth any thing secretly, and he himselfe seeketh to 7 The world can not hate you: but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euill.

8 For ye vp vnto this feast: I will not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galile.

10 But as soon as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were pynly.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Nay: but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

d These were the heads of the people, who did enue Christ.

14 Nowe when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

Or, letters.

15 And the Iewes marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and saide, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

e In that, that he is man onely.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

f By this marke we may know whether the doctrine be of God or of man.

Or, freely.

27 Howbeit we knowe this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shall knowe whence he is.

28 Then crieth Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye both knowe me, and know whence I am: yet am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye knowe not.

29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laide handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Nowe many of the people belied in him, and saide, When the Christ cometh, will he doe mo miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharisees, and his Priestes sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then saide the Iewes among themselues, Whither will he goe, that we shall not finde him? Will he goe vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he saide, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me? and where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

38 He that believeth in me, as saith the Scripture, out of his bellie shall flowe riners of water: of life.

39 (This spake he of the Spirit which the Father beleeued in him, should receiue: for the Father which was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: & some said, But shal Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Saith not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seede of Dauid, and out of the coluene of Beth-lehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laide handes on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priestes & Pharisees, and they said vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Doeth any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees beleue in him?

49 But this people, which knowe not the Lawe, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus said vnto them, (He that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them)

51 Doeth our Lawe iudge a man before it heare him, and knowe what he hath done?

They were well minded to hear him: which preparation is here called (although improperly) faith.

1 And Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came unto him, and hee satte downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes, and the Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and set her in the middes.
4 And sayde unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adulterie, in the very acte.

5 Now Moyses in the Law commanded vs, that such shoulde be stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they sayde to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped downe, and wroth his finger wpon the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, hee lift himselfe vp, and sayde unto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stooped downe, & wroth on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Jesus had lift vp him selfe againe, and saw no man, but the woman, hee sayde unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She sayde, No man, Lord. And Jesus sayde, Neither do I condemn thee: goe and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Jesus againe unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkness, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore sayd unto him, Thou bearest recorde of thy selfe: thy recorde is not true.

14 Jesus answered, and said unto them, Though I beare recorde of my selfe, yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I came and whither I go: but ye cannot tell: to whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Pe iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.
16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Law, that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, and the father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then sayde they unto him, Where is thy father? Jesus answered, Ye neither knowe me, nor my father. If ye had knowne me, ye shoulde haue knowne my father also.

20 These wordes spake Jesus in the streasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then sayde Jesus againe unto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then sayd the Iewes, Will he kill him selfe because he sayeth, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he sayde unto them, I pe are from beneath: I am from above: ye are of this world: I am not of this world.

24 I sayde therefore unto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then sayde they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus sayd unto them, Even the same thing that I sayd unto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, & to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and he things that I haue heard of him, those I speake to the world.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then sayde Jesus unto them, When ye haue lift up the Sonne of man, then I shall be knowen that I am he, and that I doe nothing of my selfe: but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many beleued in him.

31 Then sayde Jesus to the Iewes which beleued in him, If ye continue in my wordes, ye are verely my disciples.

32 And shall knowe the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bounde to any man: why sayest thou then, We shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verely, verely I say unto you, that whosoever counteth sinne, is the servant of sinne.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Sonne abideth for ever.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill me, because my waye hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my Father: and ye doe that which ye haue seene with your father.

39 They answered, and sayde unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus sayd unto them, then, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would doe the workes of Abraham.

 41 Ye doe the workes of your father. The scribe they to him, We are not borne of fornication: we haue one father, which is God.
 42 Therefore Iesus sayde vnto them, If God were your father, then would ye loue me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.
 43 Why doe ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye cannot heare my voyde.
 44 Ye are of your father the deuill, and the lustes of your father ye will doe: he hath bene a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.
 45 And because I tel you the truth, ye beleeue me not.
 46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the truth, why do ye not beleeue me?
 47 He is of God, heareth Gods word: yet therefore beate them not, because ye are not of God.
 48 Then answered the Iewes, and sayde vnto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritane, and hast a deuill?
 49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my father, and ye haue dishonoured me.
 50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it, and iudgeth.
 51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my voyde, he shall neuer see death.
 52 Then sayde the Iewes to him, Howe knowe we that thou hast a deuill. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keepe my voyde, he shall neuer taste of death.
 53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whome makest thou thy selfe?
 54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my father that honourerth me, whom ye say, that he is your God.
 55 Yet ye haue not knowen him: but I knowe him, and if I should say I knowe him not, I should be a liar like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his voyde.
 56 Your father Abraham reioiced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad.
 57 Then sayde the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fiftye yeres olde, and hast thou seene Abraham?
 58 Iesus sayde vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, before Abraham was, I am.
 59 Then tooke they vp stones, to cast at him, but Iesus hid him selfe, and went out of the Temple.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blind men Christ giueth sight.

And as Iesus passed by, he sawe a man which was blind fro his birth.
 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blinde?
 Iesus answered, Neither hath this a God doeth nor man sinned, nor his parentes, but that aboies punish the workes of God shoulde be shewed on men for their sinnes.
 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can worke.
 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
 As soone as he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay,
 And sayde vnto him, Goe wash in the pool of Siloam, which is by interpretation, Sent. He went his way therefore, and washed, and came againe seeing.
 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blind, sayd, Is not this he that sat and begged?
 Some said, This is he: and others sayd, He is like him: but he him selfe sayde, I am he.
 Therefore they sayde vnto him, Howe were thine eyes opened?
 He answered, and sayde, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and sayde vnto me, goe to the pool of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.
 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He sayd, I cannot tell.
 I They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.
 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, howe he had receiued sight. And he sayde vnto them, He laied clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.
 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayd, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.
 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he sayde, He is a Prophet.
 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) until they had called the parentes of him that had receiued sight.
 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, who ye say was borne blinde? How doth he now see then?
 His parentes answered them, and sayd, We knowe that this is our sonne, & that he was borne blinde:
 But by what means he now seeth, we knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, we can tell: he is olde enough, as he not speake the truth for feare of the Iewes.
 These wordes spake his parentes, because they should be cause excommunicat.

CHAP. XI.

43 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The high Priests and Pharisees gather a counsell against him.
50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

1 And a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Martha, and her sister Martha.
2 And it was that Martha which anoynted
the Lord with oylment, and wiped his feete with her heare, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.
3 Therefoze his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou louest, is sicke.
4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sick-nes is not vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.
5 Nowe Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.
7 Then after that, said he to his disciples,
Let vs goe into Iudea againe.
8 The disciples said vnto him, After, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and dost thou goe thither againe?
9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day: if a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth
the light of this world.
10 But if a man walke in night, he stum-
bleth, because there is no light in him.
11 These things spake he, & after he said
vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth:
but I goe to wake him vp.
12 Then saide his disciples, Lord, if he sleeps, he shall be safe.
13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death:
but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.
14 Then saide Iesus vnto them plainly,
Lazarus is dead.
15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs goe vnto him.
16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.
17 Then came Iesus, and founde that he had lien in the graue foure dayes already.
18 Now Bethania was nere vnto Jerusalem, aboute fiftene furlongs off.
19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marthe to comfort them for their brother.
20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, went to meete
him: but Marthe sate still in the house.
21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.
22 But now I knowe also, that whatsoe-uer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.
23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.
24 Martha said vnto him, I knowe that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.
25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.
26 And whosoener liueth, & beleueth in me, shall neuer die. Belieuest thou this?
27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.
28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Marthe her sister lescretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.
30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in place where Mar-

Wherein she desired her affliction & reuersion that she bare to Christ.
32 Then when Marie was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell downe at his feet, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.
33 When Jesus therefore saw her weep, and the Iewes also weep which came with her, he groined in the spirit, & was troubled in himselfe.
34 And saide, Where haue ye layde him? They said vnto him, Lord, come, and see.
35 And Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Iewes, Behold how he loued him.
37 And some of them said, Coude not he, which opened the eyes of the blind, haue made also that this man shoulde not haue died?
38 Jesus therefore againe groined in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layed vpon it.
39 Jesus saide, Take ye away the stone. Martha the syster of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.
40 Jesus said vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shouldest see the glory of God?
41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layde. And Jesus lift vp his eyes, and said, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast hearde me.
42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I saide it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.
43 As he had spoken these things, he cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.
44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foot with bandes, and his face was bounde with a napkin. Jesus said vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.
45 Then many of the Iewes, which came to Marie, and had seene the things which Jesus did, beleued in him.
46 But some of them went their way to the Pharisees, & tolde them what things Jesus had done.
47 Then gathered the high Priest, and the Pharisees a counsell, and said, What shal we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.
48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.
49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the high Priest, that same yere, said vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all.
50 Nay yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.
51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being the Priest that same yere, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation: not for the nation onely, but that he should gather together in one the childen of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.
54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey nere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.
55 And the Iewes Pasche was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vnto Jerusalem before the Passouer, to purifie themselves.
56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he cometh not to the feast?
57 Nowe both the high Priestes and the Pharisees had giuen a commandement, that if any man knewe where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

Then Jesus sixe dayes before the Passouer, came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whom he had raised from the dead.
2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with him.
3 Then tooke Marie a pound of oymnt of spikenarde very costly, and anoynted Jesus' feete, and wiped his feete with her heare, and the house was filled with the sauour of the oymnt.
4 Then said one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Sunons sone, which should betray him,
5 Why was not this oymnt solde for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?
6 Nowe he said this, not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a thiefe, and had the bag, and bare that which was giuen.
7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.
8 For the poore alwayes ye haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.
9 Then much people of the Iewes knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whome he had raised from the dead.
10 The high Priest therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 And the Pharisees saide among themselues, Wee reue pe how pe puenale nos-thing? Beholde, the world goeth after
him.

20 ¶ Nowe there were certaine Grækes among them that came vnto worship at the feast.

21 And they came to Philip, which was
of Bethsaida in Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Iesus.

22 Philip came and tolde Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tolde Iesus.
23 And Iesus answered them, saying,
The houre is come, that the Sonne of man must be glorified.

24 Wee reue, we reue I say vnto you, except the wheate corne fall into the ground and die, it bideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruite.

25 ¶ We that s loueth his life, shall lose it,
& he that hateth his life in this world,
shall keepe it vnto life eternall.

26 ¶ If any man serue me, let him follo-ue me: for where I am, there shall also my seruant be: and if any man serue me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soule troubled: and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then said the people that stood by and heard, that it was a thumber: others
said, An Angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and said, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the iudgement of this world:
now shall the prince of this world be cast
out.

32 ¶ And I, if I were lift vp from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.

33 Nowe this saide he, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the Lawe, that the Christ bideth for ever: & how sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must be lift vp? who is that Sonne of man?

35 Then Iesus said vnto them, Yet a litle while is he lift vp with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkness come vpon
you: for he that walketh in the darke,
knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye haue light, beleue in the light,
that ye may be the children of the light.
These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though he had done so many miracles before them, yet beleued they not on him:

38 That the saying of Elias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he saide, * Lord, who beleued our report? and to whom
is the arme of the Lord reuered?

39 Therefore coulde they not beleue, because that Elias saith againe, 40 ¶ He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should speake them.

41 These things said Elias when he sa-
th his glory, and spake of him.

42 Heretofore euen among the chiefe rulers many beleued in him: but because of the Pharisees, they did not con-fesse him, lest they should be call out of the Synagogue.

43 ¶ For they loued the praise of men,
more then the praise of God.

44 And Iesus cryed, and said, Ye that beleue in me, beleue not in me, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that
sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever beleueth in me, should not asbide in darkness.

47 ¶ And if any man heare my wordes, and beleue not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the world, but to saue the world.

48 He that refuseth me, and receueth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth him:
* the word that I haue spoken, it shall iudge him in the last day.

49 For I haue not taken of my selfe: but the Father, which sent me, he gaue me a commandement what I should say, and what I should speake.

50 And I know that his commandement is life eternall: the things therefore that I speake, I speake them so as the Father said vnto me.

CHAP. XIII.

Christ washeth the disciples feete, 14 Exhorting them to humilitie and charitie, 21 Telling them of Iudas the traitour, 34 And commandeth them earnestly to loue one another, 38 He forewarneth of Peters deniall.

¶ Nowe before the feast of the Passes Iouer, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that he should be part out of this world vnto the Father, great which was
for as much as he loued his owne which were in the world, vnto the ende he took for them,

2 And care for them,

Which was the eating of the Pasche.

2 And when supper was done, (and the devil had now put in a heart of Judas Isariot, Simons sonne, to betray him.)
3 Jesus knowing that the Father had gi-uen all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God, 4 Hee richly from supper, and laperth alide his upper garments, & tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.
5 After that, he poured water into a basin,
and began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell, wherewith
he was girded.
6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said
to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feete?
7 Jesus answered & sayde vnto him, what I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.
8 Peter sayde vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.
9 Simon Peter sayde vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the hands, and the head.
10 Jesus sayd to him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feete, but
to be cleane euery whit: and ye are cleane,
but not all.
11 For he knewe who should betray him:
therefore sayd he, ye are not all cleane.
12 So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he sayd vnto them, knowe
ye what I haue done to you?
13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for so am I.
14 If I then pour loide, and after, haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash
one anothers feete.
15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should do, eue as I haue done to you.
16 Verely, verely I saye vnto you, The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then he
that sent him.
17 If ye know these things, blessed are ye,
if ye do them.
18 I I speake not of you all: I knowe
whome I haue chosen: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, Hee that eareth bread with mee, hath lift vp his heele against me.
19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue that I am he.
20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, he that receiuerh him, receiuerh
me, and he that receiuerh me, receiuerh
him that sent me.
21 When Jesus had sayde these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified, and sayde, Verely, verely I say vnto
you, that one of you shall betray me.
22 Then the disciples looked one on an other, doubting of whome he spake.
23 Nowe there was one of his disciples,
whom I haue leane on Jesus bosonie, whome Jesus loued.
24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter,
that he should aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 He then, as he leane on Jesus brest, said
vnto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whome I shall giue a soppe, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a soppe, and gaue it to Judas Isariot, Simons sonne.
27 And after the soppe, Satan entred into him. Then said Jesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.
28 But none of them that were at table,
knewe, for what cause he spake it vnto
him.
29 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagge, that Jesus had sayde
vnto him, See those things that we haue need of againt the feast: of that he should giue some thing to the poore.
30 Alsone then as hee had receiued the soppe, he went immediately out, & it was night.
31 When he was gone out, Jesus sayde, Nowe is the Sonne of man glorified,
and God is glorified in him.
32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in him selfe, and shall straightway glorifie him.
33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: pe shall seeke me, but as I sayd vnto the Jewes, Whither I goe, can ye not come: also to you I say now, 34 A new commandment giue I vnto
you, that ye loue one another: as I haue
loued you, that ye also loue one another.
35 By this shall all men knowe ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.
36 Simon Peter sayde vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow me now: but thou shalt follow me afterwardes.
37 Peter sayd vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? I will lape downe
my life for thy sake.
38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lape downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely
I saye vnto thee, The cocke shall not crowe, till thou haue denied me thrise.

we will come vnto him, and will dwell

huſbandman.

2 Every branch that beareth not fruit
in me, he ſhall be cutt away: & euery one that beareth fruit, he will purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now are ye cleane through the woordes,

which I haue ſpoken vnto you.

4 Abide in me, & I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it ſelfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, & I in him, the ſame bringeth forth much fruit: ſo without me
ye can doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is caſt forth

loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye ſhal keepe my commandements, ye ſhal abide in my loue, as I haue kept

in his loue.

that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be full.

2 * As thou hast given him a power ouer

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I

5 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glorie which I had with thee before the world was.
6 I haue declared thy name vnto the men
which thou gauest me out of the world:
e thine they were, and thou gauest them
me, and they haue kept thy word.
7 Nowe they knowe that all thinges whatsoener thou hast given me, are of
thee.
8 For I haue given vnto them the word, which thou gauest me, and they haue re-ceined them, and haue knownen surely that I came out from thee, and haue be-lieued that thou hast sent me.
9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast gi-uen me: for they are thine.
10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And nowe am I no indy in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, eue them whom thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.
12 While I was with them in the world,
I kept them in thy Name: those which thou gauest me, haue I kept, & none of them is lost, but the child of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.
13 And now come I to thee, & these things
I speake in the world, that they might haue my worke fulfilled in themselves.
14 I haue given them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.
15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepest them from euill.
16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.
17 Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy word is truth.
18 As thou diddest send me into the world,
so haue I sent them into the world.
19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be sanctified through thy truth.
20 I pray not for these alone, but for them
also which shall beleeue in me, through their word.
21 That they all may be one, as thou, & Father, art in me, & I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, by the world
may beleeue that thou hast sent me.
22 And the glorie that thou gauest me, I haue given them, that they may be one,
as we are one.
23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may knowe, that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them, as thou hast loved me.
24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast given me, be with me euere where I am, by thy word behold my glorie, which thou hast given me: for thou londest me
before the foundation of the world.
25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knownen thee, but I haue knownen thee, and these haue knownen, that thou hast sent me.
26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in thee.

- 1 Then Pilate tooke Iesus & scourged him.
 2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, & they put on him a purple garment.
 3 And sayde, Hail, king of the Iewes. And they smote him with their roddees.
 4 Then Pilate went forth againe, & sayde vnto them, Beholde, I bring huri forth to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.
 5 Then came Iesus forth wearing a crowne of thornes, & a purple garment. And Pilate sayde vnto them, Beholde the man.
 6 Then when the hie Priestes and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him & crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.
 7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to die, because he made him selfe the Sonne of God.
 8 When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraide,
 9 And went againe into the common hall and saide vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.
 10 Then sayde Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, & haue power to loose thee?
 11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against mee, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore he that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.
 12 From thence forth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cæsars friend: for whosoener maketh him selfe a King, speaketh against Cæsar.
 13 When Pilate heard that word, he brought Iesus forth, and late downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.
 14 And it was the Preparation of the Passouer, and about the sixth houre: and he sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.
 15 But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayd vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The hie priestes answered, We haue no king but Cæsar.
 16 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. And they tooke Iesus, and led him away.
 17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens Skulles, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:
 18 Where they crucified him, & two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 And Pilate wrote also a write, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to the cite: and it was written in Hebrew, Chiche, and Latin.

21 Then sayd the hie Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, the King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, & made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coate: and the coate was about same, wouen from the top throughout.

24 Therefore they sayd one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it, whole it shalbe. This was that scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, and on my coat did cast lottes. So the souldiers did these things in deede.

25 Then stode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loued, he said vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne.

27 Then sayd he to the disciple, Behold thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 After, whē Iesus knew that all things were performed, & the scripture might be fulfilled, he sayd, I thirst.

29 And there was set a bredd full of vinegre: and they filled a sponge with vinegre, and put it about an hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Nowe when Iesus had receiued of the vinegre, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue up the ghost.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodie should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an high day) besought Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare perced his side, & forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and hee knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture shoulde be fulfilled, That a bone of him shalbe broken.

37 And againe another scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified.

a Albeit they knew not, yet they followed his counsel, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.
b It was some linen garment, which fishers used to wear, which being trusted vnto him, couered his nether partes, & also letted not his swimming.

After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus he was seen himselfe.
2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Canaan Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter sayde vnto them, I goe a fishing. They sayd vnto him, We also will go with thee. They went their way, and entered into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the disciples knewe not that it was Iesus.
5 Iesus then sayd vnto them, Simons, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.
6 Then he sayde vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the shippe, and ye shall finde. So they cast out, and they were not able all to drowe it: for the multitude of fishes.
7 Therefore sayd the disciple whom Iesus loved, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his coat to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.
8 But the other disciples came by shippe: (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundred cubites) & they drew the net with fishes.
9 As soon then as they were come to land, they sawe heat coales, and fish laid thereon, and bread.
10 Iesus sayde vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.
11 Simon Peter streped forth and bryng the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundred threescore & thre: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Iesus sayd vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.
13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Iesus

shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.
15 So when they had dined, Iesus sayde to Simon Peter, Simon sonne of Iona, louest thou me more then these? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee, he sayd vnto him, Feede my lambs.
16 He sayd to him againe the second time, Simon sonne of Iona, louest thou me? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.
17 He sayde vnto him the third time, Simon sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sorie because he sayde to him the third time, Louest thou me? and sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus said vnto him, Feede my sheepe.
18 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thy life, & walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thine handes, and another shall gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.
19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had sayde this, he sayde to him, Follow me.
20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom Iesus loved, following, which had also learned on his breast at supper, and had sayde, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?
21 When Peter therefore sawe him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shal this man doe?
22 Iesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? folow thou mee.
23 Then went this woide abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not die. Yet Iesus sayde not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee?
24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimony is true.
25 Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the worlde could not containe the bookes that should be written. Amen.

The minister cannot well teach his congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in that that feede not the flocke.
d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ cauleth him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.
e In steade of a girdle, thou shalt be tyed with bands and cords: & whereas now thou goest at libertie, thou shalt be drawn to punishment, when thy flesh shall suffer a sore reprobation.

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGUMENT.

Christ, after his ascension, performed his promises to his Apostles, & sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindefull of his Church, but would be the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the encrease thereof, we may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress, and overthrow the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kinde of crueltye. Again we shall here behold the prouidence of God, who overthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his, most valiantly & constantly to fol-

to followe their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the ende of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheless God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in sorrow, ioy: in bondes, freedome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnes: in death, life. Finally, this booke conteyneth many excellent sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs Rocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall pointes of our faith: so that this onely historie in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The wordes of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles.
9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles are occupied till the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

1 I haue made the former treatise, & Throphilus, of all that Iesus began to do, and teach,

2 Until the day, that he was taken vp, after that he through p<sup>h</sup>oly Ghost, had giuen commandements vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen:

3 To whome also he presented himselfe as line after that he had suffered, by many insupportable tokens, beinge some of them by the space of foure dayes, and speaking of those things which apperteyne to the kingdomes of God.

4 And when he had gathered them together, he commaunded them, that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the Father, which he had heard of me.

5 For Iohn in the dayes, baptized with water, but he shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, which he shall receiue in foure dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the times, or seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power.

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: & ye shall be witnesses vnto me both in Ierusalem, & in Iudea, & in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they behelde, he was taken vp: & a cloude took him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as he went, beholde, two men stood by them in white apparell.

11 Which also saide, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing into heauen?

12 This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olues, which is nere to Ierusalem,

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an upper chamber, where abode both Peter, and James, and Iohn, and Andrew, Phillippe, and Thomas, & Mattheu, and Symon, & Iames the brother of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas James brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stood by in the middes of the disciples, and saide, (I will haue the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and twentie)

16 ¶ Ye men and brethren, this Scripture which hath bene fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that took Iesus.

17 For he was numbered with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministry.

18 He therefore hath purchased a feld with the reward of iniquitie: & when he had thowen downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowne vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, in so much, that that feld is called in their plene language, Accidma, that is, The feld of blood.

20 For it is writte in the booke of Psalms, Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: also, Let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the tyme that Iesus was conuersant among vs,

22 Beginning from the baptism of Iohn, vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of them be made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Mattheus.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen.

As the true redeemer to gather vs vnto him.

Which was two mile, according to Iewes tradition, albeit it was not so appointed by the Scriptures.

A lively patterne to learne how to dispose our selues to receiue the gifte of the holy Ghost.

Partly to obtaine the holy Ghost, & partly to be deliuered from the present dangers.

The offence, which might haue come by Iudas fall, is hereby taken away, because the Scripture had so forewarned.

Or, vnto men.

Or, perdition.

Or, ministerie.

Or, Greekes, who were in Ierusalem.

In that he mencioneth the principall article of our faith.

He comprehendeth also the rest.

To the intent,

That he that should take in hand that excellent office of an Apostle, might be chosen by the authoritie of God.

25 That he may take the roume of this unmitration & Apostleship, from which Judas hath gone astray, to goe to his owne place.

26 Then they gave forth their votes: and the lot fel on Matthias, and he was by a common consent counted with the Elesen Apostles.

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles having received the holy Ghost, make accorde in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing & mightie winde,
and it filled all the house where they sat.
3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like fire, and it sat upon eche
of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the Spirit gaue them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jewes, men that feared God, of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was knowne, the multitude came together, and were astonished, because that every man heard them
speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, and marvelled, saying among themselves, Beholde, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 How then heare we euerie man in his language, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites,
and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia,
and of Iudaea, & of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

10 And of Iudgia, and Samphylia, of Egypt, & of the partes of Libya, which is beside Cyrene, & strangers of Rome,
and Jewes, and Proselytes,

11 Cries, and Arabians: we heard them
speake in our owne tongues the won-derfull workes of God.

12 They were all then amazed, and don-ted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others mocked, and said, They are full of newe wine.

14 But Peter standing by the Ele-
sen, lift up his voyce, & said unto them, Ye men of Iudaea, and ye all that inhabite Jerusalem, be this knowne unto you, and hearken unto my wordes.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the thirde houre of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by

the Prophet Joel,
17 And it shalbe in the last dayes, saith God, I will poure out of my Spirit upon all flesh, and pour sonnes, and pour daughters shall prophesie, & pour young men shall see visions, and pour olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruantes, and on myne handmaidens I will poure out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shewe wonders in heauen
aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath,
blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 The Sonne shall be turned into darkenes, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall be, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes, Jesus of Nazareth, a man appoyned of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as ye pour selues also knowe:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the handes of the wicked, being deliuered by the beterrimaine counsell, and foreknowledge of God, & haue crucified & slain:

24 Whome God hath raised up, & loosed
the sorowes of death, because it was impossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David saith concerning him, I behold the Lord alwayes before me: for he is at my right hande, that I should not be shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and I mouer also to my flesh shall rest in hope,

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soule
in graine, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed me the wayes of life, and shalt make me full of thy com-fortance.

29 Men & brethren, I may boldly speake unto you of the Patriarke David, that so were they not he is both dead & buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs unto this day.

30 Therefore, seeing he was a Prophet, and knewe that God had sware with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes he would raise up Christ concerning the flesh to set him upon his throne,

31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soule should not be left in graine, neither his flesh should see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

Christ the Lord of life. 491

1 By the vertue
of power.
2 Hee obtained
of his Father
power to accopish the promises which hee
made to his Apostles, as rouding the holy Ghost to be sent into them.
3 And therefore Christ doeth
here excellently. Christ is the only redeemer
now whose all powers are sub-
dug and must doe.
4 I thinke, hath
as good as
long and ruler:
and here, that in this Sermon
from speaketh
of Christes manner, as hee was dead, buried, rise, and ascended
heaven.
5 He speaketh
unto us of the fence of bap-
tisme, but tea-

sole effect
thereof consisteth
in Iesus Christ.

7 Christ is promised both to

Gentiles, but the Jewes have the best place.
8 We pray for the benefit of the Jewes.

knew the Apostles trauailed not in vaine.

33 Since then that he by the right hand of God hath bene exalted, and hath recei-ued of his father the promises of the holy Ghost, he hath shewed forth this which ye now see and heare.

34 For David is not ascended into heaven, but he saith, "The Lord said to my Lord, & sit at my right hand,

35 Untill I make thine enemies thy footstool.

36 Therefore, let all the house of Israel know for a suretie, & God hath made him both Lord, and Christ, this Iesus,
I say, whom ye haue crucified.

37 Nowe when they heard it, they were pricked in their heartes, and sayde vnto Peter and the other Apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we doe?"

38 Then Peter saide vnto them, "Minde your liues, and be baptized euery one of you in the name of Iesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: and ye shall receiue the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is made vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are as farre off, euen as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other wordes he besought, and exhorted them, saying, "Save your liues fro this froward generation,

41 Then they gladly receiued his word,
were baptized: and the same day, there were added to the Church about thye thousand soules.

42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and fellowship, and breaking of bread, and prayers.

43 And feare came vpon euery soule: and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles.

44 And all that belieued, were in one place,
and had all things in common.

45 And they solde their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as
euery one had neede.

46 And they continued daily with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread
at home, did eate their meate together
with gladnesse and singlenesse of heart,

47 Praising God, and had fauour with all the people: and the Lord added to the Church daily of such sort, as should
be lauded.

48 And al that belieued, were in one place,
and had all things in common.

49 And they solde their possessions and
goods, and parted them to all men, as
euery one had neede.

50 And they continued daily with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread
at home, did eate their meate together
with gladnesse and singlenesse of heart,

51 Praising God, and had fauour with
all the people: and the Lord added to the Church daily of such sort, as should
be lauded.

52 And al that belieued, were in one place,
and had all things in common.

53 And they solde their possessions and
goods, and parted them to all men, as
euery one had neede.

54 And they continued daily with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread
at home, did eate their meate together
with gladnesse and singlenesse of heart,

55 Praising God, and had fauour with
all the people: and the Lord added to the Church daily of such sort, as should
be lauded.

2 And a certaine man which was a cræple
from his mothers wombe, was caried, whome they layde dayly at the gate of the Temple called Beautifull, to aske almes of them that entred into the Temple.

3 Who seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him
with John, said, looke on vs.

5 And he gaue herde vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.

6 Then said Peter, Siluer and gold haue
I none, but such as I haue, that giue
I thee: In the name of Iesus Christ
of Nazareth, rise vp and walke.

7 And hee tooke him by the right hande,
and lift him vp, and immediatly his feete
and ancle bones receiued strength.

8 And he leaped vp, stode, and walketh,
and entred with them into the Temple,
walking and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saue him walke, and praising God.

10 And they knew him, & it was he which sate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple: and they were amazed, and soe astonied at which was come
vnto him.

11 And as the cræple which was healed,
held Peter and John, at the people ranne amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Solomons.

12 So when Peter saue it, hee answered
vnto the people, Men of Israel, why maruaile ye at this? or why looke ye so stebfastly on vs, as though by our owne power or godlinesse, we had made this man goe?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of rabbas.

14 But ye denied the holy one & the lust,
and desired a murderer to be giuen you,
and killed the Lord of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, wherof we are witnesses.

15 And his name hath made this man sound, whome ye see, and know, through faith in his name: and the faith which is by him, hath giuen to him this dispo-sicion of his whole body in the presence of you all.

16 And now brethren, I know & through ignorance ye did it, as did also your gouernours.

17 But those things which God before had shewed by his mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, hee hath thus fulfilled.

18 And now liues therefore, and turne
that your sinnes may be put away, where the time of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

19 And he shall send Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you.

20 Whome the heauen must containe vntill

b Because his gift of healing

q None are blessed but in Christ. r So that our regeneration & newnesse of life is inclosed vnder this blessing.

C H A P. I. III.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison, preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the Name of Christ. 16 They are commaunded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good success of the Gospel. 31 The increase, vntill, and charitie of the Church.

1 As they spake vnto y<sup>e</sup> people, the High priests & the Captaine of y<sup>e</sup> Temple, & the Sadduces came vpon the.

2 Taking it grieuously y<sup>e</sup> they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laide hands on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the worde, beleued, and the number of the men was aboute fise thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morowe, that their rulers, & Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Ananias the chiefe High priest, and Caiaphas, & Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priests.

7 And when they had set them before them they asked, What power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holie Ghost, sayd vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 Forasmuch as we this day are examined of the good dedes done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes hee is made whole,

10 Be it knowne vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 ¶ This is y<sup>e</sup> stone which was laid in Ierusalem, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other:

for among men there is giuen none other name: vnder heauen, wherby we must be saued.

13 Nowe when they saue the boldnesse of Peter & Iohn, and vnderstande that they were vnkarned men and without skilfulledge, they maruelled, and knewe them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to saye against it.

15 Then they commaunded them to goe aside out of the Councell, and conferred among them selues,

16 Saying, What shal we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by the, & it is openly knowne to all them which dwell in Ierusalem: and we can not denie it.

17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten & charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and sayde, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obeye you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we can not but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them go, & found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboute fouentie yeres olde, on whose this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ Then as soon as they were let goe, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the high priests and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voices to God with one accord, and sayde, A Iorde, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant David hast sayde, Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 ¶ The Kings of the earth assembled, and rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For y<sup>e</sup> doubtlesse, against thine holie Sonne Iesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herode and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered them selues together,

28 To doe whatsoeuer thine hand, and thy Councell had determined before to be done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their threatenings, and graunte vnto thy seruantes with all boldnesse to speake thy word,

30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the name of thine holie Sonne Iesus.

31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together.

a It is to be thought y<sup>e</sup> this was the captaine of the Romanes garrison.

b The Sadduces were great enemies to this doctrine.

c The whole Church was increased to this number.

s This Theudas was about thirtie yeeres before him, of whome Joſephus menti-oneth, li. 20 de Antiq. chap. 4.

t That was after the death of Herode the great, when Archelaus his ſonne was at Rome, at what time Iudea was full of inſurrections: ſo that it is not ſure to give credit to Euſebius in this point.

e Of him maketh mention Joſephus, lib. 18.

u He groun- deth vpon good principles, but he doubteth of the qualitie of the cauſe, neither dare affirme whether it be good or bad: wherein appeareth hee was but a worldling.

28 Saying, Did not we ſtraightly command you, that ye ſhoulde not teache in this name: and behold, ye haue filled Jeruſalem with your doctrine, & ye would bring this mans blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apoſtles answered, and ſaide, We ought rather to obey God than men.

30 The God of our fathers hath raiſed vp Jeſus, whom ye ſlew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God liſt vp with his right hand, to be a prince and a ſauour, to give repentance to Iſrael, and forgiveness of ſinnes.

32 And we are his witneſſes concerning theſe things which we ſay: yea, and the holy Ghoſt, to whome God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they blaſt ſoy anger, and conſulted to ſlay them.

34 Then ſtoode there vp in the Counſell a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the Lawe, honoured of all the people, and commaunded to put the Apoſtles ſootherly a litle ſpace.

35 And ſaide vnto them, Men of Iſrael, take heed to your ſelues, what ye intend to doe touching theſe men.

36 For beſore theſe times, roſe vp Theudas boaſting him ſelfe, to whome reſorted a number of men, about a foure hundred, who was ſlaine: & they all which obeyed him, were ſcattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man, aroſe vp Judas of Galilee, in the daies of the tribute, and drew awap much people after him: he alſo periſhed, and all that obeyed him, were ſcattered abroad.

38 And now I ſay vnto you, refrain your ſelues from theſe men, and let them alone: for if theſe counſels, or this worke be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot deſtroy it, leaſt ye be found euen fighters againſt God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apoſtles: and when they had beaten them, they commaunded that they ſhould not ſpeake in the name of Jeſus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Council, reioycing, that they were counted worſhipfull to ſuffer rebuke for his name.

42 And daip in the Temple, & from houſe to houſe they ceaſed not to teache, and preach Jeſus Chriſt.

1 And in thoſe daies, as the number of the diſciples grewe, there aroſe a murmuring of the Grecians towards the Hebrewes, becauſe their widowes were neglected in the daip miniſtring.

2 Then the twelue called the multitude of Hebrewes, and ſaide, We haue heard that ſome of our bretheren ſay, that we neglect the widowes, as ye ſay.

3 And we haue choſen Steuen, a man full of faith & power, and great ſignes & wonders were done by him among the people.

4 And ſteuen was a Cyprian, and was full of faith & power, and great ſignes & wonders were done by him among the people.

5 And he ſtoode vp in the ſynagogue, and ſaide, Men of Iſrael, hearken, I haue heard that ſome of you ſay, that we neglect the widowes, as ye ſay.

6 And we haue choſen Steuen, a man full of faith & power, and great ſignes & wonders were done by him among the people.

7 And he ſtoode up in the ſynagogue, and ſaide, Men of Iſrael, hearken, I haue heard that ſome of you ſay, that we neglect the widowes, as ye ſay.

8 And we haue choſen Steuen, a man full of faith & power, and great ſignes & wonders were done by him among the people.

the diſciples together, and ſaid, It is not meete that we ſhould leaue the word of God to ſerue the tables.

Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you ſeuē men of honeſt report, and full of the holy Ghoſt, & of wiſdome, which we may appoint to this buſineſſe.

And we will giue our ſelues continually to prayer, and to the miniſtration of the word.

And the ſaying pleaſed the whole multitude: and they choſe Steuen a man full of faith & of the holy Ghoſt, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicholas a proſelyte of Antiochia.

Which they ſet beſore the Apoſtles: and they prayed, and layde their hands on them.

And the word of God increaſed, and the number of the diſciples was multiplied in Jeruſalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the ſaith.

Now Steuen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

Then there aroſe certaine of the Synagogs, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, & of them of Cilicia, and of Aſia, and diſputed with Steuen.

But they were not able to reſiſt the wiſdome, and the Spirit by the which he ſpake.

Then they ſuborned men, which ſaid, We haue heard him ſpeake blaſphemous wordes againſt Moſes, and God.

Thus they moued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Council.

And ſome ſoule falſe witneſſes, which ſaide, This man ceaſeth not to ſpeake blaſphemous wordes againſt this holy place, and the Lawe.

For we haue heard him ſay, that this Ieſus of Nazareth ſhall deſtroy this place, and ſhall change the ordinances, which Moſes gaue vs.

And as all that ſate in the Council, looked ſtedfaſtly on him, they ſaue his face as it had bene the face of an Angel.

They ſpake this in contempt of Steuen, but alſo great maieſtie appearing in him.

3 And said unto him, Come out of thy countrey, and from thy kindred, & come into the land, which I shall shewe thee.
4 Then came hee out of the lande of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land, wherein ye now dwell.
5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, nor the breadth of a foote: yet he promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no child.
6 But God spake thus, that his seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, & that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreate it euill: four hundred perres.
7 But the nation to whom they shal be in bondage, will I indge, saith God: and after that, they shal come forth and serue me in this place.
8 We gaue him also the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate Jacob, and Jacob the twelue Patriarkes.
9 And the Patriarkes moued with enuie solde Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,
10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and gaue him fauour & wisdome in the sight of Pharao king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.
11 When came there a famine ouer al the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustenance.
12 But when Jacob heard that there was come in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.
13 And at the second time, Joseph was known of his brethren, & Josephs kindred was made known vnto Pharao.
14 Then sent Joseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kindred, euen s thre score and fiftene soules.
15 So Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he died, and our fathers,
16 And were reuonued into Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that Abraham had boughte for money of d sonnes of Emoy, sonne of Sychem.
17 But when the time of the promise dyelw nere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people grewe and multiplied in Egypt,
18 Till another king arose, which knewe not Joseph.
19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, & euil intreated our fathers, & made them to cast out their yong children, that they should not remaine alue.
20 The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house thre moneths.
21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoos daughter took him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.
22 And Moses was learned in all the wis-domes of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deedes.

23 Nowe when he was full fourtie yeres olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.
24 And when he saue one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarrell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.
25 For he supposed his brethren woude haue vnderstand, that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.
26 And the next day, he shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, & would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why doe ye wrong one to another?
27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?
28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yester day?
29 Then fledde Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the land of Spadian, where he begate two sonnes.
30 And when fourtie perres were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire, in a bush.
31 And when Moses saue it, he wondered at the sight: and as he dyelw nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,
32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.
33 Then the Lord said to him, What off thy shoes from thy feete: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.
34 I haue sene, I haue sene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groining, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will sende thee into Egypt.
35 This Moses whome they soughte, saying, Who made thee a prince & a iudge: the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.
36 He brought them out, doing wonders, and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wilderness fourtie perres.
37 This is that Moses, which said vnto the children of Israel, A Prophet shall the Lord pour God rayle by vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me: him shall ye heare.
38 This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wilderness with the Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, and with our fathers, who receiued the promise of the presence of God.
39 To whome our fathers would not obey, but refused, and in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt.
40 Saying vnto Aaron, Make vs gods: that may goe before vs: for we knowe not what is become of this Moses that brought the Lawe.

uen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, * In house of Israel, haue ye offred to me stauie beastes and sacrifices
by the space of fourtie yerres in the wil-dernesse:

43 And ye * tooke by the tabernacle of * Moloch, & the starre of your god Ken-ozai, figures, which ye made to worship them: therefore I will carpe you as was beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of * witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking vnto * Moses, that he should make it according to the facion
that he had seene.

45 Which tabernacle also our fathers recei-ued, and brought in with * Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God gaue out before our fathers, vnto
the dayes of Dauid:

46 * Who found fauour before God, and desired that he might * finde a tabernacle
for the God of Iacob.

47 * But Solomon build him an house.

48 Howbeit the most High * dwelleth not

Prophet,

49 Heauen is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what * house wil ye build for me, saith the Lord: or what place is it that I should rest in?

50 Hath not mine hand made all these things?

51 * He stiffnecked and of vncircumcised

sisted the holy Ghost: as your fathers

them, which shewed before of the com-ming of that * Iust, of whom ye are now
the betrayers and murderers,

53 * Which haue received the Law by the ordinance of Angels: & haue not kept it.

54 But when they heard these thinges, their hearts blast for anger, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost, looked stedfastly into heauen, and saue the glory of God, and Iesus standing at the right hand of God,

56 And said, Beholde, I see the heauens open, and the Sonne of man standing at the right hand of God.

57 Then they gaue a shoute with a loude
voyce, and stopped their eares, and * ran vpon him all at once,

58 And cast him out of the cite, and stoned him: and the * witnesses laid downe their clothes at a pong mans fete, named Saul.

59 And they stoned Steuen, who called on God, and said, Lord Iesus, receiue my spirit.

60 And he knaked downe, and crept with a loude voyce, * Lord, lay not this sinne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken, he slept.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Steuen is lamented and buried. 3 The rage of the Iewes and of Saul against them. 4 The faithful scattered, preach here and there. 9 Samaria is reduced by Simon the forcerer, but was converted by Philippe, and confirmed by the Apostles. 19 The conversion and hypocrisis of Simon, 26 And conversion of the Eunuch.

And Saul consented to his death,
and at that tyme, there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroade through the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, * caried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church,
and curted into euery house, and bewe-nt both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered as abroad, went to & fro preaching the word.

5 Then came Philippe into the cite of Samaria, & preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those thinges which Philippe spake, with one accorde, hearing, and seeing the miracles
which he did.

7 For vncleane Spirites crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halterd, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that cite.

9 And there was before in the cite a certaine man called Simon, which used witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, that he himselfe was some great man.

10 To whome they gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great * power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But as soon as they belied Philippe,
which preached the thinges that concerned the kingdome of God, & the graue
of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe belied also, & was baptized, and continued with Philippe, & wondered, when he sawe the signes
and great miracles which were done.

14 Now when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe,
they prayed for them, that they might receiue
the * holy Ghost.

16 (For as yet, he was come downe on gift to speake in their name, but they were baptized in the name of the Lord Iesus,) and as yet had not receiued the * holy Ghost.

17 Then Simon besought them, that he might also be baptized, saying, I beseech you, let me be baptized, that I may receiue the * holy Ghost.

18 And they answered him, saying, The gift of God, we cannot sell: for as yet thou art in the same waye, and art in need of repentance.

19 And he answered, saying, I have nothing to sell: but I will be baptized.

20 And they answered him, saying, Repent
thou, and be baptized in the name of the Lord Iesus, that thou mayest receiue the * holy Ghost.

21 And he answered, saying, I have
nothing to sell: but I will be baptized.

22 And they answered him, saying, Repent
thou, and be baptized in the name of the Lord Iesus, that thou mayest receiue the * holy Ghost.

23 And he answered, saying, I have
nothing to sell: but I will be baptized.

24 And they answered him, saying, Repent
thou, and be baptized in the name of the Lord Iesus, that thou mayest receiue the * holy Ghost.

25 And he answered, saying, I have
nothing to sell: but I will be baptized.

26 And they answered him, saying, Repent
thou, and be baptized in the name of the Lord Iesus, that thou mayest receiue the * holy Ghost.

27 And he answered, saying, I have
nothing to sell: but I will be baptized.

28 And they answered him, saying, Repent
thou, and be baptized in the name of the Lord Iesus, that thou mayest receiue the * holy Ghost.

29 And he answered, saying, I have
nothing to sell: but I will be baptized.

17 Then layd they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.
18 And when Simon saw, that through laying on of the Apostles hands the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay the hands, he may receiue the holy Ghost.
20 Then sayde Peter vnto him, Thy money perissheth with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.
21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this businesse: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.
22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it be possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.
23 For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquitie.
24 Then answered Simon, & said, Whaype to the Lord for me, & none of these things which he hath spoken, come vpon me.
25 So he prayd they that he might be added to the number of the Disciples, & returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritans.
26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and goe towards the South vnto the way that goeth downe to Iherusalem vnto Gaza, which is a waste.
27 And hee arose and went on: and behold, a certaine Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candace the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Iherusalem to worship:
28 And as hee returned sitting in his charet, he read Esaus the Prophet.
29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go nere & ioyne thy selfe to ponder charret.
30 And Philip ran thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Esaus, and said, What understandest thou what thou reade?
31 And he sayde, How can I, except I had a guide: And he desired Philip, that he would come by and sit with him.
32 Now the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, He was ledde as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe downe before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.
33 In his humilitie his iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare his generation: for his life is take from the earth.
34 Then the Eunuche answered Philip, and sayd, I pray thee of whome speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?
35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preas-ched vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch sayd, See, here is water: what doth let me to be baptised?
37 And Philip sayde vnto him, If thou belieuest with all thine heart, thou maiest. Then he answered, and sayde, I beleuee that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.
38 Then he commaunded the charret to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptised him.
39 And as soon as they were come by out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.
40 But Philip was founde at Azotus, and he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

4 And he fel to the earth, and heard a voice, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
5 And he sayde, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord sayde, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the prickles.
6 Hee then both trembling and astonished, sayde, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord sayde vnto him, Arise, and goe into the citie, and it shall be tolde thee what thou shalt doe.
7 The men also which journeyed with him, stood amazed, hearing his voyce, but seeing no man.

12 And he ſawe in a viſion a man named Ananias coming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his ſight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, howe much evil he hath done to thy ſaintes at Jeruſalem.

14 Wherefore here he hath authoritie of the hie p̄ieſtes, to binde all that call on thy name.

15 Then the Lord ſayde vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a choſen veſſell vnto me, to beare my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Iſrael.

16 For I wil ſhew him, how many things he muſt ſuffer for my names ſake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entered into the houſe, and put his hands on him, and ſaid, Brother Saul, the Lord hath ſent me (even Jeſus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou cameſt) that thou mighteſt receive thy ſight, and be filled with the holy Ghoſt.

18 And immediately there fell fro his eyes as it had bene ſcales, and ſuddenly he received ſight, and aroſe, and was baptiſed.

19 And received meat, and was ſtrengthened. So was Saul certaine daies with the diſciples which were at Damafcus.

20 And ſtraightway he preached Chriſt in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him, were amazed, and ſaid, Is not this he, that deſtroyed them which called on this name in Jeruſalem, and came hither for that intent, that he ſhould bring them bound vnto the hie p̄ieſtes?

22 But Saul increaſed the more in ſtrength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damafcus: confirming, by this was the Chriſt.

23 And after that many daies were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counſell together, to kill him.

24 But their laying awaite was knowne of Saul: now they watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the diſciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wal, and let him downe in a baſket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jeruſalem, he aſſayed to ioyne himſelfe with the diſciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beſeuered not that he was a diſciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, and brought him to the Apoſtles, & declared to them, how he had ſene the Lord in the way, and how he had ſpoken boldly at Damafcus in the name of Jeſus.

28 And he was conuerſant with them at Jeruſalem.

29 And ſpake boldly in the name of the Lord Jeſus, and ſpake and diſputed with the Grecians: but they went about to ſlay him.

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they brought him to Ceſarea, & ſent him forth to a Carus.

31 Then had the Churches reſt throughout all Iudea, & Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, & walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the coſort of the holy Ghoſt.

32 And it came to paſſe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came alſo to the ſaintes which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bedde eight yeres, and was ſicke of the palſie.

34 Then ſayde Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Jeſus Chriſt maketh thee whole: ariſe, and make by thy bed. And he aroſe immediately.

35 And al that dwelt at Lydda, & Saron, ſaw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was alſo at Joppa a certaine woman a diſciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called Doctas) ſhe was full of good works and almes which ſhe did.

37 And it came to paſſe in thoſe daies, that ſhe was ſicke and died: and when they had waſhed her, they layd her in an upper chamber.

38 Now for as much as Lydda was nere to Joppa, & the diſciples had heard that Peter was there, they ſent vnto him two men, deſiring that he would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter aroſe and came with them: and when hee was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widowes ſtoode by him weeping, and ſhewing the coates and garments, which Doctas made, while ſhe was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, & kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and ſaid, Tabitha, ariſe. And ſhe opened her eyes, and when ſhe ſawe Peter, ſate vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand and liſt her vp, and called the ſaintes & widowes, and reſtoyed her alme.

42 And it was knowne throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to paſſe that hee taried many daies in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

NOW the Apostles and the brethren that were in Judea, heard, that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the cite of Toppa, praying, and in a trance I sawe this vision, A certaine vessell coming downe as it had bene a great libertie, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me:

6 Toward h which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying unto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eat.

8 And I saide, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted of uncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen. The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done thre times, and all were taken up againe into heauen.

11 Then beholde, immediatly there were thre men already come unto the house where I was, sent fro Cesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit saide unto me, that I shoulde go with them, without doubting: moreover these six brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed us, how he had scene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Toppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 He shal speake wordes unto thee, where by both h and al thine house shalbe saved.

15 And as I beganne to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, * euen as upon us at the beginning.

16 Then I remembred the word of the Lord, how he said, * John baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did unto us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted repentance unto life.

19 And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout till they came unto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but unto the Jewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus, and of Cyrene, which when they were come unto Antiochia, spake unto the Grecians, & preached the word of the Lord.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came unto the eares of the Church, which was in Jerusalem, & they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go unto Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come and had scene the grace of God, was glad, & exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would cleane unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned then felices unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, to seeke Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antiochia, & it came to passe, that a whole peere they were conuerst with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those daies also came Prophets from Jerusalem unto Antiochia.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, & signified by the Spirit, that there shoulde be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe under Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, euery man according to his abilitie, purposed to sende succour unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER XIII.

Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Mark. 14 Paul preached at Antiochia. 15 The faith of the Gentiles. 16 The Jews resisted. 18 They that are ordained to life, believe. 52 The fruit of faith.

THERE were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Philosophers and teachers, as Barnabas and Symeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manahem (which had bene brought up with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

Nowe as they ministered to the Lords, and failed, the holy Ghost (saying), Separate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke wherunto I have called them.

Then failed they, and wyped, and layde their hands on them, and let them goe.

And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Jewes: and they had also John to their minister.

1 They did say: that Gentles should be made equal with
them.
2 Which is, to

6 At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul,
which refuse it, and

people to worshippe

is shamed. 22 They ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their

diligence at Antiochia.
7 And it came to passe in Iconium,
that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jewes, and so spake,
that a great multitude both of the Jewes and of the Grecians believed.
8 But the unbelieving Jewes stirred up, & corrupted the minds of the Gentiles against the brethren.
9 So therfore they abode there a long time, and spake
boldly in the Lord,
which gave testi-monie vnto the
woorde of his grace,
and caused signes & wonders to be done by their hands.
10 But the people of the cite were divided: and some were with the Jewes,
and some with the Apostles.
11 And when there was an assault
made both of the Gentiles, and of the Jewes with their rulers, to do them
violence, and to stone them,
12 They were ware
of it, and fled vnto Ikon-
stra, and Derbe,
cities of Lycaonia,
and vnto the region round about.
13 And there
were preaching the Gospel.
14 Now there sate a certaine
man at Ikon-stra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple
from his mothers
wombe, who had neuer walked.
15 He heard Paul
speake: who be-

him, and perceiuing
that he had faith
to be healed,
16 He layde
vnto the Apostle
Paul, saying, I stand by thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.
17 Then when the people sawe
what Paul had done, they lift
up their voices,
saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Godes men

CHAP. XV.

1 Variance about circumcision. 21 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia, 39 And separate company because of Iohn Marke.

1 Then came downe certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying,

Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moyses, ye can not be saved.

2 And when there was great dissension, and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeined Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them should goe up to Jerusalem unto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they brought great joy vnto all the brethren.

4 And whē they were come to Jerusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But sayde they, certaine of the sect of the Pharisees, which did beleue, rose vp, saying, that it was needfull to circumcise them, and to command them to keepe the Lawe of Moyses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when they had bene great disputation, Peter rose vp, and saide vnto them, * Ye men and brethren, ye knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out me, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the woide of the Gospell, and beleue.

8 And God which knoweth the heartes, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And he put no difference betwene vs and them, after he by faith he had purified their heartes.

10 Howe therefore, why tempt ye God, to * lap a pike on the disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to beare?

11 But we beleue, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saved, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which tolde what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, James answered, saying, Men & brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 * Simon hath declared, how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 * After this, I will returne, and will build againe the tabernacle of David, which is fallen downe, and the rimes thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp,

17 That the residue of men might seeke

after the Lord, and al the Gentiles upon whome my name is called, sayeth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God,

20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine them selues from * filthinesse of idoles, and * fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moyses of olde time hath in euery cite them that preache him, seeing hee is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to sende chosen men of their owne companie to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Judas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren,

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and combred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Lawe: to whome we gaue no such commandement,

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with our accord, to sende chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that haue given by their liues for the name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 We haue therefore sent Judas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burden vpon you, then these necessary things,

29 That is, that ye abstaine from thinges offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Howe when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they delivered the epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas & Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had taried there a space, they were let go in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

36 ¶ But after certaine daies, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and visite our brethren in euery cite, where we haue preached the word of the Lord, and see how they doe.

37 And Barnabas I counselled to take with them John, called Sparke.

38 But Paul thought it not meete to take him vnto their company, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the wayke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Sparke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, establishing the Churches.

¶ When Paul had circumcised Timotheus, hee tooke him with him. 7 The Spirit calleth them from one country to another. 14 Lydia is converted. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, commeth the Layler, 37 And are delivered wth Romanes.

¶ Then came he to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certaine discipule was there, named Timotheus, a woosmans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleued, but his father was a Grecian.

¶ Of whome the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reposed well.

¶ Therefore Paul woulde that he should go forth with him, & tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knewe all, that his father was a Grecian.

¶ And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, obtained of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

¶ And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number daily.

¶ ¶ Nowe when they had gone through our Idhyppia, and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia.

¶ Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

¶ Therefore they passed through Mysia, and came downe to Troas.

¶ Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

¶ And after he had seen the vision, immediately we prepared to goe into Macedonia, being assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

¶ Then went we forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis.

¶ ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe cite in the parts of Macedonia, and whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that cite abiding certaine daies.

¶ And on the Sabbath day, we went out of the cite, besides a river, where they were wont to pray: & we sat downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

¶ And a certaine woman, named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the cite of Thracia, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened, & she attended vnto things which Paul spake.

¶ And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged mee to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house, and abide there: and the constrained vs.

¶ And it came to passe that as we went to pray, a certaine maid hauing a spirit of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

¶ She followed Paul and vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shew vnto vs the way of saluation.

¶ And this did she many daies: but Paul being grieved, turned about, & said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

¶ Now when her masters sawe that the hope of their gain was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and bruew them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

¶ And brought them to the Gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes, trouble our cite,

¶ And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

¶ The people also rose up together against them, and the Gouernours rent their clothes, and commanded them to be beaten with roddes.

¶ And when they had beaten them so, they cast them into prison, commanding the lapler to keepe them surety.

¶ Who hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the inner prison, and made their fate fall in the stocks.

¶ Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalm vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

¶ And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: & by and by all the doores opened, & euery mans doore was loosed.

¶ Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when he sawe the prison doores open, he bruew out his sword, and would haue killed him selfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

¶ But Paul cried with a loud voyce, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for we are all here.

¶ Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas,

¶ And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saved?

¶ And they said, Beloue in the Lord Jesus Christ, & thou shalt be saved.

his Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thine household.

32 And they preached unto him the word of the Lorde, and to all that were in his house.

33 Afterwarde he tooke them the same houre of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptized with all that belonged unto him, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced that he with all his household belonged in God.

35 And when it was day, the Gouernours sent þe sergeants, saying, Let those men goe.

36 Then þe keeper of the prison tolde these wordes vnto Paul, saying, The Gouernours haue sent to loose you: now therefore get you hence, and goe in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncouenanted, which are Romanes, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out pynnyl: nay verely: but let them come and bing vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the gouernours, who feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 Then came they and prayed them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the cite.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had sene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul cometh to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receive him, & others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruits of his doctrine.

1 Now as they passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and thre Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures.

3 Opening, and alledging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whome, said he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleued, and ioynd in company with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleued not, moued with enuie, tooke vnto them certaine vagabounds and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled þe multitude, they made a tumult in the cite, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bing them out to the people.

6 But when they founde them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the cite, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are.

7 Whome Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is an other King, our Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the cite, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readines, and searched the Scriptures dailly, whether these things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the woide of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, & moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to goe as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas & Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Nowe while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw þe cite subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market dailly with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoikes, disputed with him, and some said, What will this babbler say? Others said, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars strate, saying, May we not knowe, what this newe doctrine, wherof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bingest certaine strange things vnto our eares: we would know therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, gaue them selues to nothing els, but rather to tell, or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of Mars strate, and saide, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and behelde your deuotions, I founde an altar wherupon

3 Paul labourerth with his hands, and preacheth at

God, 22 And care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollus.

1 After these things, Paul departed
from Athens, & came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Jew, named Aquila, boine in Pontus, lately come from Italie, and his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue eue-ry Sabbath day, & exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul burned in spirite, testifying to þe Iewes

that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemd,
he shooke his raiment, & said vnto them,
Your blood be vpon your owne head:

I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe
vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Titus, a worshipper of God, whose house iopned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his householder: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, believed and were baptized.

9 Then sayd the Lord to Paul in the night
by a vision, Feare not, but speake, & hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this cite.

11 So he continued there a yeere and sixe
moneths, and taught the worde of God
among them.

12 ¶ Nowe when Gallio was deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one ar-roide against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seat,

13 Saying, This fellowe perswadeth men
to worship God contrary to the Lawe.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio sayde vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill
deede, O ye Iewes, I woulde accoording
to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of wordes, and names, and of your Lawe, looke pee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And he draue them from the iudgement seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians Doltheus
h chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and spoken, 1. Cor.
beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had tarped there yet
a good while, hee tooke leaue of the brethren, & sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had thorne his head in Cenchrea: for hee had a uoile.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, & left them
there: but he entred into the Synagogue
and disputed with the Iewes,

20 Who desired him to tary a longer tyme
with them: but he would not consent.

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needes keepe this feast that cometh, in Ierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he came downe to Cesa-rea, he went up to Ierusalem: and when he had saluted the Church, hee went downe vnto Antiochia.

23 Nowe when he had tarried there a while,
he departed, and went through the coun-
treys of Galatia and Bithynia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

all Asia, and the whole worldshippe, should be destroyed.

28 Nowe when they heard it, they were full of wrath, & cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

29 And the whole cite was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, & caught Caius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his journey.

30 And when Paul would haue entred into the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Soine therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assemble was out of order, and the more part knewe not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie blew forth Alexander, the Jewes thrusting him forward. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Jewe, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres, of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

35 Then the tolme Clarke, when he had staped the people, said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not, howe that the cite of the Ephelians is a worldshippe of the great goddess Diana, and of the image, which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to be asprayed, and to doe nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacriledge, neither doe blasphemie your goddesses.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius and the craftes men which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the lawe is open, and there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it may be determined in a lawfull assemble.

40 For we are euen in iopardie to be accused of this dayes sedition, forasmuch as there is no cause, whereby we may giue a reason of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assemble depart.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia.

2 He celebrateth the Lords Supper and preacheth.

3 At Troas he rayseth up Eutychus. 4 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departs by shippe towards Ierusalem.

5 Nowe after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

6 And when he had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing tarped there thre moneths, because the Jewes laid wait for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to retorne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, & of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Caius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, & Trophimus.

5 These went before, and tarped vs at Troas.

6 And we sayled forth from Philippi, after the dapes of vntaured bread, and came vnto them to Troas in five dapes, where we abode seven dapes.

7 And the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were many lightes in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certaine young man, named Eutychus, fallen in to a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, he ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the thirde loft, & was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, & laid himselfe vpon him, & embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selfe: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, he continued a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boye aliue, and they were not a litle comforted.

13 Then we went forth to ship, and sailed vnto the cite of Asia, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and would himselfe goe alofte.

14 Nowe when he was come vnto vs to Asia, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylene.

15 And we sayled thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, & the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarped at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to sayle by Ephesus, because he would not spende the time in Asia: for he hastened to be, if he could possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecoste.

17 Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he said vnto them, Ye knowe from the first daye I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all seasons, vices are detestable in the seruants of Iesus Christ.

19 Seeing the Lord with all modestie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the lapings away of the Jewes,

24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfill my course with ioy, and the ministration which I haue receiued of the Lord Jesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now beholde, I know that henceforth ye all, through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

30 Wherefore, of your owne selues shall men arise speaking peruerse things, to drawe disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch and remember, that by the space of thre yeres I ceased not to warne euery one, both night and day with teares.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he knesled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him,

38 Being chiefly for the wordes which he spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

5 The common prayers of the faithfull. 9 Philipps foure daughters prophetesse. 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus and others foretold, although he was otherwise counselled by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and how he escaped.

1 As as we launched forth, and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Cesarea, and the day following vnto the Idhodes, & from thence vnto Patarea.

2 And we found a ship y went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboarde, and set forth.

3 And when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arrived at Cyprus: for there the ship unladed the burden.

4 And when we had founde disciples, we tarped there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul: though the Spirit, that he should not goe by to Ierusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, we departed, and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wives and children, euen out of the citie: and we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we tooke ship, and they returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Cyprus, we arrived at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, & abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, Paul & they that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesarea: & we entered into y house of y Philippe the Evangelist, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Nowe he had foure daughters virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we tarped there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he tooke Pauls girdle, & bounde his owne handes and feete, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the handes of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both we and other of the same place besought him that he would not goe by to Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping & breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for y Name of the Lord Jesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The wil of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we trusted by our fardels, and went by to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whome we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto y James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced the, he tolde by order all things, y God had wrought among y Gentiles by his ministration.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified

b The holy Spirit reueiled vnto them the persecutions that Paul should haue made against him, and the same Spirit also strengthened Paul to susteine them.

Chap. 6. 5.

c This office of Deacons was but for a time, according as the congregation had neede, or otherwise.

d God would haue his seruants knowe, to the intent that no man should thinke that he cast him selfe into wilfull danger.

e This was not to make Paul afraid, but to encourage him against the browe.

f Who was the chiefe or superintendent of the Church of Iewes.

sed the Lord, and saide vnto him, Thou
seest, brother, howe many thousande Iewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the Lawe.

21 Nowe they are informed of this, that thou teachest all the Iewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Spokes,
and lavers, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to keepe
the customes.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shal heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee.
We haue 4 foure men, which haue made a vowe.

24 Then take, and purifie thy selfe with them, & contribute with them, that they may 1 shawe their heads: and all shall knowe, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also wal-kest and kepest the Lawe.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleue, we haue writtten, and determined, that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselves from things offred to idoles, and from blood, & from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred
into the Temple, 2 declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntil that an offering should be offred
for euery one of them.

27 And when the thre dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they sawe him in the Temple) moued all the people, and 1 layde
hands on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery
where against the people, and the Lawe, & this place: moreouer, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath
1 polluted this holy place.

29 For they had sene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in 1 the cite, whome they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the cite was moued, and the people ranne together: and they tooke
Paul, and diew him out of the Temple,
and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tis-dings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vproue.

32 Who immediately tooke souldiers and Centurions, and ranne 2 downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then 1 the chiefe captaine came nere and tooke him, and commaunded him to be bound with two chaines, and demaun-ded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cried this, another that, as mong the people. So when he could not knowe the certaintie for the tumult, he commaunded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the grieues,
it was so that he was boyme of the sould-
iers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people folowed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul shoud haue bene led into the castle, he said vnto the chiefe Captaine, Wap I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Nay nor thou the 2 Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul saide, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Iewe, and citizen of 2 Carus, a famous cite in Cilicia, and I beseeche thee, suffer me to speake vnto
the people.

40 And when he had given him licence,
Paul stood on the grieues, and beckened with the hand vnto the people: & when there was made great silence, he spake
vnto them in 1 Hebrew tongue, saying,

1 Y E men, brethren and fathers, heare

(And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them,
they kept the more silence, and he said)
3 I am verely a man, which am a Iewe, boyme in 2 Carus in Cilicia, but brought up in this cite at the 3 fate of Cananuel,

4 2 And I persecuted this 1 way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into pris-

of 2 whome also I receiued letters vnto
the 3 brethren, and went to Damascus to byting them which were there, bound vnto
Ierusalem, 1 the they might be punished.

6 1 And so it was, as I journeyed and was come nere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light rounde about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord?
And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

9 Whereupon they that were with me, saw in deede a light and were afraid: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shall I doe, Lord?
And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by 1 the hand of them
which were with me, & came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Lawe, hauing good report of all the Jewes which dwelt there,
 13 Came vnto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.
 14 And he saide, the God of our fathers hath appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that Iust one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto all men of the things, which thou hast seene and heard.
 16 Now therefore why tariest thou? Arise, & be baptized, & wash away thy finnes, in calling on the name of the Lord.
 17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance,
 18 And saue him saying vnto me, Speake haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I saide, Lord, they know that I am *pisoned, and beat in every Synagogue them that beloued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, & said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the aire,

24 The chiefe captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should be scourged, & examined, that he might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, As it is lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Roman, and not condemned?

f Not because he was borne at Rome, but by reason of his citie: for Tarsus was inhabited by I Romanes, and was their Colonia, whereof read chap. 16. 12.

g This priuiledge was oft times giuen in recompence of seruice to them that were farre off Rome, and to their childre, though they were not borne in the citie.

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, & saide to him, Tell me, Art thou a Roman?

28 And the chiefe captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this burgeship. Then Paul said, But I was a so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afraid, after he knewe that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because he would haue knowne the certaintie wherefore he was accused of the Jewes, he called him from his bondes, and commaunded the hie Priestes and all their Councell to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

3 The answer of Paul being sent, and the overthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Jewes layd waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

1 And Paul behelde earnestly the Countsell, and saide, When and by whom, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntill this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then saide Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Lawe, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Lawe?

4 And they that stood by, saide, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I know not, by whom, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speake euill of the Ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were of the Sadduces, & the other of the Pharisees, he cried in the Councill, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the sonne of a Pharisee: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had saide this, there was a dissension betwene the Pharisees and the Sadduces, so that a multitude was diuided.

8 For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.

9 Then there was a great crye: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose vp, & stood, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit of an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing least Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of the, commaunded the soldiers to go downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jewes made an assemblie, and bound themselves with an oath, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fouerty, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes & Elders, and said, We haue bounde our selves with a soleimn othe, that we will eate nothing, vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye & the Councill signifye to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to me: for we, as though we would knowe some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or euery he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters & some heard this, because they meane to defende their wicked practices.

a Paul doeth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpon him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Lawe, doeth transgresse it. b He made this excuse as it were in mockerie, as he would say, I know nothing in this man worthy the office of the hie Priest. Exod. 22. 28. Phil. 2. 35. c He denieth not that there were other points, but he expresseth that, for which the Sadduces that were the chiefe gouernours, hated him most. Matt. 23. 31. d Vnderstanding both kindes, Angels, and the spirits, which he concluded vnder one, and the resurrection which is the other part. e The word signifyeth cursing, as when a man either sweareth vowe, or wisheth himselfe to die, or to be giuen to the devil, except he bring his purpose to passe.

f This declareth that God hath so many meanes to deliuer his children out of danger, as there are creatures in this world, so that the aduersaries cannot confound him only against the wicked practices.

of their laying await, he wote, and eured into the castle, and tolde Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayde, Bying this pong man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to saye vnto thee.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and sayde, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and played me to bying this pong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to saye vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to saye me?

20 And he sayd, The Jewes haue conspired to desire thee, & thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morow into the Councell, as though they would inquire somewhat of him in thy perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for these lie in waite for him of their more then foure men, which haue bounde themselves with an othe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and nowe are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the pong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had thewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and housemen three score and ten, and two hundred with darts, at the third houre of the night,

24 And let them make ready an horse that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an epistle in this maner:

26 Claudius Epulas, vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Jewes, and shoulde haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garden, and rescued him, perceiving that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their counsell.

29 There I perceived that he was accused of questions of their lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bondes.

30 And when it was thewed me, how that the Jewes laide wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commaunded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commaunded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatrie.

32 And the next day, they left the housemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the epistle to the Gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, he asked of what province he was: and when he vnderstande that he was of Cilicia,

35 I will heare thee, sayde he, when thine accusers also are come, and commaunded him to be kept in Herodes iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix greiveth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 And after leaue him in prison.

1 And after five dayes, Ananias the high priest came downe with elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Oratour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing & put the Egyptian that we haue obtained great quietnesse from thee, and many worthy things which raised vp are done vnto this nation through thy piouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankes, him: otherwise

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I he was both cruciate thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of el & conioy, thy courtesie a fewe wordes.

5 Certainly we haue founde this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Jewes throughout the world, and a chief maintainer of the sect of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the temple: therefore we tooke him, & would haue iudged him according to our lawe:

7 But the chief captaine Iulus came vnto vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our handes,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whome thou must (if thou wilt and inquire) knowe all these things wherof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckened vnto him that he shoulde speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, for as much as I knowe that thou hast bene of many yerres a iudge vnto this nation,

11 Seeing that thou knowest knote, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vnto worship in Jerusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither king vponare among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the cite.

13 Neither can they proue the things, wherof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call heresie) so worship I the God of my fathers, believing but the lawe things which are wrytten in the lawe and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they thinke I haue, shall be both of iust wonne the simple brethren, & of sinners mouthes.

16 And herein I endeavour my selfe to haue as the Scribes and Pharises termed the Christians.

1 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jewes.

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefore, I beseech thee, to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, knowe all the Jewes.

5 Which knowe me heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straite sect of our religion I liued a Pharisee.

6 And now I stande and am accused for the hope of the promys made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrary things against the name of Iesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saintes I shut vp in prison, hauing receined authoritie of the high Priestes, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blasphemie, and being more made against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the high Priestes,

13 At midday, O king, I saue in the way a light from heauen, passing the bright-nesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, O Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to hitte against prickes.

15 Then I said, Who art thou, lord? And he said, I am Iesus whome thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand by on thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee.

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenes to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, king Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision.

20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught me in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Nevertheless, I obtained help of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophetes and Moses did say should come.

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, & that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus said with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he saide, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truth and sobernelle.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O king Agrippa, belonest thou the Prophetes? I know that thou belonest.

28 Then Agrippa saide vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose vp, and the gouernour, & Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betwene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death,

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage and his companie towards Rome. 44 How and where they arrive.

NOWE when it was concluded, that we should saile vnto Italie, they desired both Paul, and certaine of ther prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 Cor. 11. 35.

2 And we entered into a shippe of Adias imperium purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Thracia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, and sailed hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrarie.

a From Sidon to Myra they should haue sailed North, and by West: but the windes caused them to saile to Cyprus plaine North: thence to Cilicia North and by East, and so to Pamphylia and Myra plaine West.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Spheia, a cite in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, saailing vnto Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Cnidium, because the winde sucked vs not, we sailed hard by Candie, nere to Salmour.

8 And with much a doe sailed beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the faire hauens, nere vnto the which was the cite Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sailing was nowe iopardous, because also the fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And said vnto them, Syris, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Wherefore the Centurion desired rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the haueen was not comonious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Iherusalem: there to winter, which is an haueen of Candie, and lieth toward the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, & sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a storme winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her goe, and were caried away.

16 And we ranne vnder a little Ile named Claudia, and had much adoe to get the boat.

17 Which they took by and used al daye, undergirding the ship, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtes, & they let downe the vessel, and so were caried.

18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the thirde day we cast out with our owne hands the tacking of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, & no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saved, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and said, Syris, ye should haue hearkened to me, & not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to be of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, save of the ship onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serue.

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou shalt be brought before Cesar: and loe, I haue given thee this charge. So that all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Nowbeit, we must be cast into a cer- taine Island.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure anchors out of the stern, & wished that the day were come.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flux out of the ship, & had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, I cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue taried, and continued fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegarde: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 Nowe we were in the ship in all thir- ty dayes.

g That ye should haue used the losse by avoiding the danger. h They could not then reprove him of rashnesse, seeing that this was the con- science of God. i The grace of blessings, which God giveth to his childre, pro- fite many times the enemies, which are wor- thie to re- ceive the fruit thereof. i Faiths good- deed vpon the worde of God. k This sea in Strabos time was taken for all that part, which was about the mountaines, called Ceranum, & so descendeth into the sea from Dalmatia, and goeth vp to Venice. l Paul would vnto such meanes as God had ordeined, least he should seeme to haue tempted him. m He meant an extraordinary abstinence, which came of the feare of death, and so tooke away their appetite. n By this Hebrew phrase is meant that they should be in all points safe and sound. 1 Sam. 14. 45. 1 King. 1. 54. gummy, March 10-12.

humbly, thise scole and sterner soules, 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the countrey, but they spied a certaine craeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust
in the ship.

40 So when they had take vp the anchors, they committed the ship vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bandes, and hoped vp the maine saile to the winde, and dyeto to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas met, they thrust in the ship: and the fore part stucke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 Then the souldiers counsel was to kill the prisoners, least any of them, when hee
had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But a Centurion willing to saue Paul,
staid them from this counsell, and commanded that they that coude swimme,
should cast themselves first into the sea,
and goe out to land:

44 And the other, some on boardes, and some on certaine pieces of the ship: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul with his companie are gently intreated of the Barbarous people. 2 The viper hurteth him not.
3 Hee healeth Pauls father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessary, hee sailed toward Rome. 15 Where being received of the brethren, hee declareth his busines. 30 And there pre-acheth two yeres.

1 And when they were come safe, then they knewe that the Ile was called Melita.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kindnesse: for they kindled a fire, and re-stayed vs every one, because of the yrefull shoure, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of sticks, and laide them on the fire,
there came a viper out of the beate, and
lept on his hand.

4 Nowe when the Barbarians sawe the woorme hang on his hand, they sayde asmong themselves, This man surely is a murderer, whom, though he hath elee-sed the sea, yet vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But he shooke off the woorme into the fire,
and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when hee should hane swollen, or fallen downe dead in-dently: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, they changed their iudges, and sayd, That he was a God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, & lodged vs three daies courteously.

8 And so it was, the father of Publius

lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloody stir-to whom Paul entered in, and when hee prayed, he laide his handes on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the ple, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laden vs with things necessary.

11 I Now after thre moneths we depars-ed in a shippe of Alexandria, which had wintered in the ple, whose badge was Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we arrived at Syracuse, we taried there thre daies.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, and we came the les-cond day to Thurio.

14 Where we found brethren, and were desirous to tarry with them few daies, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the sharke of Appius, and at the Thiertauerne, whome when Paul sawe, hee thanked God, and wared bolde.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Cen-turion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he sayd vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner Paul had com-
from Ierusalem into the handes of the Romans.

18 Who whif they had examined me, would hane let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary,
I was constrained to appeale vnto Cessar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you, and to speake with you:
for the hope of Israel sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they sayde vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed vs speake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we the world knowe that euery where it is spoken as gainst.

23 And when they had appoynted him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whome he expounded and testified the kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the Lawe of Moses, and out of the Propheies, from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things, which were spoken, and some be-lieued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfil the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindfull of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans saluation should only stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust only through faith, & yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to the intent, that none should thinke that the covenant which God made to him, and his posteritie was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seede) or else beleued not he was the true redeemer, because he did not only, or at least more notably preferre the Iewes, the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers & Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promises. The cause whereof is the only wil of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust indgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beate downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the natural posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to many eyes: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, & so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground worke of faith and doctrine laid, instructions of Christian manners folowe: teaching every man to walke in roundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting off the olde man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weakes, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren exhorteth them to vniue, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

Nowe my brethren, I woulde that ye should not be ignorant, how that I haue often times purposed to come vnto you (but haue bin<sup>er</sup> let hitherto) that I might haue some fruite also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14

I am desirous both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men and vnto the vniuers.

15

The eys as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16

For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God vnto saluation to euery one that belieueth, to the Jewe first, and also to the Gentian.

17

For by it is the righteousness of God is reuelled, from faith to faith: as it is written, The iust shall liue by faith.

18

For the wrath of God is reuelled from heauen against all vngodlinesse, and vnrigh-tousnesse of men, which withhold the truth in vnrightheousnesse.

19

For as much as that, which may be knowne of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20

For the inuible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the worlde, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21

Because that when they knewe God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vaine in their imaginatiōs, and their foolish heart was full of darkenesse.

22

When they professed them selues to be wise, they became fooles.

23

For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping thinges.

24

Wherefore also God gave them vp to their heauie lustes, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies betwene them selues:

25

Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

26

For this cause God gave them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse vnto which is against nature.

27

And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and received in them selues such recompence of their error, as was merite.

28

For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a reprobate minde, to doe those thinges which are not comenient,

29

Being full of all vnrightheousnes, fornication, wickednes, couetousnes, malice, enuies, full of enuie, of murder, of debate, of deceit, taking all thinges in the euill part, whilst they

Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proude, boasters, inuencers of euill thinges, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, cōsummate breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, merciless.

Which men, though they knewe the Lawe of God, howe they which commit such thinges, are worthy of death, yet they not onely doe the same, but also fauour them that doe them.

ing Abraham the father of beleeuers hath nothing to glorie of before God, and therefore all mens workes shall condemne them, and they onely shall be saved, which apprehende Iesus Christ by faith to be their onely iustice and sanctification.

CHAP. III.

f By the Grecian he vnderstandeth y Gentile, and euery one that is not a Jewe.

2. Cor. 3. 2. 5.

m The ende of circumcision was the keeping of the Law, and the Sacrament separated from his end, is of none effect.

Or, condemn n When the Lawe is called the letter, or that it prouoketh death in vs, or that it killeth, or is the minister of death, or that it is the strength of sinne, it is meant as wee consider the Lawe of it selfe without Christe.

Col. 2. 11. o In the inward man and heart.

the Jewe first, and also of the Grecian. 10 But to euery man that doeth good, shall be glorie, and honour, and peace, to the Jewe first, and also to the Grecian.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Lawe, shall perill also without the Lawe: and as many as haue sinned in the Lawe, shall be iudged by the Lawe.

13 For the hearers of the Lawe are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Lawe shall be iustified.

14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Lawe, doe by nature the things contained in the Law, they haue not the Law, are a Law unto them selves.

15 Which shew the effect of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing.)

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the Law, and gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And persuadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse,

20 An instructor of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not scale, dost thou scale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idoles, comittest thou sacrifice?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking y Law dishonourest thou God:

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision hereby is profitable, if thou do the Lawe: but if thou be a transgressor of the Lawe, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Lawe) iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Lawe?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outward: neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jewe which is one within, and the circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

2 Having granted some prerogative to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 He proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24 And to bee iustified by grace through faith, and not by works, 31 And so the Lawe to be established.

What is then the preferment of the Jewe? of what is y profite of circumcision?

2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what, though some did not beleue? shall their vbeliefe make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and euery man a liar, as it is written, That thou mightest be iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome, when thou art iudged.

5 Now if our vnrightheousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? As God vnrightheous which punisheth? (I speake as a man)

6 God forbid: eis how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the veritie of God hath moze as bounded through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blam'd, and as some also finne that we say) why doe we not enill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is null.

9 What then? are we moze excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are vnder sinne,

10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that understandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnpitchable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throte is an open sepulchre: they haue used their tongues to deceit: the popoll of alpes is vnder their lips.

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes.

17 And the way of peace they haue not known.

18 The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Nowe we knowe that whatsoeuer the Lawe saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery mouth may be stopped, & all the world be culpable before God.

20 Therefore by the workes of the Lawe & innocent life, shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe cometh the knowledge of sinne.

g The Lawe doth not make vs guiltie, but doth declare that we are guiltie before God, and deserue condemnation. Galat. 3. 10. h He meaneth the Law, either written or vwritten, which commaundeth or forbiddeth any thing, whose works can not iustifie because we can not performe them.

21 But now to the * righteousness of God made manifest without the Law, having witness of the Law & of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Jesus Christ, unto all, and upon all that beleue.
23 For there is no difference: for all have sinned, and are * depprived of the glory of God.
24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a redemption through faith in his blood, to declare his * righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God.
26 To shew at this time his righteousness, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Jesus.
27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of works? Nay: but by the Law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.
29 God, is he the God of the Jewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, even of the Gentiles also.
30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision * of faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Doe we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea * we establish the Law.
The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is made effectual to vs by Christ Iesus.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gift, given by them themselves, of whom the Law is most boasted, as of Abraham and of David, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

What shall we say then, that Abraham hath found * concerning the flesh?

For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath wherein to * reioyce, but not with God.

For what saith the Scripture? * Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

Now to him that * worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dette:

But to him that * worketh not, but beleueth in him that * iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Even as David declareth the blessednes of the man, vnto whome God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying, * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.

Blessed is the man, to whome the Loyde imputeth not sinne.

Came this blessednes then vpon the * circumcision only, or vpon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness,

10 Yowse was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was uncircumcised.

* After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when hee was uncircumcised, that he shoulde be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

And the father of circumcision, not vnto them only which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the * steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was uncircumcised.

For the promises that he shoulde be the father of the world, was not given to Abraham, or to his seede, through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

For if they which are of the Law, be * heires, faith is made voyde, & the promise is made of none effect.

For the Law causeth * wrath: for where no Law is, there is no * transgression.

Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to * all the seede, not to that onely which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all.

* As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations: euen * before God whom he beleued, who quickeneth the * dead, & calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

Which Abraham about hope, beleued vnder hope, that he shoulde be the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy seede be.

And he * not wreake in the faith, considered not his owne bodie, which was now dead, being almost an hundred years olde, neither * the deadnes of Sarah his wombe.

Nevertheless hee doubteth of the promises of God through unbelieve, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue * glory to God,

Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

Nowe it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousness,

But also * for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raptusd by Jesus our Loyde from the dead.

Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and * is risen againe for our iustification.

CHAP. V.

He declareth the fruite of faith, 7 And by comparison setteth forth the love of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and grounds of the same.

Gen. 17. 11.

This may not be vnderstand of the fruites of faith (for thereof * Apostle doth here after expressly intreat) but of the faith it selfe.

In fulfilling the workes thereof.

And thinke to same by workes.

If it be requisite to fulfill the law for him that shall be of Abraham's inheritance,

then it is in vaine to beleue the promises: for it serueth to no vfe.

1 Through our default, and not of it selfe.

That is, no breach of commandment.

Which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all.

Gen. 17. 4.

By a spiritual kinred which God chiefly accepteth.

Abraham begate the circumcision, euen by the vertue of faith, & not by the power of nature which was extinguished: so the Gentiles which were nothing, are called by the power of God to be of the number of the faithfull.

Gen. 15. 5.

But most strong and constant.

In that she was past childbearing.

For his mercie and truth.

For our instruction: for we shall be iustified by the same means.

U To accomplish & make perfect our iustification,

Then bring iustified by faith, we haue peace toward God though our Loyd Iesus Christ.

2 * As when also we haue access through faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.

3 Neither do we so onely, but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience, And patience experience, and experience hope,

4 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our heartes by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

5 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at his time, dyed for the vns godly.

6 Doubtes one will scarce die for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dare die.

7 But God setteth out his lone toward vs, saving that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

8 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

9 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

10 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom we haue now received the atonement.

11 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entered into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: for as much as all men haue sinned.

12 For vnto the time of the Lawe was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Lawe.

13 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, enen ouer them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

14 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, & the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

15 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

16 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receive the abundance of grace, and of the gift of the righteousness, reigne in life through one that is, Iesus Christ.

17 Likewise then as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefice abounded toward all vnto the iustification of life.

18 The iustice of Iesus Christ which is imputed to the faithfull.

19 Which beleeue to be saved in Iesus Christ.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Wherefore the Lawe entered thereupon that the offence should abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seek to subdue it to the Spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and ends of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is signified with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, as setting before men eyes the reward of sinne and righteousness.

1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we, that are dead to sinne, live yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that * all we which haue been baptized into Iesus Christ, haue here been baptized into his death?

4 * We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, so we also should walke in newnes of life.

5 For if we be grafted with him to the similitude of his death, euen so shall we be to the similitude of his resurrection, man.

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall live also with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dyed no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he dyed, he dyed once to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are dead to sinne, but are alive to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue ye your members as weapons of unrighteousnes vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are alive from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 That he might destroy sinne in our flesh, by the right hande of the Father.

15 We may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs, which is by the participation of Christs death, by whome also being quickened, we liue to God, that is, to righteousness.

16 In that ye are led with the Spirit of God. 1. The minde first ministereth emotions, whereby mans will is enlived: thence burst forth the lusts, by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doth sollicite the minde: therefore he commandeth, at the least that we rule our bodies. 2 Or, instruments, or armours.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

24 And howe
Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmi-
tie of the fleshfull. 23 The dangerous fight betweene the flesh and the Spirit.

1. 7. 13 The use of the Lawe, 6. 24 And howe
Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmi-
tie of the fleshfull. 23 The dangerous fight be-
tweene the flesh and the Spirit.

1 Knowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the Lawe hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman which is in subiec-tion to a man, is bound by the Lawe to the man, while he liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the Lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, she take another man, she shalbe called an adul-teresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Lawe, so that she is not an adul-teresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, even vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe,
had force in our members, to bring forth
fruit vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we should serue in newnesse of Spirit, and not in the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Lawe sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not
knowne it, except the Lawe had sayde,
Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne took an occasion by the commandment, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence: for without the Law
sinne is dead.

9 For I once was alive, without the Lawe: but when the commandment
came, sinne reuiued,
and by the commandment which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

10 For sinne took occasion by the commandment, and deceived me, and there-
by slew me.

11 Wherefore the Lawe is holpe, and the commandment is holpe, and iust, and
good.

12 Was that then which is good, made
death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne,
that it might appeare sinne, wrought
death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by
the commandment.

13 For we knowe that the Lawe is spiritually, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.
14 For I allowe not that which I doe: for what I would, that do I not: but what
I hate, that doe I.

15 If I doerthen that which I would not,
I consent to the Lawe, that it is good.
16 Now then, it is no more I, that do it,
but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

17 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes
to performe that which is good.

18 For I doe not the good thing, which I would, but the euill, which I would not,
that doe I.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto it, wherein we
were holden, that we should serue in
newnesse of Spirit, and not in the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Lawe
sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not
sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not
knowne it, except the Lawe had sayde,
Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne took an occasion by the commandment, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence: for without the Law
sinne is dead.

9 For I once was alive, without the Lawe: but when the commandment
came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I died: and the same commandment which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne took occasion by the commandment, and deceived me, and there-
by slew me.

12 Wherefore the Lawe is holpe, and the commandment is holpe, and iust, and
good.

13 Was that then which is good, made
death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne,
that it might appeare sinne, wrought
death in me by that which is good, that
sinne might be out of measure sinfull by
the commandment.

14 For we knowe that the Lawe is spiri-
tually, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.
15 For I allowe not that which I doe: for
what I would, that do I not: but what
I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doerthen that which I would not,
I consent to the Lawe, that it is good.
17 Now then, it is no more I, that do it,
but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my

to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I would, but the euill, which I would not,
that doe I.

20 Nowe if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Lawe, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Lawe of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I see another Lawe in my members, rebelling against the Lawe
of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the Lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Jesus Christ
our Lord. Then I myselfe in my minde serue the Lawe of God, but in my flesh
the Lawe of sinne.

C. H. A. P. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithfull, and of the fruites of the holy Ghost in them. 3 The weakenesse of the Lawe, and who accomplished it. 4 And wherefore. 5 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be. 6 The fruites of the Spirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the crosse. 28 Of the mutual love betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his foreknowledge.

a Though sinne bein vs, yet it is not imputed vnto vs through Christ Iesus.

b He annexeth the condition, least we should abuse his liberrie.

c The power & authoritie of the Spirit, that is, the grace of regeneration.

d Whose sanctification is made ours.

e Of his strength, e Christ did take flesh, which of nature was subiection to sin, which notwithstanding he sanctified euery in the very instant of his conception, & so did appropriate it vnto him, that he might destroy sinne in it, 2. Cor. 5. 21.

f That which the Lawe requireth.

g The worde comprehendeth all that which is most excellent in man, as will, vnderstanding, reason, wit, &c.

h Of his love.

i The Spirit of regeneration, which abolisheth sinne in our flesh, not all at once, but by degrees: wherefore we must in the meane time call to God through patience.

j But to liue after the spirit.

k So hee nameth the holy Ghost of the effecte, which hee causeth in vs, when hee prophecie vs saluation by the lawe with an impossible condition, who also doeth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christes free adoption, that we consider not God now as a rigorous Lord, but as a most merciful Father. Gal. 4. 5, 6. 1 So that we haue two witnesses, Gods Spirit, and ours, who is certified by the Spirit of God.

NOW then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the Law of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Lawe, in as much as it was weak, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the similitude of sinfull flesh, and for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the righteousnesse of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, saunt the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace.

7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God, neither in deede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, can not please God.

9 Now we are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the bodie is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousness sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, hee that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore my brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the bodie by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also heires, we freely make euen the heires of God, and heires and partakers of the glory with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not worthy of the glory which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the fervent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall be revealed.

20 Because the creature is subiect to vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope.

21 Because the creature also shall be deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For we know that euery creature groaneth with vs also, and travaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the first fruites of the Spirit, euen we doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the redemption of our bodie.

24 For we are saued by hope: but hope is seene, is not hope: for howe can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighes, which can not be expressed.

27 But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: which we hope for: he maketh request for the paines, according to the will of God.

28 Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he knewe before, he predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Whome he whom he predestinate, them also he called, and whome he called, them also he iustified, and whome he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gave him for vs al to death, howe shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that sanctifieth his, and hee shall also giue them victory.

34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea of rather, which is risen as hee liued with God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of God in Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, * For thy sake are we pledge thereof.

* killed Psal. 44. 22.

Bethen, mine heartes desire & prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

For I beare them record, that they haue the seale of God, but not according to knowledge.

For they, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the ende of the Lawe for righteousness vnto every one that believeth.

For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Lawe. That the man which doth these things, shall liue thereby.

But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, " Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to say, Christ from above)."

Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to say, Christ againe from the dead)."

But what saith it? " The woide is nere thee, even in thy mouth, & in thine heart. This is the woide of faith which we preach."

For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man belieueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

For the Scripture saith, " Whosoever belieueth in him, shall not be ashamed."

For there is no difference betwene the Jewe & the Grecian: for he that is Lord ouer all, is riche vnto all, that call on him.

For whosoever shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saved.

But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleued? and howe shall they beleue in him, of whom they haue not heard? & how shall they heare without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, " How beautiful are the feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Elias saith, " Loide, who hath beleued our report?"

Then faith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

But I demaund, haue they not heard? No doubt their sound went out through all the earth, and their woys into the endes of the world.

But I demaund, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses saith, " I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you."

And Elias is bolde, & saith, " I was founde of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me."

And vnto Israel he saith, " All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hande vnto a disobedient, and gaminging people."

CHAP. XI.

God hath his Church although it be not seen to many eyes. The grace shewed to the elect. The judgement of the reprobate. God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, & revealed himselfe to the Gentiles: whom he warneth to humble themselves. The giftes of God without repentance.

The depth of Gods iudgements.

I demaunde then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

God hath not cast away his people which he knowe before. Knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

" Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life?"

But what saith the answer of God to him? " I haue reserved vnto my selfe seven thousande men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal."

Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant though the election of grace.

And if it be of grace, it is no more of woikes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of woikes, it is no more grace: or els were woike no more woike.

What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, & the rest haue bene hardened.

According as it is written, " God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes they should not see, and eares they should not heare vnto this day."

And David saith, " Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompence vnto them."

Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bowe downe their backe alwaies.

I demaunde then, haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to & prouoke them to follow them.

Wherfore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, howe and strength much more shall their abundance be?

For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in so much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,

In that the Gentiles haue the knowledge of the Gospel.

Then seeing all the world knowe God by his creatures, the Iewes could not be ignorant, and so finished of malice.

14 To trie if by any meanes I might wro-ke them of my flesh to followe them,
and might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the reconciling be, but a life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruites be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the roote be holy,
so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde olive tree, wait graft in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatiues of the olive tree.

18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches:
and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest
not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: thoughunbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: be not high minded, but feare.

21 For if God spare not the natural branches, take heed, least he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the bountifullnes, & seueritie of God: towarde them which
haue fallen, seueritie: but towarde thee, bountifullnes, if thou continue in his bountifullnes: or els thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbeliefe, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wilt cut out of the olive tree,
which was wilde by nature, and wast grafted contrary to nature in a right olive tree, how much more shall they be by nature, be grafted in their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this secret (lest ye should be arrogant in your selues) that partly an obstinate is come to Israel, vntill the fullnes of the Gentiles be comen.

26 And so: all Israel shall saue, as it is written, The deliverer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodli-nes from Jacob.

27 And this is my conuention to the, When I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers
sakes.

29 For the giftes and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For euery as ye in time past haue not beloued God, yet haue nowe obtained mercy through their unbeliefe,

31 Euen so nowe haue they not beloued by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercy.

32 For God hath shut vp all in unbeliefe, that he might haue mercy on all.

33 O the deepenes of riches, both of the wisdome, and knowledge of God! howe

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and workes of such as beleue in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengence.

1 Beloeche you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue by your bodies a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruing of God.

2 And facion not your selues like vnto
this world, but be ye changed by the renewing of your minde, that ye may your what is the god will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is gi-uen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand
about which is more to vnderstand,
but that he vnderstande according to sobriety, as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of faith.

4 For as we haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So we bring many are one body in Christ, & euery one, one anothers members.

6 Seeing then that we haue giftes that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether we haue prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the portion of a faith:

7 As an office, let vs waite on the office: of
he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 As he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he one, that we doe
that distributeth, let him do it with simplicitie: he that ruleth, with diligence: our lives that he that sheweth mercie, with cheereful-nesse.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. As we boast not of
hoire that which is euill, and cleaue vnto
to that which is good.

10 Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, goe one before another,

11 Not slothfull to doe seruice: seruent in spirit: seruing the Lord,

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulas-
tion, continuing in prayer,

13 Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saints: giuing your selues to hospitality.

14 Bless them which persecute you: blessed, I say, and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe.

12 So then euerie one of vs shall giue account of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 I know, and am perswaded through the Lorde Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieved for the meate, nowe walkest thou not charitably: *destrope not him with thy meate, for whome Christ died.

16 Cause not point of commoditie to be euil spoken of.

17 For the kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousness, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoener in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then followe those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destrope not the worke of God for meates sake: *all things in deede are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 *It is good neither to eate fleshe, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, wherby thy brother stumblith, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou a faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and whatsoener is not of faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the ouerly meate of God which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 Hee sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

1 WHICH are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification.

3 For Christ also woulde not please himselfe, but as it is written, *The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, sell on me.

4 For whatsoener things are written as foreshime, are written for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Nowe the God of patience and consolation giue you that ye be *like minded one towards another, according to phil. 3.16. & 4.2. Christ Iesus,

6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the glorie of God.

8 Nowe I saie, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercie, as it is written, *For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he saith, *Reioyce, ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, *Praise the Lorde, all ye Gentiles, and laude ye him, all people together.

12 And againe Isaia saith, *There shall be a root of Jesse, and hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Nowe the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of h-

15 Reuerendest brethren, I haue some what boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ towards the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering by of the Gentiles might be acceptable: being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God,

18 For I dare not speake of any thing, which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deede,

19 With the power of signes & wonders, by the power of the spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and rounde about vnto Iuyppium, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I forgot my selfe to preache the Gospel, not where Christ was named, least I should haue built on anothers mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, *To whome hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall understand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene *set to come vnto you.

23 But nowe seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue *bene desirous many yeres agoe to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spayne, I will come to you: for I trust

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saintes which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their detters are they: * for if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spiritual things, their dutie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue * sealed them this * fruit, I will passe by you into Spaine.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and an halfe, he was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to faye into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into dour the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest pointes of Christian religion. Against these evils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearers, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to con corde and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heavenly wisdom of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueyled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens heartes. Therefore this saluacion may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skillfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the ende proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glory, neyther yet howe he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his coming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselves onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreprooued and unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings, before infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine pointes of the Corinthian letter, as touching single life, diuice of marriage, of discord and dissension among the married, of virginite, and seconde marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole service, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weak brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather then he would doe, he would neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfewill was the cause of those great evils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes, not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Ther he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behaviour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords supper, the abuse of the spirituall gifts, which God hath giuen to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuer in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

1 He praiseth the great graces of God shewed towards them, 10 Exhorting them to con corde and humilitie, 19 He beateth downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whom God hath chosen to confunde the wisdom of this world.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your bes

iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of <sup>1</sup> Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Againe this I say, that euerie one of you saith, I am Pauls, and I am <sup>2</sup> Nipollos, and I am Cephas, and I am

Christes.

13 Is Christ denied? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but <sup>3</sup> Crispus, and <sup>4</sup> Gaius, lest any shoulde say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

15 I baptized also the household of Ste-phanas: furthermore know I not, whes-ther I baptized any other.

16 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with <sup>5</sup> wisdom of words, lest the crosse of Christ

should be made of none effect.

17 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnes: but vnto

us, which are saved, it is the <sup>6</sup> power of God.

18 For it is written, <sup>7</sup> I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will cast away

the understanding of the prudent.

19 Where is <sup>8</sup> wisdom? where is <sup>9</sup> science?

Where is the wisdom of this world?

hath not God made the wisdom of this world foolishnes?

20 For seeing the world by wisdom

know not God in the wisdom of God,

it pleased God by the foolishnes of preaching to save them that believe.

21 Seeing also that the Jewes require a signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisdom.

22 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto

the Jewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnes:

23 But vnto them which are called, both of the Jewes and Grecians we preach

Christ, the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

24 For the foolishnes of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

25 For by wisdom, you see your calling, how that not many wise men (after the flesh,

not many mightie, not many noble are called.

26 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confounde the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confounde the mightie

things.

27 And vile things of the world & things

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel. 2 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honorable and manifest to the spiritual.

1 Ad I, brethren, toke I came to you,

came not with excellencie of words,

or of wisdom, shewing vnto you

the <sup>13</sup> testimony of God.

2 For I esteemed not to know any thing

among you, save Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was among you in weakenes,

and in feare, and in much trembling,

4 Neither stood my word, and my preaching in the <sup>14</sup> enticing speech of mans wisdom, but in plaine euident of the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisdom among them that are <sup>15</sup> perit: not the wisdom of this world, neither of the <sup>16</sup> princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But we speake the wisdom of God in a mystery, euen the hid wisdom, which

God had determined before the world, unto our glorie.

8 Which <sup>17</sup> none of the princes of this world hath knowen: for had they known it, they woulde not haue crucified the Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is written, <sup>18</sup> The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither came into mans heart,

are, which God hath prepared for them

that loue him.

10 But God hath reueiled them vnto his

by his Spirit: for the Spirit <sup>19</sup> searcheth

all things, prae, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Nowe we haue <sup>20</sup> receiued not the

which is of God, that wee might words which mans wisdom teacheth,

but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual
things.
14 But the naturall man perceiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he knowe them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 But he that is spiritual, discerneth all things: yet he himselfe is not judged of no
man.
16 For who hath knowen the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? but we have the minde of Christ.
17 That is, Christs Spirit, Iohn 16.13. rom.8.9.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the secte & authors thereof. 7. No man ought to attribute his salvation to the ministers, but to God. 10. That they beware erroneous doctrines. 11. Christ is the foundation of his Church.
12. The dignity and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithful.

And I could not speake unto you,
as unto spiritual men, but as unto carnall, even as unto babes
in Christ.

I gave you milke to drinke, & not meat:
for ye were not yet able to beare it, neither
yet now are ye able.

For ye are yet carnall: for where as there is among you envying, and strife, and dis-ensions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

For when one saith, I am Daniels, & another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

Who is Daniel then? and who is Apollos,
but the ministers by whom ye beleue,
and as the Lord gave to every man?

I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.

So then, neither he that planteth, any thing, neither he that watereth, but God
that giveth the increase.

And he that planteth, & he that watereth,
are one, and every man shall receive his wages, according to his labour.

For we together are Gods labourers:
ye are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

According to the grace of God given to me, as a skillfull master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heed
howe he buildeth upon it.

For other foundation can no man lay,
then that which is laide, which is Jesus Christ.

And if any man builde on this foundation, golde, silver, precious stones, timber,
hay, or stubble,

Every mans worke shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by the fire: and the fire shall try every mans worke of what sort it is.

If any mans worke, that he hath built upon, abide, he shall receive his wages.

If any mans worke burne, he shall lose it, but he shall be saved himselfe, yet
as it were by the fire.

Knowe ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God
dwelleth in you?

If any man destroy the Temple of God,
him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

Let no man deceave himselfe. If any man among you seeme to be wise in this world, let him be a fool, that he may be wise.

For the wisdom of this world is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, We catcheth the wise in their owne crafti-
nesse.

And againe, The Lord knoweth that
the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

Therefore let no man receive in vain:
for all things are yours.

Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, wherther they be things present, or things to come, even all are yours.

And ye Christes, and Christs Churche,

his ministers to his owne glorie, and the comfort of his Church.

CHAP. IIII.

After that he had described the office of a true Apollos, 3. Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4. He appealeth to Gods judgement, 7. Reasoning downe their glory which hindered them to praise that, which they dispraised in him. 16. He sheweth what he requirerth on their parts, & what they ought to looke for of him as his returne.

Let a man so thinke of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers
of the secrets of God.

And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that every man be founde faithfull.

As touching me, I passe very litle to be indged of you, or of mans iudgements:
no, I iudge not mine owne selfe.

For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that indgeth me is the Lord.

Therefore iudge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will light-ten things that are hid in darknesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall every man have praise
of God.

Nowe these things, brethren, I have figuratively applyed unto myne owne selfe and Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne by us, that no man presume above that which is written, that one shall not against another for any mans cause.

For who separateth thee? and what hast
thou, that thou hast not receaved? if thou hast receaved it, why reioicest thou, as though thou haddest not receaved it?

By our example. For to wit, from other men & preferreth thee.

f Seeing S. Paul could binde no mans conscience to single life, what presumption is it, that any other should doe it?

g That is, that he should marrie to auoid fornication.

h Meaning, he that is fully perswaded that he hath no neede.

cation wherin he was called.

21 But thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if per thou maigest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lordes freeman: like wife also he that is called being free, is Christes seruant.

23 Ye are bought with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein hee was called, therein abide with God.

25 Nowe concerning virgins, I haue no commandment of the Lord: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithfull.

26 I suppose then: this to be good for the present: necessarie: I mean that it is good for a man to be.

27 But thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marrie, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such that haue x trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, hereafter that both they which haue wiues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that wiue, as though they wept not: and they that receiue, as though they reioiced not: and they that be, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this world, as though they used it not: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The unmarried careth for the things of the world, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also betwene a virgin and a wife: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commodities, not to cangle you in a snare, but that ye followe that, which is honest, and that ye may cleane fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is his comely for his virginie, if shee passe the flower of her age, and neede so require, let him doe what hee will, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no neede, but hath power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virginie, he doeth well.

38 So then he that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth better.

39 The wife is bound by the Law, as long as her husband liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at libertie to marrie with whom she wil, onely in the Lords name.

40 But she is more blessed, if she so abide, in my iudgement: and I thinke that I haue also the Spirit of God.

modious for his children in preferring them from matrimonic. Rom. 7. 2. 1. Thess. 4. 8.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that vsu their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth howe men ought to behaue them toward such as be weak.

2 As touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that we all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth up, but loue edifieth.

3 Nowe, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

4 But if any man loue God, the same is knowne of him.

5 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that an idole is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

6 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lordes)

7 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

8 But euery man hath not knowledge: as lordes and for some haue conscience of the idole.

9 vntill this houre, ate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weak, is defiled.

10 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue we the more: neither if we eate not, haue we the less.

11 But take heede least by any means this power of yours be an occasiō of falling to them that are weak.

12 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

13 And through this knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died.

14 Nowe when ye sitte so against the brethren, and would their weak conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

15 Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

16 Which eateth against his conscience, or in doubt. Rom. 14. 21.

For the sakes of his children, will dependeth on his children.

CHAP. IX.

1 He exhorteth them by his example to vsf their li-berie to the edification of other. 24 To runne on forth in the course that they haue begun.

1 And I not an Apostle? am I not free?
haue I not sene Iesus Christ our Lord: are ye not my worke in the Loyde?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for ye are the scale of mine Apostleship in the Loyde.

3 App defence to them that examine me,
is this.

4 Haue we not power to eate, and to drinke?

5 We haue we not power to? I leade about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the hierijmen of the Loyde, and Cephas?

6 We I only and Barnabas, haue not we power? not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateh not of the fruite thereof? or who soweth a stocke, and eateh not of the milke of the stocke?

8 Say I these things according to man?
saith not the Lawe the same also?

9 For it is written in the Lawe of Moses, Thou shalt not muffle the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the cogne: doeth
God take care for ore?

10 Either saith he it not altogether for our sakes? for our sakes doubt it is written,
that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that he that thresteth in hope,
should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we haue soken vnto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reape
your carnall things?

12 If others which you be partakers of this power, are not we rather? neuertheles,
we haue not used this power: but suffer
all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe ye not know, that they which minister about the holp things, eate of the things of the Temple: and they which waite at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 So also hath the Loyde ordeined, that they which preache the Gospel, should be line of the Gospel.

15 But I haue used none of these things:
neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make me a tripping baine.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layd vpon me, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a re-warde: but if I doe it against my will,
notwithstand the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet

haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

20 And vnto the Jewes I become as a Jewe, that I may winne the Jewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Lawe:

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Lawe (when I am not without Lawe as pertripping to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Lawe.

22 To the weakke I become as weakke, that I may winne the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with
you.

24 Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the prize: so runne, that ye may obtayne.

25 And every man that pcometh mat-teries, abstaineth from all things: as they do it to obtayne a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateh
the aire.

27 But I beate downe my body, and bring it into subiection, least by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I myselfe should be repproued.

C H A P. X.

He sheweth them with the examples of the Lawe, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God. 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23
And offence of their neighbour.

1 Moreouer, brethren, I woude not

meate,

4 And did all drinke the same spirituall
drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: & the Rocke was Christ.)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were outcathowen in the wilderness.

6 Nowe these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that we should not lust after euill things as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is written, The people sate

a ysaie unto her: for her heart is given her for a covering.

16 Where any man lust to be contentious, we have no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 I shewe in this that I declare, I ysaie you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleue it to be true in some part.

19 For there must be heresies even among you, that they which are appoynted among you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they should eate, takeh his owne supper afoze, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Have ye not houses to eate & to drinke in: despaye ye the Church of God, & shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I ysaie you in this? I ysaie you not.

23 For I haue receined of the Lord that which I also haue deliuered unto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, toke bread:

24 And when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and sayde, Take, eate: this is my bodie, which is for broken for you: this do ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he toke the cuppe, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eate this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shewe the Lordes death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoener shall eate this bread, and drinke the cuppe of the Lord without shuld, shalbe guilty of the bodie and blood of the Lord.

28 Let a man therefore examine him selfe, and so let him eate of this bread, & drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth & drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because he discerneth not the Lordes bodie.

30 For this cause many are weak, & sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selves, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, take one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eate at home, that ye come not together unto condemnation. Other things wil I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersities of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be used in the edifying of Christs Church, 12

As the members of mans bodie serve to the use one of another.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, when I would not haue you ignorant.

1 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away unto the seruitude of idols, as ye were led.

2 Wherefore, I declare unto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Iesus execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

3 Shewe there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

4 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

5 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

6 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to profit withall.

7 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit:

8 And to another is giuen faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another the operations of great wokes: and to another, prophecies: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

10 And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man severally as he will.

11 For as the bodie is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the bodie, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one bodie: such is the Church.

12 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one bodie, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

13 For the bodie also is not one member, but many.

14 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

15 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the rie, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

16 If the whole bodie were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

17 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the bodie at his owne pleasure.

18 For if they were all one member, where were the bodie?

19 But now are there many members, yet but one bodie.

20 And the eye can not say unto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head to the feet, I haue no neede of you.

21 Pea, much rather those members of the bodie, which seeme to be more feeble,

22 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

23 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

24 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

25 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

26 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

27 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

28 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

29 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

30 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

31 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

32 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

33 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

34 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

35 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

36 And therefore whatsoever the diuersity is, yet the profit ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

37 Whole selfe seemeth to be more vile,

are necessarie.

o We are more careful to cover them.

p Every one in his office for the preferation of the body.

q For all Churches dispersed throughout the world are diuers members of one bodie.

Or, carry one for his part.

Eph. 4. 11.

r As Deacons.

s As Elders.

Or, do you the desire of gifts.

a If the Angels had tongues, and I had the vse thereof, and did not bestow them to profite my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babbling.

b Faith is here take for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for that faith (called historically) which beleueth the mightie power of Christ, but can not apprehend Gods mercie through him: and this default haue, 1. am. 1. 19. and therefore is separated from charity, but the faith that iustifieth in effect can not, as 1. Thon. 2. 9. Mat. 17. 20. Luke 17. 6.

c Not that it suffreth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue & humanitie.

d Which may be without offence of Gods worde.

e Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the worlde to come, and not abolished: but the manner of knowing and teaching shall cease, when we shall be before Gods presence, where we shall neither neede scholes nor teachers.

f That is, imperfectly.

Or, teach.

Or, teach.

23 And vpon those members of the bodie, which we thinke most vngodly, put we more honoure on: & our vncomely partes haue more comeliness on.

24 For our comely partes neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacketh.

25 Let there shoulde be any diuision in the body: but the members shoulde haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now we are the body of Christ, & members of his body.

28 And God hath ordained some in the Church: as first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? doe all speake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But I desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

C H A P. XIII.

Because loue is the foundation and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office & praise thereof.

1 Though I speake with the tongues of men and of Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knew all secretes and all knowledge, pea, if I had all faith, so that I could remouie mountains, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I fede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 I loue suffereth long: it is beniuolent: loue enuiceth not: loue doeth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed up:

5 It is not bawdry: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the truth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beareth all things: it endureth all things.

8 I loue doeth neuer fail away, though that prophesies be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge be abolished.

9 For we knowe in part, and we prophesie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall be abolished.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glasse, darkely: but then shall we see face to face. Now we knowe in part: but then shall we knowe euery man as I am knowne.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, and loue, these three: but the chiefest of these is loue.

14 Now abideth the gift of knowledge, the gift of vnderstanding, the gift of counsel, the gift of strength, the gift of knowledge, the gift of vnderstanding, the gift of counsel, the gift of strength.

15 What ed thereby.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the understanding also.

16 This, when thou blest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say Amen, at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verely giuest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in þe Church to speake five wordes with mine understanding, than I might also instruct others, then tenne thousandes wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Wherfore, be not children in understanding, but as concerning maliciousnes be children, but in understanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the lawe it is witten, * O ye men of other tongues, & by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherfore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophesying seruech not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.

23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in deede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by thre, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him selfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake two, or thre, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuelled to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are to be subiect to the Prophets.

33 For the third shoulde read in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly hee commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation. B

* subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 * Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the Lawe saith.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the word of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke him selfe to be a Prophet, or spiritual: let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherfore, brethren, conent to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages, and let all things be done honestly and by order.

40 Abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be reprobud, because there hee brought it in for another purpose. Gen. 3.16.

41 Are ye the first or the last Christians, that ye neither submit your selues to the Churches, of whom ye haue received the Gospel? not haue respect to the others, to whome the Gospel doeth likewise appertain? x To haue vnderstanding of spirituall things. a If any man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the Spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, & trouble not the Church, but credit them that are learned.

1 Moreover, brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also receiued, and wherein ye continue.

2 And wherby ye are saved, if ye keepe in memoire, after what manner I preached it vnto you, except ye haue beleued in vaine.

a Iulianus Angel come. et de. claretus. f. 1. pag.

B. 27. Lakes in conc. de. l. 261. pag.

e Chriffs death is not effectually, except he rise from death.
f For if Christ be swallowed up of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

g As mortification & remission of finnes depend on Christes death, so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.

h You are not forgiven nor sanctified.

i As by the offering of the first fruite the whole fruite is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is raised, all have assurance of the resurrection.

k Who rose first from the dead to take possession in our flesh for vs his members.

m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is said to be subject to God: but in respect of the world, is king of heaven & earth.

n This kingdom standeth in governing & faithful, & overcoming the adversaries, eue death the chiefest.

o That is, as dead, & because they were but newly come to Christ, being perfected, with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellowe heires deliuer his kingdom, and be subiect to God, with whom and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equal.

p We shalbe perfectly fulfilled with his glorie and felicitie.

q Except these things be true of Christes kingdom and his subiection, what shal become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them which is the end of baptism, and so they to rise againe.

I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye believed.

12 I shewe if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are founde also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised up Christ: whom he hath not raised up, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your finnes.

18 And so they which are a shewe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first of fruites of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, eue so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But euery man in his owne order: the first fruites is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his coming shall rise againe.

24 Then shalbe the ende, when he hath delivered us from the kingdom of God, men & Father, when he hath put downe all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne: till he hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him: that God may be all in all.

29 Els what shal they do which are baptized? or for dead? if the dead rise not at Christ being perfected, with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellowe heires deliuer his kingdom, and be subiect to God, with whom and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equal.

30 We shalbe perfectly fulfilled with his glorie and felicitie.

31 That is, as dead, & because they were but newly come to Christ, being perfected, with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellowe heires deliuer his kingdom, and be subiect to God, with whom and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equal.

32 Except these things be true of Christes kingdom and his subiection, what shal become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them which is the end of baptism, and so they to rise againe.

all whye are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are we also in jeopardy every hour?

31 For our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I dye daily.

32 If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantageth it me, if the dead be not raised up? let vs eate and drinke: for the morrow we shall die.

33 We be not deceived: our euill speakings corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to live righteously, & sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of Gods word, I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, We are the dead raised up? and with what body come they forth?

36 A foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body which shall be, but bare corne, as it saith, of wheat, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to euery sowe his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fowles, and another of fishes, and another of euery kind of birds.

40 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, and is raised in power.

44 It is sown a naturall body, and is raised a spirituall body: there is a sower of the naturall body, & there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: & the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 As the first Adam was made of the dust of the earth, the last Adam was made of the Spirit.

47 The first man is of the earth: earthy, the second man is of heaven: heavenly.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthy, so shall we beare the image of the heavenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that flesh and blood can not inherit the kingdom of God, neither doeth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shewe you a secrete thing, We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed, rite of Christ. c When the Lorde commeth to judgement, some of the Saints shalbe alive, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

q I take to witte all my sorowes wherein I may indly reioyce in the Lorde, that I haue suffered them and yet I haue not beene ashamed of them.

r That is, in reioycing regard to this present life, and not to Gods glorie, and to life euertlasting.

s There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but the difference is as touching the qualitie.

t Euen as the more vile to some of the beasts, and another of fowles, and another of fishes, and another of euery kind of birds.

u For what is more vile to some of the beasts, and another of fowles, and another of fishes, and another of euery kind of birds.

v There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but the difference is as touching the qualitie.

w As the first Adam was made of the dust of the earth, the last Adam was made of the Spirit.

x As the first Adam was made of the dust of the earth, the last Adam was made of the Spirit.

y As the first Adam was made of the dust of the earth, the last Adam was made of the Spirit.

z This is attributed to Christ because he is the firstfruits of them that are raised up.

a Both in substance & forme we are earthly.

b This naturall body as it is now is, till it be made newe by the Spirit.

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall blowe, and the dead shall be raised by incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortall must put on immortalitye.
54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitye, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, "Death is swallowed vp into victorie."
55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victorie?
56 The sting of death is sinne: and the strength of sinne is the lawe.
57 But thanks be vnto God, which hath giuen vs victorie through our Lord Iesus Christ.
58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, vnmoueable, abiding alwayes in the worke of the Lord, for as much as ye knowe that your labour is not in vaine in the Lord.
e The hope of resurrection causeth the faithful to surmount all difficulties.

you, if the Lord permit.
8 And I will tarie at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.
9 For a great doore and effectuall is opened vnto me: but there are many aduersaries.
10 I hope if Timotheus come, see that he be without feare with you: for he maye mocketh the wayke of the Lord, euen as I doe.
11 Let no man therefore despise him: but comey him forth in peace, that he maye come vnto me: for I looke for him with the brethren.
12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him, to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue convenient time.
13 I watche ye: stande fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.
14 Let all your things be done in loue.
15 Nowe, brethren, I beseeche you (ye knowe the house of Stephanas, that it is the first frutes of Achaia, and that they haue giuen them selues to minister vnto the Saints)
16 That ye be obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs in labour.
17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue supplied the want of you.
18 For they haue comforted my spirit, and poured: acknowledge therefore such men.
19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila & Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.
20 All the brethren grete you. Grete ye one another with an holy kiss.
21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.
22 If any man loue not the Lord Iesus Christ, let him be had in excommunication, yea excommunicate to death.
23 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you.
24 My loue be with you all in Christ Iesus, Amen.

The first Epistle to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, and sent by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

As nothing can be written, eyther so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profite all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbernesse, and contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish his worke which he had begon among them. First therefore he withereth them them well in the Lord, declaring that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessarie scholings, & sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfecton, least contrary to his fatherly affection, he shoulde haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasses, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnes of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrow which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought only to fill their bellies, whereas he contrarywise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his coming he menaceth such as rebel against his authoritie, that he wil declare by liuely example, that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnes, that he deferred his coming contrary to his promises, he prometh his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the inuincible truth of the Gospel. 21 Which truth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

all. Michai: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is steadfast concerning you, in as much as we knowe that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, we woulde not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, howe we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because we should not trust in our selues, but in God, which rapreth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death.

h So many dangers of death.

death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs.

11 So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon us for many, thanks may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly purenesse, and not in fleshy wisdom, but by the grace of God we haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwarde.

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then that ye reade, or else that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowlege vnto the ende.

14 Euen as ye haue acknowledged by partly, that we are pour = reioycing, dwelling euen as ye are = ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth towarde Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, bid I vse lightnes: or minde I those things which I minde, according to the flesh, that with me should be, yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 Yea, God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not yea, and nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not yea, and nay: but in so to performe, him it was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are firme one thing, yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs by signs of inconuincible power in Christ, and hath anointed vs, and sealed vs, and hath giuen the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

the trueth. f He preached nothing vnto them but only Iesus Christ, who is the most constant and infallible trueth of the Father. t They are made and performed, and we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in he hath fulfilled them for vs. Ephe. 1. 13. and 4. 30. Ephe. 1. 14. chap. 5. 5.

13 Now, I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as pet vnto you thus.
14 Not that we have dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your hope: for by faith ye stand.
15 And I am Gods minister to comfort and comfort you. 2 And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his love toward them. 7 Requiring like-ness that they would be favourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reu-ereth in God for the efficacy of his doctrine, 17 Can-sailing thereby such quarrel pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the overthrow of his doctrine.

1 But I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is hee then that should make me glad, but the same which is made: for by me?

3 And I wrote this same thing vnto you, least when I came, I should take heauinesse of them, of wch I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you in many teares: not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might perceiue the love which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any hath caused sorrow, the same hath not made me sorry, but partly (least I should) more charge him you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contractiue ye ought rather to forgive him, & comfort him, lest the same should be swallowed up with ouer-much heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would confine your love towardes him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the proofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

10 To whome ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verely if I forgive any thing, to whome I forgive it, for your sakes forgive I it in the sight of Christ.

11 Lest Satan should circumvent us: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christes Gospel, & a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I founde not Titus my brother, but tooke my leave of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God which alwaies maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in every place.

15 For we are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which perish.

16 To the one we are the sauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the sauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which make merchandise of the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God in the sight of God speake we in Christ.

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing, as of our felices: but our sufficiency is of God.

9 For if the ministration of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousness excede in glorie.

the Roy, to persuade men: & we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we praise not our selves againe unto you, but give you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that we may haue to answer against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be out of our wit, we are it to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it unto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were all dead.

15 And he dyed for all, that they which liue, should not henceforth liue unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth knowe we no man after the flesh, & though we had knowne Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth we know him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a new creature. All things are passed away: behold, all things are become newe.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs unto himselfe by Jesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Nowe then are we ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseeche you through vs, we pray you in Christs steade, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that we should be made the righteousness of God in him.

17 And to beare him like affliction, as hee doeth them: 14 Also to keepe themselves from all pollution of idolatrie both in bodie, and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

18 And we therefore as workers together beseeche you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

19 For he saith, * I haue hearde thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: behold now the accepted time, behold now the day of saluation.

20 We giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministerie shoulde not be reprehended.

4 But in all things we appoyne our selves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 In watchings, in fastings, in puritie, in knowledg, by long suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by loue vnfained.

7 In the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 In honour, and dishonour, by euill report and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As unknowne, and yet knowne: as bying, and beholding, we liue: as chastend, and yet not killed:

10 As following, and yet alway reioicing: as poore, & yet making many rich: as hauing nothing, & yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 We are not kept strait in vs, but we are kept strait in your owne bowels.

13 Nowe for the same recompence, I speake as to my children, I we you also enlarged,

14 We not vnequally poked with the indels: for what fellowshipp hath righteousnesse with vnrightheousnesse: and what communion hath light with them.

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial: or what part hath the beleuer with the midst?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idoles: for ye are the Temple of the living God: as God hath saide, * I will dwell among them, and walke there: and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selves, saith the Lord: and touche none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 And I will be a Father vnto you, and ye shall be my sonnes and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

2 Receive us: we haue done wrong to no man: we haue consumed no man: we haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation:
for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.

4 I use great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side, fightings without, and terrors within.

6 But God, that comforteth all afflictions, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted of you, when he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruour minde to me, so that I reioyce credibly much more.

8 For though I made you ioyful with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent:
for I perceive that the same epistle made you ioyful, though it were but for a season.

9 I note reioyce, not that ye were ioyful,
but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye sorrowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 For godly sorrow causeth repentance unto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorrow causeth death.

11 For behold, this thing that ye haue done: godly ioyful, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea,
what feare: yea, what great desire: yea,
what a zeale: yea, what punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues,
that ye are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you,
I did not it for his cause that had done
the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare
vnto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather we reioyce-d much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed:
but as I haue spoke vnto you all things
in truth, even so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you: when he remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued
him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 And Christ,
he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore
Saintes, commending their good beginning. 23
After he commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto
you.

WE doe you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon
the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great trial of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertrie abounded vnto their rich li-beralitie.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea,
and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And I praye you with great instance that ye would receive the grace, and fellowship of the ministering which is toward the Saintes.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for:
but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, & after vnto vs by the will of God.

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begonne, so he would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing,
in faith and word, and knowledge, & in all diligence, and in your loue toward vs, even so see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore I praye I the naturalitie of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertrie might be made rich.

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to will, a perfect age.

11 Nowe therefore performe to do it also,
that as there was a readinesse to will,
so ye may performe it of which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to what a man hath,
and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be called and you grieved.

14 But vpon like condition, at this time
your abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitie:

15 As it is written, * Ye that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care
for you.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne
accede he went vnto you.

18 And we haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospell
throughout all the Churches.

19 And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iours-ney concerning this grace that is ministered by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord,
and declaration of your prouident minde.

20 Nothing this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministered by vs,

21 * Winding for honest things, not only before the Lord, but also before men.

a This benefice of God appeared in two things: first, that the Macedoni-
ans being in so great afflictions
were so prompt
to helpe others
and next that being in great pouertrie, were yet liberal toward others.

b So that a most abundant measure
of riches flowed
out of their po-uertrie.

c So he calleth
their liberalitie,
euer because they were the benefactors of Gods graces, because they re-ceiued them of God freely, and
so they desired

CHAP. IX.

1 The cause of Titus and his companions standing to them. 6 He exhorteth to give alms cheerfully. 7
Shewing what fruits will come thereof.

1 As touching the ministering to the poor, it is superfluous for me to write unto you.

2 For I knowe your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast me self of you before them of Macedonia; and say, that Achaea was prepared a peece ago, and your zeale hath provoked a ramp.

3 Nowe have I sent the brethren, lest our rejoicing over you should be in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I have said) be readye.

4 Least if they of Macedonia come with me, & finde you unprepared, we (I neede not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to remune you by letters to come before unto you,
and to finish your benevolence appropriated afore, that it might be ready, and come
as of benevolence, and not as of sparing.
This perememner, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape
also liberally.

6 As every man withholdeth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly, of necessity:
For God longeth a chearfull giver.

7 And God is able to make all grace to as-bound toward you, that ye alwayes having, all sufficiency in all things, may as-bound in every good worke.

8 As it is written, He hath sparied as byd, and hath giveth to the poore: his benevolence remaineth for ever.

9 Also he that seedeth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for food, and multiplye your seede, & increase the fruites
of your benevolence.

10 That on all partes ye may be made rich unto all liberality, which causeth through us thanksgiving unto God:

11 For the ministracion of this service not only supplieth necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiving of many unto God:

12 (Which by the experiment of this mi-nistracion praise God for your voluntarie submissiō to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men)

13 And by their prayer for you, desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.

14 Thanks therefore be unto God for his unspreakable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authority, exhorting them to obedience. 11 And sheweth what his power is. 13 And how he useth it.

1 Nowe I want not selfe defence the you by the meeknesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which whil I am present among you, am a base, but am bolde to ward you being absent:

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, whereunto I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme us as though we walked according to the flesh.

3 Nevertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet we have not warre after the flesh, (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mighty through God, to cast downe holdes)

4 Casting downe the imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivitie every thought to the obedience of Christ.

5 And having readie the vengeance as gainst all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

6 Look ye on things after an appearance:
If any man trust in him selfe that he is Christ, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christ, even so are we Christes.

7 For though I shoulde boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Loyde hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I shoulde have no shame.

8 This I say that I may not seeme as it were to keare you with letters.

9 For the letters, sayeth he, are force and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is of no value.

10 Let such one thinke this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deede, when we are present.

11 For we dare not make our selves of the number, or to compare our selves to them,
which praise themselves: but they understand not that they measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.

12 But we will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed unto us a measure to attaine even unto you.

13 For we stretch not our selves beyonde our measure, as though we had not attained unto you: for even to you also have we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

14 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you as saying to our line abundantly,

These wordes
his backbiters
vied, thinking
thereby to diminish his authori-
tie, as verie so.
As though
we boasted of our felices by a carnal affection.

Meaning, a certaine man among them,
which thus spoke of Paul.

He that mea-
sureth any thing
must have some line or measure
to mete by, and not to measure
a thing by it selfe
so these boasters
must measure
them selves by their worchie
actes: and if they will compare
with others, let them shew what countreys, what cities, & people
they have wonne
to the Lord: for who will praise
that soldier,
which only ar-
rable can finely talke of the warres, & when he cometh to
the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert?

f God gaue the whole world to the Apoſtles to preach in, ſo that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countrey where he preached.

16 And to preach the Goſpel in thoſe regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

a He declarerth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his miniſterie. 9 And his diligence in the ſame. 13 The ſetters of the falſe apoſtles. 16 The powerfull judgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne praiſe.

1 Would to God, ye could ſuffer a little my fooliſhnes, and in deede, be ſuffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielouſie: for I have prepared you for one husband, to preſent you as a pure virgin to Chriſt:

3 But I feare leaſt as the ſerpent beguiled Eve through his ſubtiltie, ſo your mindes ſhould be corrupted from the ſimplicity that is in Chriſt.

4 For if hee that cometh, preacheth another Jeſus then him whoſe we haue preached: or if he receiue another Spirit then that which ye haue receiued: either another Goſpel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might wel haue ſuffered him.

5 Whereby I ſuppoſe that I was not inferior to the deere chiefe Apoſtles.

6 And though I be ſo rude in ſpeaking, yet I am not ſo in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifeſt to y<sup>e</sup> know, in all things.

7 I have committed an offence, becauſe I abaſed my ſelfe, that ye might be exalted, and becauſe I preached to you the Goſpel of God free.

8 I robbed other Churches, & tooke wages of them to doe you ſeruite.

9 And when I was preſent with you, and had neede, I was not ſhord of the ſubſtance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia ſupplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my ſelfe, that I ſhould not be grieuous to you.

10 The trueth of Chriſt is in me, that this reioycing ſhall not be ſhut vp againſt me in the regions of Achia.

11 Wherefore? becauſe I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occaſion from them which deſire occaſion, that they might be ſoume like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

i Hee did not onely labour with his handes for his living, but in his extreme povertie preached diligently, without burdening any mā, or els waxing ſlouthful to do his due tie to every man. Chap. 12. 13. 1 Cor. 10. 34. k Let not the trueth of Chriſt be thought to be in me, if I ſuffer my ioye to be ſhut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia. l To ſlauder my miniſterie, if I ſhould receive wages.

13 For ſuch falſe = apoſtles are deceitfull workers, and tranſfigure themſelves into the Apoſtles of Chriſt.

14 And now married: for when hee is tranſfigured into an Angell of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his miniſters tranſfigure them ſelves, as though they were the miniſters of righteouſneſſe, whoſe ende ſhall be according to their worke.

16 I ſay againe, let no man thinke, that I am fooliſh: or els take me even as a fool.

17 That I ſpeake, I ſpeake it not after the Lord: but as it were fooliſhly, in this my great beaſting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the fleſh, I will reioyce alſo.

19 For ye ſuffer ſoules gladly, becauſe that ye are wiſe.

20 For ye ſuffer even if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himſelfe, if a man ſmite you on the face.

21 I ſpeake as concerning the reſpoche, as though that we had bene ſeuerall: but wherein any man is bolde (I ſpeake fooliſhly) I am bolde alſo.

22 They are Chieties, ſo am I: they are Iſtales, ſo am I: they are the factes of Abraham, ſo am I.

23 They are the ſpiritues of Chriſt, (I ſpeake as a fool) I am more: in labours more abundant: in ſtripes above meaſure: in perils more plentifully: in death oft.

24 Of the Iewes: ſix times received I ſcourges ſtripes: ſame one.

25 I was ſtill beaten with roddes: I was once ſtoned: I ſuffered ſhips worke: night and day I bene in the deepe ſea.

26 In ſourmepping I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the cite, in perils in wilderneſſe, in perils in the ſea, in perils among falſe brethren,

27 In wearineſſe and painefullneſſe, in watching often, in hunger & thirſt, in faſting often, in cold and in nakedneſſe.

28 Beſide the things which are outward, I am troubled daily, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak: who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I muſt needs reioyce, I will reioyce of mine = infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which is bleſſed for euer more, knoweth that I ſay not.

32 In = wantonneſſe the gouernour of the people under King Aretas, layed watch in the cite of the Damascus, and would haue caught me.

33 But at a window was I let downe in a baſket through the wall, and eſcaped his handes.

CHAP. XII.

He reioyceth in his preſentment. 5. 7 But this is in his humilitie. 11 And layeth the cauſe of his his boasting upon the Corinthians. 24 He sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And promiseth to come unto them.

1 It is not expedient for me no doubt to reioyce: for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I know a man in Christ above foure-tyene yeres ago, (whether he were in the body, I can not tell, or out of the body, I can not tell: God knoweth) which was taken up into the third heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I can not tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken up into Paradise, and heare: wordes which can not be spoken, which are not possible for man to utter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a fool: for I will say the truth, but I reframe, least any man should thinke of me above that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted out of measure through the abundance of revelations, there was given unto me a picke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord: that I might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenesse. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferior unto the very chief Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great woekes.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferior unto other Churches, except that I haue not bene sothfull to your hinderance: forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the thirde time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be sothfull to your hinderance: for I like not pouce, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, & will be bestoweth for you: soules: though the more I love you, the less I am loved.

16 But be it that I charged you not:

pet forasmuch as I was crafty, I took you with guile.

17 Did I fill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus fill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit: walked we not in the same steppes?

19 Again, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I feare least when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be founde vnto you such as ye would not, and least there be strife, envying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings and discorde.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God shall abase me among you, & I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned against me, and haue not repented of the vncleanesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

He threatneth the obstinate, 5 And declareth what his power is by their owne testimonie. 10. Also he sheweth what is the effect of this epistle. 11 After hauing exhorted them to their doctes, he wisheth them all prosperitie.

1 This is the thirde time that I come vnto you. In the month of two of thye witness shall curie wyde stand.

2 I tolde you before, and tell you before: as though I had bene present the second time, so write I now being absent to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare.

3 Seeing that ye seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which toward you is not weak, but is mightie in you.

4 For though he was crucified, concerning his infirmitie, yet ineth he thowow the power of God. And we no doubt are weak in him: but we shall live with him, through the power of God toward you.

5 Whome you seke together ye are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe ye not your owne selues, holue that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? But I trust that ye shall knowe that we are not reprobates.

6 Now I pray vnto God that ye doe none errill, not that we should seeme approued, but that ye should doe that which is honest: though we be as reprobates.

7 For we can not doe any thing against the truth, but for the truth.

8 For we are glad when we are weak, and that ye are strong: this also we wish for, even your perfection.

God: so thinke, that we whom ye contemne as dead men & castawayes, haue through God such power to execute against you, that ye may feeble sensibly that we live in Christ. 1 Cor. 11. 28.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Galatians, after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the truth of the Gospell, <sup>1600</sup> place to false apostles, who entering in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Lawe must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee proueth that the granting thereof, is the overthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospell is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordered by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not only vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the ende thereof is come: wherefore men ought nowe to embrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences inured in the gremmes of mans traditions: finally hee sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. L

6 Paul rebuketh their inconscience which suffered them
 felers to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessary to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely, 13 He sheweth his own conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth him self to be equal with the chief Apostles.

8 But though that we, as an Angel from f If it were possible, shall preach vnto you otherwise, then fible, that an that which we haue preached vnto you, Angel should doe: whereby let him be accursed.
9 As we sayd before, so say I now againe, Paul declareth
If any man preach vnto you otherwise the certaintie of his preaching.
then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

- 4 For all the falsē brethren that crept in: who came in pynally to spee our libertie, which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.
- 5 To whom we gave not place by subjection for an houre, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.
- 6 And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no mans person) nevertheless, they that are the chiefe, did communicate nothing with me.
- 7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospel ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:
- 8 (For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by me towards the Gentiles)
- 9 And when James, and Cephas, and John knew of the grace that was given vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gave to me and to Barnabas the right handes of fellowship, that

- we should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision,
- 10 Warning onely that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.
- 11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his face: for he was to be blamed.
- 12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated him selfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.
- 13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.
- 14 But when I sawe, that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If thou bring a Iewe, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why constrainest thou the Gentiles to do like the Iewes?
- 15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,
- 16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen we, I say, haue believed in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe no flesh shal be iustified.
- 17 If then while we seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are founde sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.
- 18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.
- 19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might liue vnto God, I am crucified with Christ.
- 20 Thus I liue, yet not I now, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the sonne of God, who hath loved me, and giuen himselfe for me,
- 21 I doe not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by the Lawe, then Christ died without a cause.

of the Lawe, by the hearing of faith preached?
3 Hee pe so foolish, that after ye haue begunne in the Spirit, ye would nowe be made perfect by the flesh?
4 Yae pe suffered so many things in vaine: if so be it be euen in vaine.
5 Ye therefore that ministrer to pon the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doth he it through the workes of the Lawe, by the hearing of faith preached?
6 Yea rather as Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.
7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
8 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.
9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.
10 For as many as are of the workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is euerie man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.
11 And that no man is iustified by a Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: for the iust shall liue by faith.
12 And the Lawe is not of faith: but the man that shal doe those things, shal liue in them.
13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is euerie one that hangeth on tree)
14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receive the promises of the Spirit through faith.
15 Brethren, I speake as men doe, * Though it be but a mans covenant when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.
16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. Ye saith not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.
17 And this I say, that the Lawe which was foure hundred and thirtie yeeres after, can not disannull the covenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it shoulde make the promise of none effect.
18 For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.
19 Wherefore then serueth the Lawe? It was added because of the transgressors, ons, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Nowe a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.
21 Is the Lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Lawe giuen which coulde haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse shoulde haue bene by the Lawe.
22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ shoulde be giuen to them that beleue.
23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith, which shoulde afterwards be revealed.
24 Wherefore the Lawe was our scholemaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.
25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a scholemaster.
26 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith in Christ Iesus.
27 For all ye that are baptised into Christ, haue put on Christ.
28 There is neyther Iew nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.
29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

5 That he might redeeme them which were vnder the Lawe, that we might receive the adoption of the sonnes.
6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your heartes, which crieth, Abba, Father.

17 They are wilous ouer you: amisse: pea,
they woulde exclude you, that pe shoulde
altogether loue them.
18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
19 My little children, of whome I transaie
in birth againe, vntill Christ be formed in you.
20 And I woulde I were with you now,
that I might change up woe: for I am in doubt of you.
21 Tell me, pe that will be vnder the Law,
doe ye not heare the Law?
22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes: one by a seruant, and one
by a free woman.
23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was
of the free woman, was borne by promise.
24 As the which thinges an other thing is meant: for these moethers are the two Testamentes, the one which is Agar of mount Syna, which geneth vnto bondage.
25 (For Agar or Syna is a mountaine in Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) she is in bondage with her children.
26 But Ierusalem, which is above, is free: which is the mother of vs all.
a For I pardon you, if you repent. o Being in great dangers and afflictions, or without pompe & ostentation. p That is, the troubles and vexations which God sent to trie me while I was among
you. q For my ministeries sake. r For they are but ambitious.
s They woulde turne you from me, that you might follow them.
t And imprinted so in your heartes that you loue none other.
u That is, signifie. x Agar, and Syna re-

ten that beareth no children: breakes forth, and crieth, thou that transteit not: for the desolate hath many mo children, then she which hath an husband.
28 Therefore, betheren, we are after the manner of Isaac, children of the promise.
29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne
after the Spirit, enen so it is now.
30 But what sayth the Scripture? *But out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.
31 Then betheren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the free woman.

10 While we have therefore time, let us doe good unto all men, but specially unto them, which are of the household of faith.

11 I tell you how large a letter I have written unto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shewe in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, only because they would not suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselves which are circumcised, keepe not the Lawe, but desire to have you circumcised, that they might reioyce in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the crosse of our Lord Jesus Christ, wherby the flesh is crucified unto me, and I unto the worlde.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace shall be upon them, and mercie, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man put me to businesse: for I beare in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Whereby, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your Spirit, Amen.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, he assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to this eternall life by the holy Ghost, given vnto them by the Gospell, the knowledge of the which mysterie he prayeth God to confirme toward them. And to intent they should not glory in their felices, he sheweth them their extreme miserie, wherein they were plunged before they knewe Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus, they were saved, and he appointed to be their Apostles, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect understanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindefull of so great benefites, neither to be mooued with the false apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow their faith, and treade vnder foote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal counsell of God: who by this meanes preferreth onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuch as God thereby reigneeth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentiful fruites, as innocencie, holines, with all such offices appertaining to godlines. Last of all, he declareth not onely in general, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, 4. He sheweth that the chief cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16. He declareth his good will towards them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith. 21. The maiestie of Christ.

PRAISE AN Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the Saints, which are at Ephesus, & to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

Grace be to you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

Blessed be God even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all spiritual blessing in heavenly things in Christ,

As he hath chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in loue:

Who hath predestinate vs to be adopted through Iesus Christ vnto him selfe, according to a good pleasure of his will.

To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith he hath made vs accepted in his beloued,

By whom we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiveness of finnes, according to his rich grace:

Wherewith he hath bene abundantly towards vs in all wisdom and understanding, And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in him,

That in the dispensation of the fullnesse of the times he might gather together in one all things, both which are in heaven & which are in earth, euen in Christ:

In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will.

That we, which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto the praise of his glory:

In whom also we haue trusted after that we heard the word of truth, euen the Gospel of our saluation, wherein also after that we beloued, we were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise,

Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vntill the redemption of the possession,

And them which are in earth: also the faithfull which remaine in earth stand of the Iewes & the Gentiles. To wit, the Iewes. I Though we be redeemed from bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom. 6. 11. yet we hope for this second redemption which shall be when we shall possesse our inheritance in heaven, wherof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as Chap. 4. 30.

session purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him,

That the eyes of your understanding may be lightened, that ye may knowe what the hope is of his calling, & what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

And what is the exceeding greatnes of his power towards vs, which beleeue, according to the working of his might,

Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his right hand in the heavenly places,

Farre above all principallities, & power, and might, and domination, and euery name that is named, not in this world onely, but also in that that is to come, himselfe perfect without vs which are his members: the Church is also called Christ, 1. Cor. 12. 12, 13.

CHAP. II.

To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the only cause of saluation, 11. He sheweth them what manner of people they were before their conuersion, 18. And what they are now in Christ.

And you hath he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and finnes,

Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this world, and after the prince that ruleth in the air, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience,

Among whom we also had our conuersion in time past, in the lusts of our flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, as well as others.

But God which is rich in mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs,

Even when we were dead by finnes, hath quickened vs together in Christ, by whose grace we are saued,

Christ our peace.

To the Ephesians.

The Gentiles inheritance.

d We that are the members, are raised vp from death, and reigne with our head Christ in heauen by faith.

6 And hath raised vs by together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus, 7 That he might shewe in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindenesse towards vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are we saved through faith, and that not of our selues: it is the gift of God,

9 Not of woordes, least any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus unto good woordes, which God hath ordeined, þe should walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with handes,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliens from the common wealth of Israel, and were strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, þe which once were farre off, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the law of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in him selfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by his crosse, and lay hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were a farre off, and to them that were nere.

18 For through him we both haue an entrance unto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Nowe therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles & Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord,

22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desires them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

1 For this cause, I Paul am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to youwarde,

3 That is, that God by reuelatio hath shewed this mystrie vnto me: (as I wrote above in seueral woordes,

4 Whereby when ye reade, ye may knowe mine vnderstanding in the mystrie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuelled vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto me through the working of his power.

8 Euen vnto me the least of all Saints, is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the mystrie is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hidde in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that nowe vnto principalities and powers in heauenly places might be knowne, þe the Church the manifeste wisdom of God,

11 According to eternal purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 By whome we haue boldnes and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glorie.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whome is named the whole Fatherhood in heaven and in earth)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glorie, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye, being rooted & grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the breadth, & length, and depth, and height:

19 And to knowe the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled oped by him, & with all fullnesse of God.

20 Vnto him therefore that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we aske or thinke, according to þe power that worketh in vs,

21 Be praise in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all generations for euer, Amen.

in him. 1 That all the graces of God may abound in you. Rom. 16.25. m In that we feele Christ in vs.

CHAP. IIIII.

He exhorteth them vnto meekenes, long suffering, vnto loue and peace, 3 Enury one to serue and eliste another with the gift that God hath giuen him, 14 To beware of strange doctrines, 22 To lay aside the olde conuersion of greedy lustes, and to walke in a newe life.

1 Therefore, being prisoner in the Lord, pray you that ye walke worthy of the call of the Lord of our Lord.

2 That ye may walke as ye haue receiued the call of the Lord of our Lord.

 10 Appoyning that which is pleasing to the Lord.
 11 And haue no fellowship with the unfruitfull workes of darkenesse, but enter i reipone them rather.
 12 For it is shame euen to speake of the things which are done of them in secret.
 13 But all things which they are reipoured of the light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.
 14 Wherefore he saith, "Awake thou that sleepest, and stand vp from the dead, and Christ shall giue thee light.
 15 Take heede therefore that ye walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as wise, reckoning the time: for the dayes are euill.
 16 Wherefore, be ye not vnwise, but vnderstand what the will of the Lord is.
 17 And be not drunken with wine, wherein is excess: but be fulfilled with the Spirit,
 18 speaking vnto your selues in psalmes, and hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing and making melodie to the Lord in your hearts,
 19 singing thanks alwayes for all things vnto God euen the Father, in the name of our Lord Iesus Christ,
 20 Submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.
 21 Wives, submit your selues vnto your husbands, as vnto the Lord.
 22 For the husband is the head of the Church, and the same is the saviour of his body,
 23 Therefore as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euen so let the wives be to their husbands in every thing.
 24 For he himselfe loueth the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,
 25 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it by the washing of water through the word,
 26 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy and without blame.
 27 So ought men to loue their wives, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.
 28 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth & cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.
 29 For we are members of his body, & of his flesh, and of his bones.
 30 For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shall cleaue to his wife, and they twaine shall be one flesh.
 31 This is a great secret, but I speake concerning Christ, & concerning the Church.
 32 Therefore euerie one of you, do ye so: let euery one loue his wife, eue as himselfe, and let the wife see that she feare her husband.
 33 Christ must be considered as Christ is the husbande, and we the wife, which are not onely ioynded to him by nature, but also by the communion of substance, through the holy Ghost and by faith: the scale and testimonie thereof is the Supper of the Lord.

How children should beare themselves towards their fathers and mothers, 4 Likewise parents towards their children, 5 Seruants towards their masters, 9 Masters towards their seruants, 13 An exhortation to the spiritual battell, and what weapons the Christians should fight withall.

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise)

3 That it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest live long on earth.

4 And ye, fathers, prouoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the instruction and information of the Lord.

5 Seruants, be obedient vnto them that are your masters, according to the Lord, with feare and trembling in singleness of your hearts as vnto Christ,
 6 Not with seruice to the eye, as men please, but as the seruants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,
 7 With good will, as if ye were doing the will of the Lord, and not men.

8 And knowe ye that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, that same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, do the same things vnto them, putting away threatening: and knowe that euen your master also is in heauen, neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the assaults of the deuill.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, and against the worldy gouernours, the princes of the darknesse of this world, against spiritual wickednesses, which are in the hee places.

13 For this cause take vnto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to resist in the euil day, and having finished all things, stand fast.

14 Stand therefore, and your loines gird about with veritie, and hauing on the breast plate of righteousness,
 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace.

16 Above all, take the shield of faith, wherewith ye may quench all the fire darts of the wicked,

17 And take the helmet of saluation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

18 And pray alwayes with all manner prayer and supplication in the Spirit: and watch thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all Saints,

19 And for me, that I may open my mouth boldly to publish the secret of the Gospel,

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same country: but because his charge was to preach the Gospell vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauielled from place to place, till at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, wherof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to wryte this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke:
for the Gospell thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who shoulde instruct them in matters more ample: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he confuteth their false doctrine, by prouing only Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all thing, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this folloze certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with testification of his affection towards them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 S. Paul discovereth his heart towards them, 3 By his thanksgiving, 4 Prayers, 8 And wishes for their faith & saluation. 7. 12. 20 He sheweth the fruits of his crosse, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to patience, 28 And patience.

Paul and Timotheus the seruantes of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Ie-sus which are at Philippi, with the Bishops, and Deacons:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God
our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 ¶ I thanke my God hauing you in perfect memoire,

4 (Alwaies in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the fellowship which ye haue
in the Gospell, from the first day vnto
now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing that hee that hath begun this good worke
in you, will perfect it vntill the day of Iesus Christ,

7 As it becometh me so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance that both in my bandes, and in my desference, and confirmation of the Gospell
you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my recorder, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may as-bound, yet more and more in knowledge,
and in all indgement,

10 That ye may discern things that dis-

fer one from another, that ye may be pure,
and without offence, vntill the day of Christ.

11 Filled with the fruites of righteou-nesse, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 ¶ I woulde see vnderstande, brethren,
that things which haue come vnto me,
are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospell.

13 So that my bandes in Christ are sa-mous throughout all the indgement
hall, and in all other places.

14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Loyde are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the steine for Christs
waide.

15 Some preach Christ euen through cun-
ing and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of confession and not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospell.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner waies, whether it be vnder a pretence, or sincerely: and I therewith
prea, and will top.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation through your prayer, & by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ.

20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that mine was true:
with all confidence, as alwaies, so now
Christ shall be magnified in my body,
whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death advantage.

22 And whether to live in the flesh were profitable for me, and what to chuse I know not.
23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be loosed and to be with Christ, which is best of all.
24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you.
25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and joy of your faith.
26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Jesus Christ for me, by my continuing to you againe.
27 Only let your conversation be, as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come or see you, or else be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye continue in one Spirit, and in one mind fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.
28 And in nothing feare your adversaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of salvation, and that of God.
29 For unto you it is given for Christ, that not onely ye should believe in him, but also suffer for his sake.
30 Having the same fight, which ye saw in us, and now heare to be in us.
For Christ's sake is an evident signe of salvation. q God sheweth by this meanes of bearing the crosse who he is, and who are not. Or, Christ's cause.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhorteth them about all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that hee and Timotheus will speedily come unto them, 27 And exhorteth the long tarrying of Epaphroditus.
1 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercie,
2 Fulfill my joy, that ye be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, and of one iudgement,
3 That nothing be done through contention or vain glorie, but that in meeknesse of minde every man esteeme other better then him selfe.
4 Look not every man on his owne things, but every man also on the things of other men.
5 Let the same minde be in you that was in Christ Jesus,
6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God:
7 But hee made him selfe of no reputation, and took the forme of a servant, and was made like unto men, and was found in the shape as a man.
8 He humbled himselfe, and became obedient unto the death, even the death of the crosse.
9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him through arrogancie tread downe our brethren, and preferre our felues:
10 For he that was God, should have done none iniurie to the Godhead. Mar. 10. 28. e The poore and weak nature of man. f He was seene & heard of men, so that his behaviour and person declared that he was as a miserable man. Heb. 2. 9.

him, and given him a name above every name,
10 That at the name of Jesus should every knee bow, both of things in heave, and things in earth, and things under the earth,
11 And that every tongue should confesse that Jesus Christ is the Lord, unto the glory of God the Father.
12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye have also waies obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in mine absence, with feare and trembling.
13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deede, even of his good pleasure.
14 Be al things without murmuring and raving,
15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the finnes of God without rebuke in the mids of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.
16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I have not runne in vaine, neither have I laboured in vaine.
17 Yea, and though I be offered up upon the sacrifice, and service of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.
18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.
19 And I trust in the Lord Jesus, to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man like minded, who shall faithfully care for you matters.
21 For all I seeke their owne, and not that which is Jesus Christ.
22 But ye know the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, he hath learned with me in the Gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to sende soon as I know how it will goe with me.
24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.
25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus unto you, my companion in labour, & fellowe soldier, even your messenger, & he that ministered unto me such things as I wanted.
26 For hee longed after all you, and was full of heavinesse, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.
27 And no doubt hee was sicke, very nere unto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I should have sorrowe upon sorrowe.
28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.
29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such:
30 Because that for the workes of Christ his sake he was nere unto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that service which was lacking on your parte towards me.
He called him here the workes of Christ, who he Christ, who was bound in the person of Paul, and was in neede of necessities. He approacheth them which haue heard their list to relieue the prisoners of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He warneth them to beware of false teachers, 3. Against whom he setteth Christ, 4. Likewise him selfe, 9. And his doctrine, 12. And reprooveth many evill righteousnesse.

1 My brother, my brethren, reioyce in the Loyde. It grieveth me not to write the same things to you,
and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of dogges: beware of evill workers: beware of the concision.

3 For we are by circumcision, which work-eth God in the spirit, and reioyce in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh:

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the right day, of the kindred of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Ebraye of the Ebrayes, by the lawe
a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the church:
touching the righteousness which is in the lawe, I was unrebukeable.

7 But the things that were bantage unto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, because I think all things but losse
for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Jesus my Loyd, for whom I have count-red all things losse, and do judge them to be bount, that I might winne Christ,

9 And might be found in him, that is, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, and the righteousness
which is of God through faith.

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and be made conformed unto his death,

11 If by any means I might attaine unto the resurrection of the dead:

12 Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am comprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I have attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and endeavour my selfe unto that which is before,

14 And followe hard toward the mark,
for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be others-wise minded, God shall reuile even the same unto you.

16 Henceforth, in that wherunto we are come, let vs procede by one rule, that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of me, and loke
on them, which walke so, as ye have vs
for an ensample.

18 For many walke, of whome I have tolde you often, and now tell you weeping, that they are the enemies of the Crosse of Christ,

19 Whose end is damnation, whose God is their bellie, and whose glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our conversation is in heauen,
from whence also we looke for the Saviour, even the Loyd Jesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working, wher-by he is able even to subdue all things unto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be of honest conversation, 15
And thanketh them, because of the promise that they made for him being in prison, 21 And con-cludeth with salutations.

1 Therefore, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my top and my crown, so continue in the Loyd, ye beloved.

2 I pray Euodias, a beloveth of the Spirit,
that they be of one accord in the Loyd.

3 Peca and I beseech thee, faithful pokeslalowe, helpe these women, which labour with me in the Gospel, with Clement also,
and with other my fellow labourers,
whose names are in the booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Loyde alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be knowne unto all men. The Loyd is at hand.

6 Be nothing carefull, but in all things
let your requestes be shewed unto God
in prayer, and supplication with giving of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall preserve your hearts and mindes in Christ Jesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever who seeketh to things pertaine to love, whatsoever take from vs things are of good report, if there be any thing of this peace of these things,

9 Which ye have both learned and received, and heard, and sene in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Loyd greatly, that now at the last ye are reuiued me, againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were carefull, but ye lacked opportunitye.

11 I speake not because of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, thereunto to be content.

12 And I can be abased, & I can abound:
every where in all things I am instructed both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to have want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done,

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

In this epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall and true Christ, and the feined, counterfeit and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoever good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false bretheren would haue mixed the Lawe with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whome all things are but mere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, external holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, hee viterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

- 3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 Hee sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discometh the counterfeit Christ of the false apostles. 25 Hee approacheth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.
 3 We giue thanks to God enen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

b For without Christ there is no faith to be saved by, but onely a vaine opinion.

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, & of your loue toward all Saintes,
 5 For the hopes sake, which is layd by for you in heauen, wherof ye haue hearde before by the word of truth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, enen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day ye heard and truly knewe the grace of God.

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our deere fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ.

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue in the Spirit.

e Which cometh of the holy Ghost.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of his will, in all wisdom, and spirituall vnderstanding,

d That is, Gods.

10 That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in all things, being fruitful in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with thankfulnesse,

12 Gintg thanks vnto our Father, which hath made vs more to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome of his deare Sonne,

14 In whom we haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of sinnes,

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first borne of euery creature,

16 For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and invisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or

17 Principallities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him,

18 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

19 And he is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, and is the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

20 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulnesse dwell,

21 And by him to reconcile all things vnto himselfe, and to sit at peace through the blood of his crosse both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

22 And you which were in times past strangers & enemies, because your minds were set in euil workes, hath he now also reconciled,

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most careful for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly living the purity of their religion. And as the Church ca neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to overthrow their faith, taught fallly, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, least the sudden coming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are so fast in faith and good works, 6 And receiues the Gospel with such earnestnes, 7 That they are an example to all others.

1 And Ananias, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 We giue God thanks alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembering your effectual faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Iesus Christ, in the sight of God our Father.

4 Knowing, beloved brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our Gospel was not vnto you in word onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what manner we were among you for your sakes.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, and receined the word in much affliction, with top of the holy Ghost.

7 So that ye were as examples to all that beleue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia only, but in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is toward God, is spread abroad in all quarters, that we neede not to speake any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of you what manner of entering in we had vnto you, and howe ye turned to God from idoles, to serue the living and true God.

10 And to looke for his sonne from heauen, to whose he raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint under the crosse, 2 He commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying, 18 He exhorteth his absence, that he could not come and open his heart to them.

1 For ye our selves knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in baine,

2 But euen after that we had suffered bessege, and were shamefully entreated at Philippi (as ye knowe) we were bold in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much straining.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by uncleannes, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, so we speake, not as they that please men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer vse flattering wordes, as ye knowe, nor coloured countenance, God is recorde.

6 Neither sought we praise of men, neither of you, nor of others.

7 When we might haue bene chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, euen as a nurse cherisheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our god will was to haue deare vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for we laboured day and night, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 We are witnesses, & God also, how holily and iustly, & blameably we behaved our selves among you that beleue.

11 As ye know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besought every one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke we God without ceasing, that when ye receined of vs the word of the preaching of God, ye receined it not as the word of men, but as it is in deede the word of God, which also worketh in you that beleue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudaea are in Christ Iesus, because ye haue also suffered the same things of your own countenances.

CHAP. III.

1 He ſheweth how greatly he was afflicted toward them, both in that he ſent Timothy to them, 10 And alſo prayed for them.

1 Wherefore ſince we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone.

2 And haue ſent Timothy our brother and miniſter of God, & our labour fellow in the Goſpell of Chriſt, to ſtabliſh you, and to comfort you touching your faith.

3 That no man ſhould be moued by theſe afflictions: for ye your ſelues know, that we are appoynted therunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we ſold you beſore that we ſhould ſuffer tribulations, euen as it came to paſſe, and ye knowe it.

5 Euen for this cauſe, when I coulde no longer forbear, I ſent him that I might knowe of your faith, leaſt the tempter had tempted you in any ſort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timothy came from you into vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, beſtowing to ſee vs, as we alſo doe you.

7 Therefore, brethren, we had conſolation in you, in all our affliction and neceſſitie through your faith.

8 For now we are alive, if ye ſtand faſt in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we recompence to God againe for you, for all the ioye togethewith we reioyce for your ſakes beſore our God.

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might ſee your face, and might accompliſh that which is lacking in your faith.

11 Nowe God himſelfe, our Father, and our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, guide our iourney unto you.

12 And the Lord increaſe you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we doe toward you.

13 Take your hearts ſtable and vnblameable in holineſſe beſore God our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt with all his ſaintes. Chap. 5. 1. 1 Cor. 1. 1.

CHAP. III.

1 He ſheweth them to holineſſe, 6 Innocent, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Deſcribing the ende of the ſurrection.

1 And furthermore we beſeeche you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Jeſus, that ye increaſe more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, howe ye ought to walke, and to pleaſe God.

2 For ye knowe what commandements we gaue you by the Lord Jeſus.

3 For this is the will of God euen your ſanctification, & that ye ſhould abſtaine from fornication.

4 That euerie one of you ſhould knowe, how to poſſeſſe his veſell in holineſſe and honour.

5 And not in the luſt of concupiſcence, euen as the Gentiles which knowe not God: that is, that no man oppreſſe of deſtrande his brother in any manner: for the Lord is wholly vnto anger of all ſuch things, as we alſo God.

6 That no man oppreſſe of deſtrande his brother in any manner: for the Lord is wholly vnto anger of all ſuch things, as we alſo God.

7 For God hath not called vs into vncleanneſſe, but into holineſſe.

8 Wherefore that deſireth theſe things, deſireth not man, but God who hath men giuen you his holy ſpirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye neede not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Pea, and that thing verely ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beſeeche you, brethren, that ye increaſe more and more.

11 And that ye ſtand ſtable to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne buſineſſe, and to worke with your owne handes, as we commanded you.

12 That ye may behaue your ſelues honeſtly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 I would not, brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are a and inſidels, ſleepe, that ye ſe your ſelues not euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if we beleeue that Jeſus is dead, and is riſen, euen ſo them which ſleepe in Jeſus, will God bring with him.

15 For this ſay we vnto you by the word of the Lord, that we which ſleepe, and are remaining in the coming of the Lord, ſhall not grieue them which ſleepe.

16 For the Lord himſelfe ſhall deſcend from heauen with a ſhower, and with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Chriſt ſhall riſe firſt.

CHAP. V.

1 He informeth them of the day of judgement and coming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods words among them.

1 But of the times and seasons, brethren, ye have no neede that I write unto you.

2 For ye your selves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, even as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, & safety, then shall come upon them sudden destruction, as the travaile upon a woman with child, & they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should come on you, as it were a thiefe.

5 We are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkness.

6 Wherefore let us not sleepe as do other, but let us be watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us which are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith & love, and the hope of salvation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtaine salvation by the means of our Lord Jesus Christ.

10 Which dzie for us, that whether we wake or sleepe, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, even as ye doe.

12 And not be overcome with the cares of the worlde. That is, lightened by the Gospel. 12. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

12 Motive we beseeche you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, and are our pon in the Lord, and admonish you.

13 That ye have them in singular love for their toyles sake. Be at peace among your selves.

14 We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are unruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 See that none recompense evil for evil unto any man: but ever followe that which is good, both toward your selves, and toward all men.

16 Receive evermore.

17 Abide continually.

18 In all things give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesying.

21 Try all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of evil.

23 Know the very God of peace sanctifie you throughout: I pray God that your whole spirit and soule and body, may be kept blamelesse unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the brethren the Saints.

The first Epistle unto the Thessalonians written from Athens.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Least the Thessalonians shoulde thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them & exhorteth them to patience and other fruites of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the coming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, even by a great part of the world, & that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he wil- leth them to correct such sharply, as live idly of other mens labours, whom, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for their faith, love, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruit shall come thereof.

1 Paul and Silvanus and Timotheus unto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Jesus Christ.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompence tribulation to them that trouble you.

7 And to you which are troubled, reſt with vs when the Lord Jeſus ſhall ſhew himſelfe from heauen with his mightie Angels,

11 Wherefore, we alſo pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill all the good pleaſure of his goodneſſe, and the worke of faith with power,

The second Epistle to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN writing this Epistle Paul seemed not only to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe ende of the Lawe. And as for him selfe, he so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthinesse the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willett priuers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offering his Gospel & Christ his Sonne to them al, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And for as much as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the mystrie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is comit-ted to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shal sustaine, but specially in the latter daies, when as vnder pretence of religion men shal teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sick: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and about all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word: &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie and edification are the ende therof, 30 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

1 Paul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the * commaundes
ment of God our Saviour,
and of our Lord Jesus Christ
* our hope,

2 * vnto Timotheus my * naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Spacia-bonia, so doe, that thou maist commaund
some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to * fables
and genealogies, * which are endlesse, wherby theyde questions rather then godly disputing which is by faith.

5 For * the * ende of the * commaundement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfaigned.

6 From the which things some haue erred,
and haue turned vnto vaine iangling,

7 They would be doctours of the Lawe,
yet vnderstand not what they speake,
neither wherof they affirme.

8 * And we knowe, that the Lawe is good,
if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Lawe is not gi-uen vnto a * righteous man, but vnto that the ende of the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vni-uersall, and to * sinners, to the vnholy, and to * profane, to murderers of fathers
and mothers, to manslayers,

ence, neither a good conscience without faith, nor faith without the word of God so their doctrine which is an occasion of contention, is worth nothing. * Of the Lawe. Rom. 7. 12. e Whose hearts Gods spirit doeth direct to doe that willingly which the Lawe requireth: so that their godly affection is to them as a Lawe without further constraint. d Such as onely delight in sinning.

S. Paul sheweth
that the ende of Gods Lawe is loue, which can not be without

ence, neither a
good conscience without faith, nor faith without the word of God

1 The dutie of seruants towards their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the words of God. 6 Of true godlines, & contentation of minde. 9 Against couetousnes. 11 A charge giue to Timotheus.

12 As many seruants as are vnder the poke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God, and his doctrine be not rail spoken of.

13 And they which haue believing masters, let them not despise the, because they are brethren, but rather do seruice, because they are faithful, & beloued, & partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

14 If any man teache otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome wordes of our Lord Iesus Christ, and to the doctrine, which is according to godlinesse,

15 He is puffed up, & knoweth nothing, but bootech about questions and strife of wordes, whereof cometh enuie, strife,

railings, rail firings,

16 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, & destitute of the truth, which thinke that gaine is godlines: from such separate thy selfe.

17 But godlines is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.

18 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certaine, that we can carpe nothing out.

19 Therefore when we haue food and raiment, let vs therewith be content.

20 For they that will be rich, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lustes, which bystone men in perdition and destruction.

21 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some luste after, they erre from the faith, and & perished themselves through with many sorowes.

22 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, & follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, loue, patience, and meekenes.

23 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold of eternall life, wherunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

24 Charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession,

25 That thou keepe this commandment without spot, and unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

26 Which in due time he shall shewe, that is blessed and pyncie onely, the King of kings, and Lord of lords,

27 Who onely hath immortallitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attain vnto, & whom neuer man saw, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

28 Charge them that are riche in this world, that they be not high minded, and that they trust not in vncertain riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy)

29 That they doe good, and be rich in good woorkes, and ready to distribute, and communicate,

30 Laying vp in store for them selves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternall life.

31 O Timotheus, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and auoide profane and vaine babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called,

32 Which while some profess, they haue erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee, Amen.

and in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as doe husbandmen, which at length receive the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers doe which seeke only to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commanding him to preache the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subverted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ, are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods trial come: yet he recomforteth them whome he hath elected, euen to the ende. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, & dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessarie affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to steadfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him. 13 VWhereof his hands and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

1 Paul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus, To Timotheus my beloved sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ our Lord.

2 I thanke God, to whome I serue from mine ydles with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day, Desiring to see thee, mindedfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with top:

3 When I call to remembrance the unfeined faith that is in thee, which dwelleth in thee in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

4 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance, that thou stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine handes.

5 For God hath not given to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of love, and of a sound minde.

6 We not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Loyde, neither of his prisoners: but be partaker of his afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

7 Who hath saved vs, and called vs with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was given to vs through Christ Jesus before the world was,

8 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortallitie vnto light through the Gospel.

9 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

10 And it was honourable and glorious: therefore our mindes ought to be lifted vp from the consideration of worldly things, to contemplate the maiestie thereof. 1. Tim. 3. 7.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I knowe whome I haue betroued, and I am perswaded that he is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the whollesome wordes, which thou hast heard of me in faith & love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That thy wordyng thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Hysellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out verp diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may find mercy with the Lord at that day, & in how many things he hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, I knowest verp well.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

1 Thou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, by many witnesses, the same declare vnto faithfull men, which shalbe able to teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also strine for a mastership, he is not crowned, except he strine as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman must labour before he receive the fruites.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ made of the seede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

callet on the name of Christ, depart

from iniquitie.

20 Forwithstanding in a <sup>g</sup> great house

are not onely vessels of golde and of siluer, but also of wood & of earth, & some

for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge him selfe

from these, he shall be a vessel vnto honour, sanctified, and meete for the Royde,

and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Flee also from the lusts of youth, and

followe after righteousness, faith, loue,

Lord with pure heart.

23 <sup>i</sup> And put away foolish, and <sup>j</sup> vniuers-

any time will giue them repentance, that they may knowe the truth,

26 And <sup>n</sup> that they may come to amendment out of the snare of the deuil, which are taken of him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He prophesieth of the perillous times, 2 Setteth out hypocrites in their colours, 3 Sheweth the state of the Christians, 4 And howe to auoyde danger, 5 Also what profit cometh of the Scriptures.

1 This know also, that in <sup>p</sup> last dayes

shall come perillous times,

2 For men shall be loners of their owne

selues, courtous, boasters, pious, curs-

sed speakers, disobedient to parents, vns-

thankfull, vnholp,

3 Without naturall affection, tracheas-

ers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce,

4 Traitours, headie, hie minded, loners

of pleasures more then loners of God,

5 Having a shew of godlines, but haue de-

med the power thereof: turne away

therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which <sup>b</sup> creepe

into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lusts,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 <sup>c</sup> And as James and Jambyes with stoope doles, so doe these also resist the truth, men of corrupt mindes, reijec-

ting the faith.

9 But they shall perauile no longer: for their madness shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 <sup>d</sup> For thou hast fully knowne my doctrine, maner of liuing, <sup>e</sup> purpose, faith,

long suffering, loue, patience,

11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto me at Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Apsir, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord de-liuere me.

12 Yea, & all that will liue godly in Christ

Jesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euil men and deceiuers, shall ware worse and worse, deceiuing, and being deceiued,

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art persuaded thereof, knowing of whome thou hast

learned them:

15 And that thou hast knowne the help of scriptures of a child, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 <sup>f</sup> For the whole scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teache, to impute, to correct and to instruct in righteousness.

workes.

5 But watch thou in all things: suffer adversities: doe the worke of an Evangelist: make: thy ministerie fully knowne.
6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departing is at hand.
7 I have fought a good fight, and have finished my course: I have kept the faith.
8 For henceforth is layde by for me the crowne of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day: and not to me onely, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
9 Make speed to come unto me at once.
10 For Demas hath forsaken me, and hath embraced this present worlde, and is departed unto Thessalonica. Crescens is gone to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.
11 Onely Luke is with me. Take Marke and bring him with thee: for he is profitable unto me in ministerie.
12 And Trophimus have I sent to Ephesus.
13 The cloake that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the bookes, but specially the parchments.
14 Alexander the coppermith hath done me much evil: the Lord be rewarde him according to his worke.

15 Of whom be thou ware also: for he hath wilfully our preaching soe.
16 At my first answering: no man assisted him, but all sought me: I pray God, that it may not be laid to their charge.
17 Notwithstanding the Lord assisted me, and strengthened me, that by me the preaching might be fully knowne, and that all the Gentiles should heare, & I was delivered out of the mouth of the Lion.
18 And the Lord will deliver me from every evil worke, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdome: to whom be praise for ever and ever, Amen.
19 Salute Prisca, and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
20 Erastus abode at Corinthus: Trophimus I left at Asclepius sicke.
21 Make speed to come before winter. Eubolus greets thee, & Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.
22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you, Amen.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Crete to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begonne, Satan stirred up certaine which went about not onely to overthrowe the government of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would have thrust in themselves to be pastors; others, vnder pretext of Moses Lawe brought in many trifles. Against these two sorts of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine, to the intent they might resist the adversaries, and amongs other things hee noteth the Jewes which put a certaine holmesse in meanes and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertene to every mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doth not obey, he willett him to be avoided.

CHAP. I.

5 He admonisheth Titus touching the government of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretian, and of them which sowe abroads Jewish fables and imitations of men.
1 Paul a servant of God, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the truth, which is according to godliness.
2 Under the hope of eternall life, which God that can not lie, hath promised before the world began:
3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour:
4 To Titus my naturall sonne according to the common faith, grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest continue, to redresse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordaine Elders in every citie, as I appointed thee.
6 If any be blamelesse, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, which are not slandered of spot, neither are disobedient, whereby his authority might be diminished.
7 For a Bishop must be blamelesse, as Gods steward, not frowarde, not angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre,
8 But hardenous, one that loneth goods, wife, & righteous, holy, temperate,
9 Holding fast the faithful worde according to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and answere them that say against it.
10 For there are many disobedient and vain talkers and deceivers of numbers, chiefly

1 Of obedience to such as be in authority. 9 Has dently questions, 12 Concluding with certaine private matters, 15 And salutations.

1 Put them in remembrance that they be subiect to the principalities and powers, & that they be obedient, and ready to every good worke.
2 That they speake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, but soft, shewing all meeknesse vnto all men.
3 For we our selues also were in times past vniuers, disobedient, deuiant, seruing
the lustres and diuers pleasures, liuing in iniquities and enuie, hateful, and hating one another.
4 But when the bounty of our Saviour
God our Saviour toward vs appeared,

which we had done, but according to his mercy he saued vs, by the washing of the hope of eternal life.

things are good and profitable vnto men.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirite wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witness, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the balenes of his matter, he speaketh as it were vnto heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments prouing the dutie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4. He reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, & vnto home he desireth to forgive his seruant Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him againe.

1. When I was a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and our brother Onesimus, vnto Philemon our deare friend and fellowe helper.

2. And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellowe labourer, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3. Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from our Lord Jesus Christ.

4. I give thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers.

5. (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all Saintes)

6. That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitful, and that whatsoever good thing is in you through Christ Jesus, may be knowne.

7. For we haue great joy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saintes heartes are comforted.

8. Wherefore, though I be very bolde in Christ to commaunde thee that which is convenient,

9. Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, even Paul aged, & enen now a prisoner for Jesus Christ.

10. I beseech thee for my forme Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11. Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me.

12. Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, & mine owne bowels,

13. Whome I would haue retained with me, & in thy stead he might haue ministered vnto me in bonds of the Gospel.

14. But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15. It may be that he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer,

16. Not now as a seruant, but above a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, speake to me: howe much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17. If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18. If he hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine account.

19. I want haue writtten this with mine owne hande: I will recompense it, altho it I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20. Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21. Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22. Whoeuer also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23. There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus,

24. Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas & Luke, my fellowe helpers.

25. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, and sent by Onesimus a seruant.

d He fled away from thee.

e For he is thy seruant by condition, and also now the Lordes: so that both for thine owne sake and for the Lords, thou oughtest to loue him. f That all thine is mine, and all mine is thine.

g Graunt me this benefite, which shall be most acceptable vnto me of all others.

h That is, for Christes cause.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines, witnesse that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the authour thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we know not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an ende: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophecies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, & therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. Chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the twentie and fure verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the king

15 And that he might deliver all them, which for feare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage.
16 For he in no sort tooke the Angels, but he tooke the seede of Abraham.
17 Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be mercifull, and a faithful high priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the finnes of the people.

CHAP. III.

1 Herquirith them to be obedient unto the words of Christ, 3 VVho is more worthy than Moses, 13 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleue, that they might haue eternall rest.

1 Therefore, holp brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the promise and high priest of our profession Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithful to him that hath appointed him, even as Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, in as much as he which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is builded of some man, & he that hath build all things, is God.

5 Nowe Moses verely was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witness of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the triumping of the hope vnto the ende.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, "To day if ye shall heare his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the pronocation, according to the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and saue my voyces fourtie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and sayde, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knownen my waies.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, "If they shall enter into my rest.

12 Take heede, brethren, least at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and disobedient, to depart away from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called "To day, least any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of time.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the ende the beginning, wherewith we are upholden,

15 So long as it is sayd, "To day if ye heare his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the pronocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all as came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fourty yeeres: was he not displeased with them that sinned, whose hearts hee fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them, that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of unbeliefe.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, least any man fall after the same example of disobedience.
12 For the word of God is lively, & mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and entereth through euen into the deuinding asunder of the soule and the spirit, & of the ioynts, & the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughtes and the intents of the heart.
13 Whether is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, vnto whom we haue to doe.
14 Seeing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.
15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmitie, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.
16 Let vs therefore go hold fast vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and finde grace to helpe in time of neede.

17 He proceedeth in repressing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 18 But to be iustly & patient, 19 Forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.
Therefore, leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be ledde forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead workes, and of faith towardes God,

- 17 So God willing moze abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise the stabilitie of his counsell, bound himselfe by an othe.
18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is impossible that God should lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs.
19 Which we haue, as an anker of p soule, both sure and stedfast, and it entred in
to that which is within the vaile.
20 Whither p forerunner is for vs entred
in, euen Iesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

He compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec. 11 Also Christ's Priesthood with the Leuites.

1 For this Melchisedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the Kings,
and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousness: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace.

3 Without a father, without mother,
without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his daies, neither ende of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Nowe consider howe great this man was, vnto whom euen the Patriarche Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verily they which are the children of Abraham, which receiue p office of the Priesthood, haue a c commandement to take,
according to the Lawe, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the lapnes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kinred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the ymo-rtales.

7 And without all contradiction the lesse
is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiueth them, of whom it is testified, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Ieui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham:

10 For he was yet in the lapnes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, p another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Araon?

12 For if the Priesthood be changed, then
f Because there is no mention of his death,

of necessitie must there be a change of the Lawe.

13 For hee of to whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, wher-
of no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Loyde spang of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a moze euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec, there is risen vp another Priest,

16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe of the carnal commaundement, but after the power of the endless life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec.

18 For the commaundement that went afore, is disannulled, because of the weakesnesse thereof, and impossibilitie.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfect, whereby we haue nere vnto God.

20 And so much as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without
an othe):

21 But this, hee is made with an othe by him that saide vnto him, * The Loyde hath swayne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

22 So much as Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made priests, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth
for euer, hath an everlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, hee is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession
for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to
haue, which is holy, harmelesse, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made hie
thru the heauens:

27 Which needed not daily as those hie Priests to offer by sacrifice, * first for his owne sinnes, and then for the people: for that did he once, when he offered by himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the wayde of the othe that was * since the Lawe, ma-keth the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall othe was then recited to the worlde.

and of the true Tabernacle which the Loyde pight, and not man.

3 For euery true Priest is ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For hee were not a Priest, if hee were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts.

5 Who serue vnto the paterne and shadow of heavenly things, as Moyses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. So he sayd he, that thou make all things according to the paterne, shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But nowe our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as he is the Mediatour of a better Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene faultlesse, no place should haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them he sayeth, "Beholde, the dayes will come, sayeth the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a newe Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in that day that I tooke them by the hand, to lead them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, sayeth the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, after those daies, sayeth the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, & I will be their God, and they shall be my people,

11 And they shall not teach euery man his neighbour and euery man his brother, saying, Knowe the Loyde: for all shall knowe me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their iniquities, & I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he sayeth a newe Testament, he hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disannulled and wared olde, is ready to vanishe away.

which had Anna, was, and Marions rod that had budded, and the tables of the Testament.

5 And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the mercy seat: of which things we wil not nowe speake particularly.

6 Nowe when these things were thus ordained, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the seconde went the high Priest alone, once euery yeare, not without our blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make holpe, concerning the conscience, but that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stood in meats & drinkes, and diuers washings, and carnal rites, vntill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ bringe couer an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building,

12 Neither by the blood of goates & calves: but by his owne blood entered he in once vnto the holy place, and obtained eternall redemption for vs.

13 For if the blood of bulles & of goates & the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifies as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14 Howe much more shall the blood of Christ which through the eternall Spirit offered himselfe without spot to God, purge your conscience frō dead workes,

15 And for this cause is he the Mediatour of the newe Testament, that through death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must be the death of him that made the Testament.

17 For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is per of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

18 Wherefore neither was the first ordained without blood, and eternall Priest offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure: the Leuiticall Priest offered yeerely, and therefore did onely represent the true holinesse: but Christ by one onely sacrifice hath made holy for euery all them that beleue.

But 14. 1.

Albeit there is but one sacrifice, which is Christ himselfe once offered, yet because this true and eternall sacrifice is compared with all those which were figurative, and is more sufficient than all they, therefore he speaketh in the plural number, sacrifices.

Therefore to make any other offering or sacrifice for sinne after that Christes body was once offered, is blasphemie.

Which is, the later dayes when Christ came.

Of the elect.

That is, with one sacrifice for sinne, or sinne abolished.

Which was as it were the first draught and remnant of the body patterne to come.

Which are eternall.

When Christ was made man.

In the he-browe it is, thou hast feared mine eyes thou hast made me pompe and ready to heare: and in the Greeke, thou hast made me a body, that is, to obey thee, which both tend to one purpose. e Or rolle and folding: for holie time they used to folde bookes like rolles.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to the people, according to the lawe, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hyssoppe, & sprinkled both the booke, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Lawe purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavens themselves them selves are purified with better sacrifices than are these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holie places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entered into very heaven, to appeare now in the sight of God for us.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe often, as the high Priest entered into the holie place every yere with other blood.

26 For then must he have often suffered since the foundation of the world: but now in the end of the world he hath appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed unto men that they shall once dye, and after that come to the judgement,

28 So Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and unto them that looke for him, that he appeare the second time without sinne unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

1 The olde Lawe had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10 But Christ did it with offering of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receive the good-will of God thankfully with patience and stedfast faith.

For the Lawe having the shadow of good things to come, and not the verie image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offer yere by yere continually, sanctifie the consciences therewith.

2 For would they not then have ceased to have bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes every yere.

4 For it is impossible that the blood of bulles and goats should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not: but a body hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Lo, I come (In the beginning of the booke it is written of me) that I should doe thy will, O God. 8 Where, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldst not have, neither hast pleasure therein (which are offered by the Lawe)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to doe thy will, O God, he raketh away the first, that he may stablish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, even by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once made.

11 And every Priest appeareth daily ministering, and oft times offereth one manner of offering, which can never take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, sitteth for ever at the right hand of God,

13 And from henceforth tareth, till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For with one offering hath he consecrated for ever them that are sanctified.

15 For the holie Ghost also beareth us record: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the Testament that I will make unto thee, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them,

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Jesus we may be bolde to enter into the holie place,

20 By the newe and living way, which he hath prepared for us, through the vail, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we have an high Priest, which is over the house of God,

22 Let us draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, sprinkled in our heartes from an evil conscience, & washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let us keepe the profession of our hope, without wavering (for he is faithful that promised)

24 And let us consider one another, to provoke unto love, and to good woorkes.

25 Not forsaking the fellowship that we have among our selves, as the manner of some is: but let us exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the day draweth neere.

26 For if we sinne willingly after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

27 But a fearful looking for of judgement, and violent fire, which shall consume the adversaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses Lawe, byeth without mercie under two, of thise wittneses.

29 Of how much sorer punishment suppose ye shall he be worthy, which treadeth under foote the Sonne of God, & counts

¶ What faith is, and a commendation of the same. 1 Without faith we cannot please God. 2 The steadfast beliefs of the fathers in olde time. 3 We haue bene approved, and so obtained salvation. 4 For God made all things of nothing. 5 Meaning faith. 6 Because God received him to mercie, therefore he imputed him righteous. 7 That is, liueth. 8 Gen. 5. 24. 9 eclus. 44. 16. 10 and 49. 14. 11 For Enochs and Elias taking vp, was such a thing as is spoken of, 1. Cor. 15. 51. and 1. thess. 4. 17. 12 First God must find vs before we can seeke him: then we must seeke him with a pure heart in Christ, who is reueiled in his word: and thereby we learne to beleue Gods free mercie towards vs in his Sonne, through whom we obtaine the reward of his promise, and not of our desert.

7 By faith * Ase being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moved with reuerence, prepared harte to the sauing of his household, though the which Ase he condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteousnes, which is by faith. 8 By faith * Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to goe out into a place, which he should afterwarde receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he abode in the lande of promise, as in a strange country, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promises. 10 For he looked for a citie having a foundation, whose builder and maker is God. 11 Though faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceive seede, and was delivered of a childe when she was past age, because the iudged him faithfull which had promised. 12 And therefore spang there of one, even of one which was dead, so many as the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sande of the sea those which is innumerable. 13 All these died in faith, & receiued not the promises, but sawe them at farre off, and beleued them, and receiued them thankfull, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a countrey. 15 And if they had bene minded of that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned. 16 But nowe they desire a better, that is an heauynly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie. 17 By faith * Abraham offered by Isaac, when he was trieb, and he that had receiued the promises, offered his only begotten sonne. 18 (To whom it was said, * In Isaac shall thy seede be called) 19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sort. 20 By faith * Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things to come. 21 By faith * Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and leaning on the ende of his staffe, worshipped God. 22 By faith * Joseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gaue commandment of his bones. 23 By faith * Moses when he was boyne, was hid thre moneths of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child, neither feared they the Kings * crueltie. 24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter, 25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with þ people of God, then to enioy the pleasures pleasures of sinners for a season, 26 Establishing the rebuke of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

27 Who faith he forsooke Egypt, and feared not the fierceness of the King: for he endured, as he saved him which is invisible.
28 Through faith he obtained the * Passerover, and the effusion of blood, least hee that destroyed the first borne, should touch
them.

29 Who faith then * passed through the red sea as by dry land, which when the Egyptians had assayed to doe, they were drowned.

30 Who faith the * walled of Jericho fell downe after they were compassed about seven daies.

31 Who faith the harlot * Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when shee had received the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say: for the time would be too short for me to tell of * Gebe-on, of * Sarac, and of * Sampson, and of * Joseph, also of * David, & Hanniel, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued kings domes, wrought righteousness, obtained
the * promises, stopped the mouths of Angels,

34 Withstood the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weakes were made strong, waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 The * women received their dead raised to life: other also were racked, and would not be delivered, that they might receive a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tried by moenings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were beaten about, they were tempted, they were slaine with the sword, they wandered up and downe in sheepes skinner, and in goates skinner, being destitute, afflicted and tormented:

38 Whose the world was not worthy of:
they labored in wildernesses and moun-
taines, & deserts, and caues of the earth.

39 And these al through faith obtained good report, and received * not the promise.

40 God providing a better thing for vs,
that they * about vs should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to be patient and steadfast in tribulation and adversity, upon hope of everlasting rewards.

2 A commendation of the new Testament about the old.

3 Wherefore, * let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, cast away every thing that * presseth downe, & the time that hangeth so fast on us: let vs runne

in patience the race that is set before vs, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the hope that was set before him, endured * the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

4 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against sinners, lest ye should be wearied and faint in your mindes.

5 Who haue not yet resisted unto blood, striving against * sinne.

6 And ye haue forgotten the consolation,
which speaketh unto you as unto children, * By some, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

7 For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euerie sonne that he receiveth.

8 If ye endure chastening, God offereth him selfe unto you as unto sinners: for what sonne is it to whom the father chasteneth not?

9 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye balarders, and not * sinners.

10 Wherefore we haue had the fathers of our * bodies which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of * spirits, that we might liue?

11 For they verily for a few daies chastened us after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

12 Shew no chastising for the present seemeth to be painful, but grievous: but afterwarde, it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousnesse, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

13 Wherefore lift up your hands which hang downe, and your weak knees,

14 And make straight steps vnto your fete, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

15 Followe peace with all men, and ho-linesse, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

16 Take heed, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no * roote of bitter-nesse spring up and trouble you, lest there be many be defiled.

17 Let there be no fornication, or prophane person as * Clean, which for a portion of meats sold his birthright.

18 For ye knowe howe that afterwarde also when hee would haue inherited the blessing, he was reiect: for hee found no place to * repentance, though hee sought
the blessing with teares.

19 For ye are not come vnto the * mount that * might be touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknesse and darkness,
and tempest.

20 Neether vnto the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which they that heard it, excused them selves, & the word should not be spoken to them any more.

21 For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, * For though a beast touch the mountaine, it shall be slo-ned, or thrust thowto with a dart:

22 And so terrible was the sight which appeared,

c Which by reason of our conscience ashailed
vs on all sides.

24 And to Iesus the Mediatour of the new Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better things then that of Abel.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth vs vnto loue, 2 To hospitalitie, 3 To shunke open such as be in aduersitie, 4 To maintain welldoers, 5 To auoid conuersion, 6 To make much of them that preach Gods word, 7 To beware of strange teachings, 8 To be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 9 To be thankfull vnto God, 10 And obedient vnto our gouernours.

1 Let * brotherly loue continue.
2 Be not forgetful to lodge strangers: for thereby some haue receiued Angels into their houses vntwaires.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though ye were bound with them: and them that are in affliction, as if ye were also afflicted in the body.

4 Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will iudge.

5 Let your conuersation be without conuersion, & be content with those things that ye haue: for he hath sayde, * I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:

6 So that we may hold fast. * The Lord is mine helper, neither will I feare what man can do vnto me.

7 Remember them which haue the ouersight of you, which haue declared vnto

you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath bene the ende of their conuersation.

8 Iesus Christ: yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.

9 Be not caried about with diuers & strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be stablished in grace, and not with meates, which haue not profited them that haue bene occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar, wherof they haue no authoritie to eate, which serueth in the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest for sinne, are burnt without the campe.

12 Therefore euen Iesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproche.

14 For here haue we no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of praise alwayes to God, that is, the fruites of the lippes, which confesse his name.

16 To do good, & to distribute: for get not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must give accounts, that they may do it with joy, and not with griefe: for that is vnpiofitable for you.

18 What for ye: for we are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I beseech you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye so do, that I may be restored to you more quicklie.

20 The God of peace that brought againe from the dead our Lord Iesus, the great shephard of the sheepe, through the blood of the everlasting Coveniant,

21 Make you perfect in all good workes, to doe his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight, through Iesus Christ, to whome be praise for euer and euer, Amen.

22 I beseech you also brethren, suffer the words of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in fewe words.

23 Knowe that our brother Timotheus is detained with whome (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, and all the Saints. They of Italie salute you.

25 Grace be with you all, Amen.

The * generall Epistle of Iames.

THE ARGUMENT.

Iames the Apostle & sonne of Alphaeus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were converted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreies, and therefore he exhorted them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of an idle faith.

c He was, and shalbe the foundation of the Church for euer.

d Wherof the doctrine is not according to the simple truth of Gods word, is strange.

e By representing them which in persequition put difference betwixt meates, he condemneth all seruice which stood in ceremonies, comparing it with the spirituall worship, ping, and regeneration.

f They that stick to the ceremonies of the Law, cannot see, that is, can not be partakers of our altar, which is thanksgiving & libelity, which two sacrifices are offered onely left to the Christians.

g So that the Priests had no piece thereof.

h Thankfulness and doing good are our onely sacrifices which please God.

world.

Lawe, and yet sapiently in one poynt, he is gentle of all.

11 For he that said, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie, said also, * Thou shalt not kill. Now though thou doest none adulterie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressor of the Lawe.

12 So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shalbe iudged by the Lawe of libertie.

13 For there shalbe iudgement mercilesse to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie is reioyced against iudgement.

14 What availeth it, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith save him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be naked and deficient of daily food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart
in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding ye giue
them not those things which are needed
full to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes,
is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, * Thou hast
the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shew thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou believest that there is one God:
thou doest well: the devils also beleue it,
and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstande, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified
through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes? & through the workes
was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnes: & he was called the friend of God.

24 Seest thou then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when she had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes
is dead.

k Here deedes are considered as ioyned
with true faith.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee forbiddeth all ambition to seek honour about our brethren.

3 Hee describeth the properties of the tongue, 15. 16 And what difference there is betweene the wisdom of God, and the wisdom of the world.

My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we are sinners all. If any man sinne not in word, he is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Beholde, we put bittes into the horses mouths that they should obey vs, and we turne about all their body.

4 Beholde also the shippes, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winde, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whither soeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, howe great a thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a world of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birdes, and of creeping things, & things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an unruly euill, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bleste we God euen the Father, & therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at one place sweete water and bitter?

12 Can fig tree, my brethren, bring forth olines, either a vine fige: so can no fountain make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew by good conuersation his workes in meeknes of wisdome.

14 But if ye haue bitter envying, & strife in your heartes, reioyce not, neither be ye gladd against the truth.

15 This wisdome descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuillish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is sedition, and all manner of euill workes.

17 But the wisdome that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be entreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without sinning, and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruite of righteousness is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

CHAP. III.

and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske and receiue not, because ye aske amisse, that ye might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the amitie of the world is the enimitie of God? Whosoener therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh him selfe the enemye of God.

5 Doe ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

7 Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Beaue nere to God, and he will beaue nere to you. Cense your haibes, ye sinners, and purge your heartes, ye waering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and sorrow ye, and weepe: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your ioy into heinaines.

10 Cast downe your felices befoze the Lord, and he will lift you up.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Lawe, and condemneth the Lawe: and if thou condemnest the Lawe, thou art not an obseruer of the Lawe, but a iudge.

12 There is one Lawgiver, which is able to make, and to destroy. Whoso art thou that iudgeth another man?

13 Doe to now ye that say, To day or to morrow we will goe into such a citie, and continue there a pere, and buy and sell, and get gaine.

14 And yet ye can not tell what shal be to morrow. For what is your life? It is euen a vayour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterward vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, and, If we live, we will doe this or that.

4 Beholde, the hire of y labourers, which haue reaped your felices (which is of you kept backe by fraud) cryeth, & the cries of them which haue reaped, are entered into the eares of the Lord of hostes.

5 Ye haue lured in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse. Ye haue nourished your heartes, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the coming of the Lord. Beholde, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receiue the former, and the latter raine.

8 Ye also patient therefore and settle your heartes: for the coming of the Lord beaue nere.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the iudge standeth befoze the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, and of long patience, which haue spoken in the name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, we count them blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the patience of Job, and haue known what ende the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But befoze all thinges, my brethren, be carefull, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other order: but let your pea, be pea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merie? Let him sing.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoint him with oyle in the name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he haue committed sinnes, it shal be forgiven him.

16 Acknowledge your sinnes one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: for the prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it be sincere.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for thre yeres and thre monethes.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruite.

19 Whether, if any of you haue erred from the truth, and some man hath comerted him,

1. Rom. 17.1. eccles. 48.3.

July 4.23.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

He exhorte the faithfull to denie themselves, and to contemne the worlde, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reuelled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holiness of life. And to the intent this faith shoulde not faint, seeing Christ contemned and rejected almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorte them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After he treateth particular pointes, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselves. And because it is appointed for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shal haue, and contrarywise what punishment God referueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

3 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are dead, and reuocates to a lively hope, 7 And how faith must be tryed, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no secret, but a thing prophesied of old. 13 He exhorte them to a godly conuersation, in as much as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

9 Receruing the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophetes haue inquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that shoulde come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ i Their minde which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should followe.

12 Vnto whom it was intreated, that not vnto their selues, but vnto vs they things accom- should minister the things which are pleased which haue shewed vnto you by them which they proph- have preached vnto you the Gospel by the holie Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angles desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore, I giue by the hope of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lusts of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conuersation,

16 Because it is his will, that ye be holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call him Father, which is the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, according to the respect of person indged according to the name of the synecdoche of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the fathers,

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a laube undefiled, and without spot,

20 Which was offered before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the last times for your sakes,

21 Which by his wounds doe cleanse us from all iniquitie, that we shoulde present ourselues as vessels of honour, righteously, and without spot, unto God, that rapied him from the dead, and when he shal appeare, we shal be glorious with him in glory, that your faith a hope the Gospel was might preached.

a Which were Iewes to whom he was appointed to be an Apostle. b The free election of God is the efficient cause of our saluation, the material cause is Christes obedience, our effectual calling is the formall cause, and the final cause is our sanctification. c Or, vnto saluance. d Town, of Christ. e Therefore they ought to looke for no earthly kingdome of the Messias. f At the day of iudgement. g And neede doth so require, when it pleaseth God to lay his crosse vpon his, for to drawe them from earthly things and make them partakers of his heavenly graces. h At his second coming.

Enter an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwell here & there through out Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia & Bithynia, Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the Spirit, through the obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you. Blessed be God even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten us againe vnto a lively hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance immortall and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heauen for you, Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is purposed to be shewed in the last times: Wherein ye rescue, though now for a season (if neede require) ye are in heauines, through manifeste temptations. That the triall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perissheth (though it be tryed with fire) might be founde vnto your praise, and honour and glory at the appearing of Iesus Christ: Whome ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though ye see him not, yet do you beleue, and reioyce with ioy unspeakable and glorious.

might be in God.

22 Being your soules are prised in adoring the creneth through the spirit, to loue brotherly without fauour, loue one another with a pure heart feruently.

23 Being borne anew, not of mortall seede, but of a living fall, by the woide of God, who liueth and endureth for euer.

24 For all flesh is as grasse, and all the glorie of man is as the flower of grasse. The grasse withereth, and the flower fallet away.

25 But the woide of the Lord endureth for euer: and this is the woide which is preached among you.

C H A P. II.

1 He exhorteth them to lay aside all vice, 4 Showing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they build. 9 The excellent estate of the Christians. 12 He praiseth them to abstaine from fleshly lusts. 13 To obey the rulers. 18 Hope seruants should beate them selves towarde their masters. 20 He exhorteth to suffer after the ensample of Christ.

1 Wherefore, laying aside all malitious and angrie, and dissimulation, and enue, and all euill speaking,

2 As new borne babes desire the pure milke of the woide, that ye may grow thereby.

3 If so be that ye haue tasted howe sweete is the Lord is.

4 To whom ye come as vnto a liuing stone, disallowed of men, but chosen of God and precious.

5 And ye as liuely stones, be made a spiritually house, and holie: which ye offer by spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, Beholde, I put in Zion a chiefe corner stone, elect & precious: and he that belieueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Vnto you therefore which believe, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the same which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner.

8 And a stone to stumble at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which stumble at the woide being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordeined.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the ver-ties of him that hath called you out of darkenes into his maruelous light.

10 Which in time past were not a people, yet are now the people of God: which in time past were not under merite, but nowe haue obtained merite.

11 Dearlie beloued, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstaine from fleshly
lusts, which fight against the soule.

12 And haue pure conuersation honest as among the Gentiles, & they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your good woikes which they shall see, glorify the name of God.

13 Ho Sarra obeyed Abraham, and called him Lord: whose daughters were whiles

the God in the day of the visitation.

13 Submit your selves vnto all manner of ordinance of man for the Lordes sake, whether it be vnto the king, as vnto the superiour,

14 Vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men.

16 As free, and not as having the libertie for a cloke of malitiousnes, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: loue brotherly fellowship: feare God: honour the king.

18 Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the froward.

19 For this is thankeworthie, if a man for conscience toward God endure griefe suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faultes, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye do well, ye suffer wrong and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto ye are called: for Christ
also suffered for vs, leaving vs an ensample that ye should follow his steps.

22 Who did no sinne, neither was there
guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reviled, reuiled not again: when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteously.

24 Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes
in his bodie on the tree, that we being deliuered from iniquitie, should liue in righte-

1 Christ being from the beginning head and governor of his Church, came in the daies of Noe, not in bodie, which then he had not, but in spirit, and preached by the mouth of Noe for the space of 120. yeeres to the disobedient, which would not repent, and therefore are now in prison referred to the last iudgement.

7 * Likewise ye husbands, dwell with them as men of knowledge, giving honour unto the woman, as unto the weaker vessel, even as the church are heires together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not interrupted.

8 * Finally, be ye all of one minde: one suffer with another: loue as brethren: be pitifull: be courteous.

9 * Not rendering euill for euill, neither reuenge for reuenge: but contrariwise blessed, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should be heires of blessing.

10 * For if any man long after life, and to be good babes, let him refraine his tongue from euill, and his lips that they speake no guile.

11 * Let him eschewe euill, and doe good: let him seeke peace, and followe after it.

12 * For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lord is vpon them that doe euill.

13 * And who is it that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 * For which standing desired are ye, if ye suffer for righteousness sake. Ye are not their feare, neither be troubled.

15 * But sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready alwaies to giue an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you.

16 * And that with meeknesse & reverence, hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euill of you as of euill doers, they may be ashamed, which blame your good conversation in Christ.

17 * For it is better (if the will of God be so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 * For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, heust for the unist, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the spirit.

19 * Wherby he also went, & preached vnto the spirits that are in prison.

20 * Which were in time passed disobedient, when once the big suffering of God abode in the daies of Noe, while the arche was preparing, wherein fewe, that is, eight soules were saved in the water.

21 * To the which also the figure that now is set forth vs, even Baptisme agreeth (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but in that a good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

22 * Which is at the right hande of God, gone into heauen, to whom the Angels, and powers, and might are subject.

1 He exhorted men to cast from sinne, 2 To spend no more time in vice, 7 To be sober and apt to pray, 8 To loue each other, 12 To be patient in tribulation, 15 To beware that no man suffer as an euill doer, 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

1 Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arise your selues likewise with the same minde, which is that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne.

2 That he henceforth would shoulde live (as much time as remained in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 For it is sufficient for vs that we have spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lutes, drunkennesse, in gluttonie, biddings, and in abominable idolatries.

8 But above all things haue feruent loue among you: for loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye hardberous one to another, without grudging.

10 * Let euery man as he hath received the gift, minister the same one to another, as good dispensers of the manifold grace of God.

11 * If any man speake, let him talke as the wordes of God. If any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God hath bestowed on him, that God in all things may be fed of the glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom praise is praise & dominion for ever, and cur, Amen.

14 * If ye be railed vpon for the name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glorie is beuowed in you, and of God resteth vpon you: which many on their part is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thiefe, or an euill doer, or as a brawler in other mens matters.

John 8. 12.

f The fruites of our faith must declare whether we be ioyed in God or no: for God being the very pure and light, will not have fellowship with the which lie in sinne and darknesse. g In an euil conscience, & without the feare of God. h That is, Christ with vs, and we with our selues. Heb. 9. 14.

our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ. And these things write we vnto you, that your ioy may be full. This then is the message, which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God is light, & in him is no darknesse. If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darknesse, we lie, and doe not truly. But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship one with another, and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleareth vs from all sinne. If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and truth is not in vs. If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithful and iust, to forgive vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all unrighteousnesse. If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in vs.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for Iesus Chaires sake. 13 I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowne him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, young men, because ye haue overcome the wicked. 14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowne the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowne him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked. 15 Loue not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

g Henameth all the faithfull children, as he being their spiritual Father, contributing to olde men knowledge of great things, to young men strength, to children obedience and reverence to their gouernours. h For Christs sake. i Or, the deuil. i As it is aduersary to God. k To line in pleasure. l Wantonnesse. m Ambition & pride. n Which seemed to haue him of few number, because for a time they occupied a place in the Church. o The grace of the holy Ghost. p Which is deuil. q In this Epistle write vnto you. r He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the nature in Christ, or hee that confoundeth or separateth them, as hee that putteth not difference betwene the person of Iesus Sonne, and also he that beleueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his only sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messiah. s Then the insidels woollip not the true God. t Christ communicateth himselfe vnto you, & teacheth you by his name.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our Advocate. 10 Of true loue, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

a Christ is our only advocate and arconement for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together. b That is, of the which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages, degrees, and places: for there is no saluation without Christ. c That is, by faith and obedience: for knowledge can not be without obedience. d Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his worde. e When the Law was giuen. f Loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, is the olde commandment taught in the Law: but when Christ sayeth, So loue one another as I haue loued you, he giueth a new commandment only as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Chap. 1. 14.

1 M Babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust. 2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world. 3 And hereby we are sure that we knowe him, if we keepe his commandments. He that saith, I knowe him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 4 But he that keepeth his worde, in him is the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby we knowe that we are in him. 5 He that saith he remaineth in him, sought euen so to walke, as hee hath walked. 6 Wherein, I write no new commandment vnto you: but an olde commandment, which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde commandment is the worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning. 7 Again, a new commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darknesse is past, and the true light now shinerh. 8 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darknesse until this time. 9 He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is now occasion of euil in him. 10 But he that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither hee goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes. 11 But hee that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither hee goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 And the worde passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer. 13 Whoso, it is the last time, & as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists: whereby we knowe that it is the last time. 14 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But thus the Church cometh to passe, that it might appaere, that they are not all of vs. 15 But ye haue an spirit from him, & ye knowe all things. 16 I haue not written vnto you, because ye knowe not the truth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lie is of the truth. 17 Who is a lper, but hee that denieth that Iesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne. 18 Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father. 19 Let therefore abide in you the same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father. 20 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternal life. 21 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you. 22 But the anointing which ye received of him, dwelleth in you: and ye neede not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him. 23 And now, little children, abide in him, that when hee shall appaere, we may be bold, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. 24 If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe ye that hee which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

Wantonnesse. Ambition & pride. Which seemed to haue him of few number, because for a time they occupied a place in the Church. The grace of the holy Ghost. Which is deuil. In this Epistle write vnto you. He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the nature in Christ, or hee that confoundeth or separateth them, as hee that putteth not difference betwene the person of Iesus Sonne, and also he that beleueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his only sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messiah. 2 Behold, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we should be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

3 Dearer beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

4 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth him self, euen as he is pure. Whosoener committeth sinne, transgresseth also the lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the lawe.

5 And we knowe that he appeared that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoener abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoener sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the deuil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the sonne of God, that he might take the workes of the deuil.

9 Whosoener is bozne of God, sinneth not: for his sinne remaineth in him, neither can he sinne, because he is bozne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuil: whosoener doeth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that we heard from the beginning, that we should loue one another,

12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Sparuele not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoener hateth his brother, is a murderer: and we knowe that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Whereby haue we perceiued loue, that he lapde downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whosoener hath this worldes good, seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 Opp little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue only, but in deed and in truth.

19 For thereby we knowe that we are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God

is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse to ward God.

22 And whatsoener we aske, we receiue of him, because we keepe his commandments, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his commandement, That we beloue in the name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.

24 For he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, & he in him: and hereby we knowe that he abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which he hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowne from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbour.

1 Dearely beloued, beloue not euery spirit, but trie the spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world. Whereby shall we know the spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God. And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is from his Father not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whom we haue heard, holwe him our self, that he should come, and nowe already he is in the world.

2 Little children, the spirit of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

3 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

4 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Whereby knowe we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

5 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue is of God, and euery one that loveth, is bozne of God, and knoweth God.

6 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

7 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that we might liue through him.

8 Herin is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

9 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

10 No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

11 Whereby knowe we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his spirit.

12 And we haue seene, and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Saviour of the world.

13 Whosoener confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

14 And we haue knowen, and beloued the loue that God hath in vs. God is in vs, and we in God.

16 Iohn, and he that dwelleth in Iohn, dwelleth in God, and God in him.
17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnesse in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this world.
18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painefulnesse: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.
19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.
20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?
21 And this commandement haue we of him, that he which loueth God, should loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1. 10. 13 Of the fruits of faith. 14. 20. The office, authority & dominion of Christ. 21. Against images.
Whofoener belongeth that Iesus is the Christ, is a boyme of God, and euery one that loneth him which begeth, loneth him also which is begotten of him.
2 In this we knowe that we loue the children of God, when we loue God, and keepe his commandements.
3 For this is the loue of God that we keepe his commandements: and his commandements are not grievous.
4 For all that is boyme of God, overcometh the world: & this is the victrage that ouercometh the world, euen our faith.
5 Who is it that ouercometh the world, but he which belongeth that Iesus is the boyme of God?
6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by water: & blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the spirite, that beareth witness: for the spirite is a trueth.
7 For there are thise, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these thise are one.
8 And there are thise, which beare records in the earth, the spirite, and the water and the blood: and these thise agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he testified of his boyme.
10 Wee that belongeth in the boyme of God, hath the witness in him selfe: his Ioh. 1. 34. that belongeth not God, hath made him a liar, because he belongeth not the recorder, that God witnessed of his boyme.
11 And this is the recorder, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his boyme.
12 He that hath the boyme, hath life: and he that hath not the boyme of God, hath not life.
13 These things haue I writen vnto you, that belongeth in the boyme of the boyme of God, & ye may knowe that ye haue eternall life, and that ye may beleeue in the boyme of the boyme of God.
14 And this is the assurance, that we haue in him, that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.
15 And if we knowe that he heareth vs, whatsoener we aske, we knowe that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.
16 If any man loe his brother since a time, that is not vnto death, let him aske, and himselfe shall giue him life for them that loue to him, that he not vnto death. There is a sinne: vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest die: but that he sin not.
17 All vnrightheousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.
18 We knowe that whosoener is boyme of God, he sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, he keepeth himselfe, and the men generally, as of themselves, he is not touched by him not.
19 We knowe that the boyme of God, and the whole world, lieth in wickednesse.
20 But we knowe that the boyme of God is come, and hath giuen vs a minde to knowe him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, that is, in his boyme Iesus Christ: this came is verie God, and eternall life.
21 Wades, hepe your selues from idols, Amen.

The second Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certaine Ladie, & Reioycing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 VVarneth them to beware of such deceiues as deny that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to do with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Saviour.
He Elder to the elect Ladie, and her children, whome I loue in the trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen the trueth.
2 For the trueths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer.
3 Grace be with you, merrie and peace

from God the Father, and from the Ioy Iesus Christ the boyme of the Father, which is in the Father, and the Father in the boyme.
4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of the children walking in the trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the Father. And nowe desired I the, Ladie, (not as writing a newe commandement vnto the, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we loue one another.
5 And this is the loue, & we should walke after his commandements. This commandement is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.
6 For many deceiues are entred into the world, which confesse not Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

thou prosperest and faredest

3 For I reioiced greatly when the bies-

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceivers, which goe about to drawe away the heartes of the simple people from the truth of God, and willett them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally hee comfort-teth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

it was needefull for me to write vnto you which was <sup>a</sup> once given vnto <sup>b</sup> Saints.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these breemers also desile the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie. 9 Yet Michael the Archangel, when he stoune against the deuill, and disputed about the body of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. 10 But these speake euill of those things, which they know not: and whatsoever things they knowe naturally, as beastes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe be unto them: for they have sold the liue of Cain, & are cast away by the decret of Balaams wages, and perish in the ginslayings of Core. 12 These are spots in your feasts of charitye when they feast with you, without all feare, feeding themselves: cloudes they are without water, caried about of winde, corrupt trees, & without fruite, ruiue drab, & plucked up by the rootes. 13 They are the raging waues of the sea, forming out their owne shame: they are wandring starres, to whome is reserved the blacknes of darkness for euer. 14 And Enoch also the seuenth from Adam, prophesied of such, saying, 1. ## The Reuelation of Iohn the Diuine.

THE ARGUMENT.

It is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Hercin therefore is liuely set forth the Diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reprobeth: the providence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witness to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power stretcheth no farther then to the hug of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist and strumpet, vnder colour of faire speech and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduerteth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoyd this harlots flatteries, and braggies, whose ruine without mercie they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continual praises: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vnited, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrarywise the faithfull (which are the holy cite of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

8 I know thy workes: behold, I haue set before thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which cal themselves Jewes and are not, but doe lie: behold, I say, I will make them, that they shall come and worship before thy feet, and shall know that I haue loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the hour of temptation, which will come vpon all the worlde, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the manne of God. 2 He seeth the throne, and one sitting vpon it, 3 And 24. Elders about it with 24. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes praising God day and night.

1 After this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come up hither, & I will shewe thee things which must be done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was rauished in the spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

3 And he that sat, was to looke vpon, like vnto a Jasper stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainbowe rounde about the throne in sight like to an Emeraude.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundings, and voeces, and there were seuen lampes of fire, burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto a crystal: & in the midst of the throne, & round about the throne were foure beastes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the foure beastes had eche one of them sixe wings about him, & they were full of eyes within, and they cried not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almightie, which was, and which is, and which is to come.

9 And when those beastes gaue gloire, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which liueth for euer & euer.

10 The foure & twentie Elders fel downe before him that sat on the throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euer & euer, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8. 14. And therefore the foure beastes, the 24. elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worshippe,
9 for their redemption and other benefites.

1 And I sawe in the right hand of him that sate upon the thron, a booke
written within, and on the backside, sealed with 7 seuen seales.

2 And I saw a strong Angel, which preached with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to looke the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth,
neither vnder the earth, was able to open
the booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade
the booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the elders sayde vnto me, Weepe not: behold, the * Lambe which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the booke, and to looke the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I behelde, and lo, in the middes of the thron, and of the foure beastes, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a Lambe, as though he had bene killed,
which had 7 seuen hoines, and 7 seuen eyes, which are the seuen Spirits of God,
sent into all the world.

7 And he came and tooke the booke out of the right hande of him that sate upon the thron.

8 And when he had taken the booke, the
foure beastes, and the foure and twentie Elders, fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vibrals full of odours, which are the * prayers of the Saints,

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the booke, & to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast * redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kindred, & tongue,
and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God
Kings and Priests, and we shal' reigne
on the earth.

11 Then I behelde, and I heard the voice of many Angels rounde about the thron,
and about the beastes and the Elders,
and there were * thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the * Lambe that was killed, to receive power and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glorie, and praise.

13 And all the creatures which are in hea-
uen, and on the earth, & vnder the earth,
and in the sea, and all that are in them,
heard I, saying, Praise and honour, and glorie, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the thron, & vnto the Lambe
for euermore.

14 And the foure beastes said, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fel downe,

and worshipped him that liueth for euer-
more.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the first seale, and many things followe the opening thereof, so that thou containest a general prophesie to the ende of the world.

After, I behelde when the Lambe had opened one of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say,
as it were the * noise of thundr, Come
and see.

2 Therefore I behelde, and loe, there was a white horse, and he that sate on him,
had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen
vnto him, and he went forth conquering that he might overcome.

3 And when he had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come
and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was * red, and power was giuen to him that sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him
a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seale,
I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I behelde, & lo, a blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the middes of the foure beastes say, A * measure of wheat for a * penny, and thre measures of barley for a penny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a * pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and * Hell folowed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, & with dearth,
and with the beastes of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the 5th seale,
I sawe vnder the altar = the soules of them, that were killed for the woide of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loud voice, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true! dost not thou indge and auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto
euery one, and it was said vnto them,
that they should rest for a little season vntill their fellowe seruants, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixt seale, & loe, there was a great earthquake, and the summe was as blacke as sackcloth of beare, and the * moon was like blood.

CHAP. VII.

4-9 Hee seeth the seruants of God sealed in their fore-heads out of all nations and people, 15 Which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe sheweth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water, 17 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

1 And after that, I sawe foure Angels stande on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure 4 windes of the earth, that the windes shoulde not blowe on the earth, neither on the sea,
neither on any tree.

2 And I sawe another Angel come by from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loude
voys to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea, Saying, Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till we haue sealed the seruants of our God in their fore-heads.

3 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred & foure and foure thousande
of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

4 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue

7 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stoode before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

8 Then another Angel came and stood be-

he offered the prayers of the saints, and

9 After these things I behelde, and loe,
a great multitude, which no man coulde number, of all nations and kindes, and people, and tongues, stood before the thron, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their handes.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Saluation cometh of our God, that sitteth vpon the thron, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about and to none
the thron, and about the 12 Tribes, and the other thing.

12 Saying, Amen. Blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might, be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arrayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest.
And he saide vnto me, These are they,
which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the thron, of God, and serue him day and night in his Temple, and he that sitteth
on the thron, will dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the Lambe, which is in the midst of the thron, shall gouerne them, & shall leade them vnto the 12 Tribes, and the other thing.

18 And he shall wipe away all
teares from their eyes.

fore the altar, hauing a golden censer, and
he offered the prayers of the saints, and
he put fire in the censer, and he cast it into the altar, and there was silence in d He meaneth by fire the grace of God whereby we are purged & made cleane, Isa. 6. 6.

e He powreth the graces of the holy Ghost into the hearts of the faithfull.

f When this grace is declared, marvellous rebellions arise against it by reason of the wicked, which can neither abide to have their sinnes touched, nor mercie offered.

p That is, of the Church. q Of the ministers and teachers, which have not taught as they ought to doe. r These are plagues for the contempt of the Gospel. s Horrible threatenings against the infidels and rebellious persons.

much odours was given unto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saines upon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saines, went up before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seven Angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared their selues to blowe the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile & fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grass was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, & had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the rivers, and into the fountains of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moon, & the third part of the stars, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I behelde, and heard one Angel flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first and second Angel blew their trumpets: the starre fell out of heauen. 2 The locusts came out of the smoke. 3 The first woe is past. 4 The fourth Angel that was bound, was loosed. 5 And the third part of men is killed.

a That is, the shops & ministers, which forsake the worde of God, & so fall out of heauen, and become angels of darkness.

2 And the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a starre which was fallen from heauen unto the earth, and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth, and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. And to them was commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

5 Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not finde it, and they shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

6 And the fogge of the locusts was like unto bayes prepared unto battell, and on their heads were as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

7 And they had heard of the voice of men, and their tails were as the tails of lions.

8 And they had habbergions, like to habbergions of pyon: and the sound of their wings was like the sound of charmes when many horses runne unto battell.

9 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails, and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

10 And they had heard of the voice of men, and their tails were as the tails of lions.

17 And thus I saw the hoyses in a vision, and then they sat on them, hauing scerp habbergions, and of Jacinth, & of hyacinth, & the heads of the hoyses were as the heads of lions: & out of their mouthes went forth fire and smoke & brimstone.
18 ¶ These three was the third part of men killed, chace, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone which came out of their mouthes.
19 ¶ For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tailles: for their tailles were like unto serpents, & had heads, wherewith they hurt.

1 The Angel had the booke open. & Has f seuereth there shalbe no more time. g Has giue the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it up.
A And I sawe another mightie Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloude, and the raiment of his face was as the raiment of fire.

¶ And the Angel which I saw stand vpon the sea & vpon the earth, lift by his hand to heauen,

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe and said, Go and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the f Angel, which standeth vpon the sea and vpon the earth.
9 So I went vnto the Angel, and sayd to him, Giue me f little booke. And he said vnto me, Take it, and eate it by, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shal be in thy mouth as f sweete as honie.
10 ¶ Then I took the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it by, and it was in my mouth as f sweete as honie: but must receiue when I had eate it, my belly was bitter.

a Which signifieth f the ministers ought to receiue f word into their hearts, & to haue graue & deepe iudgement, & diligently to studie it, and with seale to vetter it. b Signifying that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shall he haue sore and grievous enemies, which shall be troublesome vnto him. c Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nationes.

3 ¶ But I will giue power vnto my f two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a parts: the body of the Temple which is called the count, whereinto euery man entred: the holy places where the Lewites went: and the holiest of all, wherinto the high Priest once a yeere entered: in respect therefore of these two latter, the first is said to be cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected when the Temple is measured, and yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the Temple, & that none are of f Temple, but they.

c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning, a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichrists tyrannie. e By two witnesses he meaneth all the preachers that should build vnto Gods Church, alluding to Zorubabel and Iehoshua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also so saying, in the mouth of two witnesses standeth euery word.

15 And the seventh Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The kingdomes of this world are our Lordes, and his Christes, and he shall reigne for evermore.

1 There appeared in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 2 Michael fought with the Dragon, which persecuted the woman. 3 The victorie is gotten to the comfort of the faithful.

1 And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: a woman clothed with the sunne, and the moone was vnder her feet, and vpon her head a crowne of twelve starres.

2 And she was with childe, and cried travaunting in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great red dragon having seven heades, and ten hornes, and seven crownes vpon his head:

4 And his taile swayed the third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when she should bring forth.

5 So she brought forth a man childe, which should ride all nations with a feth God and rod of yron: and her sonne was taken him.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there should feede her there a time, and two times, and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, Michael and his Angles fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his Angles.

8 But they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heauen.

9 And the great dragon, that olde serpent, which was called the deuill and Satan, was cast out, with fury, and blood with the blood of the faithful.

cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loud voice, saying, Now is salvation in heaven, & strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they overcame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their liues unto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell therein. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuil is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man child.

14 But to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might flee into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to be caried away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make warre with the remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandments of God, and haue the testimony of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

1. The beast deuieth the reprobate, 2. 4. 12. And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The promise of the beastes markes.

1 And I sawe a beast rise out of the sea, hauing seven heads, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and vpon his heades the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a leopard, and his feet like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power and his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, & they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giue vnto him a mouth, that spake great things & blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe two and fourtie moneths.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them, and power was giuen him over euery kindred & tongue, & nation, over the earth.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of the Lamb, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, he shall goe into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: o They which here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I behelde another beast coming by out of the earth, which had two hornes like the Lambe, but he spake like the dragon.

12 And he did all that the first beast could doe before him, and he caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men.

14 And he decciued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wounde of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should speake, & should cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

f By whoredome: & vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other:

but this is chiefly meant of idolatrie, which is the spiritual whoredome.

17 And that no man might buy, or sell, saue he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his name is six hundred, thre score and six.

19 And I looked, and loe, a lambe stood on mount Zion, and with him an hundred and fourtie & foure thousand, having his fathers name written in their foreheads.

20 And I heard a voice from heauen, as if sound of many waters, & as the found of a great thunder: & I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harpes.

21 And they sing as it were a new song before the throne, & before the foure beasts, and the Elders, & no man could learne that song, but the hundred, & fourtie & foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

22 These are they, which are not defiled with women: for they are virgins: these follow the Lambe whither soeuer he goeth: these are bought from men, being the first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

23 And in their mouthes was founde no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

24 Then I sawe another Angel fle in the middes of heauen, hauing an euangelist Gospel, to preach vnto them, that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people.

25 Saying with a loud voice, I feare God, & giue glory to him: for the hour of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

26 And there followed an other Angel, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie: for she made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

27 And the third Angel folowed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

28 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, pea, of the pure wine, which is poured into the cuppe of his wrath, and he shall be tormented in fire and bynstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

29 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the print of his name.

30 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keepe the commandments of God, and the faith of Iesus.

8 The beast that thou hast seen, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisdom, The seven heads are seven mountaynes, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seven Kings.

10 Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eight, and is one of the seven, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten Kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdom, but shall receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 These haue one minde, and shall giue their power, & authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of Lordes, and King of Kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to do with one consent the things which are written in the booke of this prophecy.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the Kings of the earth.

3 For all nations have drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, & the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers in her sinnes, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are come vnto heauen, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Rewarde her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and give her double according to her woyles: and in the cuppe that the hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as she glorified her selfe, & lived in pleasure, so much give ye to her torment and sorow: for she saith in her heart, I sit being a Queene, and am no widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

9 And the kings of the earth shall bewaile her, & lament for her, which have committed fornication, and lived in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 And shall stande a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy indgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weepe and waille over her: for no man buyeth her ware any moze.

12 The ware of golde & silver, and of precious stones, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of charke, & of all manner of Cygne wood, and of all besties of puzie, and of all besties of most precious wood, & of hyale, and of yvon, and of marble.

13 And of cinnamon, and odour, and spintments, and frankincense, and wine, and ople, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheepe, and buyles, and charrets, and seruants, and soules of men.

14 And the apples that thy soules lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no moze.

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stande a farre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing.

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and charke, and guilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, & all the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoever traualle on the sea, shall stand a farre off.

18 And crye, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast bull on their heads, and crye weeping, and wailing, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had shippes on the sea by her costliness: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mightie Angel tooke by a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, and shall be founde no moze.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musickers, and of pipers, & trumpeters shall be heard no moze in thee, and no crafter man, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any moze in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no moze in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no moze in thee: and the voyce of the brides groine and of the bride shall be heard no moze in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth: & with thine enchantments were deceived all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praise is giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for awaying the blood of his seruants.

2 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

3 And after these things I hearde a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, Wallelu-iah, saluacion, and gloie, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

4 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which had corrupted the earth with her fornication, and hath awayed the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

5 And againe they said, Wallelu-iah: and her smoke rose vnto the eternities.

6 And the foure and twentie Elders, and the foure beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sat on the thron, saying, Amen, Wallelu-iah.

7 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both final & great.

8 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, & as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundings, saying, Wallelu-iah: for our Lord God almighty hath reigned.

9 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and give gloie to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made herselfe readie.

10 And to her was granted, that she should be arrayed with pure fine linen and this thing: for the fine linen is the righteousness of Saints.

11 And I saue beauen open, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat vpon him, was called, Faithfull and true, and he indgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire,
and on his head were many crownes:
and he had a name written, that no man
knoweth but himselfe.

13 And he was clothed with a garment dyed in blood, and his name is called,
THE WORD OF GOD.

14 And the warriors which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses,
clothed with fine linen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword, that with it he shoulde
smite the heathen: for he shall rule them with a rod of yron: for he is that tresserth the wine presse of the fiercerme and wrath of almightie God.

16 And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh a name written, THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an Angel stand in the summe, who cried with a loude voyce, saying to all the foules that did flie by the mids of heauen, Come, and gather you selues together vnto the supper of a great God,

18 That ye may eate the flesh of kings, and the flesh of his Captaynes, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of day-es, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all freemen and bondmen, and of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the things of the earth, and their warriors gathered together to make battell against him,
that sat on the horse, and against his soldiers.

20 But the beast was taken, and with him that false prophete that wrought
miracles before him, whereby he decei-ued them that receiued his beastes marke,
and them that worshipped his image.
These both were alive cast into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which commeth out of his mouth, & all
the foules were killed ful with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan being bound for a certain time, 7 And after let loose, vexeth the Church generally. 10. 14
And after the world is iudged, he and his angels
into the lake of fire.

1 And I saw an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chayne in his hand.

2 And heooke the dragon that orde serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him a thousand peres,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon
him, that he shoulde deceiue the people no more, till the thousand peres were fulfilled: for after that he must be loosed for a little season.

4 And I saw seates: and they sat vpon
them, and indgement was giuen vnto them, and I saw the soules of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the worde of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image,

5 And the rest of the dead men shall not liue againe, until the thousand peres be finished: this is the first resurrection. c
That is, from the first resurrection: for on such a second death hath no power: but they shall be the witnesses of God, and of Christ, and the second: so shall reigne with him a thousand peres.

7 And when the thousand peres are expired, Satan shal be loosed out of his prison, and he shall goe out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went vnto the plaine of the earth, which compasseth the tentes of the saints about, and the beloued cite: but they came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the deuill deceived them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where he shall be tormented euery day & night
for euermore.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and one that sat on it, from whose face sheweth death: and their place was no more found.

12 And I saw the dead, both great and small stand before God: and they were Iudged by the bookes which were written
in them.

13 And the deuill was cast into the lake
of fire, and the beast, and the false
prophete, and they were tormented
euery day & night for euermore.

14 And I saw the dead, both great and
small stand before God: and they were Iudged by the bookes which were written
in them.

15 And the deuill was cast into the lake
of fire, and the beast, and the false
prophete, and they were tormented
euery day & night for euermore.

16 And I saw the dead, both great and
small stand before God: and they were Iudged by the bookes which were written
in them.

17 And the deuill was cast into the lake
of fire, and the beast, and the false
prophete, and they were tormented
euery day & night for euermore.

18 And I saw the dead, both great and
small stand before God: and they were Iudged by the bookes which were written
in them.

19 And the deuill was cast into the lake
of fire, and the beast, and the false

toore opene, and another booke was opened, which is the booke of life, and the dead were judged of those things, which were written in the bookes, according to their woyses.

23 And the sea gave up her dead, which were in her, and death and hell delivered up the dead, which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their woyses.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the booke of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXII.

24 The blessed state of the godly. 25 And the miserable condition of the wicked. 26 The description of the heavenly Jerusalem, and of the wife of the Lambe.

1 And I saw a new heaven, & a new earth: for the first heaven, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy citie newe Jerusalem, came downe from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride trimmed
for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them:
and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and shall be with them.

4 And God shall wipe away all teares
from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sat upon the throne, sayde, Behold, I make all things newe: and he said unto me, Write: for these woyses are faithful and true.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning & the ende, I will give to him that is thirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh, shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my people.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake, which burneth with fire and burning stone, which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven Angels, which had the seven vialles full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come, I will shewe thee the bride, the Lambe's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

11 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

12 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

13 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

14 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

15 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

16 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

17 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

18 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

19 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

20 And he carried me away in the spirit to
a great & an high mountaine, and he shew-
ed me the great citie, holy Jerusalem,
descending out of heaven from God.

21 Having the glory of God: and her glo-ring was like unto a stone most precious,
as a Jasper stone cleare as crystal.

22 And had a great wall and his, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve Angels, and the names written, which are the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

23 On the East part there were three gates, and on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates, and on the North side three gates.

24 And the wall of the citie had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve Apostles.

25 And he that talked with me, had a gold-den reede to measure the citie withal, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

26 And the citie lay square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it,
and he measured the citie with the reede,
twelve thousand furlongs: and the length,
and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

27 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundredth, fourtie and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

28 And the building of the wall of it was of Jasper: and the citie was pure golde like unto cleare glasse.

29 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Jasper: the second of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

30 The fifth of a Sardius: the sixth of a Smaragdus: the seventh of a Chrysolite:
the eighth of a Beryll: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Hyacinth: the eleventh of a Jacinth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

31 And the twelve gates were twelve pearles, and every gate is of one pearle, and the streets of the citie is pure golde, as shining glasse.

32 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God almighty and the Lambe are the Temple of it.

33 And the citie hath no walles of the summe, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God bid light it: and the Lambe
is the light of it.

34 And the people which are saved, shall walke in the light of it: and the Kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour into it.

35 And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

36 And the glory, and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought into it.

37 And there shall enter into it none uncleane thing, neither whatsoever woeketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes booke of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The fruitfulness & light of the citie of God. 3 The Lords gentle care his servants warning of things to come. 4 The Angel will not be worshipped. 5 To the word of God
may nothing be added nor diminished therefrom.

1 And

m Ever green

the faithful shall be surely kept in heaven.

o That is, place
enough to enter
for els we know
there is but one
way & one gate,
and Iesus Christ.

p For the Apostles were means whereby Iesus Christ the true foundation was revelled to the worlde.

q This declareth
that Christ is God inseparable
with his Father.

r Here we see as
in infinite other places, Kings
and princes (contrary to that wicked opinion
of the Anabaptists) are parta-
ckers of the heavenly glory, if they rule in the fear of the Lorde.

Chap. 19. 10.
f Nowe this is the second time
that he suffered himself to be caried away with the excellencie
of the person:
which is to admonish vs of our infirmitie and readinesse to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his Spirit. g This is not then as the other prophecies which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12.4. because that these things shoulde be quickly accomplished, and did nowe begin.

And he shewed me a pure & riner of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb.

In the mids of the streets of it, and
of either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bare fruites in manner of fruites, and gave fruites euery moneth: and the leaves of the tree serued to heale the nations with.

And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

And they shall see his face, and his name
shall be in their foreheads.

And there shall be no night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the sunne: for the Lord God giveth them
light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

And he sayd vnto me, These wordes are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophetes sent his Angell to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

And I am Iohn, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard and saw, I fell downe to worship before the feet of the Angell, which shewed me
these things.

But he sayde vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellowe seruant, and of thy brethren the prophetes, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke:
worship God.

And he sayde vnto me, & seale not the
wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for
the time is at hand.

He that is unjust, let him be unjust still:

and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still:
and he which is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

And he which is filthy, let him be filthy
still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

And behold, I come shortly, and my rewards is with me, to geue euery man according as his worke shall be.

I am Alpha & Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Blessed are they that doe his commandments, that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the citie.

For without shall be dogges and enchanters, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth or maketh a lie.

Iesus haue sent mine Angell, to testi-
fie vnto you these things in the churches:
I am the roote and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come.
And let him that heareth, say, Come.
And let him that is athirst, come: and let him that will, take of the water of life freely.

For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this booke.

And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy citie,
and from those things which are written
in this booke.

He which testifieth these things, sayeth,
Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Come, ye which are thirsty, and desire the water of life, and out of the tree of life, and out of the holy citie,
and from those things which are written
in this booke.

And he sayde vnto me, & seale not the
wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for
the time is at hand.

He that is unjust, let him be unjust still:
and he which is filthy, let him be filthy
still: and he which is righteous, let him
be righteous still: and he that is holy,
let him be holy still.

And he sayde vnto me, & seale not the
wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for
the time is at hand.

He that is unjust, let him be unjust still:
and he which is filthy, let him be filthy
still: and he which is righteous, let him
be righteous still: and he that is holy,
let him be holy still.
